DUBLIN UNIVERSITY ALMANAC

FOR MDCCCC.

EXPLANATION OF ALMANAC.

The Almanac gives the days on which the various Examinations commence. The Examinations specially connected with the Arts Course are printed in heavy type, those belonging to the Professional Schools in ordinary type.

Where required, the following abbreviations are used—S. S., J. S., S. F., and J. F. for Senior and Junior Sophisters and Freshmen respectively, Suppl. for Supplemental Examination, Modp. for Moderatorship, and Mod. for Modern; the other abbreviations explain themselves. There are no Tutorial Lectures in Arts on days marked thus (†) in the Almanac. There may, however, be Professorial Lectures in the Professional Schools.

The Premises of the Society consist of a Reading Room, a Conversation Room, a Writing Room, a Lending Library, and Lavatory. The Society also possesses over two hundred boxes for Academicals.

The Writing Room is furnished with Stationery, and contains a series of the College Calendars and Examination Papers.

The Reading Room is supplied with the Dublin and London daily papers, and all the principal reviews, magazines, and other periodicals, including the chief professional, educational, and sporting publications.

The opening Meeting of the Session is usually held in November. Ordinary Meetings take place in the New Examination Hall, over the Front Entrance, every Thursday Evening, from November to June, when Papers are read and discussed by Members.

A Gold and a Silver Medal are annually offered in Composition; a Gold and a Silver Medal in Oratory; and a Silver Medal in Æsthetics.

The object of the Association is the encouragement of investigation in all branches of Experimental Science.

General Meetings are held at least once each month during Term, for reading Papers and exhibiting Experiments, in the New Buildings, Trinity College, Dublin. The Chair is taken at 8 p.m., tea being provided by the Association at 7.30 p.m. Members have the privilege of bringing one guest to each General Meeting. A Medal in Photography is awarded annually at the close of each Session, the Rules and Conditions of which may be had on application to either of the Secretaries.

All Graduates as well as Undergraduates of the University are eligible for Membership. The Annual Subscription is Five Shillings. No Entrance Fee. Further information may be obtained on application to any of the Officers.

This Association and the Biological Sc. Association jointly possess a fine Electric Lantern and Projecting Microscope (obtained at a cost of about £150, which was defrayed by private subscription aided by a College Grant). Lantern Exhibitions, open to all Students of Trinity College, are held at short intervals during Term. They commence at 8 o'clock.

The object of the Association is the encouragement of the study of Church Music among Students, especially among Divinity Students, that they may be able hereafter to take an intelligent interest in the Music of their Parish Churches.

The services of Mr. Charles Marchant, Mus. Bac., Organist of the College Chapel and of St. Patrick's Cathedral, have been secured, to give instruction in part-singing to the Members on two days in each week (Monday at 2.45 p.m., and Wednesday at 11). During Michaelmas and Hilary Lecture Terms there is Choral Evensong in the College Chapel on Wednesdays at 5 o'clock, at which the Members of the Association form the Choir.

This Paper is issued to call the attention of Students to the advantages to be derived from Membership.

INDIAN AND HOME CIVIL SERVICE SCHOOL.

The Board of Trinity College have established a Course of Instruction in the subjects of the First Examination (Open Competition) for the Indian Civil Service, and of the Examination for the First Class of the Home Civil Service. This Course will consist of Lectures delivered during the three Academical Terms (7 weeks in Michaelmas Term, 10 weeks in Hilary Term, 10 weeks in Trinity Term).

The subjects in which Lectures will be delivered are—

(1) Ancient History.
(2) Modern History.
(3) English Literature and Composition.
(4) Political Economy and Political Science.
(5) Roman Law.

In each of the above subjects two Lectures will be delivered per week.

At the beginning of Hilary and Trinity Terms the Lecturers will hold an Examination in the business done during the preceding Term, and reserve to themselves the right to exclude from the class, during the ensuing Term, any Student who fails signally.

These Classes will be open to all Students whose names are on the College books, on payment to the Junior Bursar of a Fee of Five Guineas for the whole Course of three Terms. This Fee must be paid whether the Student attends the Lectures in one or in all the subjects, and in one or in all the Terms; and it must be paid prior to the attendance at any Class. No Student whose March College Fee remains unpaid on the first Saturday in May will be permitted to continue attending the Classes during Trinity Term.

On December 14, 1895, the Board resolved that any Student who has attended not less than forty-five Lectures of the Indian and Home Civil Service School in any Term should be allowed credit for that Term of Arts Lectures, but that in no case should such attendance exempt the Student from the necessity of passing a Term Examination in each year.

Students wishing to join this School are requested to communicate with Dr. L. C. Purser, 24, Trinity College, Dublin, who will also supply any further information which may be required.

CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

On the 13th October, 1877, a communication was received by the Provost and Senior Fellows from the Secretary of State for India, stating that Trinity College had been placed on the list of the Institutions in which Selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India will be permitted to reside during their year of "Probation."

The Regulations respecting the competition in next August are not yet published, but the following extracts, taken from the rules relating to the 1892 competition, will give some idea of the competition:—

SYLLABUS SHOWING THE EXTENT OF EXAMINATION IN CERTAIN SUBJECTS AT THE OPEN COMPETITION FOR ADMISSION INTO THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE IN 1892.

"The Regulations governing the Open Competition for admission into the Indian Civil Service have been framed with a view to the principle regarded by Lord Macaulay's Committee, in 1854, as essential, viz., that the object of the Competition should be to secure for the Indian Civil Service officers who 'have received the best, the most liberal, the most finished education that their native country affords.' The scheme of examination has accordingly been made to embrace most of the subjects of the Honour Schools in the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland. In administering the scheme, the Civil Service Commissioners, concurring with Lord Macaulay's Committee in the opinion 'that no Candidate who may fail should, to whatever calling he may betake himself, have any reason to regret the time and labour which he has spent in preparing himself to be examined,' desire to avoid all disturbance of the general course of University studies, and to render it possible, with due regard for the principle of Open Competition, for those who have graduated with honours at the Universities, to attend the examination for the Indian Civil Service with good prospects of success. The appended Syllabus shows in outline the intentions of the Commissioners with regard to the extent and character of the examination in those subjects which seem to require further definition. The scope of the examination in the subjects not mentioned in the Syllabus is sufficiently defined in the scheme published in the Regulations themselves. The Examiners will be instructed to keep the standard in each subject up to the level of the highest course of study pursued in the Universities."

The admission fee for the Examination is £5. Candidates are re-examined before proceeding to India.

The limits of age are that the Candidate must be between 21 and 23 on the 1st day of April in the year of the Competition.

A Syllabus of subjects to be examined is published by the Civil Service Commissioners in the "Open Competition for the Civil Service of India," price 1*s*., which contains Regulations, Examination Papers, Table of Marks, Statistics, and Instructions to Candidates. It can be procured from the publishers, Eyre and Spottiswoode, London, or Hodges, Figgis, and Co. (Ltd.), Dublin.

UNIVERSITY LECTURES IN ORIENTAL LANGUAGES FOR SELECTED CANDIDATES FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

Arrangements have been made enabling selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India to complete their studies in Oriental Languages with the aid of Special Lectures given by Professors of the University.

The Lectures in Indian Languages will be arranged so as to secure to the Candidates their choice of any three Languages, including Sanskrit, Bengali, Mahratti, Hindi, Hindustani; Persian; Arabic; Tamil, Telugu; and Burmese.

Candidates will be required to elect at the beginning of the Term the Languages in which they wish to be prepared.

Three Lectures in each Language will be given weekly during each of the three Terms of the year, except in Sanskrit and Arabic, in each of which five Lectures weekly will be provided.

Sophisters having credit for full attendance on two of these special courses of Lectures can claim professional privileges, see under "Course in Arts."

Candidates intending to reside at Dublin are requested to communicate with Professor ATKINSON, who will supply any information that may be required.

LIST OF SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES AT EXAMINATION FOR CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

COMMISSIONS IN THE ARMY.

Advantages which Members of the University of Dublin possess, under the Army Orders, in respect of admission to Commissions in the Army.

The limits of age for ordinary Candidates for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, being from seventeen to twenty, Students of the University of Dublin, who have passed the Final Examination of the Senior Freshman year, or the Final Examination of the School of Engineering, can be Candidates for Commissions in the Army if they are under twenty-two years of age, and Bachelors of Arts can be Candidates if they are under twenty-three years of age, on the dates specified below.

"I. A Graduate or Student of one of the specified Universities, who, having obtained his University qualification while within the required limit of age, is desirous of becoming a Candidate for a Commission in the Army must send an application to the Military Secretary in the month of May or October, with a view to his appointment under the provisions of paragraphs 18 and 19; but no such application can be admitted before the Candidate has actually attained the age of 17, nor later than the 15th of May or 15th October preceding the date of his attaining the maximum limits of age prescribed for Graduates and Students, respectively. The application must be accompanied by certificates of age and moral character, and by a certificate from the proper authority that the Candidate has passed the required University Examination. All University Candidates will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of their proficiency in geometrical drawing.

"II. Notice will be given, from time to time, of the number of vacancies which will be allotted half yearly to University Candidates. In case there should be more Candidates than vacancies, the required number will be selected by competition among the said Candidates at the ensuing July or December Examination for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, provided they shall have qualified in geometrical drawing.

"III. University Candidates who may have been unsuccessful at their first examination, will be allowed a second opportunity of competing, provided that 'Students' shall not have exceeded their twenty-second year, and that 'Graduates' shall not have exceeded their twenty-third year, at the time of such second examination. These limits of age will be ruled by the 1st July for the summer, and by the 1st December for the winter examinations."

A Candidate certified by the head of his College to be also a Candidate for Honors of his University, will be permitted to postpone the production of his Certificate of having passed for the B.A. Degree until three months after the commencement of the Army Literary Examination, on the condition that he is within the limits of age at the time of the Examination, and that if the Certificate is not produced, such examination will be cancelled.

A University Candidate, on passing the above-mentioned Examinations is not required to join the Royal Military College as heretofore, but must, unless he already holds a Commission in the Militia or Volunteer Force, be attached as a Supernumerary Officer to one or other of these Services for the purpose of learning his drill, and will be required to obtain a Certificate signed by the Commanding Officer and the Adjutant of the Corps to which he belongs or is attached, stating whether he is generally fitted for a Commission.

Successful Candidates will also be required—

(a) To attend a school of instruction, and obtain the certificate of proficiency (Army Form E 511).

(b) To qualify in the military subjects at the Examinations held for Militia Officers in March and September. The number of trials allowed for this Examination will not exceed two, and the second trial must not be later than the third Militia Examination after the Candidate passes the Literary Examination.

To obtain the Certificate (a) Candidates will be required to remain under instruction for not less than one month. They will be allowed to remain under instruction for a further period of one month if the requirements of the Service permit.

The subjects of the Military Examination (b) and the maximum number of marks obtainable in each subject will be as follows:—

1. Fortification,	600
2. Military Topography,	600
3. The Elements of Tactics,	600
4. Military Law,	600

A Candidate will be required to obtain one-third of the marks in each subject and half of the aggregate.

Militia Candidates and Queen's Cadets.

Militia Subalterns and Queen's Cadets desirous of competing for Commissions in the Army will be exempted from all Qualifying Examinations in Literary subjects, except Geometrical Drawing, if they can produce Certificate from the authorities of Trinity College, Dublin, that they have passed the Final Examination of the Senior Freshman Year ("the Littlego") or the Final Examination of the School of Engineering.

Exemption in the case of Artillery Subalterns.

Subalterns of Artillery Militia, who compete for Commissions in the Royal Artillery, are in general required to show a satisfactory knowledge of each of the branches of Mathematics in Class I. of the "Further Examination," in addition to attaining the prescribed ordinary standard at the Literary Qualifying Examination. From this Examination in Mathematics those Candidates are exempted who have obtained any Honors in Mathematics at the Trinity or Michaelmas Term Examination of Junior Freshmen, or any Honors in Mathematics at the Examinations of Senior Freshmen.

For a full account of the Regulations respecting Commissions in the Army, see Handbook of Competitive Examinations, by W. J. Chetwode Crawley, LL.D.

EXAMINATIONS FOR WOMEN.

REGULATIONS FOR THE YEAR 1900.

The Examinations will commence on Tuesday, May 14th.

An Examination will be held at any place where a Ladies' Superintending Committee shall be constituted, on payment of a fee of £10 in addition to the University and local fees.

No head of any Educational Establishment shall be a member of a Ladies' Committee.

An Examiner will be sent to each place, who, in conjunction with the Ladies' Committee, will arrange the details of the Examination.

The Registrar of Examinations for Women will exercise a general supervision over the conduct of all the Examinations.

Candidates are requested to apply to one of the Local Secretaries for the necessary "Forms," which should be filled up and returned on or before the 1*st of May*, 1900.

Every Candidate presenting herself for Examination will be required to pay a University fee of Twenty Shillings, together with the local fee of Five Shillings; the total fee of Twenty-five Shillings being payable to one of the Local Secretaries at least two days previous to the Examinations. No Candidate can be admitted to the Examination unless the fees have been paid.

(The Local Secretaries for Dublin are—Miss Salmon, Provost's House, Trinity College; and Mrs. Mahaffy, 38, North Great George's-street.)

The Dublin Examination will be held in the Regent House (Front Hall), Trinity College.

The hours of Examination will be from 10 o'clock A.M. to noon, and from 2 to 4 o'clock, P.M., daily.

No one who shall have completed her eighteenth year before the first of April, 1900, can obtain a Certificate; but the names of successful Candidates who are over age will be printed in the annual report.

Copies of the Regulations respecting Courses, Scholarships, &c. may be had by application to one of the Local Secretaries; at Messrs. Hodges, Figgis, and Co. (Ltd.), 104, Grafton-street, Booksellers to the University, or at the University Press, Trinity College.

LUCIUS H. GWYNN, F.T.C.D.,
Registrar of Examinations for Women.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING HONOR EXAMINATIONS FOR WOMEN.

1. Women who have obtained, at any of the Trinity College Examinations for Women, either a Junior or a Senior Certificate, may be examined in the same Honor Courses as Senior Freshmen, on the same days in Michaelmas Term, but in different rooms.

2. Those who have obtained a Senior Certificate may, under the same conditions, if they prefer it, be examined in any of the Courses for Moderatorships.

3. Such Candidates shall be marked and classed in exactly the same manner as the Trinity College Students; and Special Certificates shall be given to those who pass a successful Examination.

4. This arrangement, being of an experimental character, shall apply to the years 1896, 1897, and 1898 only.

5. The amount of Fees to be charged for admission to these Examinations shall be One Guinea and Two Guineas respectively.

Candidates should send their names to the Senior Lecturer, Trinity College, on or before the 4th of October.

The Fee, £1 1*s*., for an Examination with Senior Freshmen, and £2 2*s*. for a Moderatorship Examination, should be sent, on or before the same date, to the Junior Bursar, Trinity College.

N.B.—These Rules are to remain in force for the year 1900.

RULES RESPECTING EXAMINATION OF WOMEN IN MICHAELMAS TERM.

1. Women who have obtained a Certificate at the Trinity College Examinations may be examined in the same Honor Courses as the Junior Freshmen in Michaelmas Term, at the same time, but in different rooms.

2. Those who have already obtained Honors in this Examination may, under the same conditions, be examined in any of the Courses for Moderatorships.

3. Such Candidates shall be marked and classed in exactly the same manner as the Trinity College Student; and Special Certificates shall be given to those who pass a successful Examination.

4. This arrangement, being of an experimental character, shall apply to the year 1900 only.

5. The amount of Fees to be charged for admission to these Ezaminations shall be One Guinea and Two Guineas respectively.

RULES RESPECTING EXAMINATIONS IN THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF EDUCATION.

(1). Two Examinations have been instituted, one in the History and Theory of Education, and the other in the Practice of Teaching.

(2). No candidate shall be admitted to the second Examination who has not passed the first.

(3). A Certificate shall be issued to those candidates who have passed the first Examination, and a diploma to those who have passed both Examinations.

(4). Fees of an amount comparable with those charged at present for the Examinations for Women shall be charged, or of such greater amount as may be found necessary to defray the cost of these Examinations.

(5). Any person shall be admitted as a candidate for the first Examination who shall produce satisfactory evidence of having obtained a good secondary education.

(6). Any person shall be deemed to have fulfilled this condition who has either—

1. Graduated in some University of the United Kingdom; or
2. Passed the Final Freshman Examination of the University of Dublin or the corresponding Examination of the University of Oxford or of Cambridge; or
3. Shall produce evidence of such other qualifications as may be hereafter adopted by the Board and Council on the recommendation of the Special Committee appointed to advise on details.

(7). The subjects of the first Examination shall include

A. The Theory of Education—
  (a) The Scientific Basis of the Art of Education.
  (b) Elements of the Art of Education.

B. History of Education in Europe since the Revival of Learning

C. The Practice of Education—
  (a) Methods of Education.
  (b) School Management.

And as a result of it a Certificate shall be issued to each candidate who satisfies the Examiners.

(8). For this Examination the following books have been appointed—

A. Theory of Education—

Locke (John), Some Thoughts concerning Education.
Payne (Joseph), Lectures on the Science and Art of Education.

B. History of Education—

Ascham (R.), The Scholemaster.
Milton, Tractate on Education.

C. Practice of Education—

Fitch (J. G.), Lectures on Teaching.
Joyce (P. W.), School Management.

(9). Candidates who produce proof that they have been engaged in teaching in a school for not less than one year to the satisfaction of the principal teacher of the school, and who have passed the first Examination, shall be admitted to the second Examination.

(10). The second Examination shall consist in—

A. Examination of a class taught by the candidate.
B. Inspection of a class while being taught.
C. Viva Voce Examination of teacher after the inspection.

And as a result of it a Diploma shall be issued to each candidate who satisfies the Examiners.

Both Examinations above mentioned will be held in each year, on the Tuesday and Wednesday of the 2nd week in January. The fee payable for each Examination is £1 1*s*. Candidates should send in their names to the Senior Lecturer on or before the 1st of January.

THE

DUBLIN UNIVERSITY CALENDAR.

INTRODUCTION.

UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN, TRINITY COLLEGE.

§ I. THE UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN was founded by Queen Elizabeth, A. D. 1591. On the third day of March in that year, a College was incorporated by Charter or Letters Patent, as "the Mother of an University,"[a] under the style and title of "The College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, near Dublin, founded by Queen Elizabeth."[b]

Previous to the year 1873, the Provostship, Fellowships, and Foundation Scholarships of Trinity College could only be held by Members of the Church of Ireland. This restriction was sanctioned by Parliamentary enactments in the case of the Provostship and Fellowships (33 Geo. III. cap. 21). With regard to the Foundation Scholarships, the limitation arose solely from certain provisions in the College Statutes. All these restrictions were removed by the Act 36 Victoria, chapter 21. The preamble to this Act recites that it is expedient 'that the benefits of Trinity College, and the University of Dublin, and of the schools in the said University, as places of religion and learning, should be rendered freely accessible to the nation,' and that all restrictions, tests, and disabilities should be removed.

§ II. GOVERNMENT.—The mode in which the government is constituted may be collected from the historical sketch which will be found at the beginning of Volume II., Calendar for 1877.

The Crown, except when limited by Act of Parliament, is supreme. Subject to the control of Acts of Parliament and Royal Statutes, the government is in the hands of the Provost and Senior Fellows, in conjunction with the Visitors, and the Council. In certain cases the sanction of the Senate is required. At meetings of the Senate gowns are worn.

[b] For an account of the various Charters and Royal Letters affecting Trinity College see "Statuta Collegii atque Universitatis Dubliniensis," 1875.

The Council consists of the Provost; or, in his absence, the Vice-Provost; and sixteen members of the Senate, namely, four members elected by the Senior Fellows; four by the Junior Fellows; four by the Professors who are not Fellows, and four by those members of the said Senate who have not voted nor been entitled to vote at the last election of any existing member or members of the same Council, either as Senior Fellows, as Junior Fellows, or as Professors The members elected to the Council hold office for four years.

At every election of members of the Council, every elector of each class is entitled to a number of votes equal to the number of persons to be elected to the Council at such election of that class, and may give all such votes to any one candidate, or may distribute them among the candidates as he thinks fit.

The Council nominates to all Professorships, except those the nomination to which is vested in some other body or persons by Act of Parliament, or by the directions of private founders, and except also the Professorships in the School of Divinity. Such nomination is subject to the approval of the Provost and Senior Fellows. In the event of the said Provost and Senior Fellows refusing their approval to the nomination of the Council, the Chancellor decides whether the grounds for such refusal are sufficient. If they appear to him to be insufficient, he declares the person nominated by the Council to be duly elected. If not, the Council proceeds to a fresh nomination. If no election shall take place within the space of six calendar months from the date of the vacancy, or from the time of the creation of any new Professorship, the right of nomination and election for the purpose of filling up such vacancy, or of appointing to such new Professorship, lapses to the Chancellor. No person, being at the time a member of the Council, shall be nominated by the Council to any Professorship.

Except so far as is otherwise provided by Act of Parliament, or by direction of private founders, any proposed new rules or regulations respecting studies, lectures, and examinations (other than those connected with the School of Divinity, with which the Council has no authority to interfere), and also any proposed new rules or regulations respecting the qualifications, duties, and tenure of office of any Professor in any Professorship now existing, or hereafter to be constituted, except the Professors and Professorships connected with the said School of Divinity, and any proposed alterations in any existing rules or regulations respecting such studies, lectures, and examinations, qualifications, duties, and tenure of office, save as aforesaid, require the approval both of the Provost and Senior Fellows, and of the Council.

All such new rules or regulations and alterations in any rules or regulations may be originated either by the Provost and Senior Fellows, or by the Council.

No new Professorship can be created or founded by the Provost and Senior Fellows without the consent of the Council.

§ III. TEACHING.—The Examining Staff consists of the Provost, Fellows, and Professors.

The Lecturing Staff consists of the Junior Fellows and Professors.

The greater part of the teaching in the obligatory Courses in Arts is performed by the Junior Fellows. To Professors selected from among them is intrusted for the most part the instruction which is given in the highest departments of these Courses. Special Lecturers are selected to lecture Candidates for Honors.

Under the present regulations a new Fellow is elected every year by the Provost and Senior Fellows, after an Examination held in pursuance of the Statutes.

From the early Statutes it would seem to have been originally intended that the Fellows should carry on the special instruction required by Students desirous of qualifying themselves for particular Professions. But the growing requirements of the Professional Schools, especially the Medical, prevented this design from being carried out, and the special instruction required for the four Professional Schools of Divinity, Law, Medicine, and Engineering, is now, for the most part, delivered by Professors elected to teach special subjects.

Outside the regular Courses in Arts, and the branches of study required in the Professional Schools, there are various departments of learning, for the cultivation of which Professorships have been from time to time founded.

§ IV. DEGREES are publicly conferred by the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, in the Senate or Congregation of the University.

The Grace of the House for a Degree in any Faculty must be granted by the Provost and Senior Fellows, before it can be proposed to the Caput. The Caput Senatus Academici is a Council consisting of the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, the Provost (or, in his absence, the Vice-Provost), and the Senior Master non-regent,[a] elected by the Senate. Every Grace must pass the Caput before it can be proposed to the rest of the Senate, and each member of the Caput has a negative voice. If no member of the Caput objects, the Proctor, in a prescribed form of words, supplicates the Congregation for their public Grace; and, having collected their suffrages, declares the assent or dissent of the House accordingly; if the placets be the majority, the Candidates for Degrees are presented to the Senate by the Regius Professor of the Faculty in which the Degree is to be taken; or, if it be a Degree in Arts, by one of the Proctors: they then advance in order before the Vice-Chancellor, who confers the Degree according to a formula fixed by the University Statutes,[a] and after which the Candidates then subscribe their names in the Register.[b]

Public Commencements for the conferring of Degrees are held four times in each year on days published in the Almanac. A Diploma[c] is sometimes given to those who are fully qualified for a Degree, but whose circumstances may render it inconvenient for them to wait for the public Comitia; but such persons can exercise none of the rights and privileges connected with their Degree until they have appeared at a Commencement, and have had the Degree publicly conferred on them by the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor. An exception to this rule has been made in favour of members of the University who are resident in the Colonies or foreign countries.[d] Such persons are allowed (if otherwise duly qualified) to proceed to Degrees, on the fulfilment of certain conditions, which are specified in the Statute, and which may be learned on application to the Senior Proctor.—Vide infra, page 10.

On the 30th of June, 1873, the following Resolution was passed by the Provost and Senior Fellows:—"No Grace for a Degree will be presented to the Senate, unless the Candidate shall have communicated with the Proctor, at latest, the day before the Commencements. This rule is to come into operation at the next Commencements."

A General Meeting of the Senate is held annually in Trinity Term, for the transaction of ordinary business. At this Meeting of the Senate no Degrees are conferred.

§ V. The TERMS of this University were formerly four, and depended on the moveable feasts—they were therefore of unequal length and variable; but, by the Royal Statute of 3 Will. IV. (1833), they are now three only, and are fixed by invariable rules.

[a] See the forms of presentation and supplication, and also the forms of suspension and absolution, in the University Statutes.—Stat. Univ. after cap. xi. The forms for conferring Degrees are given in cap. v.

[b] The following Regulations with regard to the order to be observed in conferring Degrees at the Public Commencements have been sanctioned by the Vice-Chancellor:—I. The Chancellor announces the opening of the Comitia. At the first Commencements in the Academic year, the Senior Master non-regent is elected by the Senate, on the proposition of the Chancellor and of the Provost. The two Proctors and the Registrar take the oaths of office, on the same occasion, before the Chancellor. II. The Junior Proctor supplicates the Grace of the Senate for the Licenses in Medicine, in Surgery, and in Civil Engineering, and receives the suffrages. The Junior Proctor supplicates for the Degrees of Bachelor in Arts. The Senior Proctor supplicates for the other ordinary Degrees. The Senior Proctor supplicates for the Honorary Degrees (if any be proposed by the Provost and Senior Fellows), a special statement of the merits of the Candidates having been made to the Senate. III. The Moderators are introduced by the Senior Lecturer to the Chancellor, who presents them with the Medals awarded at the Degree Examination. The Respondents are then introduced to the Chancellor, who presents them with their Certificates. IV. Licenses to practise in Medicine, in Surgery, and in Civil Engineering, are conferred. V. The Candidates for Degrees are presented to the Senate—(the Candidates for Degrees in Arts by the Proctors, the other Candidates by the Professors of their respective Faculties)—and are admitted by the Chancellor in the following order:—1. Bachelors in Music who are not Graduates in Arts; 2. Doctors in Music not Graduates in Arts; 3. Bachelors in Arts; 4. Bachelors in Music, being Graduates in Arts; 5. Bachelors in Civil Engineering; 6. Bachelors in Surgery; 7. Bachelors in Medicine; 8. Bachelors in Law; 9. Masters in Civil Engineering; 10. Masters in Surgery; 11. Masters in Arts; 12. Bachelors in Divinity; 13. Doctors in Music, being Graduates in Arts; 14. Doctors in Medicine; 15. Doctors in Laws; 16. Doctors in Divinity.

[c] By a Diploma in this University is meant an attestation that the private Grace of the House for a Degree has been granted by the Provost and Senior Fellows, although the Degree has not been as yet publicly conferred by the University.

[d] Stat. Univ. c. xv. (De Gradibus in absentes conferendis).

MICHAELMAS, or October Term, begins on the 10th of October—ends on the 20th of December.

HILARY, or January Term, begins on the 10th of January—ends on the 25th of March.

TRINITY, or Midsummer Term, begins on the 15th of April—ends on the 30th of June. But if it should happen that Easter fall within the limits of Hilary or Trinity Term, then the Term within which it falls shall be increased by an additional week.

TERMS AND EXERCISES

REQUIRED FOR THE SEVERAL DEGREES.[a]

TERMS in this University are kept during the Undergraduate Course, either by Lectures or by Examinations. But Terms in Divinity, Law, Medicine, and Engineering, must be kept by attendance on the Lectures of the Professors, and therefore require residence either in the College or its vicinity.

The attention of Candidates for Degrees is specially called to the following order of the Provost and Senior Fellows, dated 30th of June, 1873:—

> "No Grace for a Degree will be presented to the Senate unless the Candidate shall have communicated with the Proctor, at latest, the day before the Commencements. This Rule is to come into operation at the next Commencements."

To take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, the Student must keep the Terms required by the Rules of the College.—(Vide infra, under the head, "Course in Arts.") He must pass two stated Examinations—one at the end of his second year, the other at the termination of the University Curriculum.[a]

A Master of Arts must be B.A. of three years' standing.[b]

A Doctor in Science must be a Bachelor of Arts of at least three years' standing.[a] The primary test for the Doctorate shall be original published work in Science submitted by the Candidate. The Examiners appointed to report on the merit of the work submitted by a Candidate shall have power, if they shall consider it necessary, to question the author personally on it and on cognate subjects.

Any graduate applying to the Registrar to have the Private Grace of the Provost and Senior Fellows for the Degree of Doctor of Science or Doctor of Literature must as a preliminary step lodge with the Bursar the sum of Ten Pounds, to be paid to the Examiners who are to inquire into the scientific or literary claims of the applicant: in the event of the Degree being granted, this sum will be allowed in part payment to the Senior Proctor of the fee of twenty-five pounds for the Degree.

[a] When the time at which a higher Degree can be taken is said to be reckoned from the taking of the Degree of Bachelor in Arts, or in any Faculty, that time may be reckoned from the date at which, according to the Laws and Statutes of the University, the Degree of Bachelor might have been taken (Stat. Univ., cap. vii.). With this condition, the inferior and superior Degree may be taken on the same day.

[b] Vide Stat. Univ. cap. iv.

A Doctor in Literature must be of the same standing as a Doctor in Science.

The other Regulations in reference to this Degree are precisely similar to those which hold good in the case of a Doctor in Science.[a]

A Bachelor in Divinity must be a Bachelor of Arts of three years' standing.[b] He must likewise have undergone a special Examination in Divinity before the Regius Professor, according to Rules prescribed by the Provost and Senior Fellows with the consent of the Regius Professor.

Candidates for this Degree will be required to show a general knowledge of the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, of Ecclesiastical History, and of Dogmatic Theology, and also to have made a special study of some particular branches.

Examinations.—As a general rule, the Professor requires that Candidates shall be examined in the Course annually appointed for Examination for Theological Exhibitions (see under Divinity School "Theological Exhibitions"). It consists of six Divisions, viz.: (I.) Old Testament, (II.) Hebrew, (III.) New Testament, (IV.) Articles and Liturgy, (V.) Ecclesiastical History, and (VI.) Patristic Theology. Candidates for B.D. Degree are permitted to bring up any one or more of these divisions, in any order, at any one of the three Examinations which are annually held (March, June, and December), and to reserve the rest for any subsequent Examination or Examinations. They are required to give notice to the Professor a month before the Examination at which they propose to present themselves, stating at the same time in what divisions of the Course they desire to be examined. Each Candidate, when he gives such notice, must send to the Senior Proctor an examination fee of one guinea for each Division specified in his notice. The fees so paid by the Candidate (to an amount not exceeding six guineas) will, in case he obtains the Degree, be allowed in part payment of the Degree fee of £13 15*s*.

The Professor, on sufficient reason being shown him, may make different arrangements for a Candidate's Examination. Application for such special arrangements must be made three months before the Commencements at which the Candidate desires to obtain his Degree.

Candidates who do not hold the Divinity Testimonium will further be examined in the following:—(Division VII.)

Butler's Analogy: Pearson on the Creed (Articles ii.–v., viii., ix., xii.): Davison on Prophecy: Browne on the Articles: Paley's Horæ Paulinæ: Mozley on Miracles.

Thesis.—As a proof that the Candidate has, in addition to the general course of reading, made a special study of some particular branch, he must send the Regius Professor a Thesis on a subject chosen by himself, with approval of the Professor, printed or legibly written, two months before the day of Commencements. The Thesis should be accompanied with references to the authors consulted in its composition.

[b] Resolutions of Board and Council, June 7 and Mar. 5, Meeting of Senate, June 20, 1890.

A Doctor in Divinity must be a Bachelor in Divinity of five years' standing.[a] He must likewise present to the Regius Professor a printed Thesis, in which he has treated of and explained some portion of Doctrine from the Holy Scriptures, or of the History of the Church, or of Dogmatic Theology. It is desirable that the Candidate, before printing his Thesis, should have the subject approved of by the Professor. This Thesis he must send to the Professor two months before the day of Commencements, and at the same time he must lodge with the Bursar a sum of £5, to be paid to an Examiner who will be appointed to assist the Professor in deciding on the merits of the Thesis. In the event of the Degree being granted, such sum will be allowed in part payment to the Senior Proctor of the fee of twenty-six pounds for the Degree.[b]

A Bachelor in Laws must have taken the Degree of Bachelor of Arts. He must also have passed a Special Examination in the subjects of the curriculum of the Law School.[c] For details see "Law School."

A Doctor in Laws must be a B.A. of three years' standing,[a] and must have taken the degree of LL.B.

Candidates may obtain the Degree in any of the following ways :—

(1). By passing an Examination in the principles of Political Philosophy, Constitutional History, and International Law.

(2). By presenting to the Regius Professor of Civil Law, for the consideration of the Examiners, a printed Thesis, composed by the Candidate, on a subject in the Law Course approved of by the Professor.—The Candidate will be liable to be examined on subjects connected with his Thesis.—The Thesis must be presented to the Professor one month before the Commencements, and, if it be approved by the Professors of the Law School, a copy shall be deposited in the College Library.

(3). The Degree of LL.D. may also be obtained by a Candidate who is the author of a published work connected with legal or political science, of merit sufficient, in the judgment of the Examiners, to entitle the Candidate to the Degree.

Candidates for Degrees qualifying by methods (2) or (3) are required to notify to the Registrar of the Law School, one month before the Commencements, the particular qualifications which they propose to offer for their Degrees.

[b] The University of Dublin Tests Act (36 Vict., chap. 21) abolishes the necessity formerly imposed on Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor or of Doctor in Divinity of subscribing the declaration of the Royal Supremacy, the Liturgy of the United Church of England and Ireland, and the Thirty-nine Articles.

[c] Resolutions of Board and Council, June 8 and 5, 1878. Meeting of Senate, June 29, 1878.

A Bachelor in Medicine must have taken the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, and must have spent four years in the study of Medicine.[a] Before the Grace of the House can be obtained, the Candidate must pass a public Examination in the Hall before the Medical Professors.

A Doctor in Medicine must be M. B. of three years' standing.[b] He must also read two Theses publicly before the Regius Professor of Physic,[a] or must undergo an Examination before the Regius Professor, according to regulations to be approved of by the Provost and Senior Fellows.

A Bachelor in Surgery must be a Bachelor of Arts, and have spent four years in the study of Surgery and Anatomy.[a] Before the Grace of the House can be obtained, the Candidate must pass a public Examination in the Hall before the Professors of the School.

A Master in Surgery must be a B. Ch. of three years' standing,[b] and must produce satisfactory evidence of having been engaged for not less than two years from the date of his registration in the study or practice of his profession. He must then pass an Examination[a] in Surgery and Surgical Anatomy.[c] Graduates in Surgery of the University of Dublin, of not less than ten years' standing, may be recommended for the Degree of M. Ch. by the vote of the Court of Examiners on such Examination as they shall determine.[c]

A Bachelor in Obstetric Science must have graduated in Medicine, have attended on a Winter's Course of Lectures in Midwifery at a recognized School, have practised Midwifery for six months at a recognized Hospital or Maternity, and must pass an Examination in Practical Midwifery, Gynæcology, and Obstetrical Anatomy.[d]

A Master in Obstetric Science must have graduated in Medicine and in Surgery, and have spent two years at least in the study of Obstetric Science. Before the Grace of the House can be obtained, the Candidate must pass a public Examination before the Professors of the School of Physic.

A Bachelor in Civil Engineering must have taken the Degree of Bachelor of Arts. He must also have spent two years at least in the study of Civil Engineering, and have creditably passed all the Examinations of the School.[e]

A Master in Civil Engineering must have taken the Degree of Bachelor of Civil Engineering; he must also have practised for three years as a Civil Engineer, after obtaining that Degree from the University.

[e] Stat. Univ., cap. vii. See under "Engineering School."

A Bachelor in Music must have matriculated in Arts, but is not required, as in the other Faculties, to proceed with the Arts Course. To matriculate, the Candidate must pass an Examination in Latin and English Composition; Arithmetic, Ordinary Rules, Algebra to Simple Equations; Euclid, Books i. ii. and iii.; English History; Modern Geography, and any two Greek, and any two Latin, Authors of their own selection. For Greek, Candidates for Degrees in Music may substitute French, German, or Italian. He will be required to translate easy passages from these languages at sight, and to translate a passage of English into them.

Candidates for Degrees in Music will be examined at their Matriculation in Acoustics; no knowledge of Mathematics, beyond that of Arithmetic, being required.

The following Book on the subject is recommended:—

Sedley Taylor, "On Sound and Music."

Bachelor in Music.—The Examination will be divided into two parts:—

1. Preliminary Examination to include—
   - (a) Harmony up to four parts from a figured bass.
   - (b) The addition of three parts to a given melody, placed in any voice.
   - (c) Counterpoint up to four parts (combined counterpoint not required).
   - (d) A general knowledge of Beethoven's pianoforte sonatas.
   - (e) The history of English Church Music from Tallis to Purcell, both included.

2. Further Examination—

Candidates proceeding to the second examination for Mus. B., must send to the Registrar of the School of Music, not later than two months before the date of the Examination, an exercise, vocal or instrumental, in not less than four movements, containing specimens of two-part canonic, and four-part fugal writing. If vocal, a portion to be for four-part chorus, and a portion for one or two solo voices, and the accompaniment for string quartet. If the exercise be instrumental, it must be in strictly classical form.

If the exercise be approved by the Examiners, the Candidate shall proceed to a further Examination, consisting of:—

- (a) Harmony up to five parts on a figured bass.
- (b) The addition of four parts to a given melody, placed in any voice.
- (c) Counterpoint up to five parts, including combined counterpoint.
- (d) Double counterpoint.
- (e) Canon in two parts.
- (f) Fugal construction.
- (g) A knowledge of Bach's "Wohltemperirtes Clavier."
- (h) The history of the Oratorio, as treated by Handel, Haydn, and Mendelssohn.

N.B.—Exercises need not be publicly performed unless the Candidate desire it, and then at his own expense.

Doctor in Music.—A Doctor in Music must be Mus. Bac. of the University of Dublin, or of Oxford, or Cambridge, according to the regulations for ad eundem degrees (p. 11). He must send to the Registrar, not less than two months before the date of Examination, a work for voices and orchestra, comprising:—

(a) An overture.
(b) At least one choral movement in eight real parts.
(c) At least one solo with orchestra.
(d) Specimens of canonic and fugal writing.

If the exercise be approved by the Examiners, the Candidate will proceed to a final Examination in—

(a) Harmony and counterpoint up to eight parts.
(b) Double and triple counterpoint.
(c) Canon up to four parts.
(d) The writing of a fugue in not more than four parts.
(e) The instrumentation of a given passage.
(f) A general acquaintance with the lives and works of the Great Masters.

N.B.—All the several Musical Examinations will be held concurrently, twice a-year, in June and December, on days announced in the Calendar, and will be conducted partly on paper and partly vivâ voce.

Admission of Candidates residing in the Colonies.—At a Meeting of the University Senate, held on December 13, 1862,[b] it was resolved, that a Student of the University who was engaged in any civil. ecclesiastical, or other profession in the Colonies, should be allowed (although not present in the Senate) to proceed to his Degree upon the following conditions:—

1. That he was of the proper Standing for taking the Degree.

2. That he had passed all the Lectures and Examinations necessary for his Degree.

3. That he had transmitted in writing the Exercises for the Degree to the Regius Professor of the proper Faculty, and that they had been approved of.

4. That he had transmitted letters testimonial which satisfied the Provost and Senior Fellows of the Candidate's fitness for the Degree in regard to character.

On June 20, 1883, it was resolved, that under similar conditions a similar privilege should be extended to residents in any foreign country, the letters testimonial of character being in this case signed by the British Ambassador or Consul.

[a] If Candidate is B.A. of the University, the Fee is only £5.

[b] This Decree was subsequently amended at Meetings of the Senate held on June 26 1869, and on June 16, 1885.

Admission "ad eundem Gradum."—Graduates in Arts of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge are admissible ad eundem to all Degrees they have received in their own Universities, on attainment of the standing and payment of the fees required for the same Degrees in the University of Dublin. Satisfactory evidence of character and conduct, with the credentials of the Degree sought, to be produced in every case.[a]

Fees to be Paid by Graduates of Oxford and Cambridge.—On June 30, 1873, the following Rule was made by the Board:—

"Graduates of Oxford and Cambridge coming to take the 'ad eundem' B.A. Degree shall pay the ordinary Replacement Fee (£9 3*s.*), and the Ordinary Fee for the B.A. Degree (£1), in all, £10 3*s.*"

"Graduates of Oxford and Cambridge desiring to present themselves at the Examination for the LL.B. Degree must first pay fees for the same amount as for the ad eundem B.A. Degree."

The Senior Proctor receives the Fees for all the above Degrees, with the exception of those for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, which are payable to the Junior Bursar.

Testimoniums.—A fee of thirty shillings is payable on taking out the Testimonium of any of the above Degrees, with the exception of that of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Engineering, of the Degrees in Medicine, Surgery, and of that of Bachelor in Obstetric Science, the charge for the Testimoniums of which is included in the above Schedule of Fees for the Degree[a]; and with the exception also of the following, the charge for the testimonium of which is ten shillings[b]:—

[b] Students who entered the College before the year 1859 are liable to the old charge for the B. A. Degree, as specified in the University Calendar for 1863 p. 14.

[c] A fee of £5 only is paid for the Degree of Bachelor in Music by Candidates who are Graduates in Arts. (Order of the Board, March 14, 1868.)

M.A., LL.B., LL.D., B.D., D.D., Mus. Bac.,
Mus. Doc., M.A.I.

N.B.—As some inconvenience may be occasioned to Graduates by unavoidable delay in the issue of Testimoniums, all Students requiring the Testimoniums of their Degrees during the Summer Vacation are requested to make application for them before the 30th of June. As a general rule, Testimoniums of Degrees will not be issued during the Vacation.

Professional Diplomas and Licenses.—The conditions on which the University grants Diplomas in Medicine, Surgery, and Obstetric Science and Licenses in Civil Engineering, will be found below, under the Regulations of the several Professional Schools.

REPRESENTATION OF THE UNIVERSITY IN PARLIAMENT.

James I., by his Charter dated May 12, A.D. 1613, first granted to the University the right of returning two Burgesses to represent it in Parliament. By the Act of Union in the year 1800 (40 Geo. III. c. 38, Art. 4), the number of representatives was reduced to one[c]; but by the Irish Reform Bill (2 & 3 Will. IV. c. 88), the right of electing two Members has been restored to the University.

The right of voting at the election of Members to serve in Parliament for the University of Dublin was originally confined to the Fellows and Scholars of Trinity College. By the Reform Act, 2 & 3 Will. IV. c. 88, it was extended to every person, being of the age of twenty-one years, who had obtained, or thereafter should obtain, the Degree of Master of Arts, or any higher Degree, or a Scholarship or Fellowship in the said University, subject to certain provisions regulating the registration of the names of the electors. These regulations were altered by the Statute of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 74, which provides,—

"That all persons with whom the College shall have compounded for a gross sum of £5 for their respective lives, under the provisions of the late Act (2 & 3 Will. IV. c. 88), shall be entitled to have their names continued on the books of the University for their respective lives, and to vote at any election, without any further payment.

[a] Order of the Board, Oct. 24, 1866. [b] Order of the Board, Feb. 22, 1890.

[c] "That it be the Fourth Article of Union that four lords spiritual of Ireland, by rotation of sessions, and twenty-eight lords temporal of Ireland, shall be the number to sit and vote on the part of Ireland in the House of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, and one hundred commoners (two for each county of Ireland, two for the City of Dublin, two for the City of Cork, one for the University of Trinity College, and one for each of the most considerable cities, towns, and boroughs), as the number to sit and vote, on the part of Ireland, in the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom."

"Every person whose name shall be upon the College Books of the said University, and who shall have obtained a Fellowship or Scholarship, or the degree of Master of Arts, or any higher degree in the University, and every person who shall hereafter obtain a Fellowship or Scholarship, or the degree of Master of Arts, or any higher degree in the University, and who upon the removal of his name from the College Books, or after he shall have taken such degree, shall be desirous of having his name replaced or retained on the books of the University for the purpose of voting, shall, before the 1st day of December next after his name shall be so removed from the College Books, or after he have taken such degree, pay to the College the sum of £5, and thereupon his name shall be placed or retained upon the books of the University, and he shall be entitled to vote, for his life, without any further payment.

"No person shall be entitled to vote by reason of a degree of a purely honorary nature.

"Every person having his name on the College Books shall be considered, for all purposes of this Act, as having his name on the books of the University; but the payments to be made by such person shall be regulated by the rules and Statutes of the College."

A further change in the laws relating to the University Franchise was made by the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 112. By the 33rd section of this Act, it is enacted that

"Every person who has heretofore obtained or who shall hereafter obtain a Fellowship or Scholarship, or the Degree of Master of Arts, or any higher Degree, not of a purely honorary nature, in the University of Dublin, and who shall be desirous of having his name placed or retained on the books of the said University, for the purpose of voting at any election of Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of the University of Dublin, under the provisions of section 4 of the Act of the session of the 5th and 6th years of the reign of her present Majesty, chapter 74, may require the Registrar of the said University to place or retain his name upon the books of the said University, without any payment whatsoever, anything in the said section to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no person shall be entitled to vote at any election of a member or members to serve in Parliament for the said borough of the University of Dublin, unless his name shall have been upon the books of the said University for a period not less than two months previous to such Election."

Section 34.—"In the month of December, in the year 1869, and in every succeeding year, the Registrar of the said University of Dublin shall make out an alphabetical list of the names of the Electors entitled to vote at any election for Members to serve in Parliament for the said University; and the said Registrar shall cause copies of such list to be printed on or before the 1st day of January, in the year 1870, and in every succeeding year, and shall give a copy of such list to any elector applying for the same, upon being paid 2*s.* 6*d.* for each copy; and the said Registrar shall each year publish a copy of such list in the University Calendar, when such Calendar shall be published, or in some one or more of the public journals having general circulation in Ireland."

VOTING PAPERS AT ELECTIONS.

By the Act 24 & 25 Vict. c. 53, electors may in future record their votes by means of voting papers, and need not attend in person at the poll. The preamble of this Act recites, that "it is expedient to afford greater facilities for voting to the electors at elections for Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin." Each elector is hereby empowered to nominate any other elector or electors of the same University to deliver for him at the poll a voting paper containing his vote. Every such voting paper shall bear date subsequently to notice given by the Returning Officer of the day for proceeding to election, and shall contain the name or names of the Candidate or Candidates thereby voted for, and the name or names of the elector or electors authorized, on behalf of the voter, to tender such voting paper at the poll. Such voting paper (the aforesaid date and names being previously filled in) shall, on any day subsequent to notice given by the Returning Officer of the day for proceeding to election, be signed by the voter in the presence of a Justice of the Peace for the County or Borough in which such voter shall be then residing.

No person shall be entitled to sign or vote by more than one voting paper at any election. An elector may vote in person, notwithstanding that he has duly signed and transmitted a voting paper to another elector, if such voting paper has not been already tendered at the poll.

By the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 65, s. 1, the declaration required to be made by the elector tendering the voting paper of another elector is repealed, and the following substituted in its stead:

> "I solemnly declare that I verily believe that this is the paper by which A. B. [the voter] intends to vote, pursuant to the provisions of the Universities Elections Acts, 1861 and 1868."

By section 3 of the same Act, voting papers may be signed in the Channel Islands, in the presence of the following Officers, viz.:—Jersey and Guernsey—The Bailiffs or any Lieutenant Bailiff, Jurat, or Juge d'Instruction. Alderney—The Judge of Alderney, or any Jurat. Sark—The Seneschal or Deputy Seneschal.

Trinity College.

ORDER OF RANK IN THE COLLEGE.

THE several orders in the College are the following:—

1. The PROVOST or Head of the College; who must be not less than thirty years of age[a].

2. FELLOWS; who were formerly bound to enter into Priest's Orders, except five: one of whom was elected Medicus, by the Provost and Senior Fellows; and two others were elected Jurista juris Civilis and Jurista juris Anglici, respectively[b]. This obligation to take Holy Orders was removed by the Act 36 Victoria, chap. 21.

3. NOBLEMEN, SONS OF NOBLEMEN, and BARONETS, who are matriculated as such under the title of Nobilis, Filius Nobilis, and Eques.

4. DOCTORS in the several Faculties, BACHELORS IN DIVINITY, and MASTERS OF ARTS, SURGERY, OBSTETRIC SCIENCE and CIVIL ENGINEERING. All Doctors and Masters, Ex-Fellows and Ex-Scholars, having their names registered as Electors, are entitled to vote at the election of Members to represent the University in Parliament; but have no Collegiate privileges or duties, unless their names are kept on the College Books.

5. BACHELORS IN CIVIL LAW, MEDICINE, SURGERY, OBSTETRIC SCIENCE, and CIVIL ENGINEERING, and BACHELORS OF ARTS. They are not required to keep their names on the University or College Books in order to entitle them to proceed to the higher Degrees.

6. FELLOW-COMMONERS, who have the privilege of dining at the Fellows' Table.

7. SCHOLARS, who are on the foundation, being members of the Corporation of the College; they have their commons free of expense, and their rooms for half the charge paid by other Students;[c] they receive from the College an annual salary. They hold their Scholarships until the end of the June Quarter of the fifth year following their election, or following the time at which they become or might have become Masters of Arts, whichever period terminates first, and have other privileges for which see under "Scholarship."

[c] This does not apply to that portion of the rent imposed to defray expenses incurred in papering or painting.

All fees payable by Scholars for Tuition terminate after the quarter in which they take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts[a]. The number of Scholars is seventy, of whom thirty were formerly termed natives (Hibernici[b]), but this distinction has been abolished by King's Letter, 8 Geo. IV.

8. PENSIONERS, namely ordinary Students in Arts.

9. SIZARS, who are Students of limited means, having their commons free of expense, and being exempted from annual fees. They were formerly nominated, one by each Fellow, and eight or more (provided the number of thirty were not exceeded) by the Provost. They are now admitted annually by an examination (vide infra, "Entrance").

COLLEGE CHARGES.

I. Undergraduate Fees.—Before the name of any Student can be placed upon the College Books, the amount of Entrance Fees specified below must be paid to the Junior Bursar[c]. The payment must be made when the result of the Entrance Examination is declared.

The following statements contain the practice with regard to Arts Fees, but those headed (a), (b), (c), and (d), contain all the information required by Students.

(a). For Pensioners, the Entrance and half-yearly Fees are fifteen pounds and eight guineas respectively; for Fellow-Commoners, thirty pounds and sixteen guineas respectively, and for Filii Nobilium, sixty pounds and thirty-two guineas respectively. Sizars pay £1 1*s*. 3*d*. Entrance Fee, and are exempt from half-yearly Fees.

(b). Students who enter after the March quarter in any year, and present themselves at the Trinity Term Examination in April or May, or the Trinity Lectures, or the Hilary Term Supplemental in June, or the Michaelmas Term Examination in October, must pay the first half-yearly fee before presenting themselves for any Term Examination or Lectures; and they must pay a second half-yearly Fee at the end of October.

Students who enter after March 23rd, and do not present themselves for any of the above Examinations or Lectures, pay the first half-yearly Fee in the April of the succeeding year.

The names of Students who enter between the end of March Quarter and the 1st of November are not placed upon the College

Books unless the payment to the Junior Bursar entitles them to be put in the existing Junior Freshman Class.[a]

(c). A Student who goes through his Course in the regular way (i.e. without dropping a Class) will pay to the Junior Bursar, in addition to the Entrance Fee, eight half-yearly Fees, payable in April and October in each year; and no Student can rise to the standing of a Candidate Bachelor until he has made the last of these half-yearly payments. Students should remember that the fee of one pound for the conferring of the Degree must be paid to the Junior Bursar on or before the day preceding the Commencements at which they present themselves.

No Student will be allowed to be a Candidate for Moderatorship, or at the Special B. A. Degree Examination in Trinity Term, unless his Fees for the current half-year shall have been paid before the first day of Examination.

The half-yearly Fees become due at the end of the March and September quarters, but Students are allowed to delay the payment till the Friday before the first Saturday in May or November respectively. Fees despatched by post are counted as received on day on which they are posted. A Student sending Fees by post should state his Class and Tutor, in addition to his own name.

Half-yearly Fees should be paid on or before the Friday which precedes the first Saturday of May or November, and any Student whose Fees are not paid on that day must pay with them the Tardy Payment charge of 3*s*. for that and every succeeding Friday in May or November for which the Fees remain unpaid, until the first Saturdays of June and December, on which days the names of all Students whose Fees have not been paid are struck off the books, and can only be replaced on payment of a Fee of 15*s*., in addition to the half-yearly Fee.

In addition to the half-yearly Fees, some Students incur Incidental Expenses, due as Rent of Chambers, Commons, Punishments, and so forth, and these must be paid to the Junior Bursar, together with the half-yearly Fees.

Sizars, whose incidental expenses are not paid before the first Saturday in June and the first Saturday in December, respectively, are forthwith struck off the Books, and their Sizarships vacated.

(d). Students who drop a year, whether from inability to keep the requisite Terms, or from any other cause, should always consult their Tutors before paying the half-yearly Fees then due, or next to become due; and when so doing, they should state whether they belong to, attend, or purpose to join any of the Professional Schools.

(e). A Student whose name has gone off the books can always replace in any Class in which the Terms he has kept entitle him to be placed, provided he pays the replacement Fee of 15*s*., and that the half-yearly payment or payments which he makes on replacement, taken with those which he has previously made, include all those paid in regular course by the Students in the Class which he joins on replacing, viz. one half-yearly Fee in the April and one in the October of each Freshman and Sophister year for which he claims credit. But it is especially to be observed that if, in the April or October of any year, a Student who is not allowed by the Senior Lecturer to keep his Class, should nevertheless pay the half-yearly Fee then due, such payment does not count as a payment for the April or October of the Class from which he is put down, but as a repetition of the payment previously made by him as a member of the Class to which he is put down, and such payments are not taken account of in determining the amount to be paid on replacement.

[a] Resolution of Board, July 1, 1886.

In determining the time for which the name of a Student who replaces remains on the Books without further payment, the half-yearly Fee paid on replacement is considered as having been paid at the date on which it became due by the members of the Class which the Student joins—thus a payment made after March 23rd will keep the Student's name on the Books till the first Saturday in December, unless it counts as a payment made in the previous half year, in which case the name goes off on the first Saturday in June.

Replacement.—The full amount of College Fees is charged for the replacement of the name of any Student which has been removed from the Books, except in the cases of replacement for the purpose of obtaining a Degree, or a Prize in Law[a]. A Fee of fifteen shillings, in addition to the College charge, is likewise payable to the Junior Bursar.

On May 2 and June 23, 1885, the Board passed the following resolution:—"That Graduates of the University shall be at liberty to go in for the Final Examination in the Divinity or Engineering School, on payment of the ordinary replacement fee[b], which shall cover all the days of examination. In addition, a Liceat ad Examinandum Fee of One Guinea shall be charged in such cases. The names of Students so replaced shall be removed from the College Books immediately after the holding of the Examination." This rule was extended to Engineering Students who have passed the B.A. Examination (Oct. 21, 1893).

On June 19th, 1897, the following Resolution was passed by the Provost and Senior Fellows:—

"That Graduates of this University shall be permitted during the first year from taking the Degree of B.A. to replace their names on the College Books on payment of the Junior Bursar's Fee, in order to compete for any Prizes which are open to Students in their Bachelor years. The names of the Students so replaced shall be removed from the Books immediately after the Examination."

[a] Order of the Board, July 5, 1870.

[b] That is the Junior Bursar's fee of 15*s*.

The following Resolution was passed by the Provost and Senior Fellows, 24th November, 1877:—

"That in the case of all Prize Examinations at which, under existing Rules, Students presenting themselves for Examination are required to have their names on the College Books, the list of Prizes awarded shall be certified by the Junior Bursar before being laid before the Board for confirmation."

II. Charges for Doctors in the several Faculties, Masters, and Members of the Senate.—Resident Doctors and Masters pay the sum of £4 half-yearly. The regulations for payment are the same as those already given under the head of Undergraduates.

The Fees payable by Members of the Senate are regulated by the following Decree of the Provost and Senior Fellows, dated January 22, 1859, and amended on January 31, 1872, and June 28, 1890:—

WHEREAS, by the Royal Letters Patent bearing date the 24th day of July, in the twenty-first year of the reign of Her most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, it is amongst other things enacted, that the Senate of the University of Dublin shall, as heretofore, consist of the Chancellor, or, in his absence, the Vice-Chancellor, or Pro-Vice-Chancellor for the time being, and of such Doctors and Masters of Arts of the University as shall have and keep their names on the Books of Trinity College, in accordance with such regulations and conditions as the Provost and Senior Fellows of the said College shall enact:

We, therefore, the Provost and Senior Fellows, in pursuance of the powers vested in us, do hereby enact and DECREE:

1. That no change shall be made in the Fees heretofore payable by Doctors and Masters holding Rooms in the College, or in attendance on Collegiate or Professional Lectures, or presenting themselves at Examinations.

2. That all Doctors or Masters of Arts, whose names are on the College Books, and who are not resident nor in attendance on Lectures, as aforesaid, shall be permitted to retain their names on the Books of the College, without further payment.

3. That all Doctors or Masters of Arts (except as hereafter provided), whose names are not on the College Books, shall be required to pay, on replacing their names, the accustomed charge of £4 15*s.* for the half-year in which such replacement is made; after which their names shall be retained on the College Books, in accordance with the two preceding regulations.

4. That the names of all Doctors and Masters of Arts, who have been University Students, or First Senior Moderators, shall be replaced on the College Books without charge. This rule does not apply to First Senior Moderators in one subject who have not obtained a large Gold Medal.[a]

5. That Ex-Fellows of the College, according to ancient privilege, shall be permitted to retain their names on the College Books without any charge.

6. That the Members for the University in Parliament, and ex-Members, shall be permitted to retain their names on the College Books free of all charge.

On June 12th, 1875, it was resolved by the Provost and Senior Fellows that the privilege mentioned in (4) should be extended to all double Gold Medallists.

[a] Resolution of the Board, January 12, 1884.

RESIDENCE, AND DUTIES OF RESIDENT STUDENTS.

Residence, as a part of Academic discipline, is not enforced in the University of Dublin, nor is it necessary in itself for keeping Terms. Yet for Professional Students, residence either in the city or in the College is indirectly necessary.

Rooms.—Chambers in the College are granted by the Provost on application from the Tutor of the Student who proposes to reside. On obtaining Rooms, a sum of money is deposited with the Registrar of Chambers, which is intended as security against any injury that they may sustain, and is returned on vacating the Rooms, if all claims of the College be first satisfied. The deposit for Rooms varies from £8 to £30; and the annual rent varies from £4 to £18. Most of these Chambers are intended to accommodate two Students, in which case each Student in occupation pays only half rent and half deposit. If, however, a Student, from any cause, should be the sole occupant of such Rooms, he is always liable for the entire rent during whatever time the sole occupation continues.

A list of the Chambers vacant within the College is hung up at the Chief Steward's lodge, near the Gate. Students can see the different sets of vacant Chambers on application to the Clerk of the Works, and when they have decided which sets they prefer, they should communicate with their Tutors, giving a list containing the particulars of two or three sets of Chambers, in the order in which they prefer them, so that in case the Rooms first applied for are granted to other Students, the Tutors can apply for the other Rooms. An application for a double set of Chambers must be made on behalf of two Students jointly. If the Rooms applied for be granted, the deposit must be paid to the Registrar of Chambers within a fortnight, or else the right to the Rooms lapses. The deposit is returned, when the Rooms are vacated and the keys given up to the Chief Steward.

No Student is allowed to reside in Chambers registered in the name of another, without a written permission from the Provost, stating the period during which such temporary occupation may continue. The Chambers of any Student who allows another person to occupy them, either wholly or in part, without such permission, are immediately declared vacant.

In June, 1877, on March 16, 1878, January 20, 1883, June 23, 1885, and July 1, 1886, the following Regulations were made by the Board, with the concurrence of the Provost:—

1. The Chambers of Resident Students, except Scholars, and Students attending Lectures in one of the Professional Schools, are to be vacated at the close of the Quarter in which they shall be of standing to be admitted to the A. B. Degree.

2. Students attending Lectures in the Professional Schools shall be permitted to retain their Chambers till the expiration of the Trinity Term of the Junior Bachelor year, but not longer, without special permission from the Board.

3. The Chambers of Ex-Scholars and Ex-Sizars shall be vacated at the close of the September Quarter next after the expiration of their Scholarships and Sizarships.

4. No Student who shall have passed the standing of Candidate Bachelor shall be admissible as a Candidate for Rooms, or for a re-grant of Rooms vacated under the provisions of the aforesaid Regulations, unless he has previously obtained the consent of the Board.

5. Graduate Students above the standing of Junior Bachelor, who may obtain permission to occupy Rooms, shall pay a higher rent than that paid by ordinary Undergraduate Students.

6. After each Term a return shall be made to the Board of the Students holding Chambers in College who have not attended Lectures, and the Chambers of those Students who have failed to attend during two Terms in the year shall be forfeited unless their Tutors shall satisfy the Board that there have been reasonable grounds for such failure.

7. The Rooms of all Students whose accounts are not paid on the first Saturdays in June and December, respectively, shall be declared vacant on those days by the Registrar of Chambers.

8. The Registrar of Chambers is empowered to charge Students, who may change their rooms, and neglect to give the keys of their vacated Rooms to the Clerk of the Works, the rents of both Rooms until the deposit be transferred.

9. The Registrar of Chambers is authorized (in case Students fail to give up their Rooms in time) to charge the occupier rent as if his name were on the Books, provided that the sum charged do not exceed the deposit.

10. The Provost is permitted, if he think fit, to grant Rooms to Students who have entered College at the Midsummer Entrance or at the October Entrance, and who have paid the Entrance Fee of £15, even though their names be not on the College Books in the existing Junior Freshman Class.

Attendance on Divine Service.—All Students who are members of the Churches of Ireland or England, and who reside within a distance of one mile and one-half from the College, are required to attend Divine Service in the College Chapel, both on Sundays and week-days[a]. It is the duty of the Junior Dean to bring the names of such Students as are negligent in their attendance under the notice of the Provost or Senior Dean. Students resident within the College, who persistently refuse to comply with the statutable enactments on this point, are liable to be deprived of their Rooms.

The hours of Divine Service in the College Chapel are the following:—On Sundays and holidays[b], Morning Prayer is read at 9.45 a.m., and Evening Prayer at five o'clock. On week-days, not holidays, Morning Prayer is read at half-past eight o'clock, and Evening Prayer at five o'clock. The Order for Morning and Evening Prayer is shortened in the Chapel on ordinary week-days, by the omission of certain prescribed portions. On Sundays and holidays, as also at Evening Prayer on Saturdays, and the eves of such holidays as have vigils, all Students must wear surplices, with the hoods belonging to their Degrees, if they be Graduates. But on Ash-Wednesday and Good Friday gowns are worn.

[a] Some whose residence is very distant are excused from Week Chapel, on attending Morning Prayer on Sundays. The general limit of distance is about a mile from the College.

[b] On days of Public Examination, Morning Prayer is read at half-past eight o'clock

The Holy Communion is administered on all the greater Church Festivals, and on other days fixed by the Provost, which are notified in the University Calendar. The Offertory is applied in aid of the General Sustentation Fund of the Church of Ireland.

After Morning Prayer on Sundays, a Sermon is delivered by one of the Professors of Divinity, the Donnellan Lecturer, or one of the University Preachers for the year.

After Evening Prayer on Fridays and Sundays, the Evening Preachers deliver in turn a short sermon (called a Common-place) "ad modum Theologicæ concionis.[a]"

Students in residence, who are members of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, are required to lodge with the Junior Dean a certificate of attendance upon one of the Presbyterian Churches of the city signed by the Minister of that Church.[b]

Corrections.—At half-past ten o'clock on Saturday mornings, the Junior Dean attends in the Hall, and reads out the names of all Students who have been punished for neglect of duties or other offences during the week. It is the interest of those who can excuse themselves to be present, and if their excuses are admitted by the Dean, the fines are taken off.

Commons of Resident Students.—All Students resident in College, unless specially excused by the Provost, must dine in the Commons Hall, except during the summer vacation. They must take care to put their name on Commons by application to the Clerk of the Buttery, as soon as they come into residence.

The Regulations decreed by the Board were modified, April 28, 1877, July 8, 1878, March 20, 1886, March 26, 1887, and July 5, 1890. The Rules now in force are as follows:—

1. That all Fellow-Commoners and Pensioners under the standing of M. A., and holding Chambers in the College, be uniformly charged, in addition to the Chamber-rent now paid to the Registrar of Chambers, a certain specified sum per week for certain portions of the year; and that the sums thus accruing be considered as contributions to a Commons Fund.

2. That these charges be, for each Fellow-Commoner, seven shillings and six pence per week, and for each Pensioner five shillings; said

[a] Stat. Coll. cap. xvi.

[b] Resolutions of Board and Council, May 15 and 19, 1886.

charges to be levied for all the solid weeks in each Term in which Undergraduate Lectures shall be given, including the first and last of such weeks, or for so many of those weeks in any Term as the Student holds Chambers without actually giving up the keys of the same to the person entitled to receive them.

3. That these charges be made by the Clerk of the Buttery Books, from the Quarterly Chamber-rent list furnished by the Registrar of Chambers, against all persons liable to the same; and be introduced in the half-yearly accounts payable to the Junior Bursar, among the incidentals of the past half-year, under the name of Commons Fund. All persons, however, to whom Chambers may be granted within any of the periods above specified, are not to be considered liable to these charges until the ensuing Term.

4. That the weekly sums thus charged be allowed in the regular Commons Charge to each Student, and the remainder, or variable part of the Commons Charge, be payable to the Clerk of the Buttery Books.

5. Students shall be allowed to put their names on Commons by paying for a time not less than a week.

Students residing habitually at a distance from Dublin, and coming to Dublin to attend the Examinations of their Class, are allowed to put their names on Commons on the days on which these Examinations are held.[a]

6. The Junior Dean shall be required to impose a fine of 5s. a week upon all Students, actually resident in College, whose names shall not be on Commons at all times except during the long Vacation; it being understood that the 5s. a week Commons Fund shall be considered an equivalent to this fine during the week in which Commons Fund is imposed.

7. No Student's name shall be placed on the Commons List without previous payment to the Clerk of the Buttery of the amount due for the period during which his name is placed on Commons. This rule is to apply in the case of sons of Fellows and Professors.

N. B.—The variable part of the Commons Charge during Term is about equal to the fixed part, which is charged in the half-yearly accounts under the foregoing Rules.

Before and after meat, Grace was formerly said by certain of the Scholars in turn, who were called Waiters. This obligation was done away with by the Act 36 Victoria, chapter 21.

On Nov. 21, 1873, it was resolved by the Board, that ten Scholars, or other Students, should be annually appointed to say Grace before and after meat in the Commons Hall, on the following conditions:—

1. They shall each receive a salary of £10 per annum, to be paid quarterly, if the duty has been satisfactorily discharged.

2. They shall be annually selected by the two Deans, and the names of those selected shall be submitted to the Board for appointment to the office.

[a] Resolution of the Board, November 22, 1890.

3. Regard shall be had, in the selection, to the general character of the Student for regularity, steadiness, and general good conduct, as such qualities are the best security that the duties of the office will be properly discharged.

The Grace must be repeated memoriter, and in Latin, in a form prescribed by the Statutes of the College.[a]

Night-Roll.—All Students resident in the College, below the standing of M.A., must attend night-roll, which is called by the Junior Dean every night at nine o'clock. After night-roll no Student is permitted to pass the College gates without a written order from the Dean.

Those who are late for night-roll may return their names at the gate before twelve o'clock. Not more than two such returns in any week will be allowed to a Junior Freshman, or three to a Senior Freshman, or four to a Junior Sophister, or five to a Senior Sophister. Fellow-Commoners are allowed in each class one more such return than Pensioners. Those who return their names more frequently than their standing allows are fined as tardy; and those who do not return their names at all are considered as being absent from College, and severely fined, unless they are able to give a satisfactory reason for the omission. The College gates are closed at twelve o'clock, and the name of each Student who comes into College after that hour is specially returned to the Junior Dean, and a fine is inflicted, unless such Student has previously obtained a written permission from him.

Course in Arts.

ENTRANCE.

1. The mode of admission into this University is by passing an Examination.

The Senior Lecturer is authorized to allow a Graduate in Arts of any University chartered under the Crown to have his name placed on the College Books on payment of the Entrance Fee, without passing the Matriculation Examination.[a]

Every person desirous of becoming a Student in Arts must, at his Entrance, place himself under the tuition of one of the Tutor Fellows who receive Pupils. The Collegiate interests of the Pupil are under the guardianship of his Tutor. Students may enter as Fellow-Commoners or Pensioners. But a Nobleman, the son of a Nobleman, or a Baronet, may enter as Nobilis, Filius Nobilis, or Eques. Students of limited means may compete for Sizarships, and, if successful, may enter as Sizars. Students entering after March 21, and at or before the second Entrance in October, are permitted to join the Junior Freshman Class which was formed in the previous November, on payment of the half-year's fees due by members of that class, in addition to the Entrance Fee (see under 'College Charges').

There are seven Matriculation or Entrance Examinations in the year. Of these, the Midsummer Entrance in Trinity Term, and the Entrance at the commencement of Michaelmas Term, are known as the Principal Entrance Examinations. They last for two days, and those among the successful candidates who obtain sufficiently high marks are selected by the Senior Lecturer for a further Examination for High Places at Entrance. This additional examination lasts for one day, and on the general result of the three days' examination, the selected candidates are arranged in order of merit, and their names, together with those of the Schools from which they present themselves, are published at the conclusion of the Examination. The Senior Lecturer is authorized to issue Special Certificates to those who are so selected.[b]

At these Principal Entrances the candidates are examined in either French or German in addition to the ordinary subjects, and the Classical Course is restricted to certain authors given below.

Of the other Entrance Examinations, four are held on the days immediately previous to the four Examinations of the Junior Freshman Class (including the Hilary Supplemental Examination in June) so as to enable students from a distance to pass a Term Examination as well as the Entrance without unnecessary loss of time. The fifth is held immediately before the Michaelmas Lectures begin. The dates of these Examinations may be found in the Almanac, and are also given under the heading 'Days of Examination.' In addition, the Senior Lecturer grants a Special Examination to such Students as are unable to present themselves at the regular Examinations, on reasonable grounds being given. The Entrance Examinations commence at 10 a.m.

8. Tacitus; any complete Book of the Annals or Histories.

FRENCH or GERMAN. } Short passages will be set for translation into English, and a short English passage for translation into French or German, with a few grammatical questions.

Additional Examination for High Places.

The Candidates are examined in passages, approved by the Senior Lecturer, from Greek and Latin authors, in general questions in Grammar and History, in Greek Prose Composition, in Geometry and in Algebra.

2. Course for Ordinary Entrances.

At the other Entrance Examinations, Students are required to answer in any two Greek and any two Latin Classical Authors, of their own selection, together with the other subjects specified above, with the exception of French and German. Students entering on the days previous to the Junior Freshman Term Examinations may bring up the Classical Authors appointed for the Junior Freshman Term Examination as part of their Entrance Course.

3. Entrance Course for Students not taking the Art. Course.

Musical Degrees.

Candidates for Musical Degrees, who are not also taking out the Arts Course, are permitted to substitute a Modern Foreign Language for Greek at the Entrance Examination, and they are examined in Acoustics (including Applications of Arithmetic to Acoustics) in addition to the ordinary Entrance Course. They are recommended to read Sedley Taylor "On Sound and Music."

Engineering Diplomas.

Students who wish to enter Trinity College for the purpose of going through the Engineering School only, are at liberty to substitute a Modern Foreign Language for Greek at the Entrance Examination. But a Candidate Engineering Student who avails himself of this privilege must pass the Examination for admission to the Engineering School, as well as the Entrance Examination in Arts, before his name is placed on the College Books.

4. Prizes obtainable in connexion with Entrance.

1st. Sizarships in Classics, Science, Hebrew, and Irish. The regulations respecting the Course, Privileges, &c., are given below.

2nd. Reid Sizarship, tenable by natives of the county of Kerry only.

3rd. Twelve Junior Exhibitions, value £25 a year, tenable for two years. The Regulations are given under the heading 'Exhibitions.'

4th. The Kidd Scholarship, value about £76 per annum, tenable for four years. The Examination for this Scholarship is held each fourth year, unless vacancies should occur oftener.

5th. Eighteen Entrance Prizes in Composition and Literature,[a] namely, a First Prize of £5 and a Second Prize of £2 in each of the following subjects (provided sufficient merit be shown by the Candidates):—

[a] The Greek and Latin Prizes are the gift of the Vice-Chancellor.

1. Greek Verse.
2. Latin Verse.
3. Greek Prose.
4. Latin Prose.
5. English Literature and Composition.
6. English History and Modern Geography.
7. French.
8. German.
9. Hebrew. (Hebrew Sizars are not eligible for this Prize.)

A student may compete for one or more of these Prizes. The names of the successful Candidates, and the Schools from which they present themselves, are published at the conclusion of the Examinations.

These Examinations are held early in Michaelmas Term, and are open to all Students who are then commencing the Junior Freshman Year, i.e., to those Students who have entered since March 22nd, and have not paid any half-yearly fee. They commence at 10 a.m.

The following Books are recommended:—

In English History and Modern Geography—

Green's "Short History of the English People." Gardiner's "Students' History of England." Freeman's "William the Conqueror."	130 marks.
Clyde's "Geography."	70 marks.

(Students are recommended to use Gardiner's Atlas of English History.)

In English Literature, Macaulay's Essays on Addison, on Clive, and on Moore's Life of Byron; Trench's English, Past and Present; The Student's Manual of English Literature (last edition); Shakspere's Merchant of Venice, King Richard II., and Macbeth (Clarendon Press Series); Milton's Paradise Lost, Books iii. iv., and Comus.

The Courses appointed in French, German, and Hebrew are as follow:—

French.—Souvestre, Au coin du feu; Bridge, French Literature (Chaps. xi.–xx.), pp. 156–281; Corneille, Horace, Le Cid.

German.—Schiller's Wilhelm Tell, and Geschichte des dreissigjährigen Krieges, Books II. & III.
Hauff's Gedichte und Märchen.

The merits of the Candidates in French and German will be tested by conversation, translation, composition, and questions in Grammar and Literary History.

Hebrew.—Grammar (including written exercises on the paradigms of nouns and verbs) and first eight Psalms.

The Examiners are—

For Greek and Latin Verse and Prose:—The Regius Professor of Greek and the Professor of Latin.

For English History and Modern Geography:—The Professor of Modern History and one Examiner appointed by the Board.

For English Literature and Composition:—The Professor of English Literature and one Examiner appointed by the Board.

For French:—The Professor of the Romance Languages and one Examiner appointed by the Board.

For German:—The Professor of German and one Examiner appointed by the Board.

In the year 1901 the following changes will be made:—

1. The Supplemental Entrance Examinations in June and October be discontinued.

2. The Principal Entrance Examinations in June and October will be held on the two days immediately preceding the Junior Freshman Term Examinations in those months.

3. The Examination for High Places at Entrance will be held on the first day of the Junior Freshman Term Examinations in June and October.

4. The same Course will be prescribed for Principal and for Ordinary Entrance Examinations, and will be as follows:—

English Composition; Latin Composition; Arithmetic (the first Four Rules, Fractions, and Simple Equations); Euclid, Books i., ii., iii.; English History; Modern Geography; and any two Greek and any two Latin authors that students may select.[a]

5. For High Places, Candidates will be further examined in the following subjects:—

Unseen passages from Greek and Latin authors; Greek and Latin Grammar and Ancient History; Greek Prose Composition; Geometry and Algebra; and French or German, passages being set for translation into and from English.

ENTRANCE PRIZES IN EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.

EXPERIMENTAL PHYSICS COURSE.

Candidates will be expected to be familiar with elementary physical principles, such as those involved in the working of levers, cogwheels, whistles, pumps, electric telegraphs, lenses, and with the action of rainfalls, heating by friction, and similar phenomena. There will be a practical examination in which their ability to make simple physical measurements will be tested by requiring them to measure lengths, areas, and volumes, weight, velocity, and acceleration, the pressure of liquids, and the focal lengths of lenses. They should be able to plot their results on squared paper, draw plans to scale of the things they measure, and plot the paths of rays of light passing through or reflected by plane surfaces. They will be expected to be familiar with the metric system.

---

[a] The quantity of each author to be presented for examination should be not less than the equivalent of two Books of Virgil, or Xenophon, or of a Greek play.

CHEMICAL SCIENCE COURSE.

Physical and Chemical changes of matter—how distinguished. Elements and compounds. Law of definite proportions—Equivalents.

Water—its chief physical and chemical properties—its ultimate composition—Analysis—Electrolysis—Chief properties of hydrogen and oxygen. Synthesis of water. Laws of gaseous combination. Elementary ideas relating to molecules and atoms. Avogadro's law. Water as a solvent—Natural waters. Peroxide of hydrogen. Valence—law of multiple proportions.

Atmospheric Air—the principal substances contained in it—how they are recognised—their condition in air. Relations by air to processes of combustion and animal respiration. Nitrogen—its chief compounds with oxygen and hydrogen. Acids, alkalies, salts—their general characters.

Carbon—its forms. Allotropism. The two oxides of carbon—their chief physical and chemical properties and relations. The hydrides of carbon, marsh gas and olefiant gas. Coal gas and the nature of flame.

Deductions of formulæ and solutions of simple chemical problems.

At the Practical part of the examination, candidates will be expected to recognise one or more of the elements or compounds named above, or to prepare any of them. They may also be asked to perform simple quantitative operations illustrating general principles, such as—the action of heat on a metallic salt, the displacement of one metal by another from solution, or the measurement by the volume of a gas evolved.

Note.—Systematic qualitative analysis is not required at this stage.

Entrance Prizes in Natural Science.

BOTANY COURSE.

The general characteristics of the chief Divisions of Plants. Physiology and Geographical Distribution. Flowering Plants.

Morphology of the Flower and Pollination. The Life-history of Ferns and Mosses.

Some practical acquaintance with the dissection of Flowers and of the minute structure of Plant tissues will be required of the Candidates.

ZOOLOGY COURSE.

The anatomy of the Lobster or Cray-fish, the Dog-fish, the Frog, the Fowl or Pigeon, the Rabbit.

General principles of the Physiology of the Circulatory, Respiratory, Muscular, and Nervous Systems.

General principles of Classification.

PHYSIOGRAPHY COURSE.

Huxley's Physiography.

[Note added.]

School Teachers and Candidates desirous of obtaining fuller information with regard to these subjects may apply to the Senior Lecturer.

SIZARSHIPS.

SIZARS are Students of limited means, who have their commons free of expense, and are exempted from annual fees. The Entrance fee for Sizars is £1 1*s*. 3*d*. They were formerly nominated, one by each Fellow, and eight or more (provided the number of thirty were not exceeded) by the Provost. They are now admitted annually by an examination.

The poverty of the Candidates is one of the qualifications to be inquired into before they are admitted Sizars. Candidates for Sizarship are required to send in to the Senior Lecturer, on or before the 1st day of June in each year, a statement proving that they are persons of limited means and entitled to compete for admission on the ground of poverty; and only those persons who appear to the Senior Lecturer to be qualified are permitted to compete.

Students who enter College as Sizars are permitted to hold their Sizarships for four years. In the event of any person who is already a Student of the College being admitted a Sizar, the duration of his Sizarship shall not exceed four years from the Sizarship Examination next succeeding his entrance into College. Sizars who fail to keep their class, or who drop a class without the express permission of the Board, ipso facto vacate their Sizarships.

The Examination for Sizarships is held annually on days fixed by the Board, between Trinity Sunday and the end of Trinity Term, and marked in the University Almanack for the year. The Examination commences at 9.30.

Candidates must make application to the Senior Lecturer on or before the 1st day of June, for permission to present themselves at this Examination.[a]

---

[a] A Student who has been already a Candidate for Sizarship three times is considered ineligible, and will not be admitted a fourth time to the Examination.

Candidates for Sizarship who have not already entered College are required to pass all the subjects of the Entrance Examination to the satisfaction of the Senior Lecturer.[a]

Classical Sizarships.—Candidates for Classical Sizarships will be examined by papers in passages selected from the following Course:—

Homer, Iliad, Books i.–xii.
Demosthenes, Philippics, De Coronâ.
Euripides, Hecuba, Orestes, Phœnissæ.
Xenophon, Anabasis.
Horace.
Virgil, Eclogues and Georgics.
Livy, Books vi.–x., both inclusive.
Cicero, Philippic Orations, i.–viii., inclusive.
Terence, Andria, Heautontimorumenos, Adelphi.

They will also be examined by papers in Greek and Latin passages not comprised in the above Course, in Greek and Latin Grammar, Ancient Geography, Greek and Roman History, English Prose Composition, and Greek and Latin Prose Composition.

They will also be examined, vivâ voce, in two Greek and two Latin authors, selected from the ordinary Entrance Course. The books appointed for the vivâ voce Examination for the present year are as follows:—

Greek.—Plato, Apologia Socratis; Euripides, Troades.
Latin.—Sallust; Horace, Odes.

Mathematical Sizarships.—Sizarships are given in each year for proficiency in Mathematics.[b] The Course appointed is as follows:—

Geometry of the Right Line and Circle.
Algebra, including the General Theory of Equations.
Plane and Spherical Trigonometry.

Hebrew Sizarships.—To encourage the study of Hebrew, one Sizarship is usually given annually to the best answerer in the English and Latin Prose Composition and the vivâ voce portion of the Examination for Classical Sizarships, together with the following Course of Hebrew:—

Hebrew Grammar.
Exodus, Chaps. i.–xx., inclusive.
Psalms, i.–xli., inclusive.

In determining the election to the Hebrew Sizarship, equal weight is allowed to the answering in Classics and in Hebrew.

It was ordered by the Board, on November 8, 1856, "That, in future, no Student shall be elected to a Sizarship for answering in Hebrew, unless the Examiners report him to the Senior Lecturer as having positive merit of a high order."

[a] Resolution of Board and Council. June 21 and 25, 1884.

[b] The number awarded depends upon the merits displayed by the Candidates for the various Sizarships.

Irish Sizarships.—For the encouragement of the study of Irish, one Sizarship is usually given annually to the best answerer in the following Course of Irish:—

O'Donovan's Irish Grammar.
Wright's Irish Grammar.
Neilson's Irish Grammar.
Translation from Irish into English, and from English into Irish
The Four Gospels, and Epistles to the Romans and the Hebrews, in Irish.
The Gospels to be translated from Greek into Irish.

The Examination is conducted partly by written questions, and partly vivâ voce. No Sizarship is awarded to any Candidate, unless the Senior Lecturer considers that sufficient merit has been shown.

Reid Sizarships.—In the scheme approved by the Master of the Rolls, filed 7th August, 1888, it was directed that the income of the Reid Sizarship bequest should be applied to found additional Sizarships or Exhibitions in the nature of Sizarships, "not to exceed five in number, open only to Students of limited means, natives of the County of Kerry, who, having failed to obtain ordinary Sizarships, may be deemed to have shown sufficient merit. Such Exhibitions to be held on conditions similar in all respects to those upon which ordinary Sizarships are held in the said College, and not to preclude such Exhibitioners from obtaining any other Exhibitions or Prizes, for which an ordinary Sizar would be eligible, and the said College shall determine the annual stipend to be allowed to each such Exhibitioner, or the privileges in lieu of such stipend, in such way, as to place him, with respect to exemption from fees, free commons and free rooms, on a footing similar to that of ordinary Sizars."[a]

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE.

5. Explanation of Terminology.

There are three Terms in each Calendar year, i. e. Hilary Term, beginning on January 10, and ending on March 25; Trinity Term, beginning on April 15, and ending on June 30; and Michaelmas Term, beginning on October 10, and ending on December 20. If, however, Easter happens to fall within the limits of Hilary or of Trinity Term, that Term is increased by an additional week.

[a] It was also arranged that the residue (if any) of the income of the Reid Sizarship endowment might be applied in paying the usual fees to the Examiners at the Examinations for such Sizarships, and in such manner as the Board of Trinity College might think best calculated to encourage superior education in the said County, as for instance, by assigning from time to time stipends to such Schoolmasters as may distinguish themselves in preparing Students for Trinity College, Dublin, such stipends to be given on condition that such Master or Masters shall undertake to prepare, free of expense, as Day-Scholars, a certain number of boys of limited means for the Sizarship Examination of the College, or in such other way as to the said College may seem most effectual and expedient for the promotion of superior education in the said County.

The Academic Year commences in the beginning of November, i. e. with the Lectures of the Michaelmas Term. Afterwards, in the beginning of Hilary Term, there are the Hilary Term Examinations in the subjects of the Michaelmas Lectures. Then follow the Lectures of Hilary Term, and the Trinity Term Examinations, and finally the Lectures of Trinity Term and the Examinations of Michaelmas Term, which close the Academic Year, which therefore extends from November to November.

Freshmen and Sophisters.—During the first Academic Year, Students are called Junior Freshmen; during the second Academic Year, Senior Freshmen; during the third and fourth years, Junior and Senior Sophisters; then Junior, Middle, and Senior Bachelors. But a Student belonging to the Junior Bachelor Class is called a Candidate Bachelor, not a Junior Bachelor, until he has actually taken the B.A. Degree. Graduates who are of standing entitling them to take out the Master of Arts Degree are called Candidate Masters.

By a rising Junior Freshman is meant a Student who, having matriculated, has not yet entered on his actual Junior Freshman year.

Except in the case of the Final Freshman[a] and Degree Terms, a Student is said to have credit for a Term, or to have kept the Term, when he has passed the Examination held in that Term (or a Supplemental Examination in the same subjects), or has attended with diligence the Lectures given in the preceding Term, or by attending the Lectures given in Michaelmas Term. But the latter clause of this rule does not apply to the Michaelmas Terms of the Senior Freshman or Senior Sophister years, academic credit for which cannot be obtained by attendance on Lectures during Trinity Term, but is only secured by passing the Final Freshman and Degree Examinations, or the supplemental Examinations in the same subjects.

6. Course of Study.

The regular period of Study extends over four years, but there are provisions by which a Student can obtain his Degree in less than four calendar years; for instance, under certain circumstances, a Student entering in October may obtain his Degree in about two years and eight months.

In the ordinary course a Student who enters before the 21st of March in any year, is placed in the Junior Freshman Class which commenced in the previous November. But a Student entering on or after the 21st of March and before the Junior Freshman Examination in October is permitted to join the existing Junior Freshman Class (i. e. that formed in the previous November) on payment of the half-yearly fee of eight guineas paid in April by members of that class; and if he passes the Trinity Term Examination in April, or the Hilary Supplemental Examination in June, or the Michaelmas Examination in October, he will begin the Senior Freshman year in the November succeeding his Entrance. Such a Student is said to have saved his year, and it will be necessary for him, as for any other member of the Class, to pay a second half-yearly Fee on or before the first Friday in November. Thus the total amount of the Fees payable during the Course is the same whether the year be saved or not.

[a] That is, the Michaelmas Term Examination of the Senior Freshman year.

In the Senior Sophister year a similar advantage is sometimes granted. A Student who obtains the necessary permission from the Senior Lecturer (see § 11) is allowed to rise from the Senior Sophister Class to the Junior Bachelor Class in the June instead of the November of his Senior Sophister year on payment of the Fees necessary to entitle him to be placed in that Class. The names of such Junior Bachelors are kept on the books until the following June without further payment, and the total amount of the Fees payable is not increased.

A Student who desires to avail himself, to the full extent, of the benefits of an University Education, should, in addition to the Ordinary Course, take the Lectures and Examinations in some one or more of the various Honor and Prize Courses. He may also attend such of the Professorial Lectures as deal with subjects of interest to him.

To obtain the B.A. Degree it is necessary that the Student shall keep eight Terms in all, viz. the Final Freshman, with three previous Freshman Terms, and the Degree, with three previous Sophister Terms. These Terms cannot be arbitrarily selected. In each of the four academic years, i.e. from November to November, a Student must obtain credit for at least one Term. In the Junior Freshman and Junior Sophister years, this term must be kept by Examination, while in the Senior Freshman and Senior Sophister years, it must be either the Hilary or the Trinity Term. If the Student fail to keep the compulsory Term within the academic year, he loses his class (see § 14).

The following rules give the modes in which the Student is permitted to fulfil these requirements:—

7. Junior Freshman Year.

In the Junior Freshman year, a Student must obtain credit for one Term by Examination, otherwise he will not be allowed to become a Senior Freshman in November, but will be put down to the Class then commencing the Junior Freshman year. It is advisable, though not absolutely necessary, that he should also obtain credit for a second Term, either by Lectures or Examination.

Students who are Members of the Churches of Ireland or of England, or of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, must keep one Catechetical Term at least (see under "Catechetical Course," § 31).

In June there is a Supplemental Examination in the subjects of the Hilary Term, but only Students who have not already credit for a Term Examination are permitted to present themselves at this Examination. (Students should observe that, in accordance with § 5, attendance on the Michaelmas Term Lectures and passing the Supplemental Hilary Examination in June entitle the Student to credit for a single Term only, i.e. Hilary Term).

8. Senior Freshman Year.

A Senior Freshman who has kept at least two Terms (one by Examination, § 7) in his Junior Freshman year may keep the Senior Freshman year as explained in (a) or (b).

(a). He may keep either the Hilary Term[a] or the Trinity Term,[b] and then pass the Final Freshman in October (or if he desire, he may supplement the Final Freshman in the succeeding January or April);

Or—

(b). He may omit both the Hilary Term[a] and the Trinity Term,[b] provided that he supplements the Trinity Examination in October. He may then supplement the Final Freshman in either the following January or April. (Failure to pass the Trinity Supplemental in October involves loss of the year to a Student coming under this rule).

A Senior Freshman who has kept one Term only (by Examination, § 7) in his Junior Freshman year may keep the Senior Freshman year as explained in (c), (d), or (e).

(c). He may keep both Hilary Term[a] and Trinity Term,[b] and may then pass the Final Freshman in October, or supplement it in the succeeding January or April;

Or—

(d). He may omit either the Hilary Term[a] or Trinity Term,[b] and then either supplement the omitted Term in October, and supplement the Final Freshman in January or April; or else he may supplement the omitted Term in January, and supplement the Final Freshman in April,

Or—

(e). He may omit both the Hilary Term[a] and the Trinity Term,[b] and supplement the Hilary, Trinity, and Final Freshman Examinations in October, January, and April, respectively.

Catechetical Terms must be kept in the Senior Freshman year, as given under "Catechetical Course," § 31.

9. The name of a Senior Freshman who does not pass the Fina Freshman in October is nevertheless continued on the books a a Junior Sophister until it has become impossible for him to fulfi the above requirements, but he cannot obtain credit for any Junior Sophister Term until he has passed the Final Freshman Examination, and he is put down into the Senior Freshman Class in case it becomes impossible for him to fulfil the preceding conditions. No Senior Freshman Student can be awarded a Prize at the Michaelmas Examinations of his Class unless he has passed the Final Freshman Examination for the same Term. No Student is allowed to compete for Honors at any Junior Sophister Examination unless he has previously passed the Final Freshman Examination.

[a] That is, the Michaelmas Lectures or the Hilary Examination.

[b] That is, the Hilary Lectures or the Trinity Examination.

10. Junior Sophister Year.

In the Junior Sophister year, a Student must obtain credit for one Term by Examination, otherwise he will not be allowed to become a Senior Sophister in November, but will be put down to the Class then commencing the Junior Sophister year. It is advisable, though not absolutely necessary, that he should also obtain credit for a second Term, either by Lectures or Examination.

11. Senior Sophister Year, and Degree Examination.

A Senior Sophister who has kept at least two Terms (one by Examination, § 7) in his Junior Sophister year may keep the Senior Sophister year and the Degree Examination as explained in (a) or (b).

(a). He may keep either the Hilary Term[a] or the Trinity Term,[b] and then go up for the Degree Examination in December, or at any subsequent Examination; or he may present himself for Moderatorship in October or November.

But if a Student coming under this rule keep the Hilary Term,[a] he may, by the special permission of the Senior Lecturer, be raised to the standing of a Candidate Bachelor on payment of the half-yearly fee due before the Student becomes a Candidate Bachelor, and he would then be entitled to present himself at the Degree Examination in June. The names of such Students remain on the College Books till the first Saturday in the succeeding June.[c]

In granting this permission regard is had to the merit which the Student has shown at the Final Freshman and other Examinations, as well as the importance to the Student of obtaining the Degree at the earlier date.

Or—

(b). He may omit both the Hilary Term[a] and the Trinity Term,[b] provided that he supplements the Trinity Examination in October. He may then go up for the Degree in either the following January or at any subsequent Examination. (Failure to pass the Trinity Supplemental in October involves loss of the year to a Student coming under this rule.)

---

[a] That is, the Michaelmas Lectures or the Hilary Examination.

[b] That is, the Hilary Lectures or the Trinity Examination.

[c] In cases of extreme urgency the Board have allowed Senior Sophisters to answer for their Degree in April.

A Senior Sophister who has kept one Term only (by Examination, § 7) in his Junior Sophister year may keep the Senior Sophister year and the Degree Examination as explained in (c), (d), or (e).

(c). He may keep both Hilary Term[a] and Trinity Term,[b] and may then pass his Degree in December, or at any subsequent Examination; or he may present himself for Moderatorship in October or November;

Or—

(d). He may omit either the Hilary[a] or Trinity Term,[b] and then either supplement the omitted Term in October, and go up for his Degree in January, or at any subsequent Examination; or else he may supplement the omitted Term in January, and take his Degree in April;

Or—

(e). He may omit both the Hilary[a] and the Trinity Terms,[b] and supplement the Hilary and Trinity Examinations in October and January, taking the Degree in April.

12. Senior Sophisters who, at the beginning of November, have kept no Term in the Senior Sophister year, are put down into the Class then beginning the Senior Sophister year.

All other Senior Sophisters are raised, at the beginning of November, to the Junior Bachelor Class, ranking either as Candidate Bachelors or Candidate Bachelor Supplementalists, according as they had or had not, at the conclusion of the Examinations in the preceding April, kept the three Sophister Terms required before the Degree. But Students who, at the end of April, have kept the three Sophister Terms, may be raised in October, on payment of the half-yearly Fee then due, and may thereupon present themselves at the Moderatorship Examinations.

A Candidate Bachelor Supplementalist may present himself at any Senior Sophister Ordinary or Supplemental Examination, as a Supplementalist in the work of that Examination, and may proceed to the Degree in any Term subsequent to that in which he keeps the last of the required Sophister Terms.

13. No Student is entitled to present himself as a candidate at the Moderatorship or December Degree Examinations of his class unless he fulfils the conditions in (a) or (c); but in exceptional cases he may be allowed to do so by special permission of the Board, provided that he would be entitled to present himself for the Supplemental Degree Examination in the following January.

14. In all cases in which a Student loses his Class he enters on the new Class with credit for all the Terms he has kept. Thus, if a Student who has kept the Trinity Term of his Senior Freshman year, is put down from the Junior Sophister Class to the Senior Freshman Class, he is counted as having kept the Trinity Term of that year, and he cannot obtain fresh academic credit by keeping it over again.

[a] That is, the Michaelmas Lectures or the Hilary Examination.

[b] That is, the Hilary Lectures or the Trinity Examination.

Mode of obtaining Credit for the various Terms.

As stated in § 5, Terms may be kept either by Examination or by Lectures.

15. Keeping of Arts Terms by Examination.

A Student presenting himself for Examination is required by the Senior Lecturer to answer satisfactorily in each separate subject, or group of allied subjects, for which he is liable. A slight deficiency in one subject may, however, be counterbalanced by marked proficiency in others, provided the previous record of the Student does not indicate persistent neglect of the deficient subject. Special attention is paid to the mark in English Composition.

The name of a Student presenting himself at an Examination must be on the College books before the day of that Examination.

The October Final Freshman Examination lasts three days; all the other Term Examinations, including the Degree, last for two days. On the first day papers are set; on the second day the candidates are examined viva voce. The hours of the Term Examinations are, in the forenoon, from half-past nine to twelve, and in the afternoon, from two to four or five, except during the months of December and January, in which the afternoon hours are from one to three or four; on the viva voce days, however, the hour of termination of the Examination depends on the number of candidates; and a Student must remain in the Examination Hall until all his viva voce Examinations are completed.

Students must wear academicals at all Arts Examinations other than Entrance and Sizarship.

Students residing habitually at a distance from Dublin, and coming to Dublin to attend the Examinations of their Class, may put their names on Commons on the days on which these Examinations are held. They should communicate with the Clerk of the Buttery (Registrar's Office) at or shortly after 12 o'clock on the day of the Examination.

A programme, giving the hours at which the different papers are set, is posted on the notice board at the Front Gate, a day or two before the Examination.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS FROM THE UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE.

Students in Arts, of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, desiring to become Members of the University of Dublin, will be allowed credit for their previous Academic attendance, according to the following rules:[a]—

1. Students in Arts who have kept, by residence, three Terms at Oxford, and have passed the Examination called "Respon-

---

[a] Adopted by Board April 23, 1878, and by Council, May 15, 1878.

sions," will be entitled to be placed in the Senior Freshman Class.

The same standing will be allowed to Cambridge Students who have kept, by residence, two Terms, and have passed the "Previous Examination."

2. Students in Arts who have kept, by residence, six Terms at Oxford, and have passed the "First Public Examination," will be entitled to be placed in the Junior Sophister Class.

The same standing will be allowed to Cambridge Students who have kept, by residence, four Terms, and passed the "Previous Examination."

3. Oxford Students who have kept, by residence, nine Terms, and have passed the "First Public Examination," will be entitled to be placed in the Senior Sophister Class.

The same standing will be allowed to Cambridge Students who have kept six Terms, and passed both parts of the "General Examination."

4. Students in Arts who have kept, by residence, twelve Terms at Oxford, and have passed the "First Public Examination," will be admitted to the Examination for the Degree of A. B.

The same privilege will be allowed to Students who have kept nine Terms at Cambridge, and have passed both parts of the "General Examination for the Degree."

5. Students from Oxford or Cambridge desiring to be placed on the Books of Trinity College, Dublin, must produce, in addition to their Certificate of the Terms kept by residence, a Certificate of good conduct, signed by the Head of their College or Hall, or by the Censor of Non-Collegiate Students.

16. Keeping of Arts Terms by Lectures.

The following rule was passed by the Council and approved by the Board in Trinity Term, 1894:—

"That Students in order to obtain credit for a Term by attendance at Tutorial Lectures are required to attend five-sixths of the number of Lectures appointed for the Term; but the Senior Lecturer may on the recommendation of their Lecturer, and without reference to the Board, grant terms to Students who shall have attended not less than three-fourths of the whole. . . ."

Students seeking credit for a Term by Lectures must, at the commencement of such Term, register with the Clerk of the Books their places of residence for that Term, and during Term notify any change of residence. If this rule be not observed, credit for the Term cannot be allowed.

Students keeping the Term by Lectures can ascertain the hours at which they are to attend, as well as the names of their Lecturers, from the notices posted at their Tutors' Rooms.

Terms may also be kept by attendance on Lectures in the Indian and Home Civil Service School, which see.

No Lectures are held on Church Holidays marked in capital letters, or upon days marked thus (†) in the Almanac.—Resolution of Board, June 24, 1882.

Honor Lectures.—A Student keeping the Term may substitute one or more of the Honor Courses of Lectures for the corresponding Course or Courses of ordinary Lectures. For information regarding these Lectures see "Honor Lectures and Examinations."

A Student who in any Term obtains Honors in all the Subjects for which he would be liable, is entitled to claim credit for that Term, except in the case of the Littlego and Degree Examinations. A Student who obtains a Moderatorship is not required to compete at the ordinary Degree Examination.

The Lectures, both Ordinary and Honor, are, as a rule, chiefly devoted to the new business of the Term.

17. Catechetical Terms.

The Catechetical Examinations are on the day following the Term Examinations, but candidates from a distance are examined on the last day of the Term Examinations.

Catechetical Terms may be kept by Lectures, which commence at 9.30 a.m. in the Examination Hall on the days appointed in the Almanac, and are continued at the same hour on the succeeding Saturdays.

DETAILS FOR THE UNDERGRADUATE COURSE FOR THE PRESENT YEAR.

18. Latin Composition forms a part of every Latin Examination.[a] In the translation of selected passages from the Classical authors, separate weight will be allowed for the style of the English Composition.

The books named under English Composition are intended to supply subjects for English Composition. A few questions will also be set on the substance of the books.

19. Junior Freshman Year.

Throughout the Junior Freshman year, a Student keeping a Term by Examination must answer in all the prescribed subjects. Students keeping a Term by Lectures must attend two Courses of Lectures, one Course in Science and one in Classics. But Junior Class Engineering Students may substitute the Mathematical Lectures of the School for the ordinary Science Lectures.

MATHEMATICS, ...	Euclid, as before. Arithmetic, as before. Algebra, as before. Trigonometry, to the end of Solution of Plane Triangles.
GREEK, ...	Homer, Odyssey VI., IX.
LATIN, ...	Cicero, Pro Archia.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION, . .	Milton, Comus; Dryden, Essay on Dramatic Poesy (ed. Arnold), pp. 1–99.

Subjects for Trinity Lectures and Michaelmas Examination.

MATHEMATICS, ...	Euclid and Arithmetic, as before. Algebra, as before. Trigonometry, with the use of Logarithms.
GREEK, ...	Herodotus, Book VIII., to the end of chapter 99.
LATIN, ...	Livy, Book XXI.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION, . .	Pope, Rape of the Lock, and Characters of Men; Swift, Battle of the Books.

Junior Freshmen who as Medical Students desire to substitute a Professional Course for Languages after the Junior Freshman year, must substitute for Herodotus and Livy the following Special Course:—

SPECIAL COURSE,	Easy Greek and Latin passages will be set for translation into English, with grammatical questions. Easy English sentences for translation into Latin. An Elementary Paper on Greek and Roman History and Geography.

Candidates will be permitted to bring with them Greek and Latin Dictionaries for use at this Special Examination.

No Student will be allowed to present himself at this Examination unless he has passed a previous Junior Freshman Examination, and notice of his intention to present himself at the Special Examination must be given to the Senior Lecturer at least a week before the Examination.

Candidates obtaining an average of 40 per cent. in the Classical portion of this Examination, and passing in the Science and English, will be allowed to substitute one or other of the three following Courses for Languages in the Arts Course in the Senior Freshman, Junior Sophister, or Senior Sophister years :—

[A.]

LECTURES—

Winter, ...	Physics and Chemistry.
Summer, ...	Chemistry.

EXAMINATION—

Previous Medical Examination in Physics and Chemistry at close of year.

[B.]

LECTURES—

Winter, ...	Anatomy.
Summer, ...	Botany and Zoology.

EXAMINATIONS—

Previous Medical Examinations in Botany and Zoology at close of year, and Class Examinations in Anatomy and Histology.

[C.]

LECTURES—

Winter, ...	Advanced Anatomy and Physiology.
Summer, ...

EXAMINATION—

Previous Medical Examination in Anatomy and Institutes of Medicine (Practical Histology and Physiology).

20. Senior Freshman Year.

In the Senior Freshman year all the subjects are compulsory on all Students other than Medical Students who, having passed the required special Examination in October, come under the rules given above (see "Subjects for Michaelmas Term, Junior Freshman Year"), and may therefore substitute one of the Professional Courses for Classics both at Lectures and Examinations. Subject to this exception, Students keeping the Term by Lectures must attend Science and Classical Lectures.

Credit for Michaelmas Term cannot be obtained by attending the Lectures in Trinity Term, but only by passing the Final Freshman Examination.

Junior Class Engineering Students may substitute the Mathematical Lectures of the Engineering School for the Ordinary Science Lectures.

Honor Lectures.—Students may substitute either the Honor Lectures in Mathematics or those in Logics, for the ordinary Science Lectures.

Subjects for Michaelmas Lectures and Hilary Examination.

MATHEMATICS, . . .	All the Mathematics read in the Junior Freshman year.
Logic, ...	Abbott's Elements of Logic.
GREEK, ...	Plato, Apologia Socratis.
LATIN, ...	Cicero, Orations against Catiline.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION,	Addison: Spectator Club (ed. Arnold). Gray: Poems (ed. Bradshaw).

Subjects for Hilary Lectures and Trinity Examination.

MATHEMATICS, . . .	As before.
Logic, ...	As before.
MATHEMATICAL PHYSICS,	Statics, Galbraith and Haughton's Manual.
GREEK, ...	Sophocles, Œdipus Tyrannus.
LATIN, ...	Terence, Adelphi.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION,	Goldsmith: Traveller and Deserted Village. Johnson: Lives of Addison, Pope, and Swift

Subjects for the Final Freshman Examination.

(Trinity Lectures and Michaelmas Examination.)[a]

MATHEMATICS, . . .	As before.
Logic, ...	As before.
MATHEMATICAL PHYSICS,	Statics, as before. Dynamics, Galbraith and Haughton's Manual.
GREEK, ...	Homer, Iliad, Books XXII., XXIV.
LATIN, ...	Virgil, Æneid, Books IV., VI.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION,	Shakspere, Macbeth; Bacon's Essays, the following selection—Truth; Death; Revenge; Adversity; Goodness, and Goodness of Nature; Atheism; Superstition; Travel; Counsel; Innovations; Friendship; Discourse; Riches; Nature in Men; Custom and Education; Youth and Age; Studies.

At each Final Freshman Examination those Students who obtain 40 per cent. and upwards, and whose answering in the several subjects is considered satisfactory by the Senior Lecturer, are distributed into three Classes, the names in each Class being arranged in the order of the percentages obtained. The minimum standards of Classes are:—First Class, 60 per cent.; Second Class, 50 per cent.; Third Class, 40. Of the remaining Candidates, those whose answering is considered by the Senior Lecturer to be sufficient are allowed the Examination, and their names are arranged in alphabetical order as Unclassed Candidates.

[a] In the case of Army Candidates permission is occasionally given by the Board to come up for this Examination in the April preceding the regular date.

The Jellett Prizes for General Answering, value £5 and £3 respectively, are awarded on the result of this Examination (see under "Special Prizes").

The award of the Senior Exhibitions (value £25 per annum for two years) depends partly on the marks obtained at this Examination (see under "Senior Exhibitions.")

There is no written Examination in subjects printed in italics

21. Junior Sophister Year.

In the Junior Sophister year, Mathematical Physics, Logic, and English Composition are compulsory on all Students, as is also Astronomy for the Trinity and Michaelmas Terms.

Students who, in any Term, have Professional Privileges (as specified in § 22), are only required to take up the compulsory subjects in order to obtain credit for that Term in Arts.

Divinity Students are required to take up Greek and Latin (see under Divinity School General Rules), nor are they exempted on obtaining Professional credit in another School.

Medical Students who, as Junior Freshmen, have passed the Special Michaelmas Examination may substitute for Languages one or other of the Courses marked [A], [B], or [C], § 19.

All other Students are required to select one or other of the four optional Courses, namely:

(1) Languages (i.e. any two of the following four—Greek, Latin, French, German); (2) Experimental Science; (3) Natural Science; (4) History.

A Student selecting French or German will be required to write a translation from English into French or German, in addition to answering in the books named in § 23.

A Student may take up different optional subjects in different Terms throughout the Sophister years, except that in the Senior Sophister year he cannot keep a Term by Lectures in Experimental or Natural Science unless he has, as a Junior Sophister, kept at least one Term in those subjects respectively. No such restriction, however, applies to Examinations.

Keeping of Terms by Lectures.

There is one course of Lectures in the compulsory subjects of the Term, and Students with Professional Privileges obtain credit for the Term by attending it.

Students seeking credit for Divinity Lectures may keep the classical portion of the Term by attendance on Greek and Latin Lectures, or Greek and Hebrew Lectures, or they may substitute for the Classical Lectures an Examination (held at the conclusion of the Lectures) in Greek and Latin, or Greek and Hebrew. But they cannot substitute Hebrew for Latin at the regular Term Examinations.

Each of the four languages is represented by one half-course of Lectures, and attendance on two half-courses is necessary to keep the Term in Languages.

To obtain credit in Experimental Science, Junior Sophisters must attend the Lectures in Experimental Physics and those in Inorganic Chemistry, as well as Laboratory Instruction, for which last a fee of two and a-half guineas is payable to the Junior Bursar for each Term.[a] The Term in Experimental Science cannot be kept by attendance on Lectures during Trinity Term.

The arrangements as to the Professional Lectures in French, German, and Experimental and Natural Science are posted on the Tutors' doors at the beginning of Term.

Honor Lectures.—All Sophisters who have obtained Honors in Classics may substitute the Lectures of the Professors of Greek, Latin, or English Literature, for the Ordinary Lectures in either Greek or Latin.

Either the Course of Honor Lectures in Mathematical Physics, or that in Logics, may be substituted for the Ordinary Lectures in Mathematical Physics. Science Honormen may substitute the Lectures of the Professors of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy for the ordinary Science Lectures.

22. Professional Privileges.

Junior Sophisters, not in the Divinity School, who are keeping a Term in Arts by Lectures (or by the Examination at the commencement of the following Term), can obtain Professional Privileges by—

(a) Attending, during the Term, three-fourths of the Lectures of two of the Professors of Law, and passing the Examinations held at the conclusion of those Lectures;

Or,

(b) Attendance, during the Term, on Hospitals or Dissections, provided the Student be matriculated in Medicine;

Or,

(c) Attendance at three-fourths of the Professional Lectures of the Engineering School during the Term.

Or,

(d) Attendance, during the Term, by Candidates for Indian Civil Service, on two full Courses of the Special Lectures provided by the College for such Candidates.

But no Professional Privileges are allowed for a second attendance on the same course of Professional Lectures.

[a] Students who have paid their Chemistry Fee to the Junior Bursar for the Michaelmas Lectures are permitted to attend the Lectures in Chemistry in Hilary Term without additional payment: but they cannot obtain credit for the Term in Arts without attending the Laboratory; nor can they obtain credit in Arts for attendance on the Junior Sophister Honor Lectures in Experimental Physics without obtaining the permission of the Senior Lecturer.

Subjects for Michaelmas Lectures and Hilary Examination.

Compulsory Subjects :—

Logic,	As read in Senior Freshman year.
MATHEMATICAL PHYSICS,	Mechanics, as read in Senior Freshman year. Hydrostatics and Optics, Galbraith and Haughton's Manuals.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION,	Burke: two Speeches on America (in Clarendon Press Selections). Cowper: Task, Bks. 1, 2.

Optional Subjects :—

1. LANGUAGES (any two of the following four.)

GREEK,	Thucydides, Book II.
LATIN,	Tacitus, Annals, Book XI.
FRENCH,	Molière, Misanthrope.
GERMAN,	Goethe, Hermann.

2. EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE (detailed syllabus given below.)
3. NATURAL SCIENCE—Botany and Zoology—(detailed syllabus given below.)
4. HISTORY—Student's Gibbon, chaps. 10, 11, 12, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 31, 32, 33, 34, 38, 39.

Subjects for Hilary Lectures and Trinity Examination.

Compulsory Subjects :—

Logic,	As before.
MATHEMATICAL PHYSICS,	Mechanics, Hydrostatics, and Optics, as before.
ASTRONOMY,	Brinkley's Astronomy (new edition), chaps. i. to xiii., both included.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION,	Byron: Childe Harold, Cantos 3, 4. Essays of Elia, 1st series.

Optional Subjects :—

1. LANGUAGES (any two of the following four).

GREEK,	Demosthenes, Olynthiacs I., II., III.
LATIN,	Juvenal, Sat. iii. viii. x. xiii.
FRENCH,	Racine, Britannicus.
GERMAN,	Lessing, Minna.

2. EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE (detailed syllabus given below).
3. NATURAL SCIENCE—Botany and Zoology (detailed syllabus given below).
4. HISTORY—English and French History to the year 1485 (Gardiner's Student's England and the Student's France are recommended.)

Subjects for Trinity Lectures and Michaelmas Examination.

Compulsory Subjects :—

Logics,	Locke's Essay: Introduction; Book II. to chap. xxvi. inclusive (omitting sects. 10 to 20 of chap. i., sects. 10 to end of chap. xiii., chap. xv., and sects. 11 to 71 of chap. xxi.); Book III. (omitting chaps. vi. to viii.).
MATHEMATICAL PHYSICS AND ASTRONOMY,	As before.
ENGLISH COMPOSITION,	Scott: Waverley. Coleridge: Ancient Mariner, Christabel.

Optional Subjects :—

1. LANGUAGES (any two of the following four.)

GREEK,	Æschylus, Prometheus Vinctus.
LATIN,	Horace, Satires.
FRENCH,	Guizot, Civilisation en Europe.
GERMAN,	Goethe, Gedichte (Ed. Selss).

2. EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE (detailed syllabus given below).

3. NATURAL SCIENCE—Botany and Zoology (detailed syllabus given below).

4. HISTORY—English and French History from 1485–1815.

24. Syllabus of the Experimental Science Course.

The Course in Experimental Science consists of two Sub-Courses, Experimental Physics and Chemistry, in each of which Candidates are required to answer, and which are as follows :—

EXPERIMENTAL PHYSICS.

Candidates must understand the theory of, and know how to use, the instruments mentioned. They must understand the principles involved in the measurements and experiments, and be able to make calculations founded on them, and may be required to perform those marked thus *. Courses are provided in the Physical Laboratory for Students requiring practical instruction in Physical Measurements. They are desired to pay special attention to the principle of the Conservation of Energy, as illustrated in the various branches of Experimental Physics.

HILARY EXAMINATION.

General Properties of Matter:

Measurement of space (length, area, volume), time and mass (vernier, micrometer screw, pendulum clock, balance).
Characteristics of solids, liquids, and gases (compression, and shearing strains and stresses).
Measurement of pressure (mercurial and aneroid barometer, liquid manometer).
Measurement of density (specific gravity bottle,* hydrostatic balance,* hydrometers of variable immersion*).
Measurement of compressibility of gases (Boyle's tube*).

Heat:

Measurement of temperature (construction of mercurial thermometers, centigrade and Fahrenheit scales, maximum and minimum thermometers).
Measurement of coefficients of expansion for temperature of solids, liquids, and gases (Roy and Ramsden's method for solids;* Dulong's method,* and apparent expansion in glass* for liquids; air thermometer method* for gases).
Maximum density of water (Hope's experiment).
Experiments on force of contraction (tiring of wheels, &c.)
Machines founded on expansion of solids (metallic thermometers, compensated pendulums).
Measurement of density of a gas (Regnault's experiments).
Measurement of quantities of heat (method of mixtures*).
Measurement of specific heats (water calorimeters,* Dulong and Petit's law).
Laws of fusion and evaporation (boiling, effect of presence of other gases, distilling*).
Measurement of relation of temperature and pressure of saturated vapours (manometer tube method*).
Measurements of latent heats of fusion and evaporation (water calorimeter*).
Freezing mixtures, cooling by evaporation.
Measurement of mechanical equivalent of heat (Joule's experiment).

TRINITY EXAMINATION.

As before, and in addition:—

Electricity:

Laws of electric action (Coulomb's balance for repulsion).
Distribution on one conductor (proof plane,* hollow conductor*).
Distribution on two conductors (induction, ice pail experiment,* Leyden jar).
Electroscope (gold leaf, charging,* and testing* kind of electrification).
Electric discharges (spark and brush, points and lightning conductors, heating, chemical, and magnetic effects).

Machines transforming mechanical into electric energy (cylinder and plate machines, electrophorus).

Laws of magnetic force (torsion balance).

Laws of magnetic induction (magnets* and magnetic* substances).

Molecular nature of magnetism (broken magnets).

Terrestrial magnetism (declination, dip*).

Laws of magnetic force due to electric currents (tangent and reflecting galvanometers, electro-magnets).

Electromotive force due to chemical action (zinc, copper, and dilute sulphuric acid, amalgamation).

Polarization of cells (bichromate, Daniell's, Grove's and Bunsen's, and Le Clanché cells).

Laws of electrolysis (gas* and copper voltameters,* electroplating,* lead batteries).

Measurement of heat due to electric current (calorimeter,* glow and arc lamps).

Ohm's law (arrangement of cells).

Measurement of resistances (Wheatstone's Bridge*).

Measurement of electromotive forces (high resistance galvanometers*).

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION.

As before, and in addition:—

Sound:

Students must understand the nature of musical intervals, of tone, and of vowel sounds, and how to measure—

1. The pitch of a note by means—(α) of a syren; (β) of a graphic method.
2. The velocity of sound—(α) in a string, and (β) in a gas, by measuring the length of an internode.

Light:

Students must know how to measure—

1. The relative intensities of two lights.
2. The angle between two plane reflecting surfaces.
3. The refractive index of a prism.
4. The focal length of a convex lens.
5. The position of the lines in a spectrum.
6. The angle of polarization by reflection.
7. The positions of the planes of extinction of polarized light in microscopic crystals.
8. The wave-length of light by means of a grating.

CHEMISTRY.

The Examinations are confined to the leading facts and principles of the Science. Candidates are expected to be familiar with the methods used in the deduction of formulæ, and with the solution of such chemical problems as are referred to in the Course.

HILARY EXAMINATION.

Reynolds' Experimental Chemistry, chaps. I–XVII. inclusive.

Practical.—Preparation and identification of the gaseous and other elements included in the above Course.

TRINITY EXAMINATION.

Reynolds' Experimental Chemistry, to the end of chap. XXV.

Practical.—As before, but including all non-metals, with systematic analysis for single acid radicals.

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION.

Reynolds' Experimental Chemistry, to the end of chap. XLV.

Practical.—Qualitative analysis for a single metal.

25. Syllabus of Course in Natural Science.

Students are required to have a practical, as well as a theoretical, knowledge of the subjects of Examination.

HILARY TERM :—
ZOOLOGY, . . .	Macalister. Invertebrates (London Science Class-Book Series) : Protozoans and Polyps.
BOTANY, ...	Strasburger's Text Book of Botany, Part I., Section 2, Histology. The Demonstrations of the Professor of Botany in Michaelmas Term.
TRINITY TERM :—
ZOOLOGY, ...	As before, with Macalister, Invertebrates (London Science Class-Book Series) : Worms and Molluscs.
BOTANY, ...	Strasburger's Text Book as before, with Section 1, Morphology, with the Demonstrations in Hilary Term.
MICHAELMAS TERM :—
ZOOLOGY, ...	As before, with Macalister, Invertebrates (London Science Class-Book Series): Articulates; with the Demonstrations of the Professor.
BOTANY, ...	Strasburger's Text-Book, as before, with Section 3, Physiology. The business of the two previous Terms with the Demonstrations in Trinity Term.

26. Senior Sophister Year, and Degree Examination.

In the Senior Sophister Year, and at the Degree Examination. Astronomy, Ethics, and English Composition (and for Hilary and Trinity Terms, Logics), are compulsory on all Students. A choice is permitted to the Student in respect of the five remaining Courses of Mathematical Physics, Languages, Experimental Science, Natural Science, and History and Political Science.

Students not exempted by attendance in the Professional Schools must take up two of the optional subjects.

In Hilary and Trinity Terms, Medical and Indian Civil Service Students who fulfil the conditions in (a), (b), (c) or (d) of § 22, obtain the Professional Privilege of being required to answer in only one of the optional Courses.

A Senior Sophister[a] who has not been allowed professional privileges in Law as a Junior Sophister may, by attending three-fourths of the Lectures delivered in any Term by each of two Professors, and Passing the Examination held at the conclusion of these Lectures, obtain such privileges at the succeeding Term Examinations in Arts, but he will not be allowed privileges at the B.A. Examination unless he has credit for the three Terms in his Senior Sophister year with each of the two Professors.

[a] Resolution of the Board, November, 1897.

A Senior Sophister who has obtained credit for a Term by attending three-fourths of a Course of Lectures and who has passed the Examination in Law held at the conclusion of these Lectures, will be allowed professional privileges at the succeeding Term Examination in Arts, but will not be allowed such privileges at the B.A. Degree Examination unless he has obtained credit as above for the three Terms in Law of his Senior Sophister year and is classed at the General Examination in that Course held in Trinity Term.

Engineering Students who have passed the Final Examination in Engineering and are in the Senior Sophister Class will be allowed to take the Senior Sophister Course in Experimental Physics, and obtain credit for such attendance as Arts Students.[a]

Students seeking credit for Divinity Lectures must take up Classics, as in the Junior Sophister year, but may omit the other optional subjects, provided they have full attendance on the Lectures of Archbishop King's Lecturer, or the Regius Professor, and one of the Assistants, during the Term for which they claim such Privilege.

At the Degree Examination a Student can only claim Professional Privilege if he has credit for Professional attendance in the School of Divinity, as specified above, or in the other Schools, as specified in (a), (b), (c), or (d), § 22, for the entire year (i. e. the three Terms) either preceding the December Degree Examination of his Class,[b] or preceding the Degree Examination at which he presents himself (and if, being a Divinity Student, he takes up Classics).

At each Degree Examination, those Students who obtain 45 per cent. and upwards, and whose answering in the several subjects is considered satisfactory by the Senior Lecturer, are distributed into three Classes, the names in each Class being arranged in the order of the percentages obtained. The minimum standards for Classes are:—First Class, 65 per cent.; Second Class, 55 per cent.; Third Class, 45 per cent.

Of the remaining Candidates, those whose answering is considered by the Senior Lecturer to be sufficient are allowed the Examination, and their names are arranged in alphabetical order as Unclassed Candidates.

Candidates placed in the First Class are called Respondents, and are entitled to receive honorary Testimoniums, which are publicly presented to them by the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, at the Commencements at which they are admitted to their Degrees, and their names are permanently recorded in the Calendar immediately after those of the Moderators (see the List of Graduates in Honors at the B.A. Degree Examination).

[a] Resolution of the Board, November, 1897.

[b] This, at the Michaelmas, Hilary, and Trinity terms of his Senior Sophister year.

The Unclassed Candidates are arranged in alphabetical order.

The Degree can also be obtained on the result of the Moderatorship Examination, see § 30.

A Candidate whose name is on the books of the College, and who has passed the Degree Examination, can present himself at any Commencements, in order that the Degree may be conferred upon him, provided that he shall have paid the Degree Fee of one pound to the Junior Bursar on the day before the Commencements at latest. If his name be not on the Books, he must also pay the Replacement Fee of fifteen shillings to the Junior Bursar.

Keeping of Hilary or Trinity Terms by Lectures.

Senior Sophisters attending Lectures do not obtain credit for the Term, unless the Senior Lecturer be satisfied, either from their answering in the Junior Sophister year, or from a Special Examination, that they possess a competent knowledge of Astronomy.[a]

There is one Course of Science Lectures in each Term, which represents not only the compulsory subjects, but also the optional subject of Mathematical Physics. Hence a Student having Professional Credit in Law, Physic, or Engineering obtains credit for the Term in Arts by attendance on this Course of Lectures. A Divinity Student must attend this Course, and also a Course in Greek and Latin, or Greek and Hebrew, or he may substitute for Classical Lectures an Examination at the conclusion of the Lectures, as in the Junior Sophister year. The ordinary Lectures in Greek are on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and in Latin on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays in the Senior Sophister year. The Hebrew Lectures are on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

All other Students must attend the Lectures in one of the optional Subjects of Languages, Experimental Science, Natural Science, or History and Political Science, in addition to the Science Lectures representing the compulsory Subjects and Mathematical Physics.

In Experimental Science, Laboratory attendance is necessary, as in the Junior Sophister year, and the arrangements as to Chemistry Fees are the same also.

No Senior Sophister can obtain Credit for attendance on Lectures in Experimental Science who has not obtained Credit for a Junior Sophister Term in the same subject; and no Senior Sophister can obtain Credit for attendance on Lectures in Geology who has not, as a Junior Sophister, obtained Credit for Botany and Zoology.[b] To keep the Term in Experimental or Natural Science requires attendance during three days per week only.

[a] Resolutions of Board and Council, February 24 and 14, 1883.

[b] Resolutions of the Council (previously adopted by the Board), December 17, 1884.

No Academic Credit can be obtained by attendance on the Trinity Arts Lectures in the Subjects of the Degree Examination.

Honor Lectures.

Senior Sophisters who have obtained Honors in Mathematics may substitute the Lectures of the Professors of Mathematics and of Natural Philosophy for the Ordinary Lectures representing Ethics, Astronomy, and Mathematical Physics. Those who have obtained Honors in Classics may substitute Professorial Lectures for Classical Ordinary Lectures, as in the Junior Sophister year.

27. Subjects for Michaelmas Lectures and Hilary Examination.

Compulsory Subjects :—

Astronomy, ...	As read in Junior Sophister year.
Ethics and Logics, . .	Stewart's Outlines of Moral Philosophy. Part II. Locke, as read in Junior Sophister year, with Book IV., chaps. i. to xi., both included (omitting chap. vii.).
English Composition, .	Wordsworth: Rolfe's Selection, pp. 50–142. Carlyle: Essays on Burns and Johnson.

Optional Subjects :—

1. Mathematical Physics,	Mechanics, Hydrostatics, and Optics, as in Junior Sophister year.
2. Languages (any two of the following four), .	Greek—Aristotle, Nicomachean Ethics, Book II. Latin—Cicero, de Officiis, Book I. French—V. Hugo, Les Chants du Crépuscule. German—Schiller, W. Tell.
3. Experimental Science,	As in Course given below.
4. Natural Science, . .	As in Course given below.
5. History and Political Science, ...	Walker, Brief Text-book of Political Economy, Part ii., Part iii. omitting chap. 2; Mill's Representative Government (omitting chaps. 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 16.)

Subjects for Hilary Lectures and Trinity Examination.

Compulsory Subjects :—

Astronomy, ...	As before.
Ethics and Logics, . . .	Stewart, as before. Locke, as before. Butler's Analogy, Introduction, and Part I. (omitting chap. i.). Butler's Dissertation on Virtue.
English Composition, . .	Macaulay: Essays on Lord Clive and Horace Walpole. Tennyson: Selections by Rowe and Webb.

Optional Subjects:—

1. Mathematical Physics,	As before.
2. Languages (any two of the following four), .	Greek—Plato, de Republica, Book i. Latin—Virgil, Georgics, i. iv. French—Montaigne, Essais, ii., chap. xii. German—Heine, Buch der Lieder.
3. Experimental Science,	As in Course given below.
4. Natural Science, . .	As in Course given below.
5. History and Political Science, ...	Walker, Part iv. omitting chap. 6, Part vi. (chaps. 3, 4, 8). Bagehot, English Constitution.

Subjects for Degree Examination.

(Trinity Lectures and Michaelmas Examination.)

Compulsory Subjects:—

Astronomy, ...	As before.
Ethics, ...	Stewart and Butler, as before. Butler's Sermons, Preface and Sermons, i. ii. iii. viii. ix.
English Composition, . .	J. S. Mill: Inaugural Address at St. Andrew's University. Shakspeare: Hamlet.

Optional Subjects:—

1. Mathematical Physics, .	As before.
2. Languages (any two of the following four),	Greek—Aristophanes, Clouds. Latin—Horace Epistles, including the Art of Poetry. French—Boileau, Satires. German—Schiller, Abfall der Niederlande.
3. Experimental Science, .	As in Course given below.
4. Natural Science, . . .	As in Course given below.
5. History and Political Science, ...	Mill, Walker, and Bagehot (as before).

28. Syllabus of Course in Experimental Science.

Experimental Physics.

(Hilary Examination.)

As before in Junior Sophister year, and in addition:—

General Properties of Matter:

Measurement of gravitation (time of vibration of simple pendulum*)
Molecular theory of structure of solids, liquids, and gases (diffusion).
Measurement of compressibility of solids and liquids (piezometer).
Measurement of elasticity of solids (stretching,* bending,* torsion*).
Calculation of work done by elastic forces.

Heat:

Calculation of force of expansion by temperature.
Hygrometry (chemical, Daniell's and Dyne's dew point, wet and dry bulb,* hygrometers).
Calorimetry (Lavoisier's and Bunsen's ice calorimeters).
Convection of heat (hot air and hot water warming apparatus).
Measurement of conductivity for bad conductors (cooling of jacketed hot water tin*).
Measurement of diffusivity for good conductors (Ingenhaus's experiment by melting wax).
Laws of Radiation (null method with thermopile*).
Equality of radiating and absorbing powers.
Selective absorption of transparent bodies (Melloni's experiments*).
General principle of steam engine (furnace, boiler, cylinder, condenser, piston, crank, eccentric, slide valve).

(TRINITY EXAMINATION.)

As before and in addition:—

Electricity:

Measurement of electrostatic capacity of a conductor (quadrant electrometer and standard capacity).
Comparison of moments of magnets (deflection method*).
Lines of force due to magnets and currents (magnetic curves*).
Laws of electro-magnetic induction (Faraday's experiment*, Arago's disc,* Lenz's law, law of induced electro-motive force).
Machines transforming electro-magnetic into mechanical energy (Morse telegraph, telephone and microphone, electric bell).
Machines transforming mechanical into electro-magnetic energy (Clarke's magneto, Gramme dynamo).
Machine altering electro-magnetic energy (Ruhmkorff's coil).
Peltier's thermo-electric effect (thermopile).

(DEGREE EXAMINATION.)

As before.

CHEMISTRY.

(HILARY EXAMINATION.)

Reynolds' Experimental Chemistry, to the end of chap. LIII.
Practical.—Analysing any simple salts.

(TRINITY EXAMINATION.)

Reynolds' Experimental Chemistry, to the end of chap. LX.
Practical.—As before, with identification of common organic acids.

(DEGREE EXAMINATION.)

Reynolds' Experimental Chemistry, to the end of chap. LXVII.
Practical.—As before.

29. Syllabus of Course in Natural Science.

MICHAELMAS TERM.

GEOLOGY, ...	Huxley, Physiography.
ZOOLOGY	As in Junior Sophister year, with Macalister, Vertebrates (London Science Class-book Series (Fishes)).
BOTANY, ...	Strasburger's Text-Book—The Thallophyta. With all the business of the Junior Sophister Year.

HILARY TERM.

GEOLOGY, ...	As before, with Page's Introductory Text-book of Geology, edited by Lapworth.
ZOOLOGY, ...	As before, with Macalister, Vertebrates (London Science Class-Book Series): Reptiles and Birds.
BOTANY, ...	Strasburger's Text-Book—The Bryo- and Pteridophyta. With the business of the Junior Sophister Year, and that of the previous Hilary Term.

DEGREE.

GEOLOGY, ...	As before.
ZOOLOGY, ...	As before, with Macalister, Vertebrates (London Science Class-Book Series): Mammals.
BOTANY, ...	Strasburger's Text-Book—The Phanerogamia to p. 463, with the following:—Ranunculaceæ; Papaveraceæ; Cruciferæ; Leguminoseæ; Rosaceæ; Umbelliferæ; Compositæ; Solanaceæ; Labiatæ; Euphorbiacæ; Liliaceæ; Graminaceæ. The business of the Junior Sophister Year, and of the two previous Terms.

30. Honors and Prizes.

A number of Studentships, Scholarships, Exhibitions, Prizes, Honors, and Sizarships, are awarded each year to deserving Students, both in the Arts Course and in the Professional Schools.

It is a condition precedent to the award of every Prize that sufficient merit must be shown.

The Honors and Prizes specially connected with the regular Undergraduate Course are enumerated below. For further particulars concerning these and the other Prizes, see under 'Honor Examinations,' 'Moderatorships,' and 'Special Prizes.'

For Prizes obtainable in connexion with Entrance, see § 4.

Prizes obtainable at Lectures.

Premiums, of the value of £1 10*s.* in books are awarded each Term for proficiency in Classical Composition, on the recommendation of the Lecturer, to Freshmen Students attending Honor Lectures in Classics, and keeping the Term.

The Professors of English Literature, of the Romance Languages, and of German, are each authorized to recommend for a Prize, of the value of £2 in books, in Composition the best Candidate among the Students attending his Class during the Term.

Catechetical Premiums.

Catechetical Premiums of the value of £2 in books are awarded in accordance with the conditions given under 'Catechetical Course,' § 31.

Term Honor and Prize Examinations.

In each Term, Examinations are held, at which Honors of the First and Second Rank are awarded to Candidates who exhibit sufficient merit. In Michaelmas Term, Prizes in books to the value of £4 and £2 are awarded to the Candidates who obtain First and Second Honors respectively.[a] The successful Candidates can select Books, to the value of their Prizes, at the University Booksellers, and can have the College arms stamped on the covers of bound Books. In the case of Prizes in Experimental or Natural Science, Scientific Instruments, with an inscription thereon, may be substituted for books, if approved by the Senior Lecturer on the report of the Professor.[a]

In future, Students who obtain Prizes in Michaelmas Term may, on the recommendation of their Tutors to the Bursar, apply the amounts gained to the payment of their College Fees then due.

The marks at certain of these Examinations count towards the Senior Exhibitions (see under 'Senior Exhibitions').

Subjects of Honor and Prize Examinations.

- (a) Mathematics.
- (b) Classics.
- (c) Logics, or Logics and Ethics.
- (d) Experimental Science.
- (e) Natural Science.
- (f) Modern History and Political Science.
- (g) Modern Literature.

No Student who has dropped a Class will be allowed to present himself, as a Candidate for Honors, at any Examination, in a subject in which he has previously obtained Honors at the corresponding Examination of the Class from which he has dropped.

Stewart Literary Scholarship.

A Scholarship, value £20 per annum, is at present awarded to the Student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in Modern Literature at the five Honor and Prize Examinations of the Freshman and Junior Sophister years.

Moderatorship and Medal Examination.

A Student who desires to graduate in Honors at the Degree may substitute one of the Moderatorship Examinations for the ordinary Degree Examination. Moderatorships are granted in each of the seven subjects of the Honor Courses.

Of the successful Candidates in the seven departments, there are two ranks, called Senior and Junior Moderators.

The Senior Moderators receive gold medals, and the Junior Moderators silver medals; which are given to them publicly before the University, by the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, at the Commencements at which they are admitted to their Degrees. The first Senior Moderator in each department receives a large gold medal, if specially recommended by the Court of Examiners.

[a] The following Order of the Board, with regard to the duties of the University Booksellers in Dublin, was made on May 20, 1843:

"It is ordered by the Board that the Students who obtain College Premiums may direct the College Booksellers to procure for them any suitable books as Premiums which continue to be offered for sale in the priced catalogues of London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, and at the prices marked in the said catalogues; and when the selling price of a book is recognised by the Trade as having fallen below the publication price, the College Booksellers are to supply the book at such recognised reduced price.

"This notice is to be printed and put in two conspicuous places in the Booksellers' shop."

Prizes are also awarded to the Moderators in order of merit.

A Student who has dropped a Class after the Michaelmas Examination of the Junior Sophister year, or who has dropped more than one Class, will be allowed to compete at any of the Moderatorship Examinations, but, if successful, he will not be placed in the order of merit amongst the Moderators, but will be added to the list as a Supplemental Moderator, Senior or Junior; and he will not be entitled to the privilege given to Moderators by the Decree of the Board and Visitors of May 1, 1875.

A Student who would not be entitled to present himself at the ordinary Degree Examination until January, will not be permitted to compete for a Moderatorship unless he previously obtains the special permission of the Board.

A Student who fails in obtaining a Medal may nevertheless be allowed the Degree on his answering at the Medal Examination, provided a special recommendation to that effect be made by the Court of Examiners, and his name may then be placed at the foot of such class as the Senior Lecturer may determine.

No Student will be allowed to be a Candidate at the Moderatorship Examination unless his Fees for the current half-year shall have been paid before the first day of Examination.

31. Catechetical Course.

Students not members of the Church of England or Ireland, or of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and Students in Holy Orders are not required to keep Catechetical Terms.

Catechetical Lectures commence on the days specified in the University Almanac at half-past nine o'clock, and are held every Saturday morning during Term at the same hour, for the two Freshman Classes only.[a] Catechetical Examinations are held at the beginning of each Term (immediately after the Term Examinations), for the benefit of those Students who have not been resident during the preceding Term.

Rules relating to Catechetical Terms and Examinations.—To rise from the Class of Junior Freshman to that of Senior Freshman, one Catechetical Term or Examination, at least, is required. This must be passed in the Junior Freshman year by all Students, except those who enter in October, and rise to the Senior Freshman Class, but fail to pass the Michaelmas Catechetical Examination. Such Students will be permitted to Supplementalize a Junior Freshman Term in the Senior Freshman year.

On the second afternoon of the Supplemental Hilary arts Examination of Junior Freshmen in June, there is a Supplemental Examination in the Catechetical subject of the Hilary Examination; but only Junior Freshmen who have not already credit for a Term of Catechetical Lectures, or for a Catechetical Examination, are permitted to present themselves at this Examination.

[a] Resolution of the Board, November 30. 1889.

To rise from the Class of Senior Freshman to that of Junior Sophister, four Catechetical Terms or Examinations must be kept in the two Freshman years, of which two at least must be in the Senior Freshman year, and one must be the Trinity Term of Lectures, or the Michaelmas Examination of that year.[a]

If a Student fail to obtain, either by Lectures or Examination, credit for the Senior Freshman Michaelmas Catechetical Term, he must supplementalize it on the second afternoon of either the Hilary or Trinity Junior Sophister Arts Examination[b].

If either the Hilary or Trinity Term of the Senior Freshman year shall have been omitted, it may be supplementalized, in order to complete the required number of Terms, at the corresponding Michaelmas and Hilary Catechetical Lectures of the Senior Freshman Class, or at the Hilary or Trinity Junior Sophister Arts Examination (second afternoon).

Credit for two Terms in the same College term will only be given if one of the two is kept by lectures, and the other by Examination.

To a Student who exhibits peculiar merit, either at Lectures or at an Examination, a Premium in books of the value of £2 is awarded, unless such a Premium has been previously obtained in the same year, in which case a Certificate is awarded instead.

The fact of having obtained a Prize in the earlier part of the year does not debar a Senior Freshman from being awarded one of the Prizes offered at the end of Trinity Term, or at the Michaelmas Term Examination[a].

Subjects of Catechetical Examinations.—The following Table contains the subjects of the Catechetical Lectures and Examinations:—

N. B.—The subjects printed in Italics are to be considered as additional for Honors, and not required generally.

JUNIOR FRESHMEN.

MICH. TERM AND HILARY EXAM.	The Gospel of St. Luke. The three other Gospels.
HILARY TERM AND TRINITY EXAM.	The Acts of the Apostles. Paley's "Horæ Paulinæ" (Church of Ireland.) Stalker's Lives of Christ and of St. Paul (Presbyterian Church).
TRINITY TERM AND MICH. EXAM.	A.W. Robinson's "Church Catechism explained," omitting pp. 157–167. The same, including pp. 157–167, with a more minute knowledge of the Scriptural references in the volume. Dr. Alex. Whyte on the Shorter Catechism, Questions 82–107 (Presbyterian Church). Godet's Biblical Studies on the Old Testament, Essays iv., v., vi. (Presbyterian Church).

[a] Order of the Board, March 6, 1880.

[b] Junior Sophisters presenting themselves at a Supplemental Examination for the Little-Go may take the Catechetical Examination on the afternoon of the second day.

SENIOR FRESHMEN.

Mich. Term and Hilary Exam.	Genesis, and the first twelve chapters of Exodus (Church of Ireland.) Genesis, and the first twenty chapters of Exodus (Presbyterian Church.) The remainder of Exodus, with the Books of Numbers and Deuteronomy.
Hilary Term and Trinity Exam.	The two Books of Samuel, and first twelve chapters of first Book of Kings. The remaining history from beginning of Joshua to end of second Book of Kings (Church of Ireland). The remainder of the Historical Books (Presbyterian Church.)
Trinity Term and Mich. Exam.	Paley's Evidences, Part I., Proposition i. (Church of Ireland). Butler's Analogy, Part II., chapters v. and vii. (Church of Ireland.) Lindsay, The Reformation, Parts I., II., and IV. (Presbyterian Church.) Godet's Lectures in defence of the Christian Faith, Essays i., v., vi. (Presbyterian Church.)

It was resolved by the Board, July 2, 1881, and March 8, 1885:—

That it is expedient that a system of voluntary Catechetical Examinations should be extended over the two Sophister years, and that the Catechist shall be authorized to grant a special Certificate to Students who shall have passed with credit four of these Examinations, of which two at least must be in the Senior Sophister year, one being the Michaelmas Examination of that year.

That the following be adopted as a provisional Course for the Examinations of the Sophister years:—

JUNIOR SOPHISTERS (Church of Ireland).

Hilary Exam., . .	St. John's Gospel, in Greek and Revised Version. Barrett's Companion to the New Testament.
Trinity Exam., . .	Epistle to the Romans in Greek, and Revised Version. Westcott's Bible in the Church.
Michaelmas Exam.,	First Epistle to the Corinthians in Greek, and Revised Version. Blunt's Sketch of the History of the First Three Centuries.

SENIOR SOPHISTERS (Church of Ireland).

Hilary Exam., . .	Epistle to the Hebrews in Greek, and Revised Version. Anselm's Cur Deus Homo.
Trinity Exam., . .	Epistle to the Galatians in Greek, and Revised Version. Blunt's History of the Reformation Period. Jewel's Apology, in Latin.
Michaelmas Exam.,	English Bible. Boultbee on the Articles.

It was resolved by the Board, January 4, 1882 :—

That the Catechist be authorized to extend his Premiums to the Sophister Classes.

It was resolved by the Board and Council, May 15 and 19, 1886 :—

That Students who are members of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland shall be required to keep Catechetical Terms.

That Presbyterian Students in residence shall be required to lodge with the Junior Dean a certificate of attendance upon one of the Presbyterian Churches of the city, signed by the Minister of that Church.

Catechetical Lectures and Examinations for Presbyterian Students shall be conducted by persons nominated by the Presbytery of Dublin whose names have been submitted to and approved of by the Board.

The Results of the Examinations shall be submitted to the Catechist that he may be satisfied as to the merit of those recommended for Prizes.

The Presbyterian Students shall be granted Prizes by the Board of the same amount and in the same proportion as the Students of the Church of Ireland.

The following shall be adopted as a provisional Course for the Examinations of the Sophister years :—

JUNIOR SOPHISTERS (Presbyterian Church).

HILARY EXAMINATION—

St. John's Gospel, in Greek, and Revised Version, with Naville's "The Christ."

TRINITY EXAMINATION—

Epistle to the Romans, in Greek, and Revised Version, with Dr. David Brown's Handbook on the Epistle, and the "Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation," by an American Citizen.

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION—

Epistle to the Galatians, in Greek, and Revised Version, with Mac Gregor's Handbook on Galatians, and Binnie on "The Church."

SENIOR SOPHISTERS (Presbyterian Church).

HILARY EXAMINATION—

Epistle to the Philippians, in Greek, and Revised Version, with Bishop Lightfoot's "Commentary."

TRINITY EXAMINATION—

Epistle to the Hebrews in Greek, and Revised Version, with Davidson's "Handbook on the Epistle."

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION—

English Bible, with M'Pherson's Handbook on the "Westminster Confession of Faith."

Honor Courses.

STUDENTS may become Candidates for Honors in the following subjects, at each Term Examination in the Undergraduate Course:

JUNIOR FRESHMEN, .	Mathematics; Classics.
SENIOR FRESHMEN, .	Mathematics; Classics; Logics.
JUNIOR SOPHISTERS, .	Mathematics and Mathematical Physics; Classics; Logics; Experimental Science; Natural Science; Modern History; Modern Literature.
SENIOR SOPHISTERS, .	Mathematics and Mathematical Physics; Classics; Ethics; Experimental Science; Natural Science; History and Political Science; Modern Literature.

Prize Examinations are also held in the following subjects, in the Michaelmas Term of the Senior and Junior Freshman years:

Modern History.
English Literature and Composition.
French.
German.

At the B. A. Degree Examination, Students may graduate in Honors in seven subjects, viz.:—

Mathematics and Mathematical Physics.
Classics.
Logics and Ethics.
Experimental Science.
Natural Science.
History and Political Science.
Modern Literature.

The regulations by which the rank and value of the various Honors and Prizes are determined have been already given (vide supra, under the head "Honors and Prizes").

It is to be remarked, that at all Examinations for Honors, Candidates are liable to be examined in the ordinary subjects of Examination of the Course in which they present themselves for Honors in addition to those specified below.

§ I.—MATHEMATICS.

[The Student is liable to examination in any Term in the whole of the previous Honor Course. The following list contains only the subjects additional in each Term. The Student is also liable for the ordinary subjects]:—

JUNIOR FRESHMEN.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Algebra, to the end of Quadratic Equations. Geometry—Deducibles from Euclid—Theory of Geometrical Maxima and Minima, Mean Centres, Reciprocation, Inversion, Coaxal Circles. Trigonometry, to the end of the Solution of Plane Triangles.
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Algebra, excluding the General Theory of Equations. Geometry, Harmonic and Anharmonic Ratios, including Homographic Division and Involution. Trigonometry, applications of De Moivre's Theorem, and Logarithms.
Trinity Lect. and Mich. Exam.	Algebra, Burnside and Panton's Theory of Equations—Chaps. i.–x. (inclusive), omitting Arts. 53, 58, 59, 60, 65, 66, 67. Taylor's Elementary Geometry of Conics. Trigonometry, Plane and Spherical.

SENIOR FRESHMEN.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Burnside and Panton's Theory of Equations—Chap. xii. (latest edition). Salmon's Conic Sections—Chaps. 1–8. Williamson's Differential Calculus—Chaps. 1, 2.
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Salmon's Conic Sections, to the end of Section 282. Williamson's Differential Calculus—Chaps. 3, 4, 5, 9, 12. Minchin's Statics—Chaps. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6 (omitting Arts. 26 and 91–102, inclusive).
Trinity Lect. and Mich. Exam.	Williamson's Differential Calculus—Chaps. 13–17, inclusive. Integral Calculus, Chaps. 1–8 (omitting Arts. 96–125, inclusive). Minchin's Statics—Chaps. 9, 10, 11 (omitting Arts. 144, 145, and 170–179, inclusive).

JUNIOR SOPHISTERS.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Salmon's Geometry of Three Dimensions, the first six Chaps. (omitting Arts. 51–57*e*, and 80*a*–80*e*). Williamson and Tarleton's Dynamics, first six Chapters. Minchin's Statics—Chaps. 4, 7, 12.

Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Williamson and Tarleton's Dynamics—Chaps. 7, 8, 9. Besant's Elementary Hydrostatics. Besant's Hydromechanics, Part I., Chaps. 1–5.
Trinity Lect. and Mich. Exam.	Williamson and Tarleton's Dynamics—Chap. 10. Newton's Principia—Sects. 1, 2, 3, 9. Godfray's Astronomy.

SENIOR SOPHISTERS.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Forsyth's Differential Equations—Chaps. 1, 2, 3, 4, with Articles 83–92, and 108–110. Minchin's Statics—Chaps. 13, 17 (omitting Arts. 348–355, inclusive). Salmon's Geometry of Three Dimensions—Chaps. 7, 8.
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Williamson and Tarleton's Dynamics—Chaps. 11, 12. Besant's Hydromechanics, remainder of Part I. Forsyth's Differential Equations, Arts. 146, 147, 150-207, 229–242 (all inclusive).

§ II.—Classics.

The principle on which the Honor Examinations in Classics are conducted is to test the proficiency of the Student on the following points:

First. As to his minute and critical knowledge of certain defined portions of the Greek and Latin authors.

Secondly. As to his general and independent knowledge of the Greek and Latin languages, and their literature, to be proved by his ability to write an accurate version of passages from the prescribed Honor Course, and also from Classical authors not prescribed; as well as to answer, in writing, general questions connected with the languages, and their literature.

Thirdly. As to his power of expressing the full meaning and force of an ancient author, by writing such a translation of a given passage as may deserve commendation, not merely for its correctness as a version of the original, but for its excellence as a piece of English Composition.

With these objects in view, the manner of conducting the Classical Honor Examinations is as follows:

1. Candidates for Honors will be separately examined, vivâ voce, in the text-books of the ordinary Classical Course, and in the portions of the Honor Course marked in Italics, in the following Table.

2. Passages will be proposed for written translation, taken from the works of the Greek and Latin writers named in the following list:—

JUNIOR FRESHMEN.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Euripides, Bacchae, Hercules Furens. Horace:—Odes I. II, Epodes, Carmen Seculare. Palmer's Heroides (Clarendon Press).
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Homer:—Odyssey, XXI. XXII.; X.–XVII. inclusive. Cicero:—Philippic II.—Pro Sestio.
Trinity Lect. and Mich. Exam.	Herodotus:—Book I.; Books VI. VII. Livy:—Books XXII. XXIII.; Books XXIV. XXV.

SENIOR FRESHMEN.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Plato:—Gorgias; Phaedo. Cicero in his Letters, I.–XXXIII.; Cicero in his Letters XXXIV.-LXXX. (Tyrrell's Edition, published by Macmillan).
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Sophocles:—Œdipus Coloneus; Antigone. Terence:—Phormio. Plautus:—Miles; Amphitruo.
Trinity Lect. and Mich. Exam.	Homer:—Iliad, Books XXI. XXIII.; Iliad, Books XIII.–XX. Virgil:—Æneid, Books VIII. IX.; Æneid, Books VII.–XII. Ovid, Metam., Book XIII.

JUNIOR SOPHISTERS.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Thucydides:—Book I.; Books III. IV. Tacitus:—Histories, Books I. II.; Histories, Books III. IV.
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Demosthenes:—De Corona. Æschines in Ctesiphontem. Juvenal:—Satires I. IV. VII. XIV. Persius:—Satires I. II. III. V. VI.
Trinity Lect. and Mich. Exam.	Æschylus:—Agamemnon; Septem contra Thebas. Lucretius:—Books I. II.; Books III. V. and VI.

SENIOR SOPHISTERS.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Aristotle:—Nicomachean Ethics, Book VI.; Nicomachean Ethics, Books I. III. IV. V. Cicero:—Offices, Books II. III.; De Finibus, Books I. II. III.; Tusculan Questions, Book I.
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Plato:—De Republicâ, Books II. III.; De Republicâ, Books IV. V. Virgil:—Eclogues; Georgics, Books II. III. Horace:—Epistles, including the Art of Poetry.

3. One or more passages will also be proposed for written translation from the other works of Greek or Latin Prose or Poetical authors specified for each Examination, with a view of testing the Candidate's general knowledge of the languages.

4. Papers of questions will be proposed in Ancient History and Geography, Grammar, and General Literature, and also subjects for Composition in Greek and Latin Prose, Greek and Latin Verse.

5. During the first three years, Candidates for Honors will be regularly lectured and examined in definite portions of Ancient History or Philology; and, at each Examination, the Candidates will be liable to be examined in the portions appointed for the previous Examinations.

The following Table shows the prescribed portions for the present year:--

JUNIOR FRESHMEN.

Hilary Examination.

GREEK HISTORY.—Mahaffy's Greek Literature, vol. I., Chaps. 14 to 17.

ROMAN HISTORY.—Tyrrell's Latin Poetry, Chaps. I. to VII.

Trinity Examination.

GREEK.—Mahaffy's Greek Literature, vol. I., Chaps. 1 to 5.

ROMAN.—Mommsen's Roman History, Book V., Chaps. 1 to 6.

Michaelmas Examination.

GREEK.—Grote, History of Greece, Chaps. 35, 36, 38 to 41, inclusive; Mahaffy, History of Greek Literature, II., Chaps. 1 and 2.

ROMAN.—Mommsen's Roman History, Book III., Chaps. 1 to 7, inclusive, and Chap. 11.

SENIOR FRESHMEN.

Hilary Examination.

GREEK.—Grote, History of Greece, Chaps. 67 and 68.

ROMAN.—Mommsen's Roman History, Book V., Chaps. 11 and 12.

Trinity Examination.

GREEK.—Haigh's Attic Theatre.

ROMAN.—Mommsen's Roman History, Book III., Chaps. 12, 13, 14; Tyrrell's Latin Poetry, Chaps. 1 and 2.

Michaelmas Examination.

GREEK.—Grote, History of Greece, Part I. Chaps. 16, 17, and 21.

ROMAN.—Bury, Student's Roman Empire, Chaps. 1 to 13, inclusive; Sellar, Virgil, Chaps. 2, 3, 8, and 9; Tyrrell's Latin Poetry, Chap. 5.

JUNIOR SOPHISTERS.

Hilary Examination.

Greek.—Grote, History of Greece, Chaps. 44 to 47, inclusive; Mahaffy, History of Greek Literature, II., Chaps. 4 and 5.

Roman.—Bury, Student's Roman Empire, Chaps. 14 to 21, inclusive.

Trinity Examination.

Greek.—Grote, History of Greece, Chaps. 86 to 90.

Roman.—Bury, Student's Roman Empire, Chaps. 14 to 25, inclusive; Tyrrell's Latin Poetry, Chaps. 7 and 8.

Michaelmas Examination.

Greek.—Mahaffy, History of Greek Literature, I., chaps. 15 and 16; Haigh's Attic Theatre.

Roman.—Bury, Student's Roman Empire, Chaps. 26 to end; Tyrrell's Latin Poetry, Chaps. 1 to 8, inclusive.

§ III.—Logics and Ethics.

SENIOR FRESHMAN YEAR.

Separate Honors in Logics are given at each Examination in the Senior Freshman year; and the following Course has been appointed, in addition to the ordinary subjects of Examination:—

N.B.—In all cases the Candidates for Honors in Trinity Term are liable for the Course of the preceding Term; and the Candidates in Michaelmas Term are liable for the Courses of the two preceding Terms.

Mich. Lect. and Hilary Exam.	Monck's Logic. Keynes' Formal Logic, Parts i., ii., iii.
Hilary Lect. and Trinity Exam.	Mill's Logic, Book ii. and Book iii.
Trinity Lect. and Mich. Exam.	Mill's Logic, Book iv. Bacon, Novum Organum, Book i. and Book ii., Aphorisms, i.–x. Bacon, De Augmentis Scientiarum, Book v.

These Examinations will be conducted both vivâ voce and by papers.

JUNIOR SOPHISTER YEAR.

The Honor Course in Logics for Junior Sophisters is as follows :—

MICH. LECT. AND HILARY EXAM.	Höffding's Psychology, pp. 1–220 (English Translation). Locke's Essay on the Human Understanding, Introduction and Books II. and III.
HILARY LECT. AND TRINITY EXAM.	Locke's Essay on the Human Understanding, Book IV. Kant, Kritik of Pure Reason — Æsthetic. [Mahaffy and Bernard's Kant's Critical Philosophy for English Readers is recommended.]
TRINITY LECT. AND MICH. EXAM.	Kant, Kritik of Pure Reason—Analytic. Schwegler's History of Philosophy (Stirling's Translation), Chapters 1–23 inclusive.

SENIOR SOPHISTER YEAR.

The Honor Course in Ethics for Senior Sophisters is as follows :—

MICH. LECT. AND HILARY EXAM.	Bishop Butler's Sermons (with Preface), except the Sermons on Public Occasions. Butler's Essay on Virtue. Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics, Books I. II. III. and IV. (Aristotle's Terminology to be known in the original). Zeller on the Stoics, Chaps. x.–xiv.
HILARY LECT. AND TRINITY EHAM.	Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics, Books VI.–X. inclusive. Zeller on the Epicureans, Chaps. xix.–xxi. Mill, Utilitarianism.

§ IV.—EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.

Candidates for Honors in Experimental Science are required to answer in the two following Courses, one in Experimental Physics, the other in Chemistry :—

EXPERIMENTAL PHYSICS.

Candidates may be asked to make any of the experiments or measurements, and to use any of the instruments mentioned in this Course.

JUNIOR SOPHISTERS.

HILARY EXAMINATION.

The Ordinary Course, and in addition :—

General Properties of Matter :

Cathetometer, dividing engine, chemical balance.
Kater's pendulum--moments of inertia.
Capillarity (measurement of surface tension by rise in tube).
Height of homogeneous atmosphere.
Measurement of gravitation (time of vibration of simple pendulum).
Molecular theory of structure of solids, liquids, and gases (diffusion).
Measurement of compressibility of solids and liquids (piezometer).
Measurement of elasticity of solids (stretching, bending, torsion).
Calculation of work done by elastic forces.

Heat :

Weight thermometer, cubical expansion of solids, Regnault's experiments on expansion of gases.
Regnault's experiments on pressure of steam; Andrews' experiments on carbon dioxide; measurement of change of volume accompanying change of state.
Joly's steam calorimeter.
Calculation of force of expansion by temperature.
Hygrometry (chemical, Daniell's and Dyne's dew point, wet and dry bulb, hygrometers).
Calorimetry (Lavoisier's and Bunsen's ice calorimeters).
Convection of heat (hot air and hot water warming apparatus).
Measurement of conductivity for bad conductors (cooling of jacketed hot water tin).
Measurement of diffusivity for good conductors (Ingenhaus's experiment by melting wax).
Laws of Radiation (null method with thermopile).
Equality of radiating and absorbing powers.
Selective absorption of transparent bodies (Melloni's experiments).
General principle of steam engine (furnace, boiler, cylinder, condenser, piston, crank, eccentric, slide valve).

TRINITY EXAMINATION.

As before, and in addition the Ordinary Course for this Examination, and as follows :—

Electricity :

Measurement of the moment of a magnet, and of horizontal force of the earth.
Changes in horizontal and vertical components (bifilar and vertical force magnetometer).
Absolute guardring electrometer.
Work done in charging electrified system.
Carrè's, Wimhurst, and Holtz machines, replenishers.
Proofs of Ohm's law (Maxwell and Chrystal's method).
Tangent and sine galvanometers, Sir Wm. Thomson's graded galvanometers.

Balistic galvanometer (proof of laws of electro-magnetic induction).
Migration of ions in electrolysis (Clausius hypothesis), measurement of rate of migration.
Measurement of electromotive force (Poggendorff's and Clark's methods).
Measurement of electrostatic capacity of a conductor (quadrant electrometer and standard capacity).
Comparison of moments of magnets (deflection method).
Lines of force due to magnets and currents (magnetic curves).
Laws of electro-magnetic induction (Faraday's experiment, Arago's disc, Lenz's law, law of induced electro-motive force).
Machines transforming electro-magnetic into mechanical energy (Morse telegraph, telephone and microphone, electric bell).
Machines transforming mechanical into electro-magnetic energy (Clark's magneto, Gramme dynamo).
Machine altering electro-magnetic energy (Ruhmkorff's coil).
Peltier's thermo-electric effect (thermopile).

Michaelmas Examination.

As before, and in addition the Ordinary Course for this Examination, and as follows:—

Light:

Velocity of propagation of light (Jupiter's satellites, aberration, Fizeau's method).
Reflection and refraction on wave theory.
Rectilinear propagation of light on wave theory.
Simple and compound microscopes.
Astronomical and terrestrial telescopes.
Rainbow.
Interference (Fresnel's mirrors, biprism).
Diffraction (edge of an obstacle, slit, bar, grating, circular hole and obstacle).
Thin plates (Newton's rings).

Sound:

Graphic and analytic representation of vibration and wave motion—velocity and condensation.
Results of compounding vibrations (interference, beats).
,, ,, waves (loops and nodes, vibrations of pipes and strings).
Reflection with, and without, change of sign.
Resonance and methods of starting vibrations (organ pipe, singing flame, violin bow).
Diatonic scale and temperament, measurement of intervals.
Summation and difference tones—consonance and dissonance.
Vibrations of bars and plates.
Compounding vibrations in rectangular planes (optical methods).
Kœnig's methods of studying vibrations.
Phonograph.
Analysis of sound (resonators).
Doppler's principle.
Photographic methods of recording observations.

SENIOR SOPHISTERS.

HILARY EXAMINATION.

As before, and in addition, as follows:—

General Properties of Matter :

Flow of fluids (velocity of efflux, head, pressure in flowing fluid, spray distributors, momentum and energy of fluid, contracted vein).
Viscosity (flow of fluids in small tubes).
Barometric formula for heights.

Heat :

Indicator diagrams—Isothermal and adiabatic changes.
Two specific heats and elasticities—application to gases.
Efficiency of engines; 2nd Law of Thermodynamics; reversibe engines; absolute scale of temperature.

TRINITY EXAMINATION.

As before, and in addition as follows:—

Electro-dynamometers and Cardew's voltmeter (alternating current).
Ayrton and Perry's ammeters and voltmeters.
Comparison of capacities (balistic method).
Efficiency of electro-magnetic transmission of power.
Characteristics of series, shunt and compound dynamos.
B.A. Committee measurement of Ohm.

CHEMISTRY.

JUNIOR SOPHISTERS.

HILARY EXAMINATION.

Same subjects as Ordinary Course, but treated more fully.
Practical.—All Exercises within the Course specified.

TRINITY EXAMINATION.

Same subject as Ordinary Course, but treated more fully.
Practical.—Same range as in Ordinary Course, but more detailed.

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION.

Same subject as Ordinary Course, but treated more fully.
Practical.—Qualitative analysis for any single salts.

SENIOR SOPHISTERS.

HILARY EXAMINATION.

Chemical Philosophy.—The atomic hypothesis, chemical statics, Periodic Law, in addition to the Ordinary Course.

Practical.—Analyses of mixtures, each containing not more than two metals or two acids; with identification of common organic acids and alkaloids.

TRINITY EXAMINATION.

Chemical Philosophy.—Affinity, molecular interchange, chemical dynamics, in addition to Ordinary Course.

Practical.—As before, but three metals may be given, with exercises in volumetric analysis.

§ V.—NATURAL SCIENCE.

JUNIOR SOPHISTER YEAR.

HILARY EXAMINATION.

ZOOLOGY, ...	The Ordinary Business, with the Professor's Lectures and Demonstrations in Michaelmas Term on Invertebrates, as far as Molluscs.
BOTANY, ...	The Ordinary Business, with the Professor's Lectures and Demonstrations in Michaelmas Term.

TRINITY EXAMINATION.

ZOOLOGY, ...	As before, with the Ordinary Business, and the Professor's Lectures and Demonstrations in Hilary Term on Molluscs, Fishes, and Amphibians.
BOTANY, ...	As before, with the Ordinary Business, and the Professor's Lectures and Demonstrations in Hilary Term.

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION.

ZOOLOGY, ...	As before, with the Ordinary Business, and the Professor's Demonstrations in Trinity Term on Reptiles, Birds, and Mammals.
BOTANY, ...	As before, with the Ordinary Business, and the Professor's Demonstrations in Trinity Term,

SENIOR SOPHISTER YEAR.

German, . . .	Heine's Buch der Lieder. Scheffel's Trompeter von Säckingen. Goethe's Egmont. Gostwick and Harrison's Outlines of German Literature, Chaps. xxviii.–xxxviii.

During the Sophister years, an increasing knowledge will be expected of the Etymology of French words as explained in Brachet's Dictionnaire, together with a considerable facility in French Composition, oral and written.

Subjects for English Essays will be proposed at each Examination. The proficiency of Candidates in the other languages will be tested by oral Examination, as well as by written versions from English, and Compositions in the language selected by each Candidate.

EXAMINATION FOR MODERATORSHIPS.

In the Michaelmas Term of the fifth, or Candidate Bachelor, year, the B.A. Degree Examination includes Examinations for Moderatorships in each of the following subjects:—

1. Mathematics and Mathematical Physics.
2. Classics.
3. Logics and Ethics.
4. Experimental Science.
5. Natural Science.
6. History and Political Science.
7. Modern Literature.

The Course appointed for Examination in each of these subjects is as follows:—

MODERATORSHIPS IN MATHEMATICS AND MATHEMATICAL PHYSICS.

Pure Mathematics,	Salmon's Geometry of Three Dimensions, the first eight Chaps., with Articles 200–205, 239–254; Chap. 11; Arts. 314–323; Sect. 3 of Chap. 12 (omitting Arts. 362, 363); and Arts. 422–435. Salmon's Higher Plane Curves, to the end of Section 4 of Chap. 5 (omitting Arts. 89, 89*a*, 92–98, 117*a*–122, and 138–146). Salmon's Conic Sections. Burnside and Panton's Theory of Equations. Williamson's Differential Calculus, omitting Chapter 23. Williamson's Integral Calculus, omitting Chap. 12, and Arts. 230–235, inclusive. Forsyth's Differential Equations, as in the Undergraduate Honor Course.
Mixed Mathematics,	Williamson and Tarleton's Dynamics. Briot, Théorie Mécanique de la Chaleur, first five Chapters. Minchin's Statics, as in the Undergraduate Honor Course. Basset's Hydrodynamics—Chap. 1; Arts. 20–26, 31, 32, 37, 38, 42, 44, in Chap. 2; Chaps. 3 and 4. Williamson, Introduction to Mathematical Theory of the Stress and Strain of Elastic Solids, omitting Section 3, Chap. 1; and Art. 69.

CLASSICAL MODERATORSHIPS.

This Course consists of two parts—one general, the other variable from year to year.

Candidates will be critically examined in a Special Course, consisting, for the present year, of the following Books:

Pindar, Isthmian Odes and Bacchylides.
Æschylus, Persae.
Aristophanes, Pax.
Thucydides, III., IV.
Aristotle, Politics, I. II.
Plautus, Rudens and Trinummus.
Tacitus, Annals, XIV., XV., XVI.
Cicero's Correspondence, Vol. IV., pp. 1 to 206 (Tyrrell's and Purser's Edition).

Passages will be set for translation, selected from the Greek and Latin classical authors generally. Candidates will be further examined in the higher Greek and Latin Grammar and Criticism, in the Political and Literary Histories of Greece and Rome, in Greek and Latin Composition, and in Comparative Philology. They will also be required to write English Essays on subjects connected with Ancient History and Literature.

The following Books are recommended as sources of Knowledge on Comparative Philology:

King and Cookson's Sounds and Inflexions in Greek and Latin. Part. i.—Phonology.
Curtius' Elucidations of his Greek Grammar.

The Student is advised to study these books in the order in which they are here named.

The Course in History consists of all the portions of the works of Grote, Mahaffy, Mommsen, and Bury, read for Classical Honors in the Undergraduate Course, together with Curtius' History of Greece, Books I. and II., and the Chapters of Mommsen's History of Rome relating to Literature and Art. Candidates are recommended to pay special attention to the specified portions of Mahaffy's Greek Literature, and to the Chapters in Mommsen's History of Rome relating to Literature and Art.

The arrangement of the Examination is as follows:—

9 a.m. to 12 noon—1st day, Greek Prose Passages. 2nd day, Greek Verse Passages. 3rd day, Latin Prose Passages. 4th day, Latin Verse Passages.

1.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m.—1st day, Greek Prose Composition (one hour and a-half), Greek Verse Composition (one hour and a-half). 2nd day, Latin Prose Composition (one hour and a-half), Latin Verse Composition (one hour and a-half). 3rd day, Essays. 4th day, Paper in Philology (one hour and a-half); Public vivâ voce (one hour and a-half).

MODERATORSHIPS IN LOGICS AND ETHICS.

The following Books have been appointed for the Examination for these Moderatorships:—

Logics, . . Fraser's Selections from Berkeley.
Locke's Essay on the Human Understanding.
Green's Philosophical Works, Vol. I., pp. 1–161 (§§ 1–194).
Kant's Kritik of Pure Reason. [Mahaffy and Bernard's Kant's Critical Philosophy for English Readers is recommended.]
Schwegler's History of Philosophy, up to Kant, inclusive.
Kant's Kritik of Judgment, Part I., with Kant's Introduction.

Ethical Science, Aristotle, Nicomachean Ethics.
Zeller on Stoics and Epicureans (as in Honor Course).
Butler, Analogy, Part I., Fifteen Sermons and Essay on Virtue.
Kant's Theory of Ethics, translated by Abbott, omitting pages 84 to 324, inclusive, and Appendix.
Green's Prolegomena to Ethics, Book III.

Together with a Special Work to be selected by the Honor Examiners and the Professor of Moral Philosophy, and submitted by them to the Council not later than June 25 in the year preceding the Examination.

Special Work for 1900—

Spinoza, Tractatus de intellectus emendatione.

Special Works appointed for Moderatorships in Ethics and Logics in previous years.

1886 Berkeley's Three Dialogues.
1887 Spencer's First Principles.
1888 Hume's Treatise on Human Nature, and Green's Introduction.
1889 Descartes' Meditations.
1890 Spinoza's Ethics.
1891 Lewis's Psychology.
1892 Leibnitz, Nouveaux Essais.
1893 Plato's Republic.
1894 Kant's Kritik of Judgment, Part I. (Eng. Trans.).
1895 Kant's Kritik of Judgment, Part II. (Eng. Trans.).
1896 Aristotle's de Sensu and de Memoria, with the Lectures thereon of the Professor of Moral Philosophy.
1897 Plato, Gorgias and Protagoras.
1898 }
1899 } Wandt, Outlines of Psychology (English translation by Judd).

MODERATORSHIPS IN EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.

The subjects of Examination for the Moderatorships in Experimental Science are:—

1. Experimental Physics (viz. Heat, Light, Sound, Electricity, and Magnetism).
2. Chemistry, Inorganic and Organic.

The relative weights to be attached to the different subjects are as follows:—

Physics, ...	50 marks.
Chemistry, ...	50 ,,
	100 ,,

A Limited Course in Physics and in Chemistry is appointed from year to year. Such Courses count half the marks of Physics and Chemistry respectively.[a]

The work done by the Candidates in the Physical and Chemical Laboratories of Trinity College during the Senior Sophister year will be taken into consideration as part of the Moderatorship Examination.

1.—Physics.

The Honor Courses for the Junior and Senior Sophister years, and in addition a Special Course for each year and—

General Properties of Matter:

Electro-magnetic graphic chronograph.
Measurement of rates of diffusion of liquids and gases, spheroidal state, radiometer.
Kinetic theory of gases (velocity of molecules, viscosity, conduction of heat).

Heat:

Conduction of heat in a bar, and in a large mass.
Thermodynamic relations (effect of pressure on change of state, flow of gas through porous plug).

Electricity:

Measurements of great resistances (discharge of capacities).
,, small ,, (Matthiessen and Hockin's method).
Comparisons of coils (force at centre, moment).
Measurement of self-induction and mutual induction (bridge and balistic methods).
Elements of electrostatic and electro-magnetic systems of units.

[a] Resolutions of Board and Council, July 2 and 6, 1881.

Light:

Foucault's method of measuring velocity of light.
Mixtures of colours, dispersion and achromatism, anomalous dispersion.
Plane, circular, and elliptic polarization.
Polarization by reflection, Fresnel's theory.
Double refraction, Nicol's prism, Rochon's and Wollaston's prisms.
Wave surface in crystals, constructed for refracted rays.
Conical refraction.
Elliptic polarization—metallic reflection. Quarter wave plate analyzer.
Interference of polarized light—rings and crosses.
Rotatory polarization (Fresnel's explanation), right and left-handed rotations, saccharometer (Biquartz, Jellett analyzer), magnetic action on light.

Sound:

Calculation of velocity of sound.

Limited Course for 1900.

See under Subjects and Courses for 1900 and 1901.

MODERATORSHIPS IN NATURAL SCIENCE.

The subjects of Examination for the Moderatorships in Natural Science are the following, each of which has equal weight:—

1.—GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.

All the Ordinary and Honor Courses of the Sophister years.

Special Course for 1900:—

The Geological age of the Earth.

Books recommended—

Wallace's Island Life, Chaps. vi. and x.
Opening Address, British Association, 1896, Section D, by E. B. Poulton. See Reports, British Association, 1896, or Nature, Vol. liv., page 500, Sept. 24, 1896.
An Estimate of the Geological age of the Earth, by J. Joly, Trans. Royal Dublin Society, Vol. vii. (Ser. II.) III.

2.—ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY.

Special Course for 1900:—

(a) Anatomy and Physiology of Plants.
(b) The Special Senses.
(c) The Axial Skeleton of Craniata.

3.—BOTANY.

All the Ordinary and Honor Courses of the Sophister years.

Special Course for 1900 :—

The Onagraceæ, Primulaceæ, Gentianaceæ, and Lentibulariaceæ.

4. ZOOLOGY.

All the Ordinary and Honor Courses of the Sophister years.

Special Course for 1900 :—

Hemichordata, Urochordata, Cephalochorda.

Candidates may with advantage consult the following works :—

Geology.—Green's Physical Geology, last edition, and the Pofessor's Lectures.

Anatomy and Physiology.—Foster, Text-Book of Physiology, last edition; Sach's Lectures on the Physiology of Plants (translated by H. M. Ward); Wiedersheim, Comparative Anatomy of Vertebrates (translated by Parker); Thomson, Outlines of Zoology, 3rd Edition; Parker and Haswell, Text Book of Zoology.

Botany and Zoology.—Sachs' Text-Book of Botany, Book II.; Goebel's Outlines of Classification (translated by Garnsey and Balfour); or Van Tieghem, Traité de Botanique, Deux. edit.; Strasburger, Hillhouse, Handbook of Practical Botany, 3rd ed.; Bennett and Murray, Handbook to Cryptogamic Botany, ; Sir J. D. Hooker, Student's Flora of British Islands; Thomson, as above; Sedgwick, Students' Text Book of Zoology; Marshall and Hurst, Practical Zoology.

On all further matters of detail the Student can communicate with the Examiners.

MODERATORSHIPS IN HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE.

In this Moderatorship, the relative weight to be assigned to the different Courses is fixed as follows :—

I. History,	25 marks.
II. Jurisprudence,	10 ,,
III. Political Economy,	10 ,,

The Subjects for Examination in History and the relative value assigned to each, are as follows :—

I. History.

	marks.
I. a. Constitutional History of England. b. General outline of the Political History of Europe from 395 A.D. to 1815 A.D.	200
II. A Period of General European History,	400

I. a. Stubbs' Select Charters and Hallam's Constitutional History of England are recommended.

II. The period of General History for 1900 shall be: Europe, 1648–1789. (Books suggested: Voltaire's "Siècle de Louis XIV."; "Charles XII."; "Siècle de Louis XV." Rambaud's "Histoire de la Russie." Leger's "Historie de l'Autriche-Hongrie." Frederick (the Great's) "Historie de mon temps." Droysen's "Friedrich der Grosse," vol. I. De Tocqueville's "L'ancien régime et la révolution." "Les grands traités du règne de Louis XIV.," ed. Vast. Lecky's "History of Ireland in the Eighteenth Century," chaps. 1 to 8 (inclusive). Bright's "Maria Theresa" and "Joseph II." The Professor of Modern History will lecture on this period.)

II. Jurisprudence.

Maine's Ancient Law.
Hall's International Law.
Holland's Jurisprudence.
Mackenzie's Studies in Roman Law.

III. Economics and Economic History.

Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of—(a) Economic Theory and the History of the chief doctrines; (b) the existing Economic conditions in the United Kingdom; (c) English Economic History.

The undermentioned works are recommended:—

A. Marshall's Elements of Economics, Vol. i.
J. S. Mill's Principles of Political Economy, Books iii. and v.
A. Smith's Wealth of Nations (ed. Nicholson).
J. K. Ingram's History of Political Economy.
J. S. Nicholson's Money, Parts i. and ii. (4th Ed.).
G. Clare's Money Market Primer.
J. Rae's Contemporary Socialism (2nd Ed.).
W. J. Ashley's English Economic History.

MODERATORSHIPS IN MODERN LITERATURE.

The subjects of Examination are—

I. English Language and Literature.
II. French Language and Literature.
III. German Language and Literature.

All Candidates must answer in the English Language and Literature. No Candidate can take up more than one Continental Language and Literature.

N. B.—Candidates must inform the Examiners, before the end of the previous Trinity Term, in what Modern Language they intend to offer themselves.

The Courses in the several Departments are as follow:—

I.—English Language and Literature.

Hallam's Literary History, the parts relating to English Literature.
Craik's History of English Literature, Vol. II.
Chaucer (as in the Undergraduate Honor Course).
Spenser, Faërie Queene, Book I.
Milton (as in the Undergraduate Honor Course).
Shakspere, as in Freshman and Sophister years, and Henry IV., Parts I. and II., Merry Wives of Windsor, Antony and Cleopatra.
Dryden: Absalom and Achitophel.
Pope: Moral Essays, Rape of the Lock.
Cowper: The Task, Books I. and II.
Palgrave's Golden Treasury.
Johnson's Lives of the Poets, as in the Undergraduate Honor Course.
Carlyle's Past and Present.

Also the following Poems:—The Prisoner of Chillon; the Ancient Mariner; Christabel; The Excursion, Book I.; Hyperion; Adonais; Maud.

II.—French Language and Literature.

Molière, the parts read in the Junior Sophister year, together with L'Avare, L'Ecole des Femmes, La Critique de l'Ecole des Femmes, Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme, and Le Malade Imaginaire.
Ste.-Beuve, Portraits littéraires, Vols. I. and II.
V. Hugo, La Légende des Siècles; Ste-Beuve, Chateaubriand et son groupe littéraire sous l'empire, leçons i. to xxi. inclusive.
Géruzez, Histoire de la Littérature Française.
Demogeot, Histoire de la Littérature Française.

III.—German Language and Literature.

Lessing's Nathan der Weise.
Goethe's Wahrheit und Dichtung, Books XII.–XX.
,, Faust, Part I.
,, Minor Poems.
Schiller's Wallenstein's Lager.
,, Wallenstein's Tod.
Heine, Ueber Deutschland, Book III., Von Kant bis Hegel.
,, Die Romantische Schule, Books I., II., III.
L. Salomon's Geschichte der deutschen National Literatur des neunzehnten Jahrhunderts, Stuttgart, 1881.
Gostwick and Harrison's Outlines of German Literature.

The proficiency of Candidates in French or German will be tested by oral Examination, as well as by written versions from English, and Compositions in the language selected by each Candidate.

Lectures.

The Lecturing Staff in the University of Dublin consists of the Junior Fellows and Professors.

Lectures are delivered in all the Courses by which Terms may be kept in Arts, or in which Honors can be obtained at the Term Examinations, in the subjects which are studied in the four Professional Schools, and in various other departments of knowledge.

LECTURES IN ARTS WHICH COUNT TOWARDS THE KEEPING OF TERMS.

ORDINARY AND HONOR LECTURES.

Mathematics, Mathematical Physics, Classics, Mental and Moral Science, and Experimental Physics.

Lectures in the above subjects are delivered by the Tutor Fellows to the Students in Arts, at hours announced in each Term.

Special Lecturers are selected to lecture Candidates for Honors in Mathematics, Mathematical Physics, Classics, and Mental and Moral Science.

Chemistry.—The Professor of Chemistry lectures Senior and Junior Sophisters, in Michaelmas and Hilary Terms, in Chemistry.

Botany, Zoology, and Geology.—The Professor of Botany lectures Junior Sophisters upon three days in each week during six weeks of the Michaelmas and of the Hilary Term. The Professor of Zoology lectures during the same period upon alternate days with the Professor of Botany. The Professor of Geology and Mineralogy lectures Senior Sophisters during the same period. In the Michaelmas and Hilary Terms Demonstrations are given to Honor Students in Arts: in Botany, by the Professor of Botany, and in the Anatomy of the Invertebrates, by the Professor of Comparative Anatomy. Each of the Professors of Botany and of Zoology gives a Course of Demonstrations in Trinity Term. In Michaelmas Term the Professor of Geology and Mineralogy gives a second Course of Lectures on Mineralogy and Petrology.

French and German.—In each Term the Professor of the Romance Languages lectures, in French, Senior Sophisters on three days per week, and Junior Sophisters on three days. The Professor of German lectures, in German, Senior Sophisters on three days per week, and Junior Sophisters on three days. There are also Honor Lectures in French and German during Term, and Students below Sophister standing may attend these lectures on payment to the Junior Bursar of a fee of one guinea per Term.

LECTURES FOR CANDIDATES FOR MODERATORSHIPS.

Mathematics and Mathematical Physics.—Erasmus Smith's Professor of Mathematics delivers Lectures on three days in each week. The University Professor of Natural Philosophy delivers Lectures three times a-week; the days and hours are fixed at the commencement of each Term.

Classics.—The Professor of Greek delivers Lectures on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, during Term. The Professor of Latin delivers Lectures on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, during Term. The Professor of Ancient History lectures during Term, on days of which public notice is given. The Professor of Sanscrit lectures on Comparative Grammar, on two days in each week, during Term.

Logics and Ethics.—The Professor of Moral Philosophy delivers Lectures during Term, of which public notice is given. Lectures are also delivered by the Mental and Moral Science Honor Lecturer of the Senior Sophister Class.

Experimental Science.—Candidates may attend the Lectures of the Professors of Experimental Philosophy,[a] and of Chemistry. Notice of the days and hours of these Lectures is given at the commencement of each Term. Candidates for Moderatorships in Experimental Science are entitled to attend the Laboratory of the Professor of Chemistry, from the 1st of November to the 30th of June, on payment of six guineas to the Bursar.

Natural Science.—Candidates may attend the Lectures and Demonstrations of the Professors of Botany and of Zoology. In Trinity Term the Professor of Geology and Mineralogy gives Demonstrations to Candidates for Moderatorships in Natural Science.

History and Political Science.—The Professor of History lectures in each week, during Term. In Trinity Term the Professor of Political Economy lectures Candidates for Moderatorship on five days in each week.

Modern Literature.—Candidates may attend the Lectures already mentioned of the Professor of English Literature, of the Professor of the Romance Languages, and of the Professor of German. In Trinity Term, the Professor of German gives Prelections on some subject connected with the Literature of Germany, which are open to the public, and are advertised in the daily papers.

---

[a] The Honor Lectures of the Assistant may be substituted for the ordinary Lrectues of the Professor.

LECTURES IN THE PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS.

An account of these Lectures will be found under the head "Professional Schools." Lectures connected with the Professional Schools which are not intended for Professional Students exclusively are mentioned also under the head "Lectures in the Courses in Arts," "Miscellaneous Lectures," or "Public Lectures."

INDIAN AND HOME CIVIL SERVICE SCHOOL.

Information as to the Special Courses of Lectures in connexion with Indian or Home Civil Service can be obtained on application to Dr. L. C. Purser, Registrar of the School.

MISCELLANEOUS LECTURES IN ARTS.

Astronomy.—The Professor of Astronomy lectures on Mondays and Fridays in Hilary Term.

Modern History and Political Economy.—The Professor of Modern History delivers, each Term, Courses of Lectures in accordance with arrangements made at the beginning of the Term. The Professor of Political Economy delivers a Course of, at least, nine Lectures during some one of the three Academical Terms, which are free to all Students.

English Literature.—The Professor of English Literature delivers Lectures on three days in the week during Term.

Hebrew Lectures.—All Undergraduate Students are permitted to attend Hebrew Lectures. The Professor of Hebrew delivers public Prelections from time to time as required by the Rules of Erasmus Smith's Board, and, in addition, lectures the Senior Class. Due notice of the hours at which these Lectures are held is given at the beginning of each Term. Erasmus Smith's Lecturer in Hebrew lectures the Middle Class, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, at nine o'clock. The Lectures of the Assistants, for the Junior Class, are also delivered on Tuesdays and Thursdays, at the same hour. For the regulations and subjects of these Lectures, vide infra, Divinity School, § v.

Irish.—The Professor of Irish lectures on two days in the week, during Term.

The Professor of Sanskrit and Comparative Philology lectures in each Term on Celtic Philology.

Arabic, Persian, and Hindustani.—The Professor of Arabic teaches Arabic, Persian, or Hindustani, to such Students as may present themselves for instruction, at the commencement of each Term, at the rate of three guineas per Term. The Professor also receives Pupils at any time, at the rate of four guineas for twenty, or one guinea for four private lessons.

The Board have authorized the Professor to give Certificates (similar to those given by the Professor of Hebrew) to such Students as he may, upon examination, think entitled to that distinction.

Sanskrit.—The Professor of Sanskrit receives Pupils, under the same regulations and conditions as the Professor of Arabic.

PUBLIC LECTURES.

The following Lectures are open to the public, as well as to all Students:—

The Prelections of—

The Professor of German.
The Regius Professor of Divinity.

The Professor of Oratory.

DONNELLAN LECTURER.

The regulations on which this Lectureship was established are contained in the following extract from the Registry, dated February 22, 1794:—

"Whereas a Legacy of £1243 has been bequeathed to the College of Dublin by Mrs. Anne Donnellan, of the parish of St George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, spinster, for the encouragement of religion, learning, and good manners; the particular mode of application being left to the Provost and Senior Fellows:—

"Resolved:—1. That a Divinity Lecture, to which shall be annexed a salary, arising from the interest of £1200,[a] shall be established for ever, to be called Donnellan's Lecture.

[a] The sum now invested for the Donnellan Fund, in Government Stock, is £1510 5*s.*—College Register, February 9, 1856.

2. "That the Lecturer shall be forthwith elected from among the Fellows of said College, and hereafter annually on the 20th of November.

3. "That the subject or subjects of the Lectures shall be determined at the time of election by the Board, to be treated of in Six Sermons, which shall be delivered in the College Chapel after morning Service on certain Sundays, to be appointed on the 20th of November next after the election of the Lecturer, and within a year from said appointment.

4. "That one moiety of the interest of the said £1200 shall be paid to the Lecturer as soon as he shall have delivered the whole number of Lectures, and the other moiety as soon as he shall have published four of the said Lectures; one copy to be deposited in the Library of the College; one in the Library of Armagh; one in the Library of S. Sepulchre; one to be given to the Chancellor of the University; and one to the Provost of the College."

The foregoing regulations have been slightly modified by more recent orders of the Board, containing the following provisions:—

(1.) The Donnellan Lectureship shall be open to all Masters of Arts or Bachelors of Divinity of Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge, being Clergymen.

(2.) The Lecturer shall be elected every year, on the last Saturday in November.

DONNELLAN LECTURERS.

For 1899-1900, Moritz Kaufmann, M.A.

Subject—The Influence of Christianity on Social development.

Fellowship and Scholarship Examinations.

The following Regulations have been adopted by the Board, relative to the Examinations for Fellowships and Scholarships :—[a]

EXAMINATION FOR FELLOWSHIP.

1. The rules determining the conditions of election to Fellowship are fully set forth in Chap. VII. of the College Statutes.

2. The subjects of Examination are comprised in four principal Courses: viz., 1. Mathematics, pure and applied; 2. Experimental Science; 3. Classics, with Hebrew and Cognate Languages; 4. Mental and Moral Science.

3. The Board have no power to fetter the judgment of individual electors either as to the moral or the literary merit of Candidates; but the following scale has been adopted as representing the respective weights which, in the opinion of the Board, it is desirable to attach to the different subjects of the Examination :—[b]

		Total.
Mathematics, pure and applied,		1000
Experimental Science,		300
Classics,	800	900
Hebrew and Cognate Languages,	100
Mental and Moral Science,		500

In and after the year 1901 the following scale will be adopted:—

Mathematics	Pure,	500
	Applied,	700
Classics,		800
Hebrew,		200
Mental and Moral Science,		500
Experimental Science,		300

Candidates in Classics will be allowed to take up either Ancient History or Comparative Philology, including the Elements of Sanskrit as alternate Courses, the papers in the two Courses being set concurrently.

4. No Candidate shall obtain credit for Hebrew and Cognate Languages unless he shall have obtained 30 per cent. of the maximum amount of marks in Classics.

5. The Examiners in the several Courses are required to report to the Board, whether, in their opinion, the answering of each Candidate is such as to entitle it to be taken into account in a final comparison of the answering in all the Courses.

SCHOLARSHIP.

1. Scholars are elected for Scientific and for Classical merit, respectively. In order to distinguish them from the holders of other Scholarships they are termed Scholars of the House, or Scholars on the Foundation. The number of Scholars is seventy, and they have important privileges. They receive from the College an annual salary of £20 Irish money; they have their commons free of expense, and their rooms for half the charge paid by other Students[a]. The tuition fees of Pensioners who are elected to Scholarships is one guinea per quarter, and of Fellow-Commoners, two guineas. They hold their Scholarships until the end of the June Quarter of the fifth year following their election, or following the time at which they become or might have become Masters of Arts, whichever period terminates first. All fees payable by Scholars for Tuition terminate after the quarter in which they take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Exhibitions awarded to Scholars.

On the 1st May, 1875, the following Decree was enacted by the Provost and Senior Fellows, with the consent of the Visitors:—

> "Whereas certain Exhibitions of small value exist at present in the College, to which Students are appointed by the Provost and Senior Fellows:
>
> "It is Decreed, that any Scholar who shall obtain Senior Moderatorship at the Degree Examination shall be awarded one of these last-mentioned Exhibitions, if such shall be then vacant, and such further Exhibition as shall raise the entire annual value of his Exhibition to £10: Provided, however that no such Exhibition shall be given to any Senior Moderator who obtains one of the Studentships at the Degree Examination."

---

[a] This does not apply to that portion of the rent imposed to defray expenses incurred in papering or painting.

Waiterships.

Before and after meat, grace was formerly said by certain of the Scholars in turn, who were called Waiters. This obligation was done away with by the Act 36 Victoria, chapter 21.

On Nov. 21, 1873, it was resolved by the Board, that ten Scholars, or other Students, should be annually appointed to say grace before and after meat in the Commons Hall, on the following conditions:—

1. They shall each receive a salary of £10 per annum, to be paid quarterly, if the duty has been satisfactorily discharged.
2. They shall be annually selected by the two Deans, and the names of those selected shall be submitted to the Board for appointment to the office.
3. Regard shall be had, in the selection, to the general character of the Student for regularity, steadiness, and general good conduct, as such qualities are the best security that the duties of the office will be properly discharged.

The grace must be repeated memoriter and in Latin, in a form prescribed by the Statutes of the College.[a]

Keeping of Terms by Scholars.

The following Rules have been passed by the Board, with regard to the attendance by Scholars at Lectures:—

I. Graduates.—All Scholars who have actually passed the B. A. Degree Examination are exempted from suspension for non-attendance at Lectures.

II. Undergraduates.—1. Every Undergraduate Scholar shall be required to keep each Term, by attendance either at Lectures, or the subsequent Examination, on pain of being conditionally suspended.

2. Full attendance on the Lectures of the University Professors, such as would prove that an Undergraduate Scholar is engaged bonâ fide in preparation for the Moderatorship or India Civil Service Examinations, or in professional studies, shall be held sufficient to exempt him from suspension for that Term.

3. Any Undergraduate Scholar who shall have been conditionally suspended under the foregoing rule shall be restored on obtaining an Honor at a subsequent Examination.

4. Any Undergraduate Scholar who shall remain conditionally suspended for three Terms shall absolutely forfeit his salary for the past year, unless he shall produce to the Board satisfactory excuses for his neglect.

5. No student can compete for a Scholarship until after his name has been entered on the College books as a Junior Freshman, i.e. he cannot compete as a rising Junior Freshman. (See "Course in Arts," § 5).

[a] Stat. Coll. cap. xvi.

6. Any Scholar who shall fail to keep the Terms and Examinations necessary to enable him to proceed with his Class shall ipso facto forfeit his Scholarship, and no Scholar can have his name transferred to a lower Class without the express permission of the Board and Senior Fellows.[a]

Mode of Election.

1. On or before the day of election every Candidate for Scholarship must send to the Provost and each of the Senior Fellows, or to the Registrar[b], his name, and the name of the county in which he was born. The form in which this is generally done is as follows:

> Ego, A.B. —— filius, natus in comitatu N., sub ferula —— educatus, Discipulatum a te humillime peto.

2. Candidates for Science Scholarships are examined in all the Pure and Applied Mathematics of the Undergraduate Honor Course for which a Junior Sophister Student would have been liable from his entrance up to the Trinity Examination of the Junior Sophister year inclusive, and also in the Course of Logics or of Experimental Science for the same period at the option of the Student.[c]

3. The Examination for Science Scholarships is held on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, in Ascension week, from 9 to 12 in the forenoon, and from 2 to 5 in the afternoon, of each day.

The subjects of Examination at the several hours are arranged as follows:—

FIRST DAY, .	Morning, . .	Pure Mathematics.
	Evening, . .	Pure Mathematics.
SECOND DAY,	Morning, . .	Pure Mathematics.
	Evening, . .	Astronomy and Hydrostatics.
THIRD DAY,	Morning, . .	Mechanics.
	Evening, . .	Logics, or Experimental Science.

[b] Resolution of Board, May 24, 1880.

[c] These are identical with the Honor Course for the corresponding periods as given in the present Calendar

4. The following numbers have been adopted to represent the highest possible answering in the several Courses:—

Pure Mathematics, ...	250
Applied Mathematics, ...	250
Logics or Experimental Science, . .	100

5. Candidates for Classical Scholarship are examined in all the Classics of the Undergraduate Honor Course for which a Junior Sophister Student would have been liable from his entrance up to and including the Trinity Examination of the Junior Sophister year, inclusive, and in those books of the Entrance Course which are included in the list in the foot-note.[a]

They are also examined in Greek, Latin, and English Composition. Separate Marks are given for the paper and vivâ voce Examination.

[a] In accordance with the above Regulations, the Course for the viva voce Classical Examination of the Candidates for Classical Scholarships for the present year will be as follows:—

Greek Prose Authors.

Herodotus, Book i.
Thucydides, Book i.
Plato, Gorgias.
Demosthenes, De Corona.

[a] Resolutions of Board and Council, June 11 and 17. 1887.

[b] Resolutions of Council (subsequently adopted by the Board), June 7, 1876.

Studentships.

By the Royal Statute of 22nd Victoria, fourteen Studentships were founded in Trinity College, open to Candidates of all religious denominations, with a salary to be fixed by the Provost and Senior Fellows, not exceeding £100 per annum for each.

By the Royal Letters Patent of May 20, 1889, these Studentships were made tenable for a period not exceeding five years, and the number was reduced to ten.

No Fellow can be elected to a Studentship; and in case any person holding a Studentship shall be elected a Fellow, his Studentship shall thereupon become vacant.

The following regulations have been made by the Board[a], under the authority of the foregoing Statutes, with respect to the election of Students:—

I. Two Students shall be elected annually, one from the Senior Moderators in Mathematics and Physics, and one from the Senior Moderators in Classics.

II. A member of the Board shall preside at each Moderatorship Examination.

III. The results of the Moderatorship Examinations shall be the basis upon which the Board will elect to Studentships, according to the following regulations:—

1. In addition to the primary Courses, Mathematics and Physics, or Classics, the Board will take into account the answering of the Candidates in one other Moderatorship Course.
2. Students taking the Mathematical and Physical Moderatorship as a primary Course may take up Classics as a secondary Course, and vice versâ.
3. The weight to be assigned to the Primary and Secondary Courses respectively shall be in the proportion of 3 to 2.
4. A minimum shall be fixed for each Course, and the merit of each Candidate shall be measured by the excess of his answering above that minimum. The minimum in each Course shall be one-fourth of the total weight of the Course.

IV. The Examiners in each Course shall make a full report to the Board of the answering of the Candidates, and each Elector shall vote for the two Candidates whose answering, on the whole, shall appear to him the most distinguished; provided there be no objection to such Candidate on the score of moral character or conduct.

V. No Student who shall drop more than one class, will be permitted to be a Candidate for Moderatorship.

[a] November 2, 1889.

VI. No person will be permitted to be a Candidate for Moderatorship who shall have dropped a class after the Michaelmas Examination of his Junior Sophister year.

VII. No change in the mode of electing to Studentships shall be made, unless after a year's previous notice[a].

VIII. In case any person holding a Studentship shall be elected to a Fellowship of any College in Oxford or Cambridge Universities his Studentship shall thereupon become vacant.[b]

By the Royal Letters Patent of May 20, 1889, the Provost and Senior Fellows were empowered either to decline to elect to a Studentship, or to award a Studentship of reduced value, in case of insufficient merit: and also to divide the emoluments of a Studentship in cases of equality or closeness of answering between the Candidates.

IX. In addition to the two Studentships which shall be annually filled up, Prizes will be awarded to deserving answerers at the Degree Examination, at the discretion of the Provost and Senior Fellows, in accordance with regulations of the Queen's Letter[c] of the 20th May, 1889.

The sum awarded to the Moderators, in 1899, amounted to £500.

BROOKE PRIZES.

On the 11th October, 1879, it was resolved by the Board, with the assent of the Misses Brooke:—

That two Prizes, equal in amount, and representing the interest of the sum of £2000 presented by the Misses Brooke, be constituted, to be given annually to the Candidates for Moderatorship who rank next in order, severally, to the Moderators who are appointed Students for Mathematics and for Classics, the Prizes to be called the Brooke Prizes.

Special Prizes.

In the case of all Prizes, the Board reserve the power of diminishing the amount of the Prize, or withholding it altogether, if insufficient merit has been shown by the Candidates, and, in the case of Prizes which are payable out of Special Trust Funds, the amount will further depend on the dividends in hand.

MADDEN PRIZE

AND

PREMIUMS AT THE EXAMINATIONS FOR FELLOWSHIPS.

The Provost and Senior Fellows, at every Fellowship Examination, grant Premiums to such Candidates as appear to them to deserve encouragement, and in such proportions as they consider merited by the answering.

In the year 1798, Madden's Prizes were first granted according to the conditions specified in the following extract from the codicil to the will of Samuel Molyneux Madden, Esq., dated August 7th, 1782:—

"Whereas I, Samuel Molyneux Madden, have, in the body of my last will and testament, bequeathed all my estate and property, situated in the Corporation of Belturbet, immediately after the demises therein mentioned, to be employed in promoting virtue and learning in Trinity College, in the County of Dublin, subject to such regulations as I shall exposit and declare in any codicil to my said will. In pursuance of that my design, I do hereby constitute and appoint the three persons immediately hereafter named to be Trustees for the carrying into execution that design, That is to say: The Right Honourable James Lord Viscount Lifford, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, the Most Rev. and Right Honourable Richard Robinson, Primate of all Ireland, and the Right Rev. Richard Woodward, Lord Bishop of Cloyne, humbly entreating those very worthy and highly respected persons to vouchsafe their protection and favour to a design so suited to their own excellent dispositions. I do further declare it to be my humble request and desire, that the Vice-Chancellor of Trinity College, for the time being, be one of the Trustees and Governors of the fund to be raised for the design and purpose aforesaid, and that the Lord Primate, for the time being, be also one of the Trustees and Governors of said fund, and to carry into execution my intent and design, as hereinafter mentioned. My will, intent, and request therefore is, that at every Examination for Fellowships in Trinity College, the whole produce of the said fund, during the preceding year, be given, in one undivided sum, into the hand of that disappointed candidate for the Fellowships whom the majority of his Examiners shall, by certificate in writing under their hand, declare to have best deserved to succeed, if another Fellowship had been vacant. Provided always, that no premium thus provided be given to any disappointed candidate, in any year wherein there shall not be at least two disappointed candidates at the Examination, and also, provided always, that the Provost and Senior Fellows of the College do not diminish the premiums which through their zeal to encourage learning they generously bestow on the disappointed candidates for Fellowships at each Examination. And whereas there are some years wherein there are not any Examinations for Fellowships held, no vacancy having happened in the College, I do hereby desire that the revenue of my estate and fund, in every such year, be laid out in Government securities by my said Trustees, and the interest of such Government securities be added to the succeeding produce of the united fund aforesaid, and thus the premium be increased which shall be given to disappointed candidates in the succeeding years, and I do desire that this premium or bounty be confined to one only disappointed candidate for Fellowship, until the annual revenue of the fund arise to four hundred pounds, after which period the Trustees aforesaid may appropriate the further increase of the fund towards the constituting a bounty for a second disappointed candidate, or rather for a premium for the best Oration or Essay in Latin on such subject as the College shall annually choose, as such encouragement is greatly wanted. And further, in aid to the said intended fund, as the present revenue of the Estate in the Corporation of Belturbet is but £86 rent, I do hereby bequeath to the three Trustees aforenamed all my personal estate of what nature soever, after the death of my most dearly beloved wife, to be by them converted into money, and to be laid out in Government Debentures, and applied to the great end of encouraging virtue and learning in the College, where the youth of the nation are educated, and where most essential service may be expected from their care and patronage, and therefore I do hereby appoint the aforesaid Trustees my Residuary Legatees."

Until the year 1894, the property devised under this will was vested in and managed by individual trustees. By a decree of the Master of the Rolls, dated the 28th day of April, 1894, the said Provost, Fellows, and Scholars were appointed trustees of the trust property; and, by Letters Patent, the Board of Trinity College were empowered to hold the lands devised by the will of Mr. Madden. All the trust property is now vested in and managed by the Board of Trinity College.

PRIZES IN SUBJECTS CONNECTED WITH THE STUDY OF DIVINITY.

WALL BIBLICAL SCHOLARSHIPS.

In Michaelmas Term, 1858, the Rev. Charles William Wall, D.D., Vice-Provost, gave to the Provost and Senior Fellows the sum of £2000, for the purpose of founding Biblical Scholarships, in accordance with certain conditions submitted by him to the Board, and approved. Five Scholarships were accordingly founded (to be called "The Wall Biblical Scholarships"), tenable each for five years from the date of election, with a salary of £20 a year, one to be elected annually according to such regulations as the Provost and Senior Fellows shall from time to time enact, in conformity with the wishes of the Founder, as recorded in the Register of the College.

The following is the Course for Examination for the present year:

The Book of Hosea in Hebrew and Greek (Septuagint).
The Book of Hosea, chapters i.–v. inclusive, in Syriac.
The Targum, chapters i.–iii.

Wall's "Proofs of the Interpolation of the Vowel-Letters in the Text of the Hebrew Bible," published in 1857; together with the Hebrew, Syriac, Chaldee, and Greek passages referred to in the several examples.

The following Articles in Smith's Dictionary of the Bible:—1. Samaritan Pentateuch. 2. The Septuagint. 3. Ancient Versions (the Greek, Syriac, and Chaldee Versions). 4. Shemitic Languages and Writing. 5. Writing.

Driver on the Text of the Books of Samuel (the Introduction).

Chwolson on the Quiescentes. (Hodges and Figgis.)

An easy passage in Syriac (unseen) will be set for translation, and a passage in English for translation into Hebrew.

The Examination for the present year will be held in Trinity Term, on the days marked in the Calendar. The names of Candidates must be on the College Books, and their standing, reckoned from Entrance, must be below that of M. A.

Candidates are requested to communicate their names and Collegiate standing to the Professor of Hebrew on or before the first day of Trinity Term.

THE ELRINGTON THEOLOGICAL PRIZE.

At a general meeting of the Clergy and Laity, assembled at Messrs. Milliken's, 104, Grafton-street, on the 4th day of March, 1837, to consider the best mode of commemorating the virtues, the learning, and the wisdom of the late Right Rev. Thomas Elrington, D.D., Lord Bishop of Leighlin and Ferns, and formerly Provost of Trinity College, Dublin, the following Resolutions were passed:—

"Resolved,—That, in the opinion of this Meeting, the conduct of the late highly-respected Bishop of Ferns was uniformly distinguished by an earnest desire and endeavour to do substantial good, without needless display or ostentation; especially by implanting and strengthening in the minds of all with whom he was at any time connected, whether those of future candidates for the ministry, or those of actual Ministers of the Church, or those of the members of the Church in general, a well-founded belief in the truth and doctrines of our Holy Religion, and a steady attachment to its primitive institutions, according to the form of Christianity established in the United Church of England and Ireland.

"That such a monument appears to us most appropriate to his character, and best calculated to do becoming honour to his memory, as shall be formed upon the principle of carrying forward those solid religious benefits which he was indefatigable in promoting during his life; a mode of testifying respect to which this Meeting is more inclined, by a consideration of the excellent personal representation of the late Prelate which already adorns the College Library.

"That, for the foregoing purpose, it is adjudged desirable to institute an annual Prize for one or more of the best Theological Essays, composed by Bachelors of Arts of Trinity College, Dublin, of not more than three years' standing.

"That the subject of the Essays be such as may direct the minds of the competitors to those topics in particular which were either discussed in the published works of the late Bishop, or were prominent objects of his solicitude; for example, the Evidence of our Holy Religion—the Constitution of the Christian Church—the Scriptural Character of the Doctrines, and the Apostolical Polity of our own Church—the necessity and validity of her Orders—and the just Claims and the solemn Engagement of her Ministers.

"That this Prize be denominated The Elrington Theological Prize; that the subjects be proposed, and the Prize awarded, by the Lord Bishop of Ferns, the Provost of Trinity College, and the Regius Professor of Divinity, all for the time being, in such way as they shall arrange among themselves; that the Essay or Essays be publicly read in the College Hall, at such time as the Provost shall appoint; and that the Prize consist of a selection of standard Theological works, of which the publications of the late Bishop, if attainable, as we trust they will be rendered by the filial piety of the present Regius Professor of Divinity, shall at all times form a part. This Prize cannot be obtained more than once by the same candidate."

The Essays, clearly and legibly written, with fictitious signatures, are to be given to the Provost, or to the Regius Professor of Divinity, on or before the 1st day of November in each year.

The foregoing Resolution has been altered so as to admit Graduates of the University of not more than eight years' standing (reckoned from the date of their B.A. Degree) to compete for the Prize. The subject will henceforth be announced two years before the date at which the Essays are to be sent in; and the value of the Prize will be £50.

Subject for 1900.—The Western Text of the third Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles.

RYAN PRIZE.

At the end of Trinity Term a Prize[a] is awarded by Archbishop King's Lecturer to that member of the Junior Divinity Class (being under M.A. standing) who shall have been most diligent in attendance at Composition Lectures. The quality of the Essays written during the year will be taken into consideration.

PRIZES IN BIBLICAL GREEK.

These Prizes were founded by the Board in the year 1840. A sum of £15 is placed at the disposal of the Professor of Biblical Greek, to be given in Prizes to the best answerers at an Annual Examination, which is held in Hilary Term, on a day named in the Almanac, usually the first Wednesday in March.

Candidates for Prizes at this Examination must be at least of Junior Sophister standing.

ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY PRIZES.

These Prizes were founded by the Board in the year 1851. They consist of two Premiums, one of £10, the other of £5, given at an Annual Examination, held by the Professor of Ecclesiastical

PRIZES IN MATHEMATICS.

THE LLOYD EXHIBITIONS.

At a Meeting of the Subscribers to the Lloyd Exhibition Fund, held in Trinity College, on Saturday, the 16th of November, 1839, the Rev. J. H. Singer, D. D., in the Chair, it was agreed:—

I. That a sum of money having been subscribed for the foundation of Exhibitions in the University, to commemorate the talents and virtues of the late Provost Lloyd,[a] by the promotion of learning in the Institution to whose interest his life was devoted, the aforesaid sum shall be lodged in the hands of the Provost, the Professor of Natural Philosophy, and the Professor of Mathematics, for the time being, in Trust for the purposes declared in these resolutions.

II. That the interest of the aforesaid sum, and of such other sums as may at any time be added to it, shall be applied to the foundation of two Exhibitions, to be held for two years only.[b]

III. That the appointment to these Exhibitions shall be made by a public Examination, under the following regulations:—

1. The Examinations shall be held in Michaelmas Term, annually, after the Michaelmas Term Examinations, and shall be open to such Students only as shall then be in the rising Senior Sophister Class.

2. No Student shall be admissible as a Candidate a second time.

3. The Exhibition shall be tenable only so long as the Student to whom it is awarded shall have his name on the College Books.

4. The Examiners shall be the Professors of Astronomy, Natural Philosophy, and Mathematics, and the Assistants to the Professor of Mathematics; or any three of them, as they shall agree among themselves.

5. The subject of Examination shall be a course of Mathematics and Physics, to be determined by the Examiners, subject to the approval of the Board.

IV. Any Exhibition which may fall vacant before the natural period of its expiration shall not be filled up, but its amount shall be added to the principal, for the augmentation of the fund; and the same rule shall be followed in case it should at any time happen that no Candidate of sufficient merit shall present himself.

[a] See list of Provosts, year 1831.
[b] The sum at present funded is £1112 0*s.* 7*d.*, Government Stock.

The following Course has been appointed for the Examination for these Exhibitions:—

Salmon's "Conic Sections."
Properties of Curves of the Third Degree.
Properties of Surfaces of the Second Degree.
Burnside and Panton's "Theory of Equations."
Williamson's "Differential Calculus"; "Integral Calculus."
Statics—Equilibrium of a Rigid and of a Flexible System.
Dynamics of a Particle and Motion Parallel to a Fixed Plane.
Newton's "Principia," Sects. 1, 2, 3.
Brünnow's "Spherical Astronomy," Introduction, and first three Sections.
Heath's "Geometrical Optics," Chaps. i.–ix. (both included).
Routh's Analytical Statics, Vol. I., Chaps. iv., v., and vi.

BISHOP LAW'S MATHEMATICAL PRIZES.

In the year 1796, the sum of £735 was given to the College by John Law, Bishop of Elphin, on condition that it should be applied to the purpose of encouraging the study of Mathematics, according to the following scheme:—

1. The sum of £20[a] to be given to that Junior Bachelor who shall pass the best Examination in Algebra, the application of Algebra to Geometry, and Spherical Trigonometry; and £10 to that Junior Bachelor who shall appear to be the second best proficient in the same subjects.
2. The Examination to be held on two days in Michaelmas Term, of which public notice to be given on the first day of said Term, and the Premiums shall be adjudged on the last day of the same, or the day before it, if it should fall on a Sunday.
3. The Examiners of the Candidates for the Premiums to be the Professors of Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, and Astronomy.
4. The sum of £5 to be given, in turn, to each Professor, in order that he may entertain the other two Examiners at dinner, on the day that the Premiums are adjudged: the rotation to begin with the senior.

The second of these regulations, which was for some years in abeyance, is again in force. The date of the Examination is given in the Almanac. The result of the Examination is, however, declared before the last day of Term.

[a] This sum, and the two which are mentioned below, are in Irish currency.

THE M'CULLAGH PRIZE.[a]

In November, 1854, it was resolved by the Subscribers to the M'Cullagh Prize Fund:—

1. That an Annual Prize of £30 be founded, to be called the M'Cullagh Prize.

2. That the competition for this Prize be open to all persons not being Fellows of Trinity College, or Professors in the University of Dublin, whose names shall be on the books of the said College, on the day appointed for the adjudication of the Prize, and for at least three days previously.

3. That this Prize shall, subject to the restriction in No. 7, be awarded to the best answerer at an Examination, to be held on a day fixed by the Examiners, and of which due notice shall be given.

4. That the subject of this Examination shall be a Course of Mathematics and Physics, or of either of these, to be fixed from time to time by the Examiners, as stated in No. 6.

5. That the Examiners for this Prize shall be the Professor of Astronomy, the Professors of Natural Philosophy, the Professor of Mathematics, the Donegall Lecturer, and the Assistant to the Professor of Natural Philosophy, or any three of them.

6. That the subject of each Examination shall be determined by the aforesaid six Examiners, or the majority of them, and publicly announced, at least one year previously to the day appointed for the Examination.

7. That if at any Examination the Examiners shall be of opinion that sufficient merit has not been shown by any of the Candidates, it shall in such case be competent for the said Examiners to withhold the Prize for that year; and that the sum or sums thus accruing shall form a surplus fund, from which Prizes may be adjudged to such disappointed Candidates for the M'Cullagh Prize as the Examiners may consider to be worthy of such encouragement.

8. That no person who has once obtained the M'Cullagh Prize shall be admitted as a Candidate a second time.

In 1875, a change was made in the investment of the Fund, which rendered the sum available in each year for Prizes £40. If, therefore, sufficient merit be shown, it is open to the Examiners to award in each year an additional Prize or Prizes, not exceeding in annual amount the sum of £10.

The Examination is held in Hilary Term.

THE MICHAEL ROBERTS PRIZE.[b]

On the 13th June, 1883, the sum of £200 was received from Mrs. Michael Roberts, to found a Prize in Mathematics, to be called the "Michael Roberts Prize."

---

[a] See list of Fellows, year 1832.

[b] See list of Fellows, year 1843.

The Michael Roberts Prize is awarded to the Student who, having passed the General Michaelmas Examination of the Senior Freshman Year, shall be judged by the Board to have answered best at the Mathematical Honor Examination of the Senior Freshmen in the Michaelmas Term.

THE TOWNSEND MEMORIAL PRIZE.[a]

On the 19th December, 1885, a scheme, recommended by a final meeting of the Subscribers of a Fund in memory of the late Rev. Richard Townsend, was laid before the Provost and Senior Fellows, and adopted by them. It provided:—

1. That the balance of the Fund subscribed, after paying the cost of the Portrait in the Common Room, be invested in approved Trustee securities in the names of the Bursar of Trinity College, Rev. George Salmon, D.D., Benjamin Williamson, M.A., and George L. Cathcart, M.A., as Trustees for the purposes of the Fund.[a]
2. That an Annual Prize, payable out of the interest of the Fund, and depending on its amount, be founded in the University of Dublin, to be called "The Townsend Memorial Prize."

It then prescribed rules under which the prize was to be given to the best answerer at an annual examination, if sufficient merit were shown. Under these rules the prize was paid in 1886, in part, and once only in full, in 1889. The Board, therefore, in 1891, on the recommendation of a meeting of Mathematical Examiners, altered the rules for its adjudication to the following:—

In 1893, and subsequent years, the Townsend Memorial Prize will be awarded to the Junior Freshman who shall obtain the highest aggregate of marks in Mathematics at the Michaelmas Prize Examination, and either the Hilary or the Trinity Honor Examinations.

If in any year sufficient merit be not shown, it shall be in the power of the Trustees, on the recommendation of the Examiners, to withhold the Prize, and to add the surplus thus accruing to the Principal Fund.

The value of the Prize is about £20.

PRIZES IN CLASSICS.

BISHOP BERKELEY'S GOLD MEDALS.

In the year 1752, May 8, the Provost and Senior Fellows agreed to give annually, for ever, two Gold Medals for the encouragement of Bachelors of Arts in the study of the Greek Language; having received a benefaction of one hundred and twenty guineas, besides a die, from the Right Rev. Dr. George Berkeley, Lord Bishop of Cloyne, and late Fellow of Trinity College, for that purpose.

These Medals were formerly given to such Middle Bachelors as had attended the Lectures of the Regius Professor of Greek, with remarkable diligence, for two Academic years, commencing with the Term in which they had graduated in Arts.

By a Resolution of the Board, dated November 15, 1856, these Medals were put under the following regulations:—

1. The two Berkeley Medals, with a distinction in honour of first and second, shall henceforth be given to the best answerers at an Examination in the Greek Language and Literature, to be held annually in Hilary Term.
2. All Students, whether Graduates or Undergraduates, under A.M. standing,[a] may become candidates for the Berkeley Medals.
3. No Student shall be allowed to be a candidate more than three times, nor to obtain the Medal more than once.
4. The books and subjects of the Examination are to be announced annually by the Regius Professor of Greek, in the University Calendar, subject to the approval of the Board.
5. The Examination shall be conducted by the Regius Professor of Greek, the Professor of Latin, and one Examiner nominated by the Board.
6. The candidates will be examined in Composition, in the manner of the author or authors who shall form on each occasion the subject of the Examination.

Subject for 1900:—The Laws of Plato.

VICE-CHANCELLOR'S LATIN MEDALS.

On the 30th of January, 1869, it was resolved by the Provost and Senior Fellows to establish an annual Examination in Latin, similar to that held for the Berkeley Medals in Greek, and subject to the same Regulations. Two Gold Medals, called "The Vice-Chancellor's Latin Medals," are given to the successful Candidates.

The Examination is held annually in Michaelmas Term, on a day named in the University Almanac.

Subject for 1900:—See under Subjects and Courses for 1900 and 1901.

[a] That is, within three years from the date of their B.A. Examination.

VICE-CHANCELLOR'S PRIZES.

THE following Resolutions, approved of by the Vice-Chancellor, have been adopted by the Board, with reference to the Vice-Chancellor's Prizes:—

RESOLVED,—That for the existing Regulations respecting Vice-Chancellor's Prizes, the following Rules be substituted:—

That four Vice-Chancellor's Prizes for Composition be given in each year, viz., for the best Compositions on proposed subjects, in English Prose, English Verse, Greek or Latin Prose, and Greek or Latin Verse.

That the amount of each Prize be Twenty Pounds.

That these Prizes be open to all Students under the standing of M. A.,[a] having their names on the College Books.

That, in case of remarkable merit, arrangements be made for a public recitation of the Compositions.

That the Prize in each of the above departments be not awarded to any Student oftener than twice in succession, or than three times during his College Course.

That the subjects for the above Compositions be announced, on or before the 1st of June, in each year; that the Compositions, with fictitious signatures, be sent in to the Senior Lecturer, on or before the 1st of December; and that the Prizes be declared on the 1st of January following.

That the Examiners be the Regius Professor of Greek, the Professor of Latin, and the Professor of English Literature.

Subjects for the Prizes to be awarded in January, 1900.

Greek or Latin Prose—"The Re-conquest of the Soudan."
Greek or Latin Verse—"The Rhine."

The Subjects and Prizemen in English Prose and Verse will be found under the head "Prizes in English."

THE FERRAR MEMORIAL PRIZE.[b]

AT a meeting of the subscribers to the Ferrar Memorial Fund, held in Trinity College, on Wednesday, the 11th of November, 1874, the Rev. George Salmon, D. D., Regius Professor of Divinity, in the Chair, it was resolved:—

1. That the entire Fund subscribed be invested in Bank of Ireland Stock, in the names of the Provost of Trinity College, the Rev. George Salmon, D.D., and William Ewart, Esq., J. P., as trustees for the purposes of the Fund.

2. That an annual Prize, payable out of the interest of the Fund, and depending on its amount, be founded in the University of Dublin, to be called "The Ferrar Memorial Prize."

---

[a] That is, within three years from the date of their B.A. Examination.

[b] See list of Fellows, year 1859.

3. That the Prize be awarded, subject to the restriction of sufficient absolute merit, to the best answerer at an Examination to be held in Trinity College, on a day or days of which due notice shall be given.
4. That the subject of Examination for the Prize be a course of Comparative Philology, to be fixed from time to time by the Board of Trinity College, and duly announced in the University Calendar for each year.
5. That the competition for the Prize be open to all under the standing of M.A.—not Fellows of the College, or Professors of the University—whose names shall be on the books of Trinity College during the day or days of Examination.
6. That successful competition for the Prize in any year shall preclude the successful candidate from competition for it again in any subsequent year.

The Examination for the Prize[a] is held in Trinity Term. The Course for the Examination is—

King and Cookson's Sounds and Inflexions in Greek and Latin.
Monro's Grammar of the Homeric Dialect.

THE TYRRELL MEMORIAL PRIZE.[b]

At a meeting of the subscribers to a fund for establishing a Memorial in memory of the late W. G. Tyrrell, held on the 20th October, 1877, the following resolutions were unanimously agreed to, and were sanctioned by the Board, December 1, 1877 :—

1. That the Prize be a Biennial Gold Medal, to be awarded for the best Translations of passages into the four kinds of Classical Composition.
2. That the passages for the Compositions be announced in November each alternate year ; the Compositions, with fictitious signatures, to be sent to the Senior Lecturer on or before the 1st of February following.
3. That the Competition be open to all Students under the standing of M. A., having their name on the College Books.
4. That the Examiners be the Regius Professor of Greek, the Professor of Latin, and the Professor Extraordinary of Classical Literature.

The funds available, after the deduction of the necessary expenses, amounting to £128, were handed over to the Bursar, for the purpose of instituting the Prize. The awarding of the medal was suspended for a few years, in order to assist in defraying the expense of the die.

---

[a] The Fund is at present invested in £169 19*s.* 3*d.* Stock of Bank of Ireland, producing annually about £17.

[b] See list of Scholars, year 1871, and of Benefactions for 1877.

THE WILLIAM ROBERTS PRIZE.[a]

On the 13th December, 1884, the sum of £200 was received from Mrs. William Roberts, to found a Prize in Classics, to be called the "William Roberts Prize." This Prize is awarded to the Student who, having passed the General Michaelmas Examitation of the Senior Freshman Year, obtains the highest marks at the Classical Honor Examination of the Senior Freshmen in the Michaelmas Term.

MULLINS CLASSICAL EXHIBITION.

The late Inspector-General Mullins having bequeathed to the College a sum of £600, for the "foundation of an Exhibition, to be called the Mullins Classical Exhibition, in such Greek and Latin authors, and under such regulations as the Provost and Senior Fellows may from time to time determine," the Board have adopted the following Resolutions:—

"The Exhibition shall be tenable for three years, and the Examination shall be held every third year, in Michaelmas Term.

"The course shall consist of works of Greek or Latin authors not included in the General University Curriculum. The authors to be studied for each Examination shall be prescribed by the Board.

"Besides answering in the prescribed course, candidates shall be required to write an original Dissertation, bearing on some part of the subject-matter of that course, or treating questions connected therewith."

The following are the authors for Examination in 1900:—

Cassius Dio (apud Xiphilinum), Books lxix.–lxxx., inclusive.
Herodian.
Scriptores Historiae Augustae.

The Dissertation should be sent in before November 1, 1900.

Subjects suggested for the Dissertation.

1. The Barbaric Element in the Roman Army in the Second and Third Centuries A.D.
2. The History of the Province of Dacia from Hadrian to Aurelian.
3. Roman Financial Administration in the Third Century.
4. The Composition of the Historia Augusta.

It is to be distinctly understood that these subjects are merely suggested, and that candidates are at liberty to choose any subject for investigation they please, provided it be connected with the history of the period treated by the prescribed authors.

PRIZE IN LOGICS AND ETHICS.

THE WRAY PRIZE.

A sum of £500 was given in 1848, by Mrs. Catherine Wray, widow of the late Rev. Henry Wray,[a] D. D., Vice-Provost and Senior Fellow of Trinity College, to found a Prize for the encouragement of Metaphysical Studies among the Undergraduates of the University of Dublin.

Students in the Senior Sophister Class are alone admissible as Candidates. The Examination is held in Hilary Term, on a day of which notice is given. The Course for Examination is as follows:—

1. All the Logics and Metaphysics of the Senior Freshman and Junior Sophister years.
2. Butler's Works (as in Moderatorship Course).
3. A special Work to be selected by the Honor Examiners and the Professor of Moral Philosophy, and submitted to the Council not later than June 25 in the year preceding the Examination.

Special work for 1900:—Lotze, Logic, Book i.

JELLETT PRIZES FOR GENERAL ANSWERING.

The Rev. John Hewitt Jellett, D.D., late Provost of Trinity College, was in the habit of awarding Prizes, which were placed under the following Regulations, with the sanction of the Board:—

Two Prizes[b] for General Answering, are given at the General Examination at the close of the Senior Freshman year. No Student is eligible for either of these Prizes who already holds a Scholarship, or who shall be elected to a Senior Exhibition. Subject to these exceptions, the Prizes are awarded to the two Students respectively who obtain the highest aggregate of marks at the above-mentioned Examination, provided that this aggregate be not less than 65 per cent. of the total amount of marks obtainable. In case of equality of merit, the Board may, if they think fit, award a Prize of £4 to each of the two Students.

In the year 1889 the Rev. George Salmon, D.D., Provost of Trinity College, provided a fund for the future payment of the Jellett Prizes.

[a] See list of Fellows, 1800.

[b] The Fund is at present invested in £75 Stock of the Bank of Ireland, producing annually about £8. This is usually divided between the the two best answerers in the ratio of 5 to 3, but may be divided equally in case of equality of merit.

PRIZE IN EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.

EKENHEAD SCHOLARSHIP.

A SCHOLARSHIP, called "THE EKENHEAD SCHOLARSHIP," tenable for three years, was founded in 1879 by Mrs. Mary Dummett, in memory of her brother, Thomas Ekenhead, Esq.

This Scholarship, which is open only to natives of the county of Antrim, will be awarded to the best answerer (provided that sufficient merit be shown) at an Examination in Elementary Physics and Chemistry, to be held in the Trinity Term of every third year. Candidates must have their names on the College Books, and must not have passed the Examination (Moderatorship or General) for the Degree of A.B. An Examination will be held in Trinity Term, 1902, the appointed subjects of Examination being as follows:—

ELEMENTARY COURSE IN PHYSICS.

Density and Heat.

Comparison of weights (balance).
Measurement of pressure (barometer, manometer, Marriott's tube).
Measurement of surface tensions of liquids (capillarity).
Diffusion of liquids and gases (dialysis, viscosity).
Measurement of densities (specific gravity balance, specific gravity bottle, hydrometers).
Thermometry (mercurial thermometers, Fahrenheit and Centigrade scales).
Expansion of solids, liquids, and gases (Roy and Ramsden's, Dulong and Petit's, and Regnault's experiments, compensating pendulums, maximum density of water, air thermometers).
Measurement of densities of gases and vapours (Regnault's and Gay Lussac's methods).
Measurement of specific heats (method of mixtures, Dulong and Petit's law).
Changes of state (liquefaction, evaporation, and boiling).
Measurement of tension of saturated vapours (Regnault's experiments).
Measurement of latent heat (ice calorimeters, Carrè's freezing machine).
Measurement of heat of combustion.
Determination of mechanical equivalent of heat (Joule's experiments).
Work done by a body expanding (indicator diagram, steam-engine).

Electricity.

Production of electric currents by chemical action (Wollaston's, Daniell's, and Grove's cells).
Measurement of intensity of current (tangent galvanometer).
Laws of electrolysis (Faraday's experiments, voltameters, electrotyping).

Optics.

Laws of Reflexion and Refraction, experimentally considered; Prisms; Spectroscope; Lenses.

Chemistry.

Candidates are expected to give evidence of experimental knowledge in the following subjects:—

Modes of distinguishing physical and chemical change; Proofs of laws of constant composition; Definite and multiple proportions; Determination of equivalent and atomic weights; Distinctions of metals and non-metals; Characters and modes of preparation of chief non-metals, and of their acid and non-acid products; Composition of air, water, and coal-gas; The processes of combustion and of respiration in animals and plants; Detection of common acids and metals; Preparation and properties of the metals and their chief compounds; Spectra of the principal metals.

Candidates are also expected to perform simple chemical calculations.

The Ekenhead Scholarship is tenable for three years, and its present annual value is £28 10*s.*

PRIZES IN GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.

It was resolved by the Board, December 17, 1887—That two Prizes be given, open to all Students attending the Lectures of the Professor of Geology and Mineralogy: £5 for the second year's men, and £10 for the third year's men, provided sufficient merit be shown.

PRIZES IN HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE.

CLUFF MEMORIAL PRIZE.[a]

The friends of the late James Stanton Cluff, both in this country and in England, desiring to express, by some permanent Memorial, their admiration of his talents, and their esteem for his character, have collected by subscription a sum of about £400, which has been devoted to the foundation of Prizes in Trinity College, Dublin, and University College, London—institutions with both of which he was closely connected.

The subject will be a portion of Medieval or Modern History, changeable from year to year, to be studied in the original authorities. The Examination will be open to all persons having their names on the College Books.

The Cluff Memorial Prize[b] is now annually awarded (without a Special Examination) to the best answerer at the Examination for Prizes in Modern History, held in the Michaelmas Term of the Junior Sophister Year.

THE HELEN BLAKE NATIONAL HISTORY SCHOLARSHIP.

In the year 1884, the sum of £2700 was bequeathed by Miss Helen Blake, for the purpose of establishing a Scholarship, to be called "The Blake National History Scholarship." The following Regulations in reference to this Scholarship have been adopted:—

1. An election of a Scholar on the above foundation shall be held every fourth year, and the Scholar so elected shall hold the appointment for four years.

2. The interest of £2700,[c] the Fund handed over by the Lords of the Treasury to Trinity College, shall be paid annually to the Scholar so elected.

[a] See list of Scholars, year 1858, and of Benefactions for 1870.

[b] The Fund is at present invested in £99 10*s.* 8*d.* Stock of the Bank of Ireland, producing annually about £8 10*s.*

[c] This sum has been invested in the purchase of £2300, four per cent. Debenture Stock of the Great Southern and Western Railway Company of Ireland: this will produce about £92 per annum, which will be the annual value of the Scholarship.

3. The Scholarship shall be awarded to the author of the best unpublished Essay on the History of Ireland, or such portions thereof, or cognate subject bearing thereon, or event, or series of events, connected therewith, as the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College shall decide.

4. The subject for the Essay, within the limits aforesaid, for which the Scholarship shall be awarded, shall be announced publicly three years before the election.

5. The Electors shall be the Provost and Senior Fellows, who shall from time to time make and publish the arrangements for the Election of these Scholars.

6. If the Provost and Senior Fellows shall decide that no Essay sent in is worthy of a Scholarship, no election shall take place on that occasion. And in this case the accruing interest shall be invested by the Provost and Senior Fellows to form a fund to be appropriated to the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

7. They may give a reward or rewards to unsuccessful Candidates, or apply a portion of the fund specified in No. 6 to defray the expenses of publication of Essays which may possess sufficient merit.

8. The Candidates for the Scholarship shall be resident Students of Trinity College, Dublin—the word Student being interpreted to include Members of Trinity College, under the Collegiate standing of Masters of Arts.[a]

9. The first election shall take place early in the year 1888.

10. Scholars so elected may retain their Scholarships after taking the M.A. degree, but they must reside in Trinity College, or its vicinity, under the penalty of forfeiting their Scholarships. And in case of such Scholarship being forfeited or ceasing to be tenable (otherwise than by the effluxion of time), the Provost and Senior Fellows may appropriate so much of the income of the fund as would otherwise be applicable to such Scholarship to the fund specified in No. 6 of these Regulations.

11. The subject for the Essay to which the Scholarship will be awarded in 1900 is:—The History of Ireland during the reign of James I. Candidates are requested to observe that it is not a mere dissertation on the period that is required, but a narrative of facts. This narrative must be derived throughout from original sources, and every portion of it must be supported by reference to printed or manuscript documents. Candidates are invited to discuss the value of the authorities they use.

The Essays are to be sent in on or before November 1st, in the year of election.

DUNBAR INGRAM MEMORIAL PRIZE.

J. K. INGRAM, LL.D., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, having given a sum of £250 for the foundation of a Prize in Modern History, in memory of his son, T. Dunbar Ingram, it was resolved—

"That a Prize be founded to be called the Dunbar Ingram Memorial Prize: that it be annually awarded to the student who, having passed the General Final Freshman Examination, shall obtain the highest sum of marks at the Honor Examination in Modern History held in the Michaelmas Term of the Senior Freshman year: that Candidates at that examination, who desire to compete for this Prize, shall be allowed to increase their sum of marks by answering in a special course on some historical period, changeable from time to time."

The latter Course for 1900 will be The Third Crusade—Itinerarium Regis Ricardi (ed. Stubbs, Rolls Series).

Archer's "Crusade of Richard I."

PRIZES IN POLITICAL ECONOMY.

IN the year 1837, the Provost and Senior Fellows resolved to institute an Annual Examination in Political Economy, and to offer Prizes, one of £10, and a second of £5, for proficiency in that science.

The Examination is held in Trinity Term; it is conducted under the direction of the Professor of Political Economy, partly vivâ voce, and partly by written questions.

Students in the Bachelor Classes only, having their names on the College Books, are permitted to offer themselves as Candidates.

No Candidate who has once been awarded either of the Prizes can obtain a Premium a second time.

The Course consists of two parts—one general, the other special, and variable from year to year. Equal weight will be given to each part of the Course.

1. The general part will consist of the Course prescribed for Moderatorships, together with—

F. A. Walker, "The Wages Question."
W. S. Jevons, "Money."
W. Bagehot, "Lombard Street."
G. J. Goschen, "Theory of the Foreign Exchanges."
The collected Essays of Mill, Cairnes, and Bagehot.

2. The special part will consist of some particular Economic subject, to be announced in the Calendar.

Special Subjcet for 1900.

"Combinations in Industry and Commerce."

The following works may be used for reference:—

E. Von Halle, Trusts in the United States.
G. Howell, Trade Unionism, Old and New.
S. V. B. Webb, Industrial Democracy.

WHATELY MEMORIAL PRIZE IN POLITICAL ECONOMY.

On the 13th of May, 1871, a communication was received by the Board of Trinity College, from the Committee of the Whately Memorial Fund, stating that, after defraying the expenses connected with the administration of the Fund, and the erection of a monument to the late Archbishop Whately, in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, there remained a sum of £411 17*s.* 1*d.*, New Three per Cents., and a small sum in cash. After paying the premium in 1872, there remained a sum of £364 19*s.* 6*d.*, New Three per Cents., to the credit of the Fund. The following proposal, relative to the Whately Prize, was adopted by the Board, June 21, 1886:—

The Prize will in future be awarded to the author of the best essay on a specified economic subject, which conforms to the conditions hereinafter stated.

Graduates of any chartered University in the United Kingdom will be eligible as candidates.

All essays, with fictitious signatures attached, are to be sent to the Senior Lecturer on or before the last day of September in the year in which the Prize is to be awarded. The subject will be announced at least one year previous to the date fixed for sending in the essays.

NEW SHAKSPERE SOCIETY'S PRIZE.

In the year 1875, it was resolved by the Board and Council—

"That 'The New Shakspere Society's Prize' be given in each year for the best original contribution to the study of Shakspere, by any Student of Trinity College under the standing of M.A.: that any Essay read before the 'University Shakspere Society' may be used in competition for this Prize, if handed in to the Chairman on the evening on which the Essay has been read: that the Prize be not awarded to any Student oftener than once: that the Examiners be the Professor of English Literature, and another Examiner to be appointed by the Board: that the Essays competing for the Prize of the preceding year be sent in to the Senior Lecturer, on or before June 1st."

STEWART LITERARY SCHOLARSHIP.

Regulations as to the Stewart Scholarships.

"The moiety of such clear annual income [as shall arise from the real and personal estate bequeathed by the late Doctor Henry Hutchinson Stewart], when paid to the Bursar of Trinity College, Dublin, shall be applied in the maintenance of so many Medical and Literary Scholarships as the said moiety, with the accretions thereto, shall from time to time afford, in the proportion of one Literary Scholarship, and two Medical Scholarships, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit; the number of such Scholarships available for the year to be prescribed by the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College at the commencement of each Academical year. And one-third of the sum received by the Bursar to be appropriated in each year to the endowment of such Literary Scholarships, and the remaining two-thirds of the said sum to endowment of Medical Scholarships, the said Scholars to be chosen for proficiency in the respective subjects hereinafter mentioned: and in case the said moiety shall in any one year exceed the amount required for the maintenance of the said Scholarships, or in case the prescribed number of Scholarships shall not for any reason be filled up, the surplus income shall, at the discretion of the Provost and Senior Fellows, be either in the whole or in part reserved as a fund for granting of prizes unsuccessful competitors for the Medical Scholarships hereby founded in the said College, or be accumulated until, with previous accretions, it shall be sufficient to afford an income for the maintenance of one or more additional Scholarships, such Scholarships to be maintained as Medical and Literary Scholarships in the same proportion as the original Scholarships.

"One Medical Scholarship at least shall be awarded for proficiency, to be ascertained by competitive examination in the subject of the treatment of Mental Diseases, according to a course to be prescribed by the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College; and the remaining Medical Scholarship or Scholarships shall be awarded for proficiency to be ascertained by competitive examination in some or all of the following subjects—that is to say, Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Physics, Botany, Materia Medica, or other cognate subjects, according to a course to be from time to time prescribed by the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College; and all such Scholarships and Prizes shall be designated by the name of 'The Doctor Henry Hutchinson Stewart Medical Scholarships and Prizes;' and the Provost and Senior Fellows shall apportion the sum applicable to the endowment of Medical Scholarships in each year in such proportions as they shall consider advisable between the Medical Scholarships of each class.

"Each Medical Scholar elected for proficiency in the subject of the treatment of Mental Diseases shall, as the condition of retaining such Scholarship, be bound within six months from his election to such Scholarship to proceed to some recognized institution for the treatment of Mental Diseases, to be approved of by the Board of Trinity College, and there continue as either a resident or out-door pupil for such period, not less than six months, and under such conditions as the Provost and Senior Fellows shall by a general regulation prescribe: and on failure to observe such condition, the said Scholarship shall in the discretion of the said Provost and Senior Fellows be liable to be declared vacant.

"The Literary Scholarship or Scholarships shall be awarded to the Student or Students who shall be certified by the Senior Lecturer to have obtained the highest aggregate of marks at the five several Honor Examinations in Modern Literature held in the Junior Freshman and Senior Freshman and Junior Sophister years, and all such Scholarships shall be respectively designated by the name of 'The Doctor Henry Hutchinson Stewart Literary Scholarships and Prizes.'

"No student shall compete for a Medical Scholarship other than the Scholarship for proficiency in the treatment of Mental Diseases, after the completion of his second year as a Medical Student in Trinity College, Dublin; and no person shall compete for a Scholarship to be awarded for proficiency in the treatment of Mental Diseases, but within two years after he shall have graduated as a Bachelor of Medicine.

"No person shall compete for a Medical Scholarship who is already the holder of a Medical Scholarship either in Trinity College or the Royal University; and no person shall be admitted to compete a second time for a Medical Scholarship.

"Each Scholarship, whether Medical or Literary, shall be held for the term of three years; and it shall not be incumbent on the Board of Trinity College to fill the vacancies available in any one year, if in their opinion the answering has not been such as to merit it."

In Michaelmas Term, the Senior Lecturer will add to the marks obtained by the Candidate at the three Examinations in Modern Literature of the Junior Sophister Year those obtained by him at the two Examinations in English, French, or German Literature held in the Freshman Years. If he has been awarded Prizes in more than one of these subjects in either of the Freshman Years, that in which he obtained the highest marks will alone be taken into account in awarding the Stewart Scholarship. The Junior Sophister who shall have obtained the highest aggregate of marks so made up, shall receive £20 a-year during three years, provided his answering be deemed sufficient.

For the Regulations respecting the Stewart Medical Scholarships to be awarded in 1900, see under the head "School of Physic, Prizes."

RICHARD F. LITTLEDALE PRIZE.

Mr. Harold Littledale and other relatives and friends of the late Rev. Richard F. Littledale, D.D., having contributed a sum of £228 14*s.* 6*d.* for the founding of a Prize in English Literature in commemoration of him, it was decided that the Prize should be awarded annually to the student who, having passed the general Michaelmas Examination of the Senior Freshman Year, shall obtain the highest marks at the Michaelmas Senior Freshman Prize Examination in English Literature.

PRIZES IN ORIENTAL LANGUAGES.

HEBREW, CHALDEE, AND SYRIAC PRIZES.

Prizes to Graduates, for the encouragement of the study of Hebrew were first instituted by a decree of the Board, dated February 22, 1794, and a fund set apart for the purpose. In the year 1800, this fund was considerably augmented by the munificence of Primate Newcombe, and the grant was continued by his successors in the

See of Armagh, until the year 1871, when it was withdrawn, in consequence of the disendowment of the Church of Ireland.

In the year 1874, it was decreed by the Board that a sum not exceeding £40 should be given annually for Prizes in Hebrew, Chaldee, and Syriac.

All Students are now permitted to attend Hebrew Lectures, and the Professor is authorized to give a Certificate for one year's attendance. An Annual Examination is appointed to be held, at the end of each year, in Trinity Term, and Hebrew Premiums are awarded to the best answerers at this Exmination, provided they have attended the three antecedent Terms of Lectures. For the subjects and regulations of this Examination, vide "Divinity School," § v.

Exhibitions.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR EXHIBITIONS.

In Trinity Term, 1870, it was resolved by the Board, that, in pursuance of the Decree of the Board and Visitors, dated March 19, 1870, certain Exhibitions should be established in the College, subject to such changes as the Provost and Senior Fellows might from time to time ordain. In Trinity Term, 1875, the number of these Exhibitions was increased from forty to forty-eight.

I.—EXHIBITIONS AT ENTRANCE.

1. Twelve Exhibitions, of £25 a-year each, tenable for two years shall be awarded in each year to Students in the rising Junior Freshman Class, who have entered within the year, provided sufficient merit be shown by the Candidates.

The following Resolutions have been adopted by the Provost and Senior Fellows, February 17, 1899:—

I.—"That the Junior Exhibition Examination be open, not only to all Students in the rising Junior Freshman Class, but also to Candidates whose names are not on the College Books, who shall conform to the regulations as to age and to character already in force, and who shall pay a fee of £1 seven days before the commencement of the Examination.

II.—"The latter class of Candidates will not be elected to Exhibitions unless the Senior Lecturer be satisfied that they have qualified at this Examination in each of the subjects required at an Entrance Examination. If elected they will be required to place their names on the College Books according to the ordinary rules."

2. These Exhibitions shall be called the Junior Exhibitions.

3. The Examinations shall be held annually, in Michaelmas Term, on days notified in the University Calendar.[a]

4. No Student will be allowed to be a Candidate who shall have completed his nineteenth year before the 1st of June immediately preceding the commencement of the Examination.

5. All Students intending to compete for these Exhibitions must forward their names, and a certified copy of their baptismal registry, or other satisfactory evidence of age, to the Senior Lecturer, at least three days before the commencement of the Examination.

6. No Student holding a Supplemented Erasmus Smith Exhibition, will be entitled to hold one of these Exhibitions.

7. An Exhibitioner losing his class in College, or not keeping his name on the College Books, will forfeit his Exhibition.

8. At The end of the Michaelmas Term Examinations each year, the Senior Lecturer shall report to the Board the names of any of the Junior Exhibitioners elected in the previous year who do not appear to have made satisfactory progress in the Junior Freshman year; and the Board will then consider whether they will continue the Exhibition for the second year.

---

[a] On the days immediately succeeding the day of the second October Entrance (Resolution of Council, June 1, 1881, subsequently adopted by the Board).

9. Any grave violation of College discipline will subject the holder of an Exhibition to forfeiture.

10. The Examination lasts four days, beginning at 9.30 o'clock, A.M., and is in the following subjects:—

Classics (400 marks).	Marks.
Portions of three Greek authors, for vivâ voce translation,	100
Portions of three Latin authors, for vivâ voce translation,	100
Paper of unseen Greek and Latin passages,	80
Ancient History and Geography,	40
Greek and Latin Prose Composition,	80
Science (300 marks).
Arithmetic,	45
Algebra, to the end of Quadratic Equations,	90
Six Books of Euclid, with easy deductions,	90
Plane Trigonometry,	75

English (200 marks).

French or German (100 marks).

11. For the present year the Greek and Latin books for vivâ voce translation will be as follows:—

Homer, Iliad, Books I. II. III. VI.
Euripides, Hecuba.
Xenophon, Anabasis, Books I. II. III. IV.
Virgil, Æneid, Books I. II. VI. VII.
Horace, Satires.
Horace, Epistles, Book I.
Livy, Books III. IV.

Candidates will be examined in—

Smith's History of Greece.
Merivale's General History of Rome.

The Course in Algebra and Trigonometry will be:—

Algebra, The First Four Rules, Fractions, Surds, Simple and Quadratic Equations.

Trigonometry, To the end of Solution of Plane Triangles.

The Course in English will consist of:—

1. Trench, English Past and Present.
2. Student's Manual of English Literature, Chaps. VI., VII., VIII., XI., XII., XV., XVII., XIX., with corresponding portions of Smith's Specimens of English Literature (from "Short Specimens," also published as "Smaller Specimens").
3. Milton, Paradise Lost, Book I.
4. Shakspere, Merchant of Venice.
5. English Composition.
6. History of England (Student's Hume).
7. Modern Geography (Clyde).

12. The Exhibitions will be paid half-yearly, through the Tutors the respective Students, at the close of the June and December quarters—the first payment to be made at the close of the December quarter next following the day of election.

II.—EXHIBITIONS AT THE CLOSE OF THE SECOND YEAR.

1. Twelve Exhibitions of £25 a-year each, tenable for two years, shall be awarded, in each year, to Students who have passed the Michaelmas Examination, at the close of the Senior Freshman year.

2. These Exhibitions shall be called the Senior Exhibitions.

3. All Senior Freshmen intending to compete for these Exhibitions must forward their names to the Senior Lecturer, at least one week before the first day of the Michaelmas Senior Freshman Examination, in order that they may be placed in a separate division, and undergo a more strict and searching Examination by Examiners specially appointed.

4. The marks given at this Examination shall be arranged as follows:

Thirty in Pure Mathematics—viz., Euclid, Algebra, and Trigonometry.

Twenty in Applied Mathematics—viz., Mechanics.

Forty in Classics—viz., in the Greek and Latin authors appointed for the Examination, and in Latin Prose Composition.

Ten in Logic.

Ten in English Prose Composition.

5. After the close of the Prize Examinations in Mathematics, Classics, Logics, English Literature, and Modern History, the Senior Lecturer shall add to the total of the marks obtained by any Student, at the General Examination, as follows:—

Forty per cent. of half the sum[a] of the marks obtained by such Student in Mathematics at the Prize Examination in Michaelmas Term, and the Honor Examination in either Hilary or Trinity Term;

Thirty per cent. of half the sum[a] of the marks obtained in Classics at the Prize Examination in Michaelmas Term, and the Honor Examination in either Hilary or Trinity Term;

Twenty per cent. of half the sum[a] of the marks obtained in Logics at the Prize Examination in Michaelmas Term, and the Honor Examination in either Hilary or Trinity Term; and Twenty per cent. of the marks obtained at the Prize Examination in English Literature and Composition, or at the Prize Examination in Modern History.

In the case of a Student obtaining Honors in the same department at both the Hilary and Trinity Examinations, the highest marks obtained are to be taken into account.

No marks obtained by a Candidate for Honors at any Examination for Honors at which he has not been awarded an Honor shall be allowed to count.[b]

6. The list of marks thus made up shall be submitted to the Board by the Senior Lecturer, with the names arranged in order of merit; and the Board will elect the twelve most deserving Candidates as Senior Exhibitioners.[c]

7. A Student who shall have dropped a class since his entrance will be ineligible.

8. An Exhibitioner losing his class in College, or not keeping his name on the College Books, will forfeit his Exhibition.

9. Any grave violation of College discipline will subject the holder of an Exhibition to forfeiture.

[a] Resolutions of Board and Council, May 17 and 14, 1879.

[b] Resolution of Board, November 30, 1889.

[c] Provided sufficient merit has been shown.

10. The Exhibitions will be paid half-yearly, through the Tutors of the respective Students, at the close of the June and December quarters; the first payment to be made at the close of the December quarter next following the day of election.

On the 20th February, 1875, it was resolved by the Provost and Senior Fellows:—

"That after the year 1876, no Student shall be elected to a Senior Exhibition under the Decree of March 19, 1870, if he hold at the time of election a Royal Scholarship, or a Supplemented Erasmus Smith Exhibition."

In June, 1877, and December, 1884, and November, 1895, the rules were further altered by excluding Scholars, Foyle College Exhibitioners, and Kidd Scholars, from the competition.

A list of Exhibitioners for the present year is given among the Honors and Prizes of the year.

THE JAMES PATRICK KIDD SCHOLARSHIP.

The following Regulations received the approval of the Board December 7, 1889:—

1. The Examination for the James Patrick Kidd Scholarship shall be held in Michaelmas Term.
2. Candidates for the Scholarship must be in the rising Junior Freshman Class, and must have entered College not earlier than the first day of the preceding Trinity Term.
3. The Course for the Scholarship shall be that prescribed in the University Calendar for Junior Exhibitions, with the same limit of age.
4. The Scholarship shall be tenable for four years, and shall be forfeited by the holder incurring any heavy Collegiate censure, such as public admonition or rustication, failing to proceed regularly with his Class without the leave of the Board of Trinity College, or failing to obtain in any year one Honor of the first rank, or two Honors of the second rank, or else obtaining such equivalent distinctions as are specified in the present Regulations for the tenure of Royal Scholarships as stated in the University Calendar.
5. Whenever in future a Kidd Scholarship shall be vacant, the next following ordinary Examination for Junior Exhibitions shall be suspended, and Candidates for Junior Exhibitions and School Exhibitions shall be required to compete at the Examination for the Kidd Scholarships and each of the twelve Candidates who come next in answering to the Student elected to the Kidd Scholarship shall be elected to a Junior Exhibition, provided that he satisfies the above condition as to age, and that he is not appointed to a Royal Scholarship, Supplemented Erasmus Smith Exhibition, or Foyle College Exhibition.

Scholar for 1897.

Clarke, John Courtenay.

EXHIBITIONS TO WHICH APPOINTMENTS ARE MADE WITHOUT EXAMINATION.

The Exhibitions to which Students are appointed by the Board, generally without a preliminary Examination, are as follows:—

Erasmus Smith Exhibitions.—These Exhibitions were founded by the Governors of Erasmus Smith's Schools, and the foundation was confirmed by Act of Parliament (10 Geo. I., 1723). The Erasmus Smith's Exhibitions are tenable until the Student becomes of Master's standing.[a] Students elected by the Board of Erasmus Smith are entitled to priority in appointment to these Exhibitions: and those not so filled are disposed of by the Board. The annual value of a first-class Erasmus Smith's Exhibition is £7 7*s.* 8*d.*, and of a second-class do. £5 10*s.* 9*d.*

Downes Exhibitions.—The Downes Exhibitioners are selected, in accordance with the will of the founder, as expressed in the following passage of his will[b]:—

> "I leave Fifty Pounds annually, to be given among five Students on the Divinity line, in the proportion of £10 each, at the discretion of the Provost and Senior Fellows; respect being had in such choice to narrow circumstances, and proficiency in learning; the said stipend to continue till they shall arrive to the standing of A.M.,[b] or shall die, resign, or leave College, and then to cease, and others to be appointed in their room; and to be determinable sooner in case of immoral behaviour, negligence in attending the Divinity Lectures, or incapacity in such Students, certified by the Divinity Lecturer."

The annual value of each Exhibition is £10 Irish, or £9 4*s.* 8*d.* present currency.

Worrall Exhibitions.—The Worrall Exhibitioners, in accordance with the will of the founder, are chosen by the Board from poor scholars, who have entered as Sizars, the sons of clergymen in the diocese of Dublin, or, in default of such, the sons of citizens of the city of Dublin. The annual value of each Exhibition is £9 4*s.* 8*d.* When an Exhibition is declared to be vacant, the Tutors are invited to state to the Board the names of their pupils having the qualifications required by the founder's will, and such other circumstances as may guide the Board in their selection.

Crowe and Clanbrassil Exhibitions.—These Exhibitions are limited to Students nominated by the representatives of the founders. The annual value of each of the former is £15, and of the latter £7 7*s.* 8*d.*

[a] In these cases Master's standing is to be counted from the time of the Student's obtaining the Exhibition, assuming that he has proceeded regularly with his Class. Resolution of the Board, March 3, 1894.

[b] College Register. p. 3, 1784.

On the 28th March, 1874, a deed of grant of the right of presentation to the Crowe Exhibitions, by the Rev. Robert Blundell to the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity College, from and after the decease of the said Robert Blundell, was laid before the Board.

The annual income arising from the endowment of the Crowe Exhibitions having increased sufficiently to allow of an augmentation of their number, an agreement was entered into between the Provost and Senior Fellows and the Rev. Robert Blundell, whereby four Exhibitions are added to the two heretofore existing, and the amount of all made £15 of the present currency.

The Exhibitions are to be given to "Sons of Clergymen of the Church of Ireland (giving the preference to sons of clergymen of the diocese of Tuam) intending to devote themselves to the ministry of the Church of Ireland," such Exhibitions to be given as a rule to Students at the commencement of their Divinity Course, and in all cases taking into account the poverty of the respective Candidates.

Span and Avary Exhibitions.—These Exhibitions are specially limited by the wills of the founders to poor Students. The annual value of each of the former was about £24, but in consequence of the failure of the fund, none are being granted at present. The value of each of the latter is £4 12*s.* 4*d.* The period for which a Span Exhibition may be held is one year, and the Exhibitioners are selected by the Board from general collegiate merit. The Avary Exhibitioners are nominated by the Provost from among the Sizars.

Stearne, Parsons, Yelverton, Griffith, and Briggs Exhibitions are elected to by the Board for general collegiate merit, the preference being generally given to Scholars on the foundation. The annual value of each is £4 12*s.* 4*d.*

All the foregoing Exhibitions are vacated when the holders arrive at Master's standing.

As these Exhibitions are payable out of Special Trust Funds which are liable to fluctuation, the Board reserve to themselves the power of discontinuing the payment of them, either wholly or in part, whenever the requisite amount is not forthcoming.

Exhibitions awarded to Scholars.

On the 1st May, 1875, the following Decree was enacted by the Provost and Senior Fellows, with the consent of the Visitors:—

"Whereas certain Exhibitions of small value exist at present in the College, to which Students are appointed by the Provost and Senior Fellows:

"It is Decreed, that any Scholar who shall obtain Senior Moderatorship at the Degree Examination shall be awarded one of these last-mentioned Exhibitions, if such shall be then vacant, and such further Exhibition as shall raise the entire annual value of his Exhibition to £10: Provided, however, that no such Exhibition shall be given to any Senior Moderator who obtains one of the Studentships at the Degree Examination.'

WORTH EXHIBITIONS.

These Exhibitions were granted, in 1699, by the Hon. William Worth, of the city of Dublin, who granted for the purpose a charge of £20 Irish upon the funds of St. Stephen's Hospital, Cork, commonly called the Blue Coat School, founded by him.

William Worth appointed that four Students of Trinity College, Dublin, with a preference to natives of the city and county of Cork, should be selected by the Bishop of Cork, the Mayor of Cork, the heir-at-law of William Worth, and the Provost of Trinity College, and the income divided equally between them. In 1890 the Educational Endowments Commissioners framed a scheme for St. Stephen's Hospital, Cork, and directed that the £20 Irish shall be paid by the Governors of the Hospital to the Senior Bursar of Trinity College, and gave the Provost and Senior Fellows power to regulate the conditions, number, amount, and tenure of the Exhibitions.

The Board has decided that the selection of the Students shall be made as heretofore, and that the annual income of £20 Irish shall be divided into two Exhibitions, the Students to be elected for not more than two years, and to be capable of re-election.

REGULATIONS OF THE EXHIBITIONS ON THE FOUNDATION OF ERASMUS SMITH, ESQ.

By an Act of the Parliament of Ireland (10 Geo. I., c. 1, Private) it was provided that twenty yearly Exhibitions of £8, of the late Irish currency (being equal to £7 7*s*. 8*d*. of the present currency), and fifteen several Exhibitions of £6 a-year, Irish (being equal to £5 10*s*. 9*d*., present currency), shall from time to time, and at all times thereafter, be paid and payable out of the rents and profits of the lands of the Governors, to the like number of Poor Scholars, Members or Students of Trinity College, respectively, until they shall be otherwise provided for, removed, or take the Degree of Master of Arts in College, or be of standing to take such Master of Arts Degree. There is also a reduction of £5 (sterling) a-year in the rent of Chambers held by Exhibitioners; an Exhibitioner, who is also a Scholar, can obtain a reduction either as a Scholar or as an Exhibitioner, but not as both.

The following Rules are now in force. Information to be obtained at 40, Harcourt-street, Dublin.

1. That, for the benefit of the three Grammar Schools of the foundation of Erasmus Smith, at Drogheda, Galway, and Tipperary, and the pupils thereof, and for the encouragement of learning therein, ten of the said Exhibitions of £7 7*s*. 8*d*. shall be appropriated to the said three schools, and that five of these shall be increased or supplemented each year by an additional grant of £32 12*s*. 4*d*. to the sum of £40, and that five others of them shall be increased or supplemented by an additional grant of £17 12*s*. 4*d*. to the sum of £25, such supplemental sums or grants to be held subject to the regulations hereafter mentioned, and that the said several supplemental grants shall be known and distinguished as "Erasmus Smith's Grammar Schools' Supplemental Exhibitions."

2. That the said Erasmus Smith's Grammar Schools' Supplemental Exhibitions shall not be attached to any of the said three Grammar Schools in particular, but shall be open for competition equally to the pupils of all these schools, subject as hereinafter provided.

3. That one such Supplemental Exhibition of £32 12*s*. 4*d*., and one such of £17 12*s*. 4*d*., shall be offered for competition in each year to pupils of the said three Grammar Schools.

4. That the said Grammar Schools' Supplemental Exhibitions shall be open for competition only to such students of Trinity College, Dublin, as shall have been continuously for at least three years in all previous to their College entrance, pupils in some one or more of the said three Grammar Schools.

5. That no pupil of any of said Grammar Schools shall be qualified to compete for a Supplemental Exhibition who shall not have continued as a pupil at one of the said three Grammar Schools, if a Pensioner, until the October Entrance Examination in Trinity College, or if a Sizar, until the Sizarship Examination in Trinity College, immediately preceding in each case the Competitive Examination at which he may present himself.

6. That for the benefit of the Governors' High School in Harcourt-street, Dublin, and the pupils thereof, five of the said Statutory Exhibitions of £7 7*s.* 8*d.* each, shall be appropriated to the said High School, and shall be increased or supplemented each year by an additional grant of £22 12*s.* 4*d.* to the sum of £30, to be held subject to the regulations hereinafter mentioned, and shall be open for competition to pupils of the said High School only; and that the supplemental grants hereinbefore provided for the said High School shall be known and distinguished as "Erasmus Smith High School Supplemental Exhibitions."

7. That one such Supplemental Exhibition of £22 12*s.* 4*d.* shall be offered for competition in each year to pupils of the said High School.

8. That the said High School Supplemental Exhibitions shall be open for competition only to such students of Trinity College, Dublin, as shall have been continuously for at least three years previous to their College Entrance pupils in the said High School.

9. That no pupil of the said High School shall be qualified to compete for a Supplemental Exhibition who shall not have continued as a pupil thereat, if a Pensioner, until the October Entrance Examination, or if a Sizar, until the Sizarship Examination in Trinity College, Dublin, immediately preceding in each case the Competitive Examination at which he may present himself.

10. That the said supplemental grants for the said High School Exhibitions shall continue to be provided out of the income of the High School, so far as same will extend, and any deficiency shall be made good out of the general funds of the Governors.

11. That no student at any of the said Schools shall be qualified to receive any Supplemental Exhibition who shall at the time of such competitive examination have attained the age of twenty years.

12. That no Fellow Commoner shall be qualified to compete for any Supplemental Exhibition.

13. That the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, Dublin, be requested to continue to appoint examiners as heretofore, who shall on some convenient day in each year hold a competitive examination of such students as shall present themselves, and shall have entered from the three Grammar Schools of Erasmus Smith's foundation, or the said High School; and the course of learning forming the subject of such examination shall be that which is or shall be provided or authorized by the rules and regulations of Trinity College, Dublin, for the Examination for Junior Exhibitions.

14. That the Head Masters of the said Schools be directed to furnish to the Registrar, before the end of the first week of October in each year, a list of such of their pupils intending to enter Trinity College previous to the Examination for Exhibitions as are duly qualified, as hereinbefore provided, to compete for the Supplemental Exhibitions respectively.

15. That the Registrar shall forward a complete list of the pupils of said Schools so qualified to compete for the Supplemental Exhibitions to the Senior Lecturer of Trinity College before the end of the second week of October in each year.

16. That the Board of Trinity College be requested to continue to furnish, as at present, to the Governors at the close of each such Competitive Examination, at which any student having been a pupil of any of the said Schools may have presented himself for Examination, a detailed statement of the result of such examination, under the several heads of the subjects examined, setting forth not only the positive merits of each such student, but also his relative merits as compared with the several other persons who have submitted themselves to such examination, from whatsoever schools such other persons may have come, and also in such statement to give such other information respecting the examination as they may deem expedient to bring under the notice of the Governors.

17. That in case it shall appear from such statement that a student who shall have entered from any of the said schools, and shall be duly qualified according to these rules, shall be first in merit by reason of his having outstripped all competitors at such examination, wherever educated, he shall be entitled to receive an additional sum of £10 per annum; and such additional sum of £10 shall be deemed part of his Supplemental Exhibition.

18. That the Governors shall not be bound to award any Supplemental Exhibition upon the result of any such Competitive Examination to any of such competitors unless they consider his positive merit sufficient to deserve same, andt hey shall have power to award a Supplemental Exhibition of a lower amount, if they shall consider the positive merit sufficient only to deserve such amount.

19. That no student shall be permitted to compete more than once at any such examination.

20. That any student who shall have obtained a Supplemental Exhibition shall be entitled to hold it for a period of five years, in case his name shall be so long continued on the books of Trinity College, and that proceeding regularly with his class he shall have obtained in each year of his Undergraduate Course one honor of the first rank or two honors of the second rank; the obtaining of such Supplemental Exhibition being reckoned as equivalent to an honor of the second rank obtained in the Junior Freshman year, a Moderatorship as an honor of the first rank in the Senior Sophister year, and an University Scholarship, in whatever year obtained, as equivalent to an honor of the first rank at the Term Examination in that year.

21. That success at the first Indian Civil Service Competitive Examination shall be reckoned as equivalent to an honor of the first rank, and that success at any of the subsequent Indian Civil Service Examinations shall be reckoned as equivalent to an honor of the second rank.

22. That a Supplemental Exhibition shall become forfeited in case the holder shall incur any heavy Collegiate censure, such as public admonition or rustication, or in case all the examinations of any year of his Course shall have elapsed without his having obtained in that year one honor of the first rank or two honors of the second rank, or what is to be deemed equivalent thereto as hereinbefore provided.

23. That the Supplemental Exhibitions shall be payable half-yearly, viz., on 1st May and 1st November; but that payments shall be made in May to such students only as shall have obtained in the preceding part of that year at least one honor of the second rank or its equivalent. That a half-yearly payment held over in May, shall be made in the following November, provided an honor shall have been obtained in the meantime; and a payment for the entire year shall be made in November to such students as had not qualified before the 1st of May for a half-year's payment, and shall, between the 1st of May and 1st of November, have fulfilled all the requisites for the whole year.

24. That nothing in these regulations shall affect the rights of persons to whom Exhibitions have been awarded before the 1st day of January, 1896.

By order of the Governors,

FRANK BROWNE,

Registrar.

Board-Room, 40, Harcourt-street, Dublin,

8th February, 1895.

Professional Schools.

There are four Professional Schools in the University, viz.: Divinity, Law, Physic, and Engineering. The Testimonials or Licenses of these Schools can only be obtained by attending prescribed Courses of Lectures during two or more years, and passing certain Examinations.

Students seeking credit for a Term by Lectures must, at the commencement of such Term, duly register with the Clerk of the Books their places of residence for that Term, and during Term notify a change of residence: if this rule be not observed, credit for the Term cannot be allowed.

DIVINITY SCHOOL.

§ I. General Rules.

In order to obtain the Divinity Testimonium, Students must pass the Regius Professor's Final Examination, having previously kept the Divinity Terms of two years: during the first year with Archbishop King's Lecturer in Divinity; during the second with the Regius Professor. Each year consists of three Terms, viz. Michaelmas Term, beginning in the last week of October or first week of November; Hilary Term, beginning in the last week of January or first week of February; Trinity Term, beginning in the last week of April or first week of May. The Lectures of each Term last about seven weeks. It is regular to keep the Terms in the order just stated; but this is not insisted on, and the Terms of each year may be kept in any order. When a Student has completed his attendance on three Terms' Lectures, and has satisfied the other requirements stated below, an Examination is held by Archbishop King's Lecturer. A Student cannot obtain credit for his first year, and is not permitted to commence attendance with the Regius Professor, until he has passed this Examination.

Students in Divinity are required to receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in Trinity College Chapel at least three times during each year's attendance. Until this rule has been complied with as regards the First Year, Students are not qualified to commence attendance on the Lectures of the Second Year. Should the Student not be a member of the Church of Ireland, or of a Church in communion therewith, this rule does not apply to him; but he will not receive the ordinary Testimonium at the end of the Second Year, a special form being substituted for it.

Students in Divinity who are also Students in Arts are not entitled to claim credit for Divinity Lectures in any Term in which they substitute for Classics one of the other Courses in Arts.

§ II. ADMISSION TO THE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

The Divinity School is open to all Students who have passed the Michaelmas (Final) Examination of the Senior Freshman year, and who have obtained satisfactory marks in Greek and Latin. It is possible for a Student joining in the Michaelmas Term at the beginning of his Senior Sophister Year, which may be regarded as the regular time for commencing, to obtain his testimonium without paying any fees in addition to those necessary for obtaining his Degree of Bachelor of Arts.[a]

Students of lower standing than Junior Sophisters, or even those who do not intend to pursue the Course in Arts at all, are allowed in special cases to present themselves at the Examination for Entrance into the Divinity School; but it is necessary for them to obtain written permission from the Regius Professor. They are required to make application for such permission a month before the commencement of the Lectures they propose to attend; and they ought to state fully what grounds there are for dealing with them exceptionally, and in particular whether they have received an education in Arts elsewhere.

Before admission to the Divinity School, a Student who has not passed his Degree Examination is required to show that he is possessed of the knowledge necessary to enable him to attend with advantage the Lectures of the School, by passing an Entrance Examination.

In the case of Students who have kept a Senior Sophister Term in Arts this Examination is the following :—

Stewart's Outlines of Moral Philosophy, Part II., Chap. i., Section iv., to end of Chapter; and Chap. ii., Sect. i.; (being paragraphs 142–342).

Other Students of Sophister standing must pass, in addition, an Examination in—

Locke's Essay on the Human Understanding, Book ii., Chaps. 14, 17, 21 (sects. 1–10), 26; Book iv., Chaps. 1, 2, 9, 10.

All Students who have not passed the Final Freshman Examination must pass, in addition to the foregoing, an Examination in the following subjects :—

1. Latin Composition.
2. Greek Grammar.
3. Abbott's Elements of Logic.

[a] The names of Graduate Divinity Students completing their last Term of Divinity Lectures of the Senior Year in the June Quarter are not struck off the College books until after the Final Examination of the Regius Professor of Divinity (Resolution of Board, May 8, 1886).

Sophisters also shall be required to pass the above Examination in Greek and Latin, in case Archbishop King's Lecturer, on inspection of the marks received by them in Greek and Latin at the Final Freshman Examination (which shall be furnished to him by the Senior Lecturer), shall deem such marks insufficient to exempt them therefrom.

All Divinity Students before they are admitted to the Examination for the Divinity Testimonium are required to produce a Certificate from the Catechist that they have completed their Catechetical Course. (Resolution of Board, October 31, 1891.)

§ III. Junior Divinity Year.

In each Term Archbishop King's Lecturer in Divinity delivers a Course of Prelections, on Mondays and Thursdays, at Eleven o'clock, A.M., in the Divinity School; and on the same days his Assistants lecture at One o'clock, P.M. The subjects of these Prelections and Lectures are given below. Archbishop King's Lecturer is authorized to set apart one of his Assistants to lecture such Students as he thinks fit in the Greek Testament, and they are bound to attend these Lectures from 12 to 1 o'clock on Mondays and Thursdays. A Student cannot obtain credit for having kept a Term, if he shall have absented himself more than once from the Lectures of Archbishop King's Lecturer or from those of his Assistants in such Term, unless in the case of sickness or some other unavoidable impediment, when the omission of a number of Lectures, not exceeding one-fourth of the whole may be allowed if approved by the Board.

For the convenience of Students, one of the Assistant Lecturers lectures at Ten o'clock; and Archbishop King's Lecturer may permit such of the Students as he thinks fit to attend at that hour.

On the first day of each Term an Examination is held in a portion of the Greek Testament, at which all Students in the Class, of whatever standing, must present themselves. Students who fail to pass a satisfactory Examination in the appointed Course of Greek on the first day of Term are required to attend Lectures in Greek during Term, in addition to the ordinary Divinity Lectures.

Examinations in Ecclesiastical History are held on the first days of Lectures in Hilary and Trinity Terms. One at least of these two preliminary Examinations must be passed before the Student is allowed to present himself at the Examination with which the Divinity Course for the first year closes. If neither of these Examinations is passed on the first day of Term, the Student loses credit for Trinity Term.

Six days, not ordinary Lecture Days, are appointed in each Term for English Composition; and credit for four attendances at least is necessary for keeping the Term. A premium of £2 is awarded by the Board in each Term, on the recommendation to Archbishop King's Lecturer, to the Student who shall have sent in the three written Essays of highest merit.

The following are the Subjects prescribed for the Lectures and Examinations of each Term:—

Michaelmas Term.—On the first Lecture Day Students are examined in the Greek Text of the Epistle to the Philippians.[a]

Archbishop King's Lecturer delivers a Course of Prelections on the Evidences of Revealed Religion; and his Assistants lecture on the Greek text of St. Luke's Gospel.

Hilary Term.—On the first Lecture Day Students are examined in the Greek Text of the Epistle to the Galatians[a]; and also in Robertson's History of the Christian Church, Book I., chaps. iv.-vii. (The Early Heretics; and from A.D. 180 to A.D. 313); Book II., from A.D. 313 to A.D. 361.

Archbishop King's Lecturer lectures on the Socinian Controversy, and his Assistants lecture on Maclear's Introduction to the Creeds.

Trinity Term.—On the first Lecture Day Students are examined in the Greek Text of the Acts of the Apostles[a]; and also in Robertson's Church History, Book II., chap. iv. (from A.D. 363 to A.D. 381); Book III., chaps. ii., iii., iv. (St. Augustine—Donatism; Pelagianism; Nestorianism; Eutychianism; The Council of Chalcedon; Advance of the Roman See).

Archbishop King's Lecturer lectures on The Evidences of Natural Religion; and his Assistants lecture on the Greek Text of the Epistle to the Romans.

When a Student has obtained credit, according to the regulations already specified, for attendance at the Lectures of three Terms, he completes his Junior Year by passing a final Examination, conducted by Archbishop King's Lecturer and his Assistants, according to the following rules:—The principal Examination is held at the end of Trinity Term, for Students who have regularly commenced attendance with Michaelmas Term; but Supplemental Examinations are held at the end of each Term, for the benefit of Students terminating their Course at other times. A Supplemental Examination is also held at the beginning of Michaelmas Term, before the Lectures of the Senior Class begin. In rejecting a Candidate, Archbishop King's Lecturer determines whether he may present himself again at the Examination at the end of the next ollowing Term, or whether he must be longer kept back.

---

[a] Candidates are expected to be acquainted with the rendering of the Revised Version of the New Testament.

Students are required to give notice to Archbishop King's Lecturer of their intention to present themselves at this Examination. This notice must be given one week before the day of Examination.

The Course for the Examination is as follows :—

The four Gospels and Acts of the Apostles in English.[a]

The four Gospels and St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans in Greek.[a]

Paley's Evidences. Butler's Analogy. Davison on Prophecy, omitting Discourses VII. X. XI. XII.

Maclear's Introduction to the Creeds. Liddon's Bampton Lectures, on "The Divinity of our Lord;" Lectures II. IV. V. VI. VII.

The portions of Robertson's History of the Christian Church appointed for the Hilary and Trinity Term Examinations.

The Prelections of Archbishop King's Lecturer.

An additional Examination for Prizes (attendance on which is not compulsory) is held in Michaelmas Term. Vide infra, "Prizes."

§ IV. SENIOR DIVINITY YEAR.

The Regius Professor receives into his Class those Students only whose names have been returned to him by Archbishop King's Lecturer as having satisfied all the requirements of the Junior Year. During the second year, the Students are required to attend the Regius Professor, and one of his Assistants. The Professor lectures on the Criticism and Interpretation of the Bible, the Controversy with the Church of Rome, and on the Liturgy and the Thirty-nine Articles.

The Regius Professor lectures on Tuesdays and Fridays, at 11 o'clock. His Assistants lecture on the same days, at 1 o'clock. For the convenience of Students, one of the Assistant Lecturers lectures at 10 o'clock; and the Professor may permit such of the Students as he thinks fit to attend at that hour.

The rules as to the numbers of Lectures to be attended are the same as in the Junior Year.

[a] Candidates are expected to be acquainted with the renderings of the Revised Version of the New Testament.

SUBJECTS OF THE ASSISTANTS' LECTURES.

Michaelmas and Hilary Terms. — The Thirty-nine Articles, with Commentary, as appointed for the Final Examination.

Trinity Term.—The portions of the Greek Testament appointed for the Final Examination.

Two days (not ordinary Lecture days) are appointed in each Term for English Composition; and attendance on one, at least, of these days is necessary for keeping the Term. A Premium is granted by the Board in each Term to the Student who sends in the best Compositions, if recommended by the Regius Professor. (Vide infra, "Divinity Composition Premiums.")

On the first Lecture day of each Term Students are examined in a portion of the Greek Testament; on the first day of Michaelmas Term, in the two Epistles to Timothy and the Epistle to Titus; on the first day of Hilary Term, in the First Epistle to the Corinthians; and on the first day of Trinity Term, in the Epistle of St. James and the two Epistles of St Peter.[a]

Students who fail to pass a satisfactory Examination in the appointed Course of Greek on the first day of Term are required to attend Lectures in Greek during Term, in addition to the ordinary Divinity Lectures.

On the first Lecture days of Hilary and Trinity Terms, an Examination is held in the following subjects, in addition to the portions of the Greek Testament just mentioned:—

Hilary Term.—Robertson's Church History:—Book III.; Book IV. chaps. i. ii.

Bishop H. Browne's Commentary on Articles VI. XXII. XXVIII.

Trinity Term.—Hardwick's History of the Reformation:—Introduction; chap. i. (Germany); chap. ii. (Switzerland); chaps. iv. vi. chap. viii. (Roman Communion, English Communion).

Procter on the Book of Common Prayer, part i.

It is necessary to pass one, at least, of these Term Examinations, in order to qualify for the final Examination.

This final Examination is held at the end of Trinity Term, for all Students who have attended and obtained credit for the three preceding Terms of the Senior Divinity year, and have complied with the foregoing regulations. A similar Examination is held at the end of the Michaelmas and Hilary Terms, for Supplementalists who have completed their attendance on Divinity Lectures in those Terms respectively.

Students are required to give notice to the Regius Professor of their intention to present themselves at the final Divinity Examination. This notice must be given one week before the day of Examination.

[a] Candidates are expected to be acquainted with the renderings of the Revised Version of the New Testament.

The Examination is conducted by the Regius Professor and his Assistants; and the Professor of Ecclesiastical History takes part in the Examination in his own department. Those Students who have passed the Examination are arranged in three classes, according to their respective answering. Students who come out in the first class receive a special Honorary Certificate, in addition to the usual Divinity Testimonium.

The Course appointed for this Examination is as follows:—

1 and 2. Holy Scripture in the Authorized Version.[a]—(1) Old Testament; (2) New Testament.

3. Hebrew.—Optional. (See the Regulations below.)

4. Greek.—St. Paul's Second Epistle to the Corinthians, and the Epistle to the Hebrews, with Hammond's Outlines of Textual Criticism.

5. Latin.—Psalms I.–LXXII. (Vulgate; with the English—Authorized and Prayer Book—Versions).

6. Ecclesiastical History.—The portions of Robertson's Church History appointed for the Hilary Term Examination, and the portions of Hardwick's History of the Reformation appointed for the Trinity Term Examination.

   Stokes, Ireland and the Celtic Church, Lectures i.-vii.

7. Liturgy and Church Government.—The Book of Common Prayer with Procter's Commentary.

8 and 9. Articles of Religion.—(7) Articles I.–XVI., and Articles XXII., XXVIII., with Bishop H. Browne's Commentary; (8) Article VI. and Articles XVII. to end, with Bishop Burnet's Commentary.

A subject for English Composition, and a paper of questions on the public Prelections of the Regius Professor, are also proposed to the Candidates at the final Divinity Examination.

Any Student who has kept one or more Terms in the Senior Year may obtain permission to present himself at the Examination at the close of any Term, in not less than three of the subjects above numbered 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7; reserving the rest for his Final Examination.

Hebrew.—The following are the Regulations under which Hebrew forms part of the Course prescribed for the final Divinity Examination:

(a) Those Students who have passed one or more Examinations with the Regius Professor of Hebrew shall not be re-examined, but shall receive such Marks as the Professor of Hebrew shall have awarded them.

(b) Other Students shall be examined in the following Course:—

Hebrew Grammar; and Genesis, chaps. i. to iv., and xii. to xv.

(c) Answering in this Course is to be estimated after the same manner as in the other subjects of the Examination.

(d) A special Certificate shall be given to such Students as shall have answered creditably in Hebrew at the final Examination, and have not previously obtained the Professor of Hebrew's Certificate.

[a] Candidates are expected to be acquainted with the renderings of the Revised Version of the New Testament in all the book the Greek of which they have had to prepare for examination in the Divinity School.

(e) At the final Divinity Examination all Students who take up Hebrew may, at their option, substitute it for subject 5 (Latin).

When attendance upon the whole Divinity Course has been thus completed, the Divinity Testimonium is given in the following form > Testamur A. B. per biennium sedulo interfuisse Prælectionibus atque Examinationibus in Sacra Theologia per leges Academicas requisitis.

>
> ——— Professor Reg. in Sacr. Theol.
> ——— Prælector in Sacr. Theol.
> E Coll. SS. Trin. juxta Dublin.

An annual Examination is held by the Regius Professor at the close of Hilary Term, at which Exhibitions are awarded for distinguished answering. Attendance on this Examination is not compulsory. For the regulations and subjects of this Examination, vide infra, "Prizes."

§ V. ADDITIONAL LECTURES.

In addition to the foregoing Lectures, which are compulsory upon all Divinity Students, instruction is also given upon various subjects in connexion with the Divinity School. These Courses of Lectures are as follow:—1. Hebrew. 2. Biblical Greek. 3. Ecclesiastical History. 4. Irish. 5. Pastoral Theology. The hours of Lecture in these departments are so arranged as not to interfere with those of the Divinity Professors and their Assistants. Students are thus enabled to complete their attendance upon any or all of these Courses during the period of their ordinary Divinity studies.

In July, 1853, the following order was made by the Board: "The several Professors connected with the Divinity School, viz., the Professors of Biblical Greek, of Ecclesiastical History, and of Irish, are authorized to grant certificates of attendance on their respective Courses to Graduates who have obtained the Divinity Testimonium, and to them only." This enactment is applicable also to the Professor of Pastoral Theology.

1. HEBREW LECTURES.

1. All Students, of whatever standing, are permitted to attend Hebrew Lectures, which are continued for three years.

2. Students who have completed the first year in Hebrew may obtain from the Professor a Testimonium to that effect.

3. To complete the first year, the Student must attend three Terms with one of the Assistants to the Professor, the Course being as follows:—

Hebrew Grammar.
Genesis, chaps. i. to iv., and xii. to xv.: 1 Kings, xvii. to xxii. and 2 Kings, i. to iii.

He must also pass an Examination in the above Course, to be held at the end of the third Term. Additional credit will be allowed at the Examination to Students who bring up also 2 Kings iv. to ix.

4. Students who have completed two years will be entitled to a Testimonium to that effect.

5. To enter upon the second year, a Student must have kept the three Terms of the first year, and passed the Examination.

6. Any Student who shall have passed a qualifying Examination to the satisfaction of the Professor, shall be permitted at once to join the Middle Class at Hebrew Lectures.[a]

7. To complete the second year, the Student must keep three Terms, by attendance on the Lectures of the Professor, and also on the Lectures of one of the Assistants, the Course lectured on by the Assistants being as follows:—

Psalms xlii. to lxxii.

He must also pass an Examination in this portion of the Book of Psalms, to be held at the end of the third Term.

8. To enter upon the third year, the Student must have kept the two former years, and passed the Examinations: and to complete the year, he must attend the Professor's Lectures in Isaiah for three Terms, and pass an Examination at the end of the third Term. The subject of the Lectures and Examination is Isaiah, chaps. i. to xi., and lii. to lix.

9. Students who have completed three years will be entitled to a Special Testimonium to that effect.

10. Prizes are given to the best answerers at the Annual Examinations. The names of all Students who pass the Examinations are placed in the order of merit, and published by the Professor.

11. Prizes in Chaldee and Syriac.—At the end of Trinity Term, in each year, Premiums will be given in the Syriac and Chaldee languages, at the Examination for the Hebrew Prizes, on the following conditions:—

1. Candidates must have passed the ordinary Hebrew Examination of the first year.

2. They must answer in the following Course:

Chaldee and Syriac Grammars.
The Book of Ruth, in the Hebrew and Chaldee (the edition of the Rev. C. H. H. Wright, M. A., is recommended).
St. Mark's Gospel, Chapters IX. to XVI. (both inclusive), and St. Paul's First Epistle to Timothy, in the Peshitto version.

Candidates for this Prize must give their names to the Professor of Hebrew, on or before the 1st day of June.

2. BIBLICAL GREEK.

The Professor of Biblical Greek delivers a Course of public general Prelections during two of the three Academical Terms of each year.

[a] Resolutions of Board and Council, January 23, and February 10, 1886.

He also delivers special Lectures on particular books of the LXX., or the New Testament, to such Students as may desire to attend them. The subjects and days of Lecture are announced at the beginning of each Term.

The Examination for Prizes is held in Hilary Term. For the regulations and subjects of this Examination, vide supra, "Prizes in subjects connected with the study of Divinity."

3. ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY.

The Professor of Ecclesiastical History delivers a Course of public general Prelections during two of the three Academical Terms of each year. The Course of Lectures is intended to extend over two years. The Lectures are delivered in the Divinity School, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, at two o'clock.

The Examination for Prizes is held in Trinity Term, the exact date being announced in the Calendar. For the regulations and subjects of this Examination, vide supra, "Ecclesiastical History Prizes."

4. IRISH.

The Professor of Irish lectures on two days of the week during Term. The Students attending these Lectures are divided into three Classes—Junior, Middle, and Senior. The Lectures to the First Class are elementary; those to the Middle and Senior Classes are intended for such Students as have made some progress in the Irish Language. Notice of the days and hours of Lecture is given at the beginning of each Term.

The Examination for Prizes is held in Trinity Term. For the regulations of the Examination, vide supra, "Prizes in Irish."

5. PASTORAL THEOLOGY.

The Professor of Pastoral Theology delivers a Course of Prelections each Term. The Lectures are delivered on Saturdays at 9.30 a.m., in the Divinity School. After each Lecture the Professor gives instructions in preaching, reading the Liturgy, and practical parochial work.

Mr. White lectures on the English Bible on two days in the week.

Mr. C. G. Marchant, Mus. B., gives instruction in Church Music on two days in the week in the College Chapel.

§ VI. PRIZES.

THEOLOGICAL EXHIBITIONS.

For the further promotion of Theological learning, the Board of Trinity College, with the consent of the Visitors, on the 18th of December, 1858, founded "Theological Exhibitions," in place of the Prizes formerly known as the "Divinity Professor's Premiums."

The Examination for these Exhibitions is held each year at the end of Hilary Term, on the days stated in the Almanac.

To the best answerers at this Examination two Exhibitions are given, one of £60, and one of £40 per annum, provided there be sufficient merit. Each of these Exhibitions is tenable for a period not exceeding three years.

Candidates for these Exhibitions must not be of more than one year's standing as M. A., reckoned from the Michaelmas Examination of the Senior Freshman year; they must have completed the six Terms of the Divinity Curriculum; and they must present themselves at the Examination immediately subsequent to the Term in which they have completed their Divinity Course. No person can offer himself as a Candidate a second time.

Candidates for these Exhibitions whose names have gone off the College Books, are permitted to replace them on payment of the Junior Bursar's fee of 15*s.*, provided that they shall have previously passed the Final Divinity Examination; otherwise such Candidates shall pay the usual Replacement Fee for Graduates of £1 16*s.*—(Resolution of Board, March 12, 1887.)

The Exhibition Examination, if passed creditably, will reckon in lieu of the General Divinity Examination.

The following is the Course appointed for 1900:—

ARCHBISHOP KING'S DIVINITY PRIZES.

These Prizes were founded by the Board in the year 1836. They are called Archbishop King's Divinity Prizes, because they are given at an annual Examination held by Archbishop King's Divinity Lecturer.

This Examination is held in the beginning of Michaelmas Term[a]; and such Students only can be Candidates for the Prizes as are selected by the Examiners at the general Divinity Examination, at the end of Trinity or beginning of Michaelmas Term.

The Course for the Examination is as follows:—

1. The four Gospels and Acts of the Apostles, in English.
2. The four Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, and the Epistles to the Romans, Galatians, and Philippians, in Greek. Special subject for 1899 —The Epistle to the Romans.
3. Butler's Analogy.
4. Paley's Evidences and Horae Paulinae.
5. Maclear's Introduction to the Creeds, and Swete's The Apostles' Creed.
6. Sanday on Inspiration, Lectures I., II., III., VI., VII., VIII.
7. Liddon on The Divinity of our Lord, and Davison on Prophecy.
8. Robertson's History of the Christian Church, A.D. 64–590.
9. The Prelections of Archbishop King's Lecturer.

Two Prizes, one of £12 and the other of £8, are given to the best answerers (if sufficient merit be shown by the Candidates): and Certificates to such as answer sufficiently.

The Certificate cannot be given to any Student until he has completed his whole Divinity Course, and obtained the Divinity Testimonium.

BISHOP FORSTER'S DIVINITY PREMIUMS.

In the year 1738, the sum of £200 was given to the College by the Right Rev. Nicholas Forster, D. D., Lord Bishop of Raphoe, sometime Senior Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin, on condition that it should be applied to the purpose of encouraging the study of Theology, in connexion with the Lectures of Archbishop King's Lecturer in Divinity. When the office of Archbishop King's Lecturer was placed on a new foundation, in the year 1836, the endowment of Bishop Forster was included in the Prizes then instituted by the Board, for the Junior Divinity Class. The fund, along with the unappropriated balance of interest, is now separately invested; and the annual interest[b] is distributed in Premiums to the two best answerers in the subjects of the Lectures of Archbishop King's Lecturer, at the Examination for Archbishop King's Divinity Prizes, if sufficient merit be shown by the Candidates.

[b] The fund is at present invested in £146 3*s.* 4*d.* Stock of the Bank of Ireland, producing annually about £16.

CARSON BIBLICAL PRIZE.[a]

In Michaelmas Term, 1891, the Rev. Joseph Carson, D. D., Vice-Provost, gave to the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College the sum of £500, to found a Prize for the purpose of promoting among Divinity Students an accurate knowledge of the text of the English Bible. The Examination for the Prize is under the control and management of Archbishop King's Lecturer in Divinity, subject to such rules and regulations as the Provost and Senior Fellows may from time to time prescribe.

The Examination is held in the Hilary Term of each year. The Prize is open to all Students in the Junior Divinity Class, and the Examination, which is public, is conducted vivâ voce. No Student can compete for the Prize a second time.

For the purpose of the Examination, the subject is divided into four parts, as follows:—

I. Pentateuch, and Historical Books.
II. Job to Malachi.
III. Gospels, and Acts of the Apostles.
IV. Epistles, and Revelation.

In each year, particular books of the above Course will be prescribed for special Examination.

The hours of Examination are the same as those appointed for Moderatorship Examinations, viz. from 9 to 12, and from half-past 1 to half-past 4.

Special Books appointed:—

For 1900—Old Testament.—The Psalms.
New Testament.—The Epistles to the Romans and Galatians.
For 1901—Old Testament.—The Book of Job.
New Testament.—The Epistles to the Ephesians, Colossians, and Philippians.

DR. DOWNES' DIVINITY PREMIUMS.

In the year 1797, these Premiums were established out of a fund bequeathed to the College for the purpose, by the Rev. Dr. Downes, of Waterford. The original[b] regulations concerning these Prizes, made July 4, 1797, were modified by the Board, in April, 1834[c], and in July, 1879.

The Prizes are—(1) for written Compositions, (2) for an extempore Discourse, and (3) for reading the Liturgy. In these branches, the Examinations are held, respectively, on three separate days in Trinity Term, of which notice is given in the Almanac, and by advertisement on the College Gate.

---

[a] The fund is at present invested in £155 1*s.* 1*d.* Stock of the Bank of Ireland producing annually about £17.

[b] Univ. Cal., 1835, pp. 32, 33.

[c] Univ. Cal., 1835, p. 104.

The Examiners are the Regius Professor of Divinity, Archbishop King's Lecturer in Divinity, the Professor of Oratory, and the Professor of Moral Philosophy, with the assistance, in the case of written Compositions, of the Provost and such of the Senior Fellows as may choose to attend.

The subjects are selected by the Examiners; and the subject for written Composition is announced, in the last week of Hilary Term, by the Regius Professor of Divinity.

To become a Candidate in any of the three departments, it is necessary that the Student should have been a Student in Divinity during the two Terms antecedent to that in which the Examinations are held.

1. Premiums for Written Composition. In the trial for this Prize, the Candidates deliver discourses on the proposed subject without hesitation, each discourse not to exceed one quarter of an hour in delivering; they are expected to be able to recite their compositions; and a Premium of £20[a] is adjudged to the best, and £10 to the next best, or such inferior Premiums as they shall appear to merit, regard being had, as well to the manner of pronouncing such discourses, as to the matter of them. No Candidate can be entitled to either of the Premiums oftener than three times.

2. Premiums for Extempore Speaking. To the Student who delivers the best discourse extempore on a proposed subject the Examiners adjudge a Premium of £12, and to the Student next in merit £8, or such inferior Premiums as shall appear to be deserved. No Candidate is entitled to obtain either of these Premiums oftener than three times.

3. Premiums for reading the Liturgy. Two Premiums, one of £8, the other of £4, or such inferior Premiums as shall appear to be merited, are adjudged to such Students as shall read in the best manner the parts of the Liturgy which shall be proposed to them. No Candidate can, in this department, obtain either of the Premiums a second time.

The following is an extract from the will of Dr. Downes, respecting the disposal of unappropriated Premiums:—

"And whereas it may from time to time so happen that Candidates meriting such Premiums may not appear, in such case, the savings in each year shall go to the augmentation of the fund, and be laid out, from time to time, in the purchase of Government securities, the interest thereof to be added to the fund for the increase of said Premiums in future."

Dr. Downes also founded certain Exhibitions, to be held by Students who have distinguished themselves in the studies of the Divinity School. The conditions on which these Exhibitions are awarded will be found above, under the title "Exhibitions."

---

[a] It is to be remarked that all the Premiums here mentioned are in the old Irish currency.

CHURCH FORMULARIES PRIZE.

An Annual Prize of £10 was founded in the year 1868, by the Right Hon. Robert R. Warren, late M. P. for the University, in order to encourage the study of the Creeds and Articles of the Church. This Prize is given to the best answerer in the Church Formularies, among the Students placed in the First Class, at the General Divinity Examination held by the Regius Professor in Trinity Term.

DIVINITY COMPOSITION PREMIUMS.

The Regius Professor of Divinity and Archbishop King's Lecturer recommend to the Board, in each of the three Terms of the Divinity year, the names of those Students, in the Senior and Junior Classes, respectively, who have sent in the best written Compositions on subjects proposed to the Class during the Terms, and whom they deem worthy of encouragement. To these Students Premiums of £2 are awarded.

BEDELL SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Committee of the Irish Society, with the sanction of the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, have founded two Scholarships in the University, denominated "The Bedell Scholarships," and placed them under the superintendence of Trustees, named by the founders.

The Scholarships are designed for such Students only as give reasonable hope that they will be competent on their ordination to preach in the Irish Language. One Scholar is elected whenever a vacancy takes place.

The regulations are as follow:—

1. The value of each Scholarship shall be £20 per annum, payable half yearly, in the last weeks of October and April.

2. An Examination of Candidates shall be held annually, as soon after the Trinity Term Examination as possible, on a date to be fixed by the Trustees, in conjunction with the Professor of Irish.

3. The Scholarships shall be open to Students of any standing in the University, unless they be Irish Sizars; and shall be tenable by them for four years, if they shall keep their names so long on the College Books, and have not been admitted to Holy Orders.

4. They shall be required to reside in or near Dublin, and to attend the Lectures of the Professor of Irish (if not specially exempted by the Trustees of this fund); and to attend also Divinity Lectures, when of sufficient standing.

5. They shall be required to pass an Annual Examination, at the commencement of Michaelmas Term, in the Irish Language. The subjects of this Examination to be fixed by the Trustees, in conjunction with the Professor of Irish.

6. On the day of payment in April, the Scholars shall produce to the Trustees, or their Secretary, a certificate from the Professor of Irish, that they have satisfactorily passed the above-mentioned Annual Examination in Irish; they shall also obtain from their College Tutors, and at the same time present to the Trustees, or their Secretary, a certificate of the judgments and Honors, if any, which were given to them at the Term, Catechetical, and Divinity Examinations, during the previous year.

7. On failure of any of these conditions, the payment then due shall be withheld; and on a second failure, the Scholarship shall become void.

8. The names of the Candidates, and their qualifications, shall be returned, after the Examination, to the Trustees, in whom the election shall be vested.

At the Examination for the Bedell Scholarship, the best answerer of the unsuccessful Candidates, if recommended by the Professor of Irish, obtains a prize of £10.

The following subjects have been appointed for the Examination for the Bedell Scholarship:—

1. Irish Grammar.
2 Translation of the Gospels from Irish into English, and vice versâ.
3. The Lord's Prayer, Creed, and Ten Commandments, in Irish, by heart; the Creed proved from Holy Scripture.

The Thirty-nine Articles proved from Holy Scripture.
Composition.

ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS.

First Year.

1. Translation of the Pentateuch.
2. Church Catechism in Irish by heart, and proved from Holy Scripture.
3. Composition in Irish.

Second Year.

1. Translation of the Epistles.
2. Irish Composition.
3. Declamation in Irish (Extempore).

Third Year.

1. The Historical Books of the Irish Bible.
2. Composition.
3. Declamation in Irish.

Fourth Year.

1. The remainder of the Bible.
2. Composition.
3. Declamation in Irish.
4. The Book of Common Prayer compared with Scripture.

KYLE IRISH PRIZE.

A Prize for the encouragement of the Study of the Irish Language has been founded in the University, in commemoration of the late Right Rev. Samuel Kyle, Bishop of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross, and formerly Provost of Trinity College. The following are the Resolutions entered into by the Trustees of the Fund, and agreed to by the Provost and Senior Fellows:—

1. That the Funds collected shall be invested in Government securities, or Bank Stock, in the joint names of the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, the Professor of Irish, and the Dean and Archdeacon of Cork, all for the time being.

2. That the Endowment shall consist of one year's interest of the principal sum so invested[a].

3. That the competition shall in the first instance be open to persons born in the United Diocese of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross, or who may have been educated in that Diocese for not less than two years, if any such shall be found; but, in any year, when no such Candidate presents himself (or no one of sufficient merit), then it shall be open to the like class of Divinity Students from any one of the Dioceses of Limerick, Ardfert, and Aghadoe; Killaloe, Kilfenora, Clonfert, and Kilmacduagh; and Tuam, Killala, and Achonry.

4. The Kyle Prize to be attainable only by Divinity Students, at an annual Examination in the Irish Language, held during their Divinity Course.

5. The Divinity Student so obtaining the Prize may again become a Candidate for it in the next succeeding year, but not oftener, nor can he hold it for more than two years.

6. The Candidates for Examination shall be examined in the Irish Grammar, the Four Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, the Epistle to the Romans, 1st and 2nd Timothy, the Epistle to the Hebrews, and Composition.

7. In the event of there being, in any year, no Candidate for the Prize, or want of sufficient merit, the interest of the sum so invested in the Funds shall be added to the principal sum.

BUTCHER EXHIBITIONS.

A sum of money having been subscribed in memory of the Right Rev. Samuel Butcher, D.D., late Bishop of Meath, the following plan for the application of the Fund was agreed to at a Meeting of the "Butcher Memorial Committee," held on 24th April, 1877, the Provost in the Chair, and adopted by the General Synod, April 26th, 1877:—

The interest on the money in the hands of the Representative Body to the credit of the above Fund (when it shall have reached the sum of £2500), and of such further sums as may be paid in to its credit as subscriptions, or unallocated interest (as hereinafter referred to), to be applied in providing Exhibitions in connexion with the Divinity School of the Church of Ireland, to be called the "BUTCHER EXHIBITIONS," under the following rules:—

1st. That the Exhibitions be awarded by a Board, consisting of the Archbishop of Dublin, for the time being; the Bishop of Meath, for the time being; and the Regius Professor of Divinity, for the time being; or (in the event of there being no Regius Professor of Divinity) the Professor who may discharge the duties now discharged by him; two of whom shall form a quorum.

2nd. That the Exhibitions be conferred on meritorious Divinity Students who purpose entering the ministry of the Church of Ireland, and who in consequence of their limited means may require assistance in completing their theological education, regard at the same time being had to their attainments and their general fitness for the ministry of the Church.

[a] The fund is at present invested in £404 10*s.* 6*d.* Consols, producing annually about £11.

3rd. That these Exhibitions be conferred on Students who shall have completed their Junior Divinity year, and be tenable during their Senior year, on condition of their duly proceeding with their Divinity Course.

4th. That the Board determine the number and amount of the several Exhibitions, provided that the amount of any one shall not be more than £50 or less than £25.

5th. That in the event of there not being a sufficient number of deserving and qualified Candidates, or the entire interest on the Fund within any year not being expended, from any other cause, the Board be empowered to place the unapplied portion of the annual interest to the credit of the capital of the Fund.

6th. That the Exhibitions be paid quarterly, on 1st Oct., 1st Jan., 1st April, and 1st July, in each year, by an order on the Representative Body, signed by the Regius or other Professor of Divinity on the Board.

7th. That it be in the power of the General Synod, on the application of the Board, to vary the foregoing regulations as circumstances may require.

8th. That in the case of unavoidable absence, any member of the Board be empowered to appoint, by writing, a substitute to act for him.

DAUNT MEMORIAL EXHIBITIONS.

A sum of money having been subscribed in memory of the late Very Rev. Achilles Daunt, Dean of Cork, the following plan for the application of the fund was adopted at a Meeting of the Daunt Memorial Committee, held June 26, 1879, the Bishop of Cashel in the Chair, and approved by the General Synod of the Church of Ireland, April 27, 1880:—

1. That the Exhibitions be awarded by a Board, consisting of the Archbishop of Dublin, for the time being; the Regius Professor of Divinity, for the time being, or (in the event of there being no Regius Professor of Divinity) the Professor who may discharge the duties now discharged by him in connexion with the Divinity School; and the Incumbent of St. Matthias's Church, for the time being; two of whom shall form a quorum.
2. That the Exhibitions be conferred on meritorious Divinity Students who purpose entering the ministry of the Church of Ireland, and who, in consequence of their limited means, may require assistance in completing their theological education, regard at the same time being had to their attainments and their general fitness for the ministry of the Church.
3. That these Exhibitions be conferred on students who shall have commenced their Junior Divinity year, and be tenable during the Junior year, on condition of their duly proceeding with their Divinity Course.
4. That the Board determine the number and amounts of the several Exhibitions, provided that the amount of any one shall not be more than £40 or less than £20.
5. That in the event of there not being a sufficient number of deserving and qualified candidates, or the entire interest on the fund within any year not being expended from any other cause, the Board be empowered to place the unapplied portion of the annual interest to the credit of the capital of the fund.

6. That the Exhibitions be paid quarterly, on 1st October, 1st January, 1st April, and 1st July in each year, by an order on the Representative Body, signed by the Regius or other Professor of Divinity on the Board.
7. That it be in the power of the General Synod, on the application of the Board, to vary the foregoing regulations as circumstances may require.
8. That in the case of unavoidable absence, any member of the Board be empowered to appoint, by writing, a substitute to act for him.

The Regius Professor of Divinity receives applications for the Daunt and Butcher Exhibitions in the first week of Divinity Lectures of Michaelmas Term.

THE WILLIAM BROOKE EXHIBITION.

A sum of money having been subscribed in memory of the late Right Hon. William Brooke, the following resolutions were adopted at meetings of the "William Brooke Memorial Committee," held on the 1st and 8th of November, 1881, and on the 27th of February, 1882:—

"That an Exhibition for Students attending Divinity Lectures, preparatory to taking Orders in the Church of Ireland, shall be founded as a Memorial of the late Right Honourable William Brooke."

"That acquaintance with the Greek Testament shall be the qualification for such Exhibition, regard being also had to personal character, and insufficiency of private means."

The following Regulations were also adopted:—

1. The sum of £500, and such other sums as may be contributed for the purpose, shall be held by the Representative Body of the Church of Ireland for the use of the "William Brooke Exhibiton."

2. The interest of this Fund shall be paid every year to an Exhibitioner elected by a Board, consisting of the Archbishop of Dublin, the Regius Professor of Divinity, and the Professor of Biblical Greek, all for the time being; two of whom shall form a quorum.

3. Candidates for this Exhibition shall satisfy the Board as to their good character, their intention to enter the Ministry of the Church of Ireland, and the insufficiency of their means to pay the expenses of a theological education.

4. In electing a Candidate so qualified, regard shall be had to his answering in the Greek Testament at the final Examination of the Junior Divinity Class, or at such other Examination as shall be appointed by the Board, who shall also have power to withhold the Exhibition if they shall not be satisfied with the qualifications or answering of the Candidates.

5. The Candidate so elected shall hold the Exhibition for one year on condition of his proceeding regularly with the Divinity Course during that year.

6. In the event of the interest for any year not having been wholly expended during that year, the Board shall place the unexpended portion to the credit of the capital of the Fund.

7. It shall be lawful for the General Synod of the Church of Ireland by Act duly passed, and also for the Board by Resolution, to vary the Regulations of the said Exhibition, as may from time to time appear expedient, in any manner consistent with the Resolutions adopted by the Committee at their meetings aforesaid: provided that any Resolutions passed by the Board for this purpose shall be presented to the General Synod at its first meeting after the passing of such Resolution.

CARSON MEMORIAL EXHIBITION.

In Michaelmas Term, 1898, a sum of £180 Bank of Ireland Stock, equivalent to about £700 cash, was given by Miss Frances Anna Carson to found an Exhibition in the Divinity School, in memory of her father the late Rev. Joseph Carson, D.D., Vice-Provost of Trinity College.

The following Regulations were suggested by the donor, and have been adopted by the Provost and Senior Fellows:—

1. The Exhibition shall be called the Carson Memorial Exhibition.

2. It shall be awarded annually by a Board consisting of the Provost the Regius Professor of Divinity, and Archbishop King's Lecturer.

3. This Board shall, in Michaelmas Term, elect as Exhibitioner a Student who, in that Term, shall have entered the Senior Divinity Class, and shall declare his intention of offering himself for the ministry of the Church of Ireland or some Church in communion therewith.

4. In electing, the Board shall have regard to the character, ability, attainments, and general promise of fitness for the sacred office, of such Student, as well as to his need of pecuniary assistance.

5. The year's dividend on the above Stock, amounting to about £20, shall be paid to the Exhibitioner in four instalments—the first payment to be due on election, the three remaining payments to be due on the days of Final Examination of the Senior Divinity Class in Michaelmas, Hilary, and Trinity Terms severally, and payable on certificate from the Regius Professor that the Exhibitioner has, up to date, conducted himself satisfactorily, and has attended the required Lectures, and passed the prescribed Examinations of the Divinity School.

6. The Exhibitioner shall be required, on election, to promise that he will not receive Holy Orders until he shall have obtained the Divinity Testimonium.

WALLACE EXHIBITION.

In Trinity Term, 1899, the Rev. William Wallace, D.D., gave to the College, a sum of £500 to found an Exhibition in the Divinity School.

The following Regulations have been adopted by the Provost and Senior Fellows:—

1. The Exhibition shall be called the Wallace Exhibition.

2. It shall be awarded annually by a Board consisting of the Provost, the Regius Professor of Divinity, and Archbishop King's Lecturer, provided always, that if the Provost for the time being be not a member of the Church of Ireland, the Senior of the Fellows who is such shall take his place on the electing Board, it being the intention of the Donor that the Board shall always consist of Members of the Church of Ireland.

The remaining Regulations as to election shall correspond with those in force for the Carson Memorial Exhibition.

LAW SCHOOL.

The Law School of the University of Dublin is under the control of the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, who, however, act in concurrence with the Benchers of the King's Inns.

Its staff consists of three Professors:—

The Regius Professor of Laws[a].
The Regius Professor of Feudal and English Law.
The Reid Professor of Constitutional and Criminal Law.

REGULATIONS.[b]

The Regius Professor of Laws delivers Lectures on Roman Law, Jurisprudence, and International Law.

The Regius Professor of Feudal and English Law delivers Lectures on the subjects of Real Property.

The Reid Professor delivers Lectures on—(1) Penal Legislation; (2) Constitutional and Criminal Law; (3) The Law of Evidence; and is bound to publish in each year six of these Lectures. The Lectures on Penal Legislation are usually delivered in Michaelmas Term, and are open to the public. A fee of One Guinea a Term is payable by other Students (not being Students of Trinity College or the King's Inns) who attend the second and third Courses of Lectures.

The Regius Professor of Laws is bound to deliver not less than fifteen Lectures, and each of the other Professors not less than twelve Lectures in each of the three College Terms. Of the Lectures of the Regius Professor of Laws twelve only count towards the keeping of Terms, and these are delivered on Tuesdays and Fridays; the remainder are delivered at such times as the Professor shall announce; those of the Regius Professor of Feudal and English Law on Wednesdays and Saturdays; and those of the Reid Professor on Mondays and Thursdays in each week. All the Law Lectures are delivered between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, a.m.

The Law Lectures are open to Students and to the Public, save as above mentioned, without payment, and no Fee is required from Students of the King's Inns beyond that already paid by them on admission into that Society.

---

[a] The Professorship, in the Statutes of Charles I., is described as the Profession of Jurisprudence, and the Professor, in the Letters Patent of Charles II., is styled, "Our Professor of the Laws." In the Decrees of the Board and Visitors, the title generally used is that of the Professor of Civil Law. The above is the style adopted by the Professor in his official acts.

[b] Resolutions of Board and Council, June 15 and 12, 1889.

It is the duty of each Professor to attend the Examination in person while the Students are engaged upon his Paper. In case he is unable so to attend, he is bound to give notice thereof to the Registrar of the Law School. On receiving such notice, the Registrar is required to provide a substitute from among the Fellows and Professors, whose duty it is to keep the Hall during such Examination.

The Professors are bound at the end of Michaelmas and Hilary Term to furnish to the Senior Lecturer a List of all Students having their names on the College Books, and of all King's Inns Students who have had credit for the Term. At the end of Trinity Term they are bound to furnish to the Senior Lecturer a List of all Students having their names on the College Books, and of all King's Inns Students who have had credit for the Term, as well as of those who have obtained Academic credit for the year.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The Course of Study in the Law School extends over two years. In order to complete the Course a Student must attend one year's Course of Lectures with each of the three Professors, and pass the General Examination held at the end of each Course. Not more than two Courses can be attended in the same year, nor can the Student, if he fail or omit to pass the General Examination of his Class, qualify by passing at a subsequent Examination without attending the Lectures preceding that Examination.

A Term is kept by attendance at three-fourths of the Lectures, and by passing the Examination held at the end of the Term.

A General Examination is held by each Professor in Trinity Term at the end of the Academic year.

To obtain Academic credit for the year with any Professor, Students must keep three consecutive Terms, commencing with Michaelmas Term, and pass the General Examination held at the close of Trinity Term.

LAW PREMIUMS.

At the end of Trinity Term each of the three Professors of the School of Law may award £15 in two or three Prizes, at his discretion, to the best answerers among the College Students who obtained Academic credit for the year. The merits of the Candidates will be determined by the aggregate of marks obtained by them at the three Examinations which follow, respectively, the Michaelmas, Hilary, and Trinity Courses of Lectures.

DUTIES OF THE REGISTRAR OF THE LAW SCHOOL.

It shall be the duty of the Registrar of the Law School to copy the Lists furnished by the Professors to the Senior Lecturer into separate Books, to be provided for that purpose.

It shall be the duty of the Registrar of the Law School to give to all Students, including those of the King's Inns, such certificates of attendance as they may be entitled to and may require.

RULES of the Honorable Society of King's Inns, with regard to the Admission of Students into the Society, and to the Degree of Barrister-at-Law.

Admission of Students.

I. Every person applying to be admitted a Student into this Society shall, in order thereto, present at the Under Treasurer's Office, three clear days at the least before the First day of Term, a Memorial in the printed form adopted by the Benchers, which Memorial is to be signed and lodged by the person applying to be admitted a Student, and the Certificate annexed thereto signed by a practising Barrister, of at least Ten years' standing.

II. Every person applying to be admitted a Student shall pay the sum of One Guinea, upon application for the form of Memorial.

III. Every person applying to be admitted a Student, on presenting such Memorial, shall produce a Certificate of having paid at the Stamp Office the Stamp Duty of Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, and also pay to the Under Treasurer the sum of Twenty-two Pounds Ten Shillings, which includes Five Pounds Five Shillings for admission to the Library, and Five Pounds Five shillings for Professors' Fees—the balance being the Fee for admission into the Society as a Student.

IV. Every Student shall, in addition to the sum of Five Guineas, Professors' Fees, paid on admission, also pay the sum of Five Guineas, Professors' Fees, for every year after the first year, during which he shall attend the Lectures of the Professors of the King's Inns. And no Student shall be admitted to attend the Lectures of any Professor of the King's Inns except on production of the Certificate of the Under Treasurer that he has paid such Fees.

V. Every person not otherwise disqualified, and who shall have passed a Public Examination at any University within the British Dominions, or for a Commission in the Army or Navy, or for the Indian Civil Service, or for the Consular Service, or for Cadetship in the Three Eastern Colonies of Ceylon, Hong Kong, and the Straits Settlements, or who shall be a Student of any of the Queen's Colleges at Belfast, Cork, or Galway, or of any of the Inns of Court in England, having passed the Preliminary Examination therein, shall be entitled to be admitted a Student, without passing a Preliminary Examination.

VII. Every other person applying to be admitted a Student [except he has been in practice as a Solicitor for not less than five years] shall, before such admission as a Student, pass an Examination in the following subjects, viz.:—

    - j. Johnson's Lives of Milton, Dryden, Pope, and Addison.
    - k. Macaulay's Essays on Warren Hastings, and Lord Clive, or on Frederick II. (of Prussia), and Lord Chatham.

Keeping Terms.

VIII. Every Student [except he shall have obtained a Scholarship, Exhibition, or Prize at an Honor Examination of the King's Inns, in which cases under certain circumstances the present rule does not hold good] shall keep twelve Terms' Commons in the Dining Hall of the Society, but each Student shall, at his option, be entitled to substitute in place of four such Terms four Terms' Commons kept in one of the Four Inns of Court in London, in accordance with the regulations of such Inn; the last of the said twelve Terms may be kept in the Term in which the Student shall apply to be called to the Bar.

IX. Every Student shall be enabled to keep Terms by dining in the Hall of the Society on two days at least in the Term, one day in the half week commencing on Tuesday, and one day in the half week commencing on Friday. No day's attendance in the Hall shall be available for the purpose of keeping Term, unless the Student attending shall have been present at the grace before dinner, during the whole of dinner, and until the concluding grace shall have been said, unless one of the Benchers for the day shall permit the Student to leave earlier.

Educational Regulations.

XI. A continuous Course of Lectures shall be delivered by each of the Professors, commencing in Michaelmas Term in each year, and consisting of three Terms of Lectures. The number of Lectures in each Term shall be twelve, and the qualifying number to be attended by each Student shall be nine.

XII. An Examination shall be held by each Professor at the end of each Term in the subject of the Lectures of the Term, at which the Students who have attended the Lectures shall be bound to present themselves for examination: and no Student shall be entitled to credit for attendance on the Term of Lectures without a Certificate of having passed the Examination to the satisfaction of the Professor.

XIII. Examinations shall be held annually, within a month after the termination of each continuous Course of Lectures, on days to be fixed by the Education Committee, in the subjects of the Lectures constituting such Course, and no Student shall be entitled to credit for any continuous Course of Lectures without a Certificate of having passed the Examination at the termination of such Course to the satisfaction of the Examiners. The Students shall be examined in two separate and distinct classes: the first shall consist of those Students for whom the Lectures forming the subject of the Examination shall constitute their first continuous Course; and the second class shall consist of those Students for whom the Lectures forming the subject of the Examination shall constitute their second continuous Course. In the conduct of the Examinations regard shall be had to the relative seniorities of these two classes of Students. Each Examination shall be conducted by a practising Barrister, other than the Lecturer, and in the presence of a Bencher, and the Education Committee shall fix the sum to be allowed to each such Barrister for conducting the Examination.

XIV. The Victoria Prizes of the respective amounts of £25, £15, and £10, shall be awarded at the Examination held each year under Rule XIII., on the recommendation of the Education Committee, to the Three Students who shall pass the best Examination on the subject of their continuous Course of Lectures, and Three similar Prizes on the like recommendation, to the Three Students who shall pass the best Examination in the subject of their second continuous Course. No Student shall be entitled to compete a second time in the same continuous Course, and the Benchers reserve to themselves a discretion of withholding all or any such Prizes, in case the Education Committee report that they do not consider the answering at such Examinations, respectively, sufficiently meritorious.

XV. Each Student must attend two continuous Courses of Lectures, as defined by Rule XI., with each of the two Professors at the King's Inns, and one complete Course of three Terms with each of two Professors in the Law School of Trinity College, Dublin. Attendance at Lectures must extend over three years at the least. The Education Committee may accept as an equivalent for attendance on one continuous Course of Lectures of the two Professors at the King's Inns bona fide attendance in the Chambers of a Barrister or Pleader in Ireland or England for one legal year, or attendance for one year at the Lectures of two Professors of the Inns of Court in London.

XV. The Education Committee may grant a Special Examination to any Student on any grounds they may deem sufficient, and a Certificate of having passed such Special Examination to the satisfaction of the Examiners may be accepted in substitution for any one or more of the above-mentioned Certificates.

Call to the Bar.

XXV. Every Student, having complied with the foregoing Rules, desiring to be admitted to the Degree of a Barrister-at-Law, and being of the full age of twenty-one years, shall present a Memorial, in the printed form adopted by the Benchers, at the Under Treasurer's Office, three clear days, at the least, before the First day of Term, such Memorial to be signed by the Student himself; the Certificate annexed thereto to be signed by a practising Barrister of at least ten years' standing, and the Declaration at foot thereof by a Bencher.

XXVI. Every Student so applying for admission to the Degree of a Barrister-at-Law, shall, on presenting his said Memorial, pay to the Under Treasurer the sum of Forty Pounds, being the payment to the Society thereon, and lodge, at the same time, a Certificate of having paid Fifty Pounds Stamp Duty at the Stamp Office, Certificates of the required attendance upon Lectures, and where all his Terms shall not have been kept in the Dining Hall of the Society, a Certificate of having kept the required number of Terms in one of the Inns of Court in England.

By Order,

JOHN D. O'HANLON,
Under Treasurer.

KING'S INNS, Michaelmas Term, 1890.

EXTRACT from the Consolidated Regulations of the Four Inns of Court in England, sanctioned and confirmed by Orders of the several Societies made in the month of December, 1875.

1. Every person, not otherwise disqualified, who shall have passed a Public Examination at any University within the British dominions, shall be entitled to be admitted as a Student, without passing a preliminary Examination.

10. Students who shall at the same time be Members of any of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, London, Durham, the Queen's University in Ireland, St. Andrew's, Aberdeen, Glasgow, or Edinburgh, shall be enabled to keep Terms by dining in the Halls of their respective Inns of Court, any three days in each Term.

26. Students shall be provided with the means of Education in the general principles of Law, and in the Law as practically administered in this country, and for the purpose of such Education, Systematic Instruction shall be given in the following subjects, viz.:—Jurisprudence; International Law—Public and Private; Roman Civil Law; Constitutional Law and Legal History; Common Law; Equity; The Law of Real and Personal Property; and Criminal Law.

44. The subjects for Examination shall be the following:—i. Jurisprudence, including International Law—Public and Private; ii. The Roman Civil Law; iii. Constitutional Law and Legal History; iv. Common Law; v. Equity; vi. The Law of Real and Personal Property; vii. Criminal Law.

45. No Student admitted after the 31st December, 1872, shall receive from the Council the Certificate of fitness for call to the Bar required by the Four Inns of Court, unless he shall have passed a satisfactory Examination in the following subjects, viz., 1st, Roman Civil Law; 2ndly, The Law of Real and Personal Property; and, 3rdly, Common Law and Equity.

46. No Student admitted after the 31st December, 1872, shall be examined for call to the Bar, until he shall have kept nine Terms; except that Students admitted after that day shall have the option of passing the Examination in Roman Civil Law, required by Rule 45, at any time after having kept four Terms.

47. The Council may accept a Degree in Law granted by any University within the British dominions as an equivalent for the Examination in any of the subjects mentioned in Rule 45, other than Common Law and Equity; provided the Council is satisfied that the Student, before he obtained his Degree, passed a sufficient Examination in such subject or subjects.

48. There shall be four Examinations in every year, one of which shall be held in sufficient time before each Law Term to enable the requisite Certificates to be granted by the Council, before the first day of such Term. The days of Examination shall be fixed by the Committee, and at two of such Examinations, viz., at those to be held next before Hilary and Trinity Terms, there shall be an Examination for Studentships and Honors.

49. The Honors List shall contain two Classes, in both of which the List shall be alphabetical. The Examination for Honors shall be in the subjects mentioned in Clause 44, and no Student shall be entitled to be placed in either Class unless he shall have passed a satisfactory Examination in all the subjects mentioned in Clause 45.

50. As an encouragement to Students to study Jurisprudence and Roman Civil Law, Twelve Studentships, of One Hundred Guineas each, shall be established, and divided equally into two Classes; the 1st Class of Studentships to continue for two years, and to be open for competition to any Student as to whom not more than four Terms shall have elapsed since he kept his first Term; and the 2nd Class to continue for one year only, and to be open for competition to any Student, not then already entitled to a Studentship, as to whom not less than four, and not more than eight, Terms shall have elapsed since he kept his first Term, two of each Class of such Studentships to be awarded by the Council, on the recommendation of the Committee, after every Examination before Hilary and Trinity Terms respectively, to the two Students of each set of competitors who shall have passed the best Examination in both Jurisprudence and Roman Civil Law. But the Committee shall not be obliged to recommend any Studentship to be awarded, if the result of the Examination be such as, in their opinion, not to justify such recommendation.

51. Each Inn of Court shall bear the expense of the Studentships awarded to its own Students.

52. Previous to each Examination the Committee of Education and Examination shall give such notice as they shall think fit of the Books and Branches of Subjects in which Students will be required to pass at such Examination, in order to be entitled to a Certificate under Rule 45.

RULES with regard to the Admission of Apprentices as Attorneys or Solicitors.

I.—ADMISSION IN IRELAND.

The 7th and 9th Sections of "The Attorneys' and Solicitors' Act (Ireland), 1866" (29 & 30 Vict. c. 84), provide as follows:—

Sect. 7. "Any person having taken the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, or Bachelor of Laws, in the University of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, Durham, or London, or in the Queen's University in Ireland, or the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, Bachelor of Laws, or Doctor of Laws, in any of the Universities of Scotland, none of such Degrees being honorary Degrees, and who, at any time after having taken such Degree, and, either before or after the passing of this Act, has been bound by, and has duly served under, Indentures of Apprenticeship to a practising Attorney or Solicitor, for the term of three years, and has been examined and sworn in manner hereinafter mentioned, and in accordance with the practice of the Court of Chancery, or Superior Courts of Law in Ireland, may be admitted, and enrolled and registered as an Attorney or Solicitor; and where any person has, before the passing of this Act, and at any time after having taken such Degree, been bound as aforesaid for any period exceeding three years, he may, after having duly served three years of such term, in such manner as would have been required if he had been bound for three years only, and having been examined and sworn as aforesaid, and with the consent in writing, endorsed on his Indentures of Apprenticeship, of the Attorney or Solicitor to whom he may be bound to the immediate determination of his Indentures of Apprenticeship, be admitted, enrolled, and registered as an Attorney or Solicitor; and when such consent is given as aforesaid, and acted upon under this provision, by the person hereby made eligible to be admitted, enrolled, and registered as aforesaid, the Indentures of Apprenticeship shall be deemed to have determined as if they had determined by effluxion of time."

Sect. 9. "Every person who, as a Matriculated or Non-Matriculated Student of the University of Dublin, or of any of the Queen's Colleges in Ireland, shall have attended or shall attend any prescribed Lectures, and shall have passed or shall pass any prescribed Examinations of the Professors of the Faculty of Law in the said University of Dublin, or in any of the said Queen's Colleges, for a period of two Collegiate years, and who shall have duly served as an Apprentice, under Indentures for the term of four years, in like manner as by this Act provided respecting the service for the term of five years, shall, at any time after the expiration of five years from the commencement of such attendance on Lectures, or of such period of service, which shall first happen, be qualified to be sworn, and to be admitted as an Attorney, or Solicitor, respectively, according to the nature of his service, of the several and respective Superior Courts of Law or Equity in Ireland, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as any person having been bound, and having served five years, is qualified to be sworn, and to be admitted, or enrolled and registered an Attorney or Solicitor under and by virtue of this Act."

II.—ADMISSION IN ENGLAND.

By the 2nd section of the English Attorneys' Act, 23 & 24 Vict. c. 197, from which the 7th section of the Irish Act is copied, Graduates of the Universities specified in the Irish Act may be admitted as Attorneys or Solicitors in England, after three years' service under Articles of Clerkship.

The 5th section of the English Act provides that

"The Lords Chief Justice of the Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, jointly with the Master of the Rolls, may, if they think fit, from time to time, by regulations to be made by them, direct that any person having successfully passed an Examination, now or hereafter to be established in any of the Universities hereinbefore mentioned, and to be specified in such Regulations, may be admitted and enrolled as an Attorney or Solicitor, after having been subsequently bound by, and having duly served under, Articles of Clerkship to a practising Attorney or Solicitor, for the term of four years, and been examined and sworn as aforesaid."

On the 26th of July, 1861, it was accordingly ordered by the Judges so authorized:—

"That from and after the 1st day of Hilary Term, 1862, every person who, before entering into Articles of Clerkship, shall produce to the Registrar of Attorneys a Certificate that he has successfully passed the first Public Examination before Moderators at Oxford, or the Previous Examination at Cambridge, or the Examination in Arts for the second year at Durham, or the Matriculation Examination at the Universities of Dublin or London, and has been placed in the first division on such Matriculation Examination, shall be entitled to the benefit of the fifth section of the Attorneys' Act, 23 & 24 Vict. c. 127."

REGULATIONS of the University with regard to Degrees in Law.

The Regius Professor of Laws is Moderator in all disputations for Degrees in Law, and presents the Candidates for those Degrees at the Commencements.

The Degrees are Bachelor and Doctor in utroque Jure.

1. Bachelor of Laws.[a]

A Candidate for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws must have taken the Degree of Bachelor of Arts in Dublin (unless he seek the degree ad eundem as an LL.B., of Cambridge, or a B.C.L. of Oxford). He must also have passed a Special Examination in the subjects of the curriculum of the Law School.

The Course for the Degree of LL.B. is as follows:—

Holland's Elements of Jurisprudence.
Wheaton's International Law (Boyd's Edition).
Williams' Principles of the Law of Personal Property.
Williams' Principles of the Law of Real Property.
Anson's Principles of the English Law of Contracts.
Phipson on Evidence.
Smith's (H. A.) Principles of Equity.
Pollock's Law of Torts.
The Institutes of Justinian.

The Board and Council have passed a resolution to the effect that no person will be admitted to the LL.B. Examination until he has become qualified to present himself for the B.A. Degree Examination.

The Examinations are mainly by Papers; but each Examiner is at liberty to supplement his Examination by questions vivâ voce.

Examinations for the Degree of LL.B. are held in June and December. Candidates are not required to have their names on the College Books at the time of the Examination.

The Fee for the Degree of LL.B. is £11 15*s.*, payable to the Senior Proctor.

[a] Resolutions of Board and Council, June 8 and 5, 1878. Meeting of Senate, June 29, 1878.

2. Doctor of Laws.[a]

A Candidate for the Degree of Doctor of Laws must be B.A. of three years' standing, and have taken the LL.B. degree in Dublin either ad eundem or otherwise, unless he has taken the LL.D. in Cambridge, or the D.C.L. in Oxford.

Candidates may obtain the Degree in any of the following ways :—

1. By passing an Examination—the following is the Course :—

Bentham's Theory of Legislation (Hildreth's Translation, pp. 1–236).
Maine's Ancient Law.
Origin and Growth of the English Constitution, by Hannis Taylor.
Foote's Private International Law.
Digby's History of the Law of Real Property.
Holland's Elements of Jurisprudence.
Wheaton's International Law (Boyd's Edition).
The Institutes of Justinian.

2. By presenting to the Regius Professor of Laws, for the consideration of the Examiners, a printed Thesis, composed by the Candidates on a subject in the Law Course approved of by the Professor.—The Candidate will be liable to be examined on subjects connected with his Thesis.—The Thesis must be presented to the Professor one month before the Commencements, and, if it be approved by the Professors of the Law School, a copy shall be deposited in the College Library.

3. The Degree of LL.D. may also be obtained by a Candidate who is the author of a published work connected with legal or political science, of merit sufficient, in the judgment of the Examiners, to entitle the Candidate to the Degree.

Candidates for Degrees by either of the methods 2 or 3, are required to notify to the Registrar of the Law School, one month before the Commencements, the particular qualifications which they propose to offer for their Degrees. For other Candidates one day's notice is sufficient.

NOTE.—A Decree, of which the following was a clause, was passed by the Senate on the 16th of June, 1885 :—

"Proviso tamen quod omnibus quibus unquam per Statuta licuerit Baccalaureatum vel Doctoratum in utroque jure secundum regulas antehac vigentes capessere, post hac etiam liceat secundum eas regulas pro illis gradibus supplicare."

Candidates who have already taken the degree of LL.B. at Cambridge, or B.C.L. at Oxford, may take the ad eundem LL.B. Degree in T.C.D. on the payment of £11 15*s*.

Specimens of Papers at recent Examinations for the LL.B. and LL.D. Degrees can be obtained on application to the Registrar.

---

[a] Resolutions of Board and Council June 8 and 5, 1878. Meeting of Senate, June 29, 1878.

The Examiners require a minimum of 40 per cent. of the questions to be answered on the aggregate of the papers. The answers sent in to each examiner must not fall much below this percentage.

The Fee for the Degree of LL.D. is £22, payable to the Senior Proctor.

The Examinations for the Degrees in Law last three days, and commence at 9 o'clock, A.M., on each of the days appointed.

REID LAW SCHOLARSHIP AND PRIZE EXAMINATIONS IN LAW.

In order to promote the better study of Law, the Board of Trinity College, Dublin, propose to establish an annual Honor Examination in all the departments of Law, subject to the following conditions:—

1. Candidates must have attended a year's lectures and passed the General Examinations with each of the Professors of Law.

2. Candidates must have their names on the College books for the half-year before the Examination which will take place in the October of 1901, and subsequent years.

3. No Candidate will be allowed to compete later than twelve months after the December B.A. Examination of his class.

4. The Course will consist of the subjects taught in the three terms of Lectures of the three Professors, together with special books named by the Professors, two years' notice being given for any change in the Course.

5. The following prizes will be awarded:—

In Criminal and Constitutional Law:
The Reid Scholarship, value £40.

In Civil and International Law:
A Prize of £20.

In Feudal and English Law:
A Prize of £20.

All of these being subject to the qualifications in § 6.

Further Prizes of £20 and £10 may be awarded, if sufficient merit be shown, in the department of the Reid Professor.

6. No Candidate can obtain any one of these Prizes unless he has satisfied the Professors in the other subjects, by answering at least 40 per cent. in their part of the Examination.

7. The same Candidate may be awarded Prizes in all three departments, but no Candidate shall be awarded the same Prize more than once.

8. In cases of very close competition, the Board shall have power to vary the distribution of the amounts.

In cases of equality the Examiners may take into consideration the answering of various Candidates in the other subjects.

9. Certificates will be issued to the winners of the three first Prizes, and in exceptional cases, a Certificate may be granted to such other Candidates as shall be recommended by the Examiners for distinguished answering.

10. The Board of Trinity College will invite an Examiner, nominated by the Benchers, to take part in the Examination.

SPECIAL BOOKS SUGGESTED BY THE PROFESSORS OF LAW.

I.—Civil and International Law.

1. Lawrence's International Law.
2. Holland's Jurisprudence.

Candidates will also be required to have an elementary knowledge of English Constitutional History.

IV.—The Extern Examiner will set a paper in Anson on Contracts.

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC.

HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL OF PHYSIC.

"The School of Physic in Ireland" is constituted by the Statute of 40 Geo. III., cap. 84; and the Statute of 30th Vict., cap. 9.

The Buildings and Laboratories of the School of Physic belong to the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, and no person can Lecture or Demonstrate in them without the permission of the Provost and Senior Fellows.

The discipline of the School, as regards the intern and extern Students, is entirely in the hands of the Provost and Senior Fellows.

The departments of Medicine and of Surgery are presided over by the Regius Professor of Physic, and the Regius Professor of Surgery, respectively, to whom is committed the charge of the conduct of the Examinations in Medicine and Surgery.

The Teaching Staff of the School of Physic consists of the following Professors and Lecturers:—

Appointed by Trinity College.

*1. The Professor of Anatomy and Chirurgery.
*2. The Professor of Chemistry.
*3. The Professor of Botany.
*4. The Professor of Surgery.
*5. The University Anatomist.
6. The Professor of Comparative Anatomy.
7. Lecturer on Medical Jurisprudence.

Appointed by the College of Physicians.

*1. King's Professor of Institutes of Medicine.
*2. King's Professor of Practice of Medicine.
*3. King's Professor of Materia Medica and Pharmacy.
*4. King's Professor of Midwifery.

Mention is made in the College Register, A.D. 1598, of a concordatum of £40 yearly, granted by the Government to the University, for a "Physitian's pay." This is believed to have been the origin of the Regius Professorship of Physic.

In Bishop Bedell's Statutes, A. D. 1628, it is enacted that one of the Fellows shall be Professor of Medicine, and shall deliver Lectures in that Faculty every Term, an enactment subsequently confirmed by the Letters Patent, 13 Car. I.:

> "Volumus insuper, ut et Jurista, et Medicus, post secundum professionis annum, semel quovis termino in sua facultate prælegant."

---

* The Professorships marked thus * are named in the School of Physic Act, or in the Amendment Act.

By the Charter and Letters Patent given to Trinity College, A. D. 1637, 13 Car. I., cap. 18, it is provided that one of the Fellows of the College shall devote himself to the study of Medicine:—

> "Neminem autem volumus invitum cogi ad studia hæc, sed eligatur aliquis, qui professiones istas [i. e. jurisprudentiæ et medicinæ] respective sibi optat, modo talis inveniri possit inter Socios."

The Offices of Medical Fellow and Professor of Physic appear to have been held by the same persons down to the time of the distinguished Dr. John Stearne, the founder of the College of Physicians, after whom the two offices were generally held by different persons.

So seldom, in fact, were the Medical Fellows found competent to hold the Professorship, that there are three instances only on record, since A. D. 1662, of the same person holding both offices, viz.:—

1. John Stearne.
2. Richard Helsham.
3. Whitley Stokes.

There does not exist any Charter, Royal Letter, or Statute constituting the Professorship of Physic in Trinity College, which seems to have grown up spontaneously, to meet the educational wants of the College, and the Professorship is not named "Regius" in any public document until A. D. 1868, when it is so styled, in the Letters Patent of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, constituting a Regius Professorship of Surgery in Trinity College. The Professor is named, simply, "Professor of Physick in Trinity College," in the Letters Patent 2 Geo. I., A. D. 1715; in the Statute 15 Geo. II., A. D. 1741; in the Statute 25 Geo. III., cap. 42, A. D. 1784; and in the Statute (School of Physic Act) 40 Geo. III., cap. 84, A. D. 1800.

The Regius Professorship of Surgery in Trinity College was constituted by Letters Patent, 32 Victoria, 1868.

In the year 1710 the first mention is made in the College Register of Lectures in Anatomy, Chemistry, and Botany, in the University. On the 14th of June, in that year, ground was laid out for a Laboratory and Anatomical Theatre; and on the opening of the building in August of the year following, Dr. Hoyle lectured in Anatomy, Dr. Nicholson in Botany, and Dr. Griffith in Chemistry.

24th June, 1713. The Will of Sir Patrick Dun was proved; and by this Will a Professor of Physic was created in the College of Physicians, and endowed from the funds of Sir P. Dun's estate.

The Deed constituting and providing for Professors of Physic in the College of Physicians was executed on the 8th June, 1704.

15th October, 1715. A Charter, 2 George I., was obtained, incorporating the Professorship of Physic agreeably to the rules laid down in Sir P. Dun's Deed, and appointing perpetual successorship, under the title of "The King's Professorship of Physic in the City of Dublin."

An University Anatomist was first appointed in 1716. On the 8th September, in that year, Dr. Robinson and Surgeon Green were, by the Provost and Senior Fellows, appointed to officiate in the Anatomy School as Lecturer and Anatomist.

17th June, 1717. Dr. Robinson was, by a majority of votes, turned out from being Lecturer in Anatomy, and Dr. Hoyle elected to the same. Ordered that the Bursar pay £60 to Surgeon Green, in order to purchase preparations for illustrating several parts of the human body.

1st October, 1730. Dr. Thomas Madden was chosen Lecturer in Anatomy.

21st May, 1734. Dr. Francis Foreside[a] was chosen Lecturer in Anatomy.

1741. An Act was passed, 15th George II., modifying the Professorships established under Sir P. Dun's Deed and Will.

16th January, 1741–2. Dr. Robinson was chosen Anatomy Lecturer in the room of Dr. Foreside, resigned.

14th June, 1743. Mr. Whittingham was chosen Anatomist in room of Mr. Shaw, resigned.

10th September, 1753. Mr. George Cleghorn was chosen Anatomist in place of Mr. Whittingham, resigned.

9th June, 1761. It was resolved by the Provost and Senior Fellows that, for the future, the Examination for Degrees in Medicine should be committed to the Prælectors in Chemistry and Anatomy, together with the Professor of Physic.[b]

29th June, 1761. It was ordered that another Lecturer in Anatomy be chosen in the room of Dr. Robert Robinson, in consequence of his having refused to co-operate with the Professor of Physic and Lecturer in Chemistry, in carrying out the order of the 9th June, inst. On the same day, the Provost and Senior Fellows elected Mr. George Cleghorn as Lecturer in Anatomy.

1784. An Act was passed, 25th George III., altering and amending the Act of 1741; converting the University Lectureships in Anatomy and Chirurgery, Chemistry and Botany, into Professorships; and constituting the School of Physic in Ireland.

1790. An Act was passed, 31st George III., further amending the Clinical Lectures mentioned in preceding Acts.

1800. In this year, the Act commonly called the "School of Physick Act," 40th George III., was passed, repealing portions of the former Acts, and creating the School of Physic as it now exists.

1867. An Amendment Act was passed, repealing portions of the School of Physic Act.

[a] Dr. Foreside was afterwards elected Regius Professor of Physic, in the room of Dr. Cope, on the 2nd February, 1742–3.

[b] This rule was made in consequence of a difference with the College of Physicians, the President and Censors of that body having been the Examiners from 1695 to 1761. See Dr. Belcher's Register of Coll. of Phys., 1866, p. 10.

SIR PATRICK DUN'S HOSPITAL.[a]

Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital was founded by the School of Physic Act in 1800; and is now governed by the directions laid down in that Statute, and in the School of Physic Amendment Act of 1867.

For several years previous to its erection, great inconvenience was felt from the want of clinical lectures in connexion with the School of Physic; and several temporary expedients were made use of to remedy this defect. The Statute 25 Geo. III. provided that, until an hospital should be built, clinical courses might be given in some hospital in Dublin. Accordingly, on the 14th January, 1788, the College of Physicians to some extent fulfilled the spirit of the law, by taking a house in Clarendon-street for a clinical hospital. After a time this had to be given up, chiefly on the score of expense, a committee reporting to the College, on the 14th August, 1790, that the cost of maintaining the institution was much higher than in other hospitals in Dublin—the cost of drugs alone being eight times as high as at other hospitals. On the 8th of November, 1790, the furniture of the hospital in Clarendon-street was ordered to be removed to Mercer's Hospital: and in case it could not be there accommodated, further directions were given to remove it to Steevens' Hospital. On the 9th of July, 1792, a lease of a house on Blind-quay (now Wellington-quay) was accepted by the College of Physicians for an hospital. This was called Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital, and was put in working order for thirty clinical patients, on the 27th September in the same year. This institution seemed to work for a short time only, for, on the 16th of February, 1793, the College took into consideration the appointment of a Physician-in-Ordinary to Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital in Lower Exchange-street. According to the College Journals, this was working in 1797; and on the 21st of January, 1799, Mercer's Hospital was reported ready for the reception of clinical patients on Dun's foundation.

At first the hospital in Lower Exchange-street was kept open during the whole year, then only during a part of the year; next, the patients decreased in number, until, finally, it would appear from the evidence given before the Lords' Committee in 1799, that at one time only one patient was to be found in it.

[a] The account of Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital given here is taken from a Memoir of Sir Patrick Dun by Rev T W. Belcher, M. D. (Dublin, 1866).

By the Statute 31 Geo. III., the College of Physicians was empowered to raise £1000 to build an hospital; but nothing was done in that way until after 1800, when the School of Physic Act gave more clear and extended powers.

By this Act the building of the hospital was entrusted to eight Commissioners, viz., the Right Honourable Sackville Hamilton, the Provost of Trinity College, and the President of the College of Physicians for the time being, Sir Francis Hutchinson, Baronet; the Hon. George Knox, Dr. Arthur Browne (LL.D.), William Digges Latouche, and Abraham Wilkinson, Esquires. These Commissioners selected a lot of ground in Grand Canal-street, of which a lease for 998 years was granted to the President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, from David Courtney, Esq. The College seal was affixed to this lease on the 10th of May, 1802. In 1808, £6346 of Sir Patrick Dun's funds having been expended in the erection of the west wing of the hospital, and enclosing the ground, and making sewers, and there being no means for carrying on the building except the annual produce of the estates, which was quite inadequate, an application was made for Parliamentary aid, and in the ensuing session a grant of £6204 was obtained, for the purpose of finishing the wing then being erected, and for procuring, furnishing, and maintaining a temporary hospital.

On the 24th of June, 1808, the west wing being finished, and capable of affording accommodation to thirty patients, the Commissioners summoned a Board of the Governors nominated in the School of Physic Act, and delivered up to them the management of the institution, which was opened for clinical instruction on the 25th of October, in the same year.

By the aid of subsequent Parliamentary grants the hospital was completed, and accommodation was provided in the hospital for Dun's Library, and for the Convocation Hall of the College of Physicians. The building of the hospital was commenced in 1803, and was completed in 1816, and the first College meeting there took place in 1818. The Board of Governors consists of the Visitors of theCollege of Physicians; the President, Vice-President, and Censors of the same; the Provost of Trinity College; and of twelve other persons chosen by the ex-officio Governors from among the subscribers to the hospital.

In 1864, the College of Physicians transferred to the Governors the entire use of the central portion of the building, with a view to the conversion of the hospital into a medico-chirurgical institution, a change which was considered desirable for the improvement of the School of Physic, medical cases only having been admissible previous to this alteration. This change has been attended with the best results, and has contributed, in some degree, to carry out the intention of Sir Patrick Dun, who—as appears from his will and deed—considered surgery to be a part of medicine, a view of the subject which Hippocrates and the ancients entertained, and which modern medical science has shown to be correct.

PART I.

REGULATIONS OF THE SCHOOL OF PHYSIC.

The School of Physic in the University of Dublin consists of the following Staff for 1900:—

Regius Professor of Physic.—James Little, M.D.
Regius Professor of Surgery.—Charles B. Ball, M.D., Ch. M.
University Professor of Anatomy and Chirurgery.—Daniel J. Cunningham, M.D., F.R.S.
University Professor of Chemistry.—J. Emerson Reynolds, M.D., F.R.S.
University Professor of Botany.—E. Perceval Wright, M.D.
Professor of Surgery in Trinity College.—Edward H. Bennett, M.D., Ch.M.
University Anatomist.—Charles B. Ball, M.D., Ch. M.
Professor of Zoology and Comparative Anatomy.—H. W. Mackintosh, M.A.
Erasmus Smith's Professor of Natural Philosophy.—George Francis FitzGerald, D.Sc., F.R.S.
King's Professor of Institutes of Medicine.—John Mallet Purser, M.D.
King's Professor of Practice of Medicine.—John Magee Finny, M.D.
King's Professor of Materia Medica and Pharmacy.—Walter G. Smith, M.D.
King's Professor of Midwifery.—Arthur Vernon Macan, M.B., M.A.O.
University Lecturer in Medical Jurisprudence.—Henry T. Bewley, M.D.
University Lecturer in Pathology—Alex. C. O'Sullivan, M.D., F.T.C.D.
University Examiner in Anatomy—Edward H. Taylor, M.D.
University Examiner in Clinical Surgery.—Fras. T. Heuston, M.D.
University Examiner in Ophthalmic Surgery.—John B. Story, M.B.
University Examiner in Midwifery.—Henry Jellett, M.D.
University Examiners in Medicine.—James Craig, M.D.; Henry Drury, M.D.
University Examiner in Vital Statistics.—T. W. Grimshaw, M.D.
University Examiner in Dental Surgery.—A. W. W. Baker, M.D.
University Examiner in Sanitary Engineering.—William Kaye Parry, M.A.
University Examiner in Mental Diseases.—George Revington, M.D.
University Examiner in Epidemiology and Duties of Public Health Officer.—Thomas J. Stafford, L.R.C.S.I.
Curators of Museum of Anatomy and Zoology.—Henry W. Mackintosh, M.A.; Daniel J. Cunningham, M.D.
Curator of Pathological Museum.—Edward H. Bennett, M.D., Ch. M.
Curator of Materia Medica Museum.—Walter G. Smith, M.D.
Registrar.—Henry W. Mackintosh, M.A.
Demonstrators in Anatomy.—C. J. Patten, M.D., Chief Demonstrator.
G. Jameson Johnston, M.A., M.B.
William S. Haughton, M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O.
James Beatty, M.D.
R. Travers Smith, M.D.
T. P. C. Kirkpatrick, M.D.
R. H. Kennan, M.D.

Assistant Lecturer in Chemistry.—E. A. Werner, F.C.S.
Assistant to Professor of Institutes of Medicine.—N. H. Alcock, M.D.
Assistant to Lecturer in Pathology.—H. E. Littledale, M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O,
University Demonstrator in Röntgen Photography.—William S. Haughton, M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O.

MATRICULATION.

No Student can be permitted to attend any of the Courses of Instruction in the School of Physic until he has Matriculated. There is no special Examination; the Entrance Examination of Trinity College, or any other of the Preliminary Examinations recognized by the General Medical Council, being accepted as equivalent. The Matriculation Fee is Five Shillings. It is not necessary for a Student to have his name on the College Books, or to attend any of the Academical duties of the University, unconnected with the School of Physic, unless he desire to obtain a Diploma or Degree in Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery.

A Student may matriculate at the commencement of either the Winter or the Summer Session. The 25th November is the last day of admission to the Winter Session. In the Summer Session the day varies a good deal according to the time at which Easter occurs, and the Courses of Lectures for which the Student proposes to enter.

(For Order of Study and Fees see pp. 201–204.)

WINTER SESSION, 1899–1900.

The Winter Session commences on the 2nd October by the opening of the Dissecting-room, and terminates on the 31st March. Lectures commence on the 1st November.[a]

LECTURES.

Physics.—Dr. FitzGerald, at 1 o'clock on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, during Michaelmas and Hilary Terms.

Chemistry.—Dr. Reynolds, at 1 o'clock, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and at 11 o'clock on Saturdays.

Systematic Anatomy.—Dr. Cunningham, at 12 o'clock, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Practical Anatomy.—Dr. Cunningham, at 12 o'clock, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

Physiology.—Dr. Purser, at 12 o'clock, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Surgery.—Dr. Bennett, at 1 o'clock, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Applied Anatomy.—Dr. Cunningham and Dr. C. J. Patten, at 2 o'clock, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

---

[a] The Term Courses commence on days to be duly announced.

Practice of Medicine.—Dr. Finny, at 1 o'clock, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

Midwifery.—Mr. Macan, at 3 o'clock, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Pathology.—Mr. O'Sullivan at 2 o'clock, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

Six months' Dissections are required.

Christmas Vacation commences on 24th December, and terminates on 6th January.

DEPARTMENT OF PRACTICAL ANATOMY.

The Dissecting-room is subject to the following Rules, ordered by the Board:—

I. The Official Hours for Dissections are from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M., during which time assistance and instruction are afforded to Students dissecting.

II. Students are allowed to dissect before 10 A. M., if they please; and, to facilitate such Dissections, the Gate leading into the College Park shall be opened at 7 o'clock, A. M., except during December and January, when it shall be opened at 8 o'clock. (Demonstrators attend from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M.)

III. The Professor of Anatomy shall attend at the Anatomical School during two hours each day, including the hour of Lecture.

IV. One or more of the Demonstrators shall attend during Official Hours for Dissections.

During the Summer Session the Dissecting-room will be open from 8 o'clock, A.M., to 5 o'clock, P.M. Demonstrations on Topographical Anatomy will be given twice daily.

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY.

The Class attending the Professor's Winter Lectures work in the Chemical Laboratory on each Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, repeating in the Laboratory many of the experiments shown at Lectures.

Students requiring Laboratory Practice in special branches of Chemistry are admitted for either one, three, six, or nine months. A Student can enter for a single month's practice at any time during the Academic year, the fee being £3 3*s*.

The Professor of Chemistry gives a short Course of Demonstrations and Laboratory practice in the Analysis of Water and Air for Sanitary purposes, and the examination of Articles of Food and Drink for Adulterants. This Course terminates on the 30th of November. Fee for the Course, £5 5*s*.

The Course given in the Trinity College Laboratory during the Summer Session comprises practical Instruction in the Detection of Acids, Metals, and their Salts (especially those of a poisonous nature); in the Detection of the Vegetable Alkaloids, and of other organic compounds; in Volumetric Analysis and Testing, according to the British Pharmacopœia; in Qualitative and Quantitative Urinary Analysis.

Students are provided with full sets of Apparatus and Tests.

SUMMER SESSION, 1900.

The Summer Session commences on the 1st April, and terminates on the 30th June.

PRACTICAL INSTRUCTION.

Laboratory Instruction in Chemistry.—Dr. Emerson Reynolds.

This Course comprises full instruction in Qualitative and Quantitative Chemical Analysis as applied to Medicine. Students work in the Laboratory from 1 to 3 o'clock, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Each Student is provided with full sets of Apparatus and Tests.

Laboratory Instruction in Histology.—Dr. Purser.

This Course will be given in the Physiological Laboratory. On Mondays, at 3 o'clock, a Lecture will be given in the Theatre; after which, Illustrative Preparations will be shown in the Laboratory. For Practical Work, the Class will be divided, in order to admit of each Student receiving a larger amount of attention. One division will work from 3 to 5 o'clock, on Wednesdays and Fridays; the other from 3 to 5 o'clock, on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Each Student will have his own place in the Laboratory, a Microscope, and a full set of Apparatus and Re-agents. The Laboratory will be open to Members of the Class from 11 to 5 o'clock, daily, except Mondays.

Demonstrations in Operative Surgery.—Dr. Bennett.

The Course of Operations will be given during the months of April and May, at 8 o'clock, a.m., on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and at 11 o'clock, a.m., on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

Demonstrations in Obstetric Medicine and Surgery.—Mr. Macan, at 12 o'clock, on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Pathology.—Mr. O'Sullivan at 2 o'clock, daily, except Saturdays.

LECTURES.

Botany.—Dr. E. Perceval Wright, at 10 o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

(N.B.—When Arts Lectures begin, the Lectures in Botany will be given at 9 o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.)

Physics—Dr. FitzGerald, at 1 o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and 11.30 o'clock on Saturdays during Trinity Term.

Zoology.—Mr. Mackintosh, at 11 o'clock on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

(N.B.—When Arts Lectures begin, the Lectures in Zoology will be given at 2 o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and at 11 o'clock on Saturdays.)

Materia Medica.—Dr. W. G. Smith, at 12 o'clock on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays.

Medical Jurisprudence and Hygiene.—Dr. Bewley, at 1 o'clock on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays.

Easter Vacation commences on 8th April and terminates on 21st April.

ATTENDANCE ON LECTURES.

Each Student is expected to attend all the Lectures or Demonstrations delivered in each Course for which he enters, whether in the Winter or the Summer Session; but in order to provide for unavoidable absence, such as illness or attendance at Examinations, he is allowed credit for a Course if he has been present at three-fourths of the Lectures or Demonstrations actually delivered. If this proportion involve a fraction, the next highest whole number is reckoned as the minimum. If more than one-fourth have been missed, application must be made through the Committee of the School of Physic to the Board of Trinity College, by whom each case is decided on its merits, but the applicant must produce satisfactory reasons for omission of all the Lectures missed, not of the excess above one-fourth only. No Student will be allowed credit for a Course who has not been found diligent in his attendance, when not prevented by illness or other cause considered sufficient by the Board.

PRACTICAL PHARMACY.

A Course of Demonstrations in Practical Pharmacy is given by the Professor of Materia Medica in the Museum of Materia Medica during the Summer Session. Each Student works at a separate compartment, and is provided with the necessary Apparatus and Re-agents. The Course is open to Extern Students.

RÖNTGEN PHOTOGRAPHY.

A Course of Instruction in the principles and practice of Röntgen Photography is given by the University Demonstrator during the Summer Session.

DENTAL STUDENTS.

Special facilities are provided in the School for Dental Students.

DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS IN MIDWIFERY, SURGERY, AND MEDICINE.

The Degrees and Diplomas in Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery, granted by the University are as follow:—

The Degrees are:—

1. Bachelor in Medicine.
2. Bachelor in Surgery.
3. Bachelor in Obstetric Science.
4. Doctor in Medicine.
5. Master in Surgery.
6. Master in Obstetric Science.

The Diplomas are:—

1. Diploma in Public Health.*
2. Diploma in Medicine.
3. Diploma in Surgery.
4. Diploma in Obstetric Science.

---

* Formerly Qualification in State Medicine.

REGULATIONS FOR STUDENTS WHO MATRICULATED SINCE 1891.

The following conditions must be fulfilled in order to qualify for the Degrees in Medicine (M.B.), Surgery (B.Ch.), and Midwifery (B.A.O.):—

I. The Student must be of B.A. standing, and his name must be for at least five (Academic) years on the Books of the Medical School, reckoned from the date of his Matriculation. He may carry on his Arts Course concurrently with his Medical Course, and he need not have taken his B.A. before presenting himself for his Final Medical Examination, but he cannot have the Medical Degrees conferred without the Arts Degree.

II. The following Courses must have been attended:—

[Note.—The Courses marked thus (*) must have been taken out before the Student can present himself for any part of the Final Examination. In addition, the Courses marked thus (†) must have been taken out before he can present himself for Section B; the Courses marked thus (‡) before he can present himself for Section C; and the Courses marked thus (§) before he can present himself for Sections D and E.]

1. LECTURES.

WINTER COURSES.

Systematic Anatomy.
Practical Anatomy (with Dissections), 1st year.
Practical Anatomy (with Dissections), 2nd year.
Applied Anatomy (with Dissections).
Chemistry.

Botany.
Zoology.
Materia Medica and Therapeutics.
†Medical Jurisprudence & Hygiene.
§Operative Surgery.

TERM COURSES.

* Physics.—Michaelmas, Hilary, and Trinity Terms.

§2. HOSPITAL ATTENDANCE.

1. Three Courses of nine months' attendance on the Clinical Lectures of Sir Patrick Dun's or other Metropolitan Hospital recognized by the Board of Trinity College. (See p. 208 for list of recognized Hospitals.)

Students who shall have diligently attended the practice of a recognized London or Edinburgh Hospital for one year, of a recognized County Infirmary, or of a recognized Colonial Hospital for two years previous to the commencement of their Metropolitan Medical Studies, may be allowed, on special application to the Board of Trinity College, to count the period so spent as equivalent to one year spent in a recognized Metropolitan Hospital.

§3. PRACTICAL VACCINATION.

One month's instruction in Practical Vaccination to be attended at the Vaccine Department Local Government Board for Ireland, 45, Upper Sackville-street; at No. 1 East Dispensary, 11, Emerald-street; or, until further notice, at the Grand Canal-street Dispensary.

§4. MENTAL DISEASE.

A Certificate of attendance on a three months' Course of Practical Study of Mental Disease in a recognized Institution. (See p. 208 for list of recognized Institutions.)

‡5. PRACTICAL MIDWIFERY.

A Certificate of attendance on a six months' course of Practical Midwifery with Clinical Lectures, including not less than thirty cases. (See p. 208 for list of recognized Hospitals.)

§6. OPHTHALMIC SURGERY.

A Certificate of attendance on a three months' Course of Ophthalmic Surgery. (See p. 208 for list of recognized Hospitals.)

III. The following Examinations must be passed:—

The Previous Medical or Half M.B. Examination.
The Final Examination.

The Previous Medical Examination must be passed in all its parts before any part of the Final can be entered for, except in the case of Candidates for Diplomas.

A.—PREVIOUS MEDICAL EXAMINATION.

This Examination is divided into—

1. Physics and Chemistry.
2. Botany and Zoology.
3. Anatomy and Institutes of Medicine (Practical Histology and Physiology).

The Examination in Anatomy includes Examination on the dead subject.

Before presenting himself for Examination in any of the subjects the Student must have obtained credit for the corresponding Courses of Lectures and Practical Instruction.

It is not necessary that the Student should pass in all these subjects at the same Examination; he is allowed to present himself for Examination in as many, or as few of them, as he pleases.

A Candidate rejected at the May Examination will not be allowed to present himself for Examination in the same subjects at the June Examination.

Candidates who fail in any part of the Examination are liable to be excluded from further Examination in the same subjects, for a period not exceeding six months, if, in the opinion of the Examiners, they have given evidence of careless preparation.

Any Student who has obtained a Moderatorship in Natural Science, or a First Honor in Natural Science in both his Junior and Senior Sophister years, and has credit for attendance at not less than thirty Lectures in Botany and Zoology in his Sophister years, may present himself at the Previous Medical Examination in these subjects.

Examinations will be held on Nov. 13, Jan. 29, May 21, June 21, June 25, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 6 and 10, Jan. 22 and 26, May 14 and 18, June 14 and 19, June 18 and 22, respectively.

No Candidate will be allowed in for any Examination unless he has given notice within the days specified.

The Final Examination is arranged as follows :—

FIRST PART.

SECTION A.

Applied Anatomy (Medical and Surgical); paper.
Applied Physiology, viva voce.
Materia Medica and Therapeutics ; paper and viva voce.

Examinations for Section A will be held on Nov. 20, Feb. 5, May 28, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 13 and 17, Jan. 31 and Feb. 2, May 21 and 25, respectively.

SECTION B.

Medical Jurisprudence and Hygiene; paper and viva voce.
Medicine ; paper and viva voce.
Surgery ; paper and viva voce.
Pathology ; paper and viva voce.

Examinations for Section B will be held on Nov. 27, Feb. 12, June 25, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 20 and 24, Feb. 5 and 9, June 18 and 22, respectively.

Section A may be passed in any part of the Fourth Year, provided the corresponding Curriculum shall have been completed ; Section B not before Trinity Term of the Fourth Year.

Section A must be passed before the Candidate can present himself for Examination in Section B. Both Sections must be passed at least one Term before the Candidate can present himself for Examination in Sections C, D, or E.

Fee for the Liceat ad Examinandum £5, to be paid when the Candidate enters for Section A.

No Candidate will be allowed in for any Examination unless he has given notice within the days specified.

SECOND PART.

SECTION C.

Midwifery; paper and viva voce.
Gynæcology; paper and viva voce.
Obstetrical Anatomy; paper.

Examinations for Section C will be held on Nov. 20, Feb. 5, May 28, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 13 and 17, Jan. 31 and Feb. 2, May 21 and 25, respectively.

SECTION D.

Clinical Medicine.
Mental Disease.

Examinations for Section D will be held on Nov. 27, Feb. 12, June 5, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 20 and 24, Feb. 5 and 9, May 28 and June 1, respectively.

SECTION E.

Clinical Surgery.
Operations.
Ophthalmic Surgery.

Examinations for Section E will be held on Dec. 4, Feb. 19, June 11, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 27 and Dec. 1, Feb. 12 and 16, June 4 and 8, respectively.

One Section of the Second Part must be passed in Trinity Term of the Fifth Year, or subsequently. The other two may be passed in any Term of the Fifth Year, provided the corresponding Curriculum shall have been completed. Subject to this provision the Sections may be taken in any order.

Fee for the Liceat ad Examinandum £5, to be paid when the Candidate enters for the Section for which he first presents himself.

The Candidate must also produce Certificates of attendance at the Hospitals where the Courses prescribed for each Section are to be taken out.

No Candidate will be allowed in for any Examination unless he has given notice within the days specified.

UNIVERSITY DIPLOMAS.

Candidates for the Diplomas in Medicine, Surgery, and Obstetric Science, must be matriculated in Medicine, and must have completed two years in Arts, and five years in Medical Studies.

The dates, regulations, and subjects of Examination are the same as for the Final Examination, except that it is not necessary to attend the Courses of Lectures in Botany and Zoology, nor to pass the Previous Medical Examination in these subjects.

A Diplomate on completing his Course in Arts, and proceeding to the Degree of B. A., may become a Bachelor, by attending the Lectures on Botany and Zoology, passing the Previous Medical Examination in those subjects, and paying the Degree Fees.

The Liceat fees are the same as for the Finals.

Each Candidate who has completed the prescribed Courses of study and passed all the Examinations, will be entitled, if a Graduate in Arts, to have conferred on him the Degrees of M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O., on payment to the Senior Proctor of the Degree Fees amounting to £17. A corresponding regulation applies to the Diplomas, the Fees for which are £11. He will also obtain from the Senior Proctor a Diploma entitling him to be entered on the Register of Medical Practitioners under the Medical Act, 1886.

REGULATIONS FOR STUDENTS WHO MATRICULATED ON OR BEFORE 25th NOVEMBER, 1891.

The following conditions must be fulfilled in order to qualify for the Degrees in Midwifery (B.A.O.), Surgery (B.Ch.), and Medicine (M.B.):—

I. The Student must be of B.A. standing, and his name must be for at least four (Academic) years on the Books of the Medical School, reckoned from the date of his Matriculation. He may carry on his Arts Course concurrently with the Medical Course, and he need not have taken his B.A. before presenting himself for his Medical Degrees Examinations, but he cannot have the Medical Degrees conferred without the Arts Degree.

II. The following Courses must have been attended:—

[NOTE.—The Courses marked thus (*) must have been taken out before the Student can present himself for any of the Degree Examinations. In addition, the Courses marked thus (†) must have been taken out before he can present himself for B.A.O., and the Courses marked thus (‡) before he can present himself for B.Ch.]

*4. FEVER CASES.

A Certificate of personal attendance on not less than five cases of Fever, with names and dates of the cases.

†5. PRACTICAL MIDWIFERY.

A Certificate of attendance on a six months' Course of Practical Midwifery with Clinical Lectures, including not less than thirty cases. (See p. 208 for list of recognized Hospitals).

‡6. OPHTHALMIC SURGERY.

A Certificate of attendance on a three months' Course of Ophthalmic Surgery. (See p. 208 for list of recognized Hospitals.)

III. The following Examinations must be passed:—

A.—The Previous Medical or Half M.B. Examination.
B.—The Degree Examinations.

The Regulations and Dates for the Previous Medical Examination are the same as those specified on pp. 186, 187.

B.—DEGREE EXAMINATIONS.

There are three Degree Examinations, the B.A.O., the B.Ch., and the M.B. These may be taken in any order, provided that the requisite conditions (see pp. 189–191) have been fulfilled, and the Previous Medical Examination passed in all subjects.

1.—Bachelor in Obstetric Science (B.A.O.)

The Candidate must lodge with the Registrar of the School of Physic his Certificate of attendance on Practical Midwifery. He must also produce his Certificates of attendance on Hospital, Fever, and Vaccination, unless these have been already produced.

The Candidate is then required to pass an Examination in the following subjects:—

Practice of Midwifery.
Gynæcology.
Obstetrical Anatomy.

Fee for the Degree of Bachelor in Obstetric Science, £1. There is no Liceat Fee.

Examinations will be held on Nov. 20, Feb. 5, May 28, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 13 and 17, Jan. 31, and Feb. 2, May 21 and 25, respectively.

No Candidate will be allowed in for any Examination unless he has given notice within the days specified.

2.—Bachelor in Medicine (M.B.).

The Candidate must lodge with the Registrar of the School of Physic his Liceat Fee, together with Certificates of Attendance on Hospital, Vaccination, and Fever, unless these have been already produced.

The Candidate is then required to pass an Examination in the following subjects:—

Clinical Medicine.
Practice of Medicine.
Therapeutics.
Pathology.
Medical Anatomy.
Medical Jurisprudence and Hygiene.

Fee for the Liceat ad Examinandum, £5.
Fee for the Degree of Bachelor in Medicine, £11.

Examinations will be held on Nov. 27, Feb. 12, June 5, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 20 and 24, Feb. 5 and 9, May 28 and June 1, respectively.

Graduates in Arts of Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge, whose names have been in the Medical Register for five years or upwards are exempted from the Previous Medical Examination and from the written part of the M.B. Examination.

No Candidate will be allowed in for any Examination unless he has given notice within the days specified.

3.—Bachelor in Surgery (B.Ch.).

The Candidate must lodge with the Registrar of the School of Physic his Liceat Fee, and his Certificate of Attendance on a Course of Ophthalmic Surgery.

He must also produce his Certificates of attendance on Hospital, Fever, and Vaccination, unless these have been already produced.

The Candidate is then required to pass an Examination in the following subjects:—

1. Clinical Surgery.
2. Operative Surgery (on the dead subject).
3. Surgery.
4. Surgical Pathology.
5. Surgical Anatomy.
6. Ophthalmic Surgery.

Fee for the Liceat ad Examinandum, £5.
Fee for the Degree of Bachelor in Surgery, £5.

Examinations will be held on Dec. 4, Feb. 19, June 11, and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic between Nov. 27 and Dec. 1, Feb. 12 and 16, June 4 and 8, respectively.

No Candidate will be allowed in for any Examination unless he has given notice within the days specified.

UNIVERSITY DIPLOMAS.

Candidates for the Diplomas in Obstetric Science, Surgery, and Medicine, must be matriculated in Medicine, and must have completed two years in Arts, and four years in Medical Studies.

The dates, regulations and subjects of Examination are the same as for the Degrees, except that it is not necessary to attend the Courses of Lectures in Botany and Zoology, nor to pass the Previous Medical Examination in these subjects.

A Diplomate on completing his Course in Arts, and proceeding to the Degree of B.A., may become a Bachelor, by attending the Lectures on Botany and Zoology, passing the Previous Medical Examination in these subjects, and paying the Degree Fees.

The Liceat fees are the same as for the Degrees. The fees for the Diplomas are—Obstetric Science £1, Surgery £5, Medicine £5.

N.B.—Each Candidate having completed the prescribed Courses of study, passed the requisite qualifying Examinations in Midwifery, Surgery, and Medicine, and had conferred on him the corresponding Degrees or Diplomas, will obtain from the Senior Proctor a Diploma entitling him to be entered on the Register of Medical Practitioners under the Medical Act, 1886.

The following Degrees are also granted by the University:—

1.—Master in Obstetric Science.

A Master in Obstetric Science must have passed the M.B. and B.Ch. Examinations, and produce a Certificate of having attended a Summer Course in Obstetric Medicine and Surgery.[a]

He is then required to pass an Examination in the following subjects:—

1. Practice of Midwifery.
2. Gynæcology.
3. Anatomy of Female Pelvis and Elementary Embryology.
4. Clinical Gynæcology.

Fee for the Degree of Master in Obstetric Science, £5.

Notice should be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic a month before the first day of the Examination. The dates are the same as those for the B.A.O.

2.—Master in Surgery.

A Master in Surgery must be a Bachelor in Surgery of the University of Dublin, of not less than three years' standing, and must produce satisfactory evidence of having been engaged for not less than two years from the date of his Registration in the study or practice of his profession. He must then pass an Examination in the following subjects:—

1. Clinical Surgery.
2. Operative Surgery.
3. Surgical Pathology.
4. Surgery.
5. Surgical Anatomy (on the dead subject).

And one of the following optional subjects, viz.:—

1. Surgery, in one of its recognized branches, viz.:
   Ophthalmic and Aural; Gynæcological; Dental.
2. Mental Disease.
3. Medical Jurisprudence and Hygiene.
4. Advanced Anatomy and Physiology.
5. Comparative Anatomy.

Graduates in Surgery of the University of Dublin, of not less than ten years' standing, may be recommended for the Degree of M. Ch., by the vote of the Court of Examiners, on such Examination as they shall determine. Candidates claiming this privilege must give one month's notice to the Registrar of the School, state in full their qualifications, and name the optional subject selected.

---

[a] Existing Graduates in Medicine of the standing of M. D. are not required to attend this Course.

Fee for the Degree of Master in Surgery, £11.

Notice should be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic a month before the Examination begins, the optional subject selected being named at the same time. The dates are the same as those for the B. Ch.

3.—Doctor in Medicine.

A Doctor in Medicine must be a Bachelor in Medicine of three years' standing, or have been qualified to take the Degree of Bachelor in Medicine for three years. He must also read a Thesis publicly before the Regius Professor of Physic, or must undergo an Examination before the Regius Professor of Physic, according to Regulations to be approved by the Provost and Senior Fellows. The Regius Professor as a rule appoints 12 o'clock on the day before Commencements for hearing Theses.

Commencements will be held on Dec. 18, Feb. 27, April 21, June 28.

Fee for the Degree of Doctor in Medicine, £13.

DIPLOMA IN PUBLIC HEALTH.

This Diploma is conferred, after examination, by the University of Dublin, upon Candidates fulfilling the following conditions:—

1. The Candidate must be a Doctor in Medicine, or Graduate in Medicine and Surgery, of Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge.

2. The name of the Candidate must have been on the Medical Register at least twelve months before the Examination.

3.[a] The Candidate must have completed, subsequent to Registration, six months in a Laboratory, recognized by the Provost and Senior Fellows, in practical instruction in Chemistry and Bacteriology applied to Public Health, and also have attended, practically, outdoor Sanitary work for six months, under an approved Officer of Health.

The Examination to be passed by the Candidate is prescribed as follows:—

EXAMINATION FOR DIPLOMA IN STATE MEDICINE.

STATE MEDICINE AND HYGIENE.—Examination by Paper. Time 2 hours.
Causation and prevention of Disease. Contagion in different Diseases; incubation period in each. Morbid Diatheses. Congenital

[a] This condition does not apply to Practitioners registered or entitled to be registered, on or before 1st January, 1890.

Diseases and Malformations. Diseases of Animals in relation to the Health of Man. Diseases of the Vegetable Kingdom. Failure of Crops in relation to the Health of Man. Famine Diseases. Injurious effects of unsuitable Food, bad Air, unwholesome Dwellings, unhealthy Trades. Causes of Origin and Spread of Epidemics. Effects of Climate on Health. Principles of Bacteriology. Character and Life-History of the more important Pathogenic Micro-organisms. Quarantine; Disinfection, &c.

CHEMISTRY.—Examination by Paper, and in Laboratory. Time 1½ hour each.

Air, Water, and Articles of Food and Drink, including their Chemical and Microscopical Examination and Analysis. Chemico-geological considerations affecting Water Supply. The Processes of Respiration and Combustion. Disinfectants and allied materials used for Deodorizing and the Treatment of Sewage. The Detection of Common Poisons and Recognition of Injurious Pigments.

PHYSICS AND METEOROLOGY.—Examination viva voce.

Thoory, Use, and Exposure of Meteorological Instruments; Measurement of Air Pressure; Draughts.

ENGINEERING.—Examination by Paper. Time 1½ hour.

Water Supply; Appliances for the Purification and Distribution of Water. House Drainage; Drains and Sewers; Ventilation and Flushing; Connexions, Traps, and Tests; Apparatus connected with the construction, fitting, and use of Water Closets; Disposal of Sewage. Ventilation and Heating.

SANITARY ENGINEERING.—Practical Examination.

MORBID ANATOMY.—Examination viva voce.

Examination based on the method of conducting Post-mortem Examinations, and the recognition of characteristic Pathological specimens.

PRACTICAL BACTERIOLOGY.

EPIDEMIOLOGY AND WORK AND DUTIES OF A PUBLIC OFFICER OF HEALTH.

VITAL STATISTICS.—Examination by Paper. Time 1½ hour.

Statistics of Births and Deaths; Birth rates and Death rates; their relation to Age, Sex, Occupation, and Density of Population; their value as measures of the Health of Communities. Population; causes of Increase and Decrease of Population; Estimates, of Population, and their relation to Births, Deaths, and Migration. Construction of Tables of Vital Statistics.

MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE.—Examination viva voce.

Personal Identity; Age, Sex. Medico-legal relations of Pregnancy and Parturition. Signs of Death; Wounds and other Injuries; detection of Blood. The various modes of Violent Death. The Commoner Poisons (not including their detection by Chemical Analysis).

LAW.—Examination by Paper. Time 1½ hour.

Edmund Powell—Principles and Practice of Law of Evidence; Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878.

Candidates are required to send in their names to the Registrar of the School of Physic at least a week before the first day of Examination.

Candidates who have registered since 1st January, 1890, are required to apply to the Board of Trinity College for leave to present themselves a month before the Examination begins, and to submit at the same time Certificates of the required Courses of Study.

The Examination is held annually in the month of December.

There is no fee.

The Examination for 1899 will begin on 11th December.

PRIVILEGES AND PRIZES ATTACHED TO THE SCHOOL OF PHYSIC.

PRIVILEGES OF MATRICULATED STUDENTS.

Medical Students, being Junior or Senior Sophisters on the College Books, and in attendance on Hospital, Dissections, or full Courses of Professional Instruction, are exempted from the optional Courses of the Junior Sophister year, and from three of the four optional Courses (Mathematical Physics, Languages, Experimental Science, Natural Science) of the Senior Sophister year. To obtain this privilege, it is necessary that the Student be matriculated in Medicine, and that the proper Certificates of his attendance on the necessary Courses be submitted by him, through the Registrar of the School of Physic, to the Senior Lecturer. In order to obtain Professional Privileges in respect of Hospital Attendance, it is necessary that the Returns from the Hospitals be lodged with the Registrar of the School of Physic on or before 1st December.

At the Degree Examination, no Student can claim this privilege unless he has credit for full Professional attendance for the actual year preceding the Michaelmas Term of his Senior Sophister year.

Junior Freshmen who, as Medical Students, desire to substitute a Professional Course for Languages after the Junior Freshman year, shall be required to keep two Examinations in that year, one of which shall be the Michaelmas Examination.

Such Students must give notice to the Senior Lecturer of their intention of presenting themselves at the Michaelmas Examination.

At this Examination easy Greek and Latin passages will be set for translation into English, with grammatical questions; and easy English sentences for translation into Latin; with an elementary Paper on Greek and Roman History and Geography.

The use of Greek and Latin Dictionaries in the Hall will be permitted to these Candidates.

Candidates obtaining an average of 40 per cent. in these subjects will be allowed to substitute one or other of the three following Courses for Languages in the Senior Freshman, Junior Sophister, and Senior Sophister years—

LECTURES:— [A.]

Winter, . . .	Physics and Chemistry.
Summer, . . .	Chemistry.

EXAMINATION:—

Previous Medical Examination in Physics and Chemistry at close of year.

LECTURES:— [B.]

Winter, .	Anatomy.
Summer, .	Botany and Zoology.

EXAMINATIONS:—

Previous Medical Examination in Botany and Zoology at close of year, and Class Examinations in Anatomy and Histology.

LECTURES:— [C.]

Winter, . . .	Advanced Anatomy and Physiology.
Summer, . . .

EXAMINATION:—

Previous Medical Examination in Anatomy and Institutes of Medicine (Practical Histology and Physiology).

Students in Arts are entitled to attend a Course of Lectures in Surgery, in Botany, and in Zoology at a reduction of one-half, and in Chemistry at a reduction of one-third, of the usual Fees. They are also entitled to a Course of Experimental Physics free.

Sophister Students and Graduates in Arts are entitled to attend a Course of Pathology at a reduction of one-half of the usual Fees.

PRIZES.

The following Prizes, obtainable either during, or at the completion of, the preceding Courses of Education, are open to the Students of the School of Physic.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL TRAVELLING PRIZES.

A Prize of £100 is awarded by the Board, in alternate years, to the best answerer at a special Examination in Medicine or in Surgery, provided that the merit be deemed sufficient. The successful Candidate is required to spend three months in the study of Medicine or Surgery, as the case may be, in Berlin, Paris, or Vienna. Before he can obtain the first instalment of £50, he must satisfy the Senior Lecturer that he possesses sufficient knowledge of a Continental Language to derive full benefit from the Prize. The Examination is held in June, and is open to Students who have passed the Degree Examination in Medicine or in Surgery, as the case may be, within two years of the Examination.

In order to obtain the second sum of £50 the Prizeman must have furnished to the Regius Professor his formal Report on the Hospitals attended by him, within two years from the time of obtaining the Prize.

The subjects of the Medical Travelling Prize Examination are Clinical Medicine, Practice of Medicine, Therapeutics, Pathology, Obstetric Medicine, and Toxicology.

The subjects of the Surgical Travelling Prize Examination are Clinical Surgery, Operative Surgery, Pathology, Surgical Anatomy, and Ophthalmic Surgery.

In accordance with the above conditions, an Examination in Surgery will be held on 18th June, 1900, and following days, at which a Surgical Travelling Prize, of the value of £100, will be competed for.

A similar Travelling Prize in Medicine will be competed for in June, 1901.

Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic a week before the first day of Examination.

Any Student who has passed the B.Ch. Examination in or after Trinity Term, 1898, may offer himself as a Candidate for this Prize.

MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIPS.

Two Medical Scholarships[a] are offered annually, tenable for two years, with a Salary of £20 per annum, one being for Anatomy and Institutes of Medicine, the other for Chemistry, Physics, Botany, and Zoology.

The following Regulations have been adopted:—

(1). No Student can compete for the Scholarship in Anatomy and Institutes of Medicine after the completion of his third year; nor for that in Chemistry, Physics, Botany, and Zoology, after the completion of his second year.

Students who enter the Medical School in a Summer Session will be allowed to compete for Scholarship in Anatomy and Institutes of Medicine at the end of their Fourth Summer Session, provided that they have not taken out a Course of Practical Anatomy or Histology in their first Summer Session.

(2). No Student can hold both Scholarships together.

(3). Sixty per cent. of the marks at the Examination for the Scholarship in Chemistry, Physics, Botany, and Zoology, are allowed to the two former, and the remaining forty per cent. to the two latter subjects.

The best answerers at the Examination are elected to these Scholarships, provided that they are in the Senior Freshman or some higher Class, that they have their names on the College Books, that they have kept one Annus Medicus in the School of Physic, and that their answering is of a high order.

The Stewart Scholarship is open to Students in their First or Second Year of Medical Study but of any standing in Arts. No

[a] These Scholarships were founded in 1860.

Student is allowed to compete a second time for Stewart Scholarship in the same subjects.

Graduates in Arts otherwise qualified may be Candidates for Medical Scholarships without having their names on the College Books.

Candidates for the Scholarship in Chemistry, Physics, Botany, and Zoology, are recommended to attend the Demonstrations of the Professors of Botany and Zoology during Michaelmas, Hilary, and Trinity Terms.

An Examination for Scholarship in Chemistry, Physics, Botany, and Zoology will be held on June 21 and following days, and for Scholarship in Anatomy and Institutes of Medicine, on June 25 and following days. Notice must be given to the Registrar of the School of Physic a week before each Examination begins.

By a Resolution of the Board (Dec. 21, 1894), Candidates for Medical Scholarship will be allowed to substitute attendance on the Lectures and Demonstrations in Zoology and Comparative Anatomy given in Michaelmas, Hilary, and Trinity Terms for attendance on the Lectures in Zoology given during the Summer Session.

CERTIFICATES OF ANATOMY.

Sessional Examinations in Anatomy are held, at which Honor Certificates are awarded to those Candidates who show sufficient Merit.

PROFESSORS' PRIZES.

The Professor of Anatomy gives Prizes in the Winter Session amounting to £10.

The Professor of Chemistry gives Prizes in the Course amounting to £5.

The Professor of Practice of Medicine gives Prizes in the Winter Course amounting to £5.

The Professor of Materia Medica gives Prizes in the Summer Course amounting to £5.

The Lecturer on Medical Jurisprudence gives Prizes in the Summer Course amounting to £5.

All the Professorial awards are open to Extern as well as College Students.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE.

The Registrar of the School of Physic attends in his Office in the School of Physic during the Medical year as follows:—From 1st October to 25th November, from 11 A.M. to 2.30 P.M. daily; during the remainder of the Medical year, from 1 to 2. P.M. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and from 11 A.M. to 12 noon on Saturdays. The Office is closed during the Christmas and Easter Vacations, and for the Summer Vacation about 15th July. No Certificates or Schedules can be issued or signed during the Vacations.

ORDER OF STUDY RECOMMENDED.[a]

The following order of Study, subsequent to Matriculation (see supra), is recommended by the Board and Council:—

FIRST YEAR.

Winter.

	£	s.	d.
1. Practical Anatomy,	8	8	0
2. Systematic Anatomy,	3	3	0
3. Chemistry,	2	2	0
4. Physics, Michaelmas and Hilary Terms,	0	0	0

Summer.

	£	s.	d.
5. Practical Chemistry,	3	3	0
6. Physics, Trinity Term,	0	0	0
7. Histology,	5	5	0

Students who enter in the Winter Session are recommended to present themselves for the Previous Medical Examination in Physics and Chemistry, at the end of their first year.

Students who enter in the Summer Session are recommended to take out Lectures and pass the Previous Medical Examination in Botany and Zoology at the end of their First Summer Session.

SECOND YEAR.

Winter.

	£	s.	d.
1. Practical Anatomy,	8	8	0
2. Physiology (1st Course),	3	3	0
3. Sir P. Dun's, or other recognized Clinical Hospital,[b]	12	12	0

Summer.

	£	s.	d.
4. Botany,	1	11	6
5. Zoology,	1	11	6
	£27	6	0

Students are recommended to present themselves for the Previous Medical Examination in Botany and Zoology at the end of their second year.

---

[a] In the Table of Fees here given the Reductions previously specified have already been made.

[b] This Fee covers nine months' Clinical Instruction and twelve months' attendance at the Hospital.

THIRD YEAR.

	£	s.	d.
Winter.
1. Applied Anatomy and Dissections,	8	8	0
2. Physiology (2nd Course),	3	3	0
3. Practice of Medicine,	3	3	0

PART II.

SIR PATRICK DUN'S HOSPITAL.

Consulting Physician.—James Little, M.D., Regius Professor of Physic in the University of Dublin.

Physicians.— John Mallet Purser, D. Sc., M. D., King's Professor of Institutes of Medicine.
Walter George Smith, M. D., King's Professor of Materia Medica and Pharmacy.
John Magee Finny, M. D., King's Professor of Practice of Medicine.
Arthur Vernon Macan, M. B., M. A. O., King's Professor of Midwifery.

Assistant Physician.—Henry C. Drury, M.D., Demonstrator of Anatomy.

Surgeons.—Edward H. Bennett, M. D., M.Ch., Professor of Surgery in Trinity College.
Charles B. Ball, M.D., M. Ch., Regius Professor of Surgery.
Edward H. Taylor, M.D., University Examiner in Anatomy.

Assistant Surgeon.—William S. Haughton, M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O., Demonstrator of Anatomy.

The Physician on duty will visit the Wards, with his Class, at 9 A. M., on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

The Surgeon on duty will visit the Wards, with his Class, at 9 A. M., on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

The Hospital Dispensary, which affords ample opportunities for the practice of minor Surgical operations, and for learning the art of general prescribing, is open for Patients from 9 o'Clock to 11 o'Clock daily (except Sundays).

Hospital Attendance and Clinical Lectures.

The payment of Twelve Guineas entitles a Student to the benefits of Hospital attendance and Clinical teaching for the Winter and Summer Sessions, commencing October 1st.

Fee for Winter Session only.—EIGHT GUINEAS.

Fee for Summer Session only.—FIVE GUINEAS.

N.B.—The Fees will be received by Dr. Taylor (Hon. Sec.), or by the Registrar of the School of Physic in Trinity College.

SIR PATRICK DUN'S MATERNITY.

Practical Midwifery.

Students desirous of entering for Twelve months' Instruction in Practical Midwifery are required to pay a Maternity Fee of Three Guineas each to the Registrar of the Hospital, and to send in their names to the Board of Governors, before the 1st January in each year.

Students of Trinity College are not liable to any other payment for Instruction in Practical Midwifery.

Other Students are required to pay Three Guineas each to the King's Professor, for Twelve months' Practical Instruction, in addition to the Hospital Maternity Fee.

Students who have paid the Hospital Maternity Fee are entitled to attend the Demonstrations in Obstetric Surgery, given by the King's Professor, at 10 A. M. on Fridays.

Total Fees for College Students—THREE GUINEAS.

Total Fees for Externs—SIX GUINEAS.

The Certificates of Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital are recognized by the Royal University and the Royal Colleges of Surgeons of England, Ireland, and Scotland.

Clinical Medals.

A Clinical Medal in Medicine, and a Clinical Medal in Surgery, will be awarded by the Governors of the Hospital, each year.

The Examination will be as follows:—

(1) Written.—Candidates must refer to, and write a Commentary on, Medical and Surgical cases respectively, recorded by them, in the Hospital Records, while acting as Clinical Clerks, Dressers, or Resident Pupils

(2) Clinical.—Candidates will be examined in the methods of Clinical Observation by the Hospital Staff.

(3) Oral.—A Public Oral Examination will be conducted by the Staff on the Theory of Medicine and Surgery, respectively.

The Examination will be held in March, 1900.

A House Surgeon is elected annually in the month of December.

Resident Pupils.

Candidates for the office of Resident Pupil are requested to forward their applications to the Board of Governors, through Dr. Taylor, before the 1st May and 1st November.

Nurses' Training Institution.

Women are trained in the nursing of Medical, Surgical, and Fever patients in the wards of the Hospital, and after a full period of probation are sent to nurse private cases.

Applications for trained Nurses for private cases should be made to the Lady Superintendent at the Hospital.

Midwife Nurses.

Midwife Nurses are trained, in connexion with the Maternity of Sir P. Dun's Hospital, under the Superintendence of the King's Professor of Midwifery, on payment of a Fee of £5. The Course of Instruction lasts for six months, and furnished apartments, with fuel and gas, are provided by the Board of the Hospital for those who desire it. Each trained Midwife Nurse will receive a Diploma from the Governors of the Hospital, on her completion of Six Months' Practical Instruction.

SCHOOLS AND HOSPITALS RECOGNIZED BY THE BOARD OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

The following Schools, in addition to the School of Physic, are recognized by the Board of Trinity College:—

- The School of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.
- The School of the Catholic University.

The Returns of the names of Trinity College Students attending these Schools will not be accepted unless lodged with the Registrar of the School of Physic on or before 21st April for the Winter Session, and 21st July for the Summer Session.

The following Hospitals, in addition to Sir P. Dun's Hospital, are recognized by the Board of Trinity College:—

General Hospitals.

Adelaide Hospital.
City of Dublin Hospital.
Dr. Steevens' Hospital.
House of Industry Hospitals.
Jervis-street Infirmary.
Mater Misericordiæ Hospital.
Mercer's Hospital.
Meath Hospital.
St. Vincent's Hospital.

Ophthalmic Hospitals.

The National Eye and Ear Infirmary.
St. Mark's.

Midwifery Hospitals.

Sir P. Dun's Maternity.
Rotunda.
Coombe.
National Maternity.

Hospitals for Study of Mental Disease.

Richmond Lunatic Asylum.
Swift's.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING.

Introductory.

The School of Engineering in the University of Dublin was established in the year 1842 for the purpose of affording to such Students as intend becoming Civil Engineers systematic instruction in those branches of knowledge an intimate acquaintance with which is most useful to the Engineer in the practice of his profession.

While keeping this object in view, it has been deemed advisable to encourage the Student, during his Course in the School to be a member of Trinity College, and subject to its regular discipline, by giving him at the same time the opportunity of being able to avail himself of the advantages of a general University education.

Membership of Trinity College.

In order to become a member of the College, it is necessary to pass the College Entrance Examination (which may be done at any time of the year) in the following subjects:—

Arithmetic.
Algebra (the first four rules and fractions).
Geometry (Euclid, Books I. II. and III.).
English History and Composition, and Modern Geography.
Any two Greek[a] and two Latin authors of the Candidate's choice, and Latin Composition.

And if successful in passing this Examination, he must pay the Entrance Fee of £15.

Admission to the School of Engineering.

Having become a member of the College, the Student is eligible for admission to the School of Engineering, which is obtained by his passing a further Examination (in the subjects enumerated below), held annually at the beginning of Trinity and of Michaelmas Term, at which periods of the year only can a Student join.

---

[a] Students who are satisfied to obtain a Certificate from the Professors in the School that they have passed through it are permitted to substitute either French or German for Greek at this Examination, and must pass the Entrance Examination into the Engineering School at the same time. Such Students are not permitted to continue their Arts Course until they have qualified in Greek, and so cannot obtain either License or Degree in Engineering given by the University.

Subjects for Entrance Examination to Engineering School.

Arithmetic.
Algebra (to the end of Quadratic Equations).
Geometry (Euclid, first six Books).
Trigonometry (to the end of Solution of Plane Triangles).
Elementary Mechanics.

Upon passing this Examination the Candidate is admitted to the School, and begins his studies in Michaelmas Term.

Duration and Subjects of Professional Course.

The Professional Course continues for three years, from the time of entering the School, during which instruction is given partly by Lectures, and partly in Laboratories and in the Field, being arranged thus :—

FIRST YEAR (JUNIOR CLASS).

Mathematics.
Mechanics.
Experimental Physics.
Chemistry.
Drawing and Practical Geometry.

SECOND YEAR (MIDDLE CLASS).

Practical Mechanics.
Theory of the Steam Engine, and Applied Physics.
Chemistry—Analyses of Ores, Minerals, &c.
Elementary Geology.
Drawing, Designing, and Office Work.
Levelling, Surveying, and General Engineering.

THIRD YEAR (SENIOR CLASS).

Mineralogy, Geology, and Mining.
Drawing, Designing, and Office Work.
Levelling, Surveying, and General Engineering.

Examinations.

At the end of the Trinity Term, in each year, the Junior and Middle Classes are examined as to their proficiency in the subjects they have been lectured in previously ; and no Student can rise from a lower to a higher Class except he shall have first obtained credit for the necessary attendance at the Lectures delivered to his Class, and at Laboratory and Field Work and in the Drawing School, during each of the three Terms of the Academic Year then closing, and also have passed the Examination at the end of the Trinity Term above mentioned or a Supplemental Examination at the beginning of the following Michaelmas Term.

If from any cause a Student shall fail to pass the Examination of his Class in the Trinity Term, he will be allowed to present himself at a Supplemental Examination at the beginning of the following Michaelmas Term.

The regular Final (or Degree) Examination of the Senior Class is held in Michaelmas Term, and there is a corresponding Supplemental Examination (for those of the Class who do not pass in Michaelmas) at the beginning of the next Trinity Term. For fees payable by those who are not on the Books, see under "Replacement" in "College Charges."

Students are required to give notice to the Registrar of their intention to present themselves at any of these Examinations at least a week before the commencement of the Examination, and at the same time to send in their Drawings, &c., to the Professor of Engineering or his Assistant.

Attendance at Lectures, &c.

In order to obtain credit for attendance at Lectures, a Student must have attended at least three-fourths of the Lectures delivered to his Class by each Lecturer during each of the three Terms in the Academic Year.

To obtain credit for Office Work, &c., the following attendance in the Drawing School is necessary:—

Middle Class, at least 14 hours each week during Term
Senior Class, ,, 20 ,, ,, ,,

To obtain credit for Field Work, the Student must attend during the entire time on at least three out of every four occasions when the Professor of Engineering or his Assistant takes the Class out for practical instruction in the Field.

And he must further make and plot as many Surveys and Sections as the Professor of Engineering may consider it desirable to require of him, in order to insure his proficiency in these branches. The time thus occupied will be credited to the Student as if spent in the Drawing School.

The hours spent at Arts Lectures or Laboratory Work count as half that number of hours' attendance in the Drawing School. Notice must, however, be given to the Assistant to the Professor of Engineering during the first week of such attendance.

Twenty hours' attendance is sufficient for the fortnight within which a Student has to pass an Arts Examination, and a similar notice to that mentioned in the preceding paragraph must be given in order to obtain this remission.

The attendance of the Middle Class in the Drawing School during Trinity Term is not compulsory for the last fortnight before the annual Examination of this Class.

Certificate in Engineering.

Upon concluding the Senior Year of his Course, and obtaining credit for the required attendance at Lectures, and at Field and Office Work, the Student, after passing the final Examination, will be entitled to receive the Certificate in Engineering granted by the Professors of the Engineering School.

License in Engineering.

A Student who has not only completed his Course in the Engineering School, but has also completed the first two years of the Course in Arts, and passed the Michaelmas Examination of his Senior Freshman Year ("Littlego"), will be entitled to receive the License in Engineering granted by the University.

Degree of Bachelor in Engineering.

A Student who has not only completed his Course in the Engineering School, but also graduated in Arts, will be entitled to proceed to the Degree of Bachelor in Engineering.

Degree of Master in Engineering.

A Bachelor in Engineering, who has been actually engaged upon Engineering Works for a period of three years, is entitled to proceed to the Degree of Master in Engineering.

Honors in the Engineering School.

Honors are awarded at the Degree Examination, and Special Certificates given, for superior merit in each of the following subjects:—

1. Practical Engineering.
2. Mechanical and Experimental Physics.
3. Mining, Chemistry, Geology, and Mineralogy.

In the first, Honors are awarded on the result of the Degree Examination. In the second, on the combined results of Examinations in the subjects at the close of the Junior and Middle Years. And in the third, on the combined results of Examinations in Chemistry at the close of the Junior and Middle Years; in Elementary Geology at the end of the Middle Year; and in Mineralogy, Geology, and Mining at the Degree Examination.

No private Certificate can be issued by any Professor or Lecturer connected with the School.

Scale of Fees and Charges.

COLLEGE FEES.

Entrance Fee to College (which must be paid at latest within twelve days after the Entrance Examination is passed), ... £15 0 0

Half-yearly Fee for keeping name on College Books, payable before the first Saturday in May and the first Saturday in November, ... £8 8 0

ENGINEERING SCHOOL FEES.

In addition to the foregoing College Fees for Entrance to College and keeping name on Books, the Student will have to make the following annual payments:—

In the Junior Class, ...	£10 0 0
,, Middle ,, ...	£15 0 0
,, Senior ,, ...	£15 0 0

These latter annual payments in the Engineering School must be made to the Junior Bursar before Nov. 20 in each year, and the names of all Students whose Fees shall not have been paid at that date shall be removed from the rolls of the several Lecturers.

Students in Engineering requiring to use the Drawing School only, may do so on payment of £5 for the half year in which they use it.

The Fee for the License in Engineering or for the Degree of Bachelor in Engineering is £1.

The Fee for the Degree of Master in Engineering is £10.

A Fee of 10*s.* is payable on taking out the Testimonium of the Degree of Master in Engineering.

All the Fees are payable to the Junior Bursar, except those for Degrees in Engineering, which are payable to the Senior Proctor.

A Student in the Engineering School may, should he so desire, pursue his Course in Arts at the same time, without having to pay any further Fees than those already specified.

Laboratories and Museums, &c.

Attached to the School there are large Laboratories, Museums, and a Model Room, containing numerous valuable models of Engineering Works and Machinery, which are of great assistance to the Students in pursuing their studies.

Syllabus of the Course.

The instruction given to the Students by the different Professors and Lecturers connected with the School is arranged as follows, subject to such modifications and alterations as the circumstances require:—

I.—MATHEMATICS.

The Lecturer in Mathematics delivers about 90 Lectures to the Students, during the first year of their Course, upon the following subjects:—

1. Plane Trigonometry, and the nature and use of Logarithms.
2. Differential Calculus.
3. Integral Calculus and Mensuration, &c.

---

[*] This fee need not be paid in May by Students completing their Senior year if they have already passed the B.A. Degree Examination.

II.—Mechanics, &c.

The Lectures and Demonstrations upon Mechanics and Mechanism, Hydrostatics, &c., extend over the first two years, and reach the number of about 120, the subjects treated of being—

In the Junior Year—

Theoretical Mechanics.

In the Middle Year—

Applied Mechanics, including Kinematics of Machines.

III.—Experimental Physics.

Erasmus Smith's Professor of Experimental Physics delivers about 52 Lectures to the Junior Class, and 24 to the Middle Class, on the subjects enumerated below :—

To the Junior Class.

1. Heat.
2. Electricity and Magnetism.
3. Sound and Light.

To the Middle Class.

1. The Theory of the Steam Engine.
2. Electrical Engineering.

In addition to these Lectures the Students are given Courses of Laboratory Instruction in Physical Measurements.

The Students can, at any period of their Course, take out special Courses of practical instruction in Physical Measurements.

The Physical Laboratory contains series, shunt, and alternating Dynamos driven by a 3½ H. P. gas engine, accumulators, transformer, and other requisites for instruction in Electrical Engineering.

IV.—Chemistry.

The Professor of Chemistry's Lectures and Demonstrations are the following :—

Junior Class.

Lectures.—On two days in each week during Michaelmas and Hilary Terms. On one other day, the Students conduct Experiments in one of the Laboratories, which relate, as far as possible, to the processes and materials concerned in the Arts of Construction.

Middle Class.

Laboratory Practice.—During four hours in each week, from November to March, inclusive. The Course of Instruction comprises the Qualitative and Quantitative Examination of Metallic Ores and Minerals, Metals, Cements, &c. In addition (during Hilary Term), Lectures are given on Metallurgical Processes, open to members of both Classes.

V.—Mineralogy, Geology, and Mining.

During Michaelmas Term about twenty Lectures on Mineralogy and Elementary Crystallography are delivered to the Students of the Senior Class by the Professor of Geology and Mineralogy.

In connexion with this Course, practical demonstrations are given on the physical characteristics of Minerals and Blowpipe Analysis.

The Students attend three Courses, in all about sixty Lectures, on Geology, the subject being distributed over the three Collegiate Terms as follows:—

Middle Class—

Michaelmas, Physical Geography and Geology.

Senior Class—

Hilary, Palæontology.
Trinity, Applied Geology and Mining.

At intervals, during the year, the Class accompanies the Professor to places of Geological interest in the neighbourhood of Dublin, for practical instruction in the Field.

Candidates for the final Examination are required to prepare an original Geological Section.

VI.—Engineering.

During his first year in the School, the Student is instructed in Drawing by the Assistant to the Professor of Engineering, who also delivers to the Class three Courses of Lectures, accompanied by Demonstrations (one Course each Term), making about 120 Lectures altogether on the following subjects:—

1. Use of Drawing Instruments, Scales, &c.
2. Practical Examples in Plane Geometry.
3. ,, ,, in Conic Sections.
4. Descriptive Geometry.
5. Shadows, &c.
6. Isometric Projection.

In the second and third years, Levelling and Surveying are taught practically in the Field by the Professor of Engineering and his Assistant; and the Student, when sufficiently expert, is required to perform these operations himself repeatedly and to plot his work on paper.

Regular attendance is also required in the Drawing School, where the object kept prominently in view is to make the Student an intelligent and efficient Draughtsman and perfectly familiar with the taking out of Quantities, the calculation of Strains on Bridges, Roofs, and other structures, and Office Work generally.

In addition to this, during the two years, about 230 Lectures are delivered by the Professor of Engineering as follows:—

To the Middle Class.

On four days of each week of each Term.

Surveying—Embracing Levelling and Surveying of all descriptions, with the nature, use, and adjustment of the instruments. Plotting plans and sections, and taking out quantities from plans. Construction of Earthwork tables. Simpson's Rules and Amslar's Integrator, and their application to areas, volumes, and the locating of centres of gravity.

Road and Railway Construction.—Route and preliminary survey, ruling gradients, equalizing earthworks, profile and side slopes. Formation and maintenance of plank and paved roads, of the Macadam and Telford road and Tramway. Setting out railway curves. Execution and drainage of earthworks and rock cuttings. Formation of the permanent way, points and crossings, over and under bridges, culverts, stations. The specification, and estimate, and standing orders of Parliament.

Descriptive Engineering.—The technical arrangement of plans and sections of Engineering Works, manner of finishing and marking dimensions, illustrated by the description in detail, of some work, e.g. a bridge. Foundations, piling, concrete, brick and metal cylinders and cofferdams. Tunnelling. Building construction, the preparation, preservation, and testing of the materials used in Masonry, Carpentry, and Metal trades.

Text Books.—Rankine's Civil Engineering; Barry's Railway appliances; Seddon's Builders' Work.

Books of Reference.—Gilespie's Road Making; Simms on Tunnelling; Donaldson's Specifications; Jackson's Surveying; Johnston's Surveying (American); Usil's Surveying.

To the Middle and Senior Classes.

On one day of each week of each Term.

A consecutive Course of descriptive Lectures on some of the subjects comprised under Hydraulic Engineering. Portions of standard works will be prescribed as reading.

On alternate years the subjects may be—Water Works and River Engineering, or Sanitary Engineering, Drainage, and Harbours.

Books of Reference.—Humber's Water Works; Latham's Sanitary Engineering; Stevenson's Canals and Rivers; Stevenson's Harbours. Also Harcourt's Works; Roorkee Experiments on the Ganges Canal. Crimp on Sewage Disposal Works.

To the Senior Class.

On four days of each week of each Term.

Engineering Science and some applications, e.g.

Earthworks.—Rankine's method of the ellipse of stress with Alexander's Kinematic Model, showing its application to the design of embankments, foundations, retaining walls, sea walls, sewers, tunnel roofs, inverts and side walls.

Strength, Elasticity, and Resilience of Materials.—Application of Graphic and Analytic Methods, bending moment and shearing force diagrams for fixed and moving load systems, illustrated by the Alexander and Thomson Moment Delineator: (Trans. Institute of Engineers, Scotland, 1889). The distribution of the internal direct and shearing stress for lineal, transverse, and compound states of strain. Lines of stress in beams, illustrated by a method of examining strained glass prisms on the polariscope, and drawing the lines with a mechanical pen as described by Peter Alexander, M.A. in the Transactions of the Philosophical Society of Glasgow. Scientific and commercial testing.

Frame Work Structures.—Their stability, strength, stiffness, and durability. Graphic Statics. Details, numerical calculation of the ties, struts, beams, stiffeners, stays, and fasteners. Fidler's systematic application of the Rankine-Gordon formula to the design of long struts. Levy's analyses of triangular trussing with three variables for the form, number of bays, and ratio of depth to span, Fink, Bollman, and other systems. Plate girders and distribution of rivets after Stoney.

Block Work Structures.—The rectangular buttress, piers, chimneys. The equilibrium of the masonry arch. Theoretical equilibrium curves for different loads. The design of the Elliptic Arch by Rankine's approximations from the linear 'Hydrostatic,' 'Geostatic,' and 'Stereostatic' arches. Fuller's inverse graphic construction. The construction of tables from the properties of the 'Two-nosed Catenary,' and their application to the immediate and direct numerical design of masonry arches in brick, sandstone, or granite, for dead and live loads.

Iron Arched Girders, Suspension Bridge, and Compound Structures.—Rankine's 'Sloping Beam,' its application to the approximate design of arched ribs of uniform stiffness. Simpler parts of Rankine's analysis and Levy's detailed graphical constructions for completely determining the direct thrusts and bending moments on arched ribs of any section, either hinged at crown or abutments or otherwise fixed and subjected to complete or partial loading. Fidler's treatment of great cantilever bridges.

Text-Books.—Rankine's Civil Engineering; Alexander and Thomson's Elementary Applied Mechanics.

One or more copies of the following books lie in the office for daily reference:—

Molesworth Pocket Book; Rankine's Applied Mechanics; Stoney on Strains, 1886; Fidler's Practical Bridge Construction, 1887; Du Bois, Strains on Framed Structures (American), 1883; Walmisley on Iron Roofs; Unwin's Testing of Materials of Construction, 1888; Levy's Statique Graphique, 1888. Tables and Numerical Examples from Alexander and Thomson's Paper on 'Two-nosed Catenaries' in the Transactions of the R.I.A., 1888. Matheson's Aid Book, 1889. Clark's Steam Engine, 1889.

Library of Trinity College.

THE Library is open from 10 o'clock, A. M., to 4 o'clock, P. M., in summer, and from 10 o'clock to 3 o'clock, P. M., in winter, i.e. from November 1 to February 1. The Reading-room is open till 6, P.M. (except as stated below), but the door leading to the Library is closed when the Library itself is closed. The only week-days on which the Library is closed are as follow: Christmas Day and the three days following; Good Friday; Easter Eve; Easter Monday[a]; Monday in Whitsun week[b]; the Queen's Birthday; and for a fortnight in July (see Almanac for dates), while for the rest of July and August the Reading-room closes at 4 p.m.

Permanent or life admission to the Library is only granted to Graduates of the Universities of Dublin, Oxford, or Cambridge[c]. The Librarian is empowered to issue tickets of admission to the Library for six months to all Students having their names on the College Books, who have passed the final Examination of the Senior Freshman Class. He is likewise empowered to issue similar tickets to Students in either of the Freshman Classes, upon special application, to be approved by the Provost and Senior Fellows. These tickets are renewable on the expiration of the term, if the Student applying shall continue to keep his name on the Books.

Strangers, not Students or Graduates, on being admitted by the Provost and Senior Fellows to the privilege of reading in the Library, receive from the Librarian tickets of admission for six months, these tickets being renewable on the expiration of that term, on application to the Librarian.

In the year 1601, the Spanish troops were defeated by the English at Kinsale, and her Majesty's army, to commemorate their victory, subscribed the sum of £1800, from the arrears of their pay, to establish in the University of Dublin a public Library. Dr. Challoner and Mr. James Ussher, afterwards the celebrated Archbishop, were selected by the benefactors as the trustees of their donation, and commissioned to purchase such books as they should judge most necessary and useful for the advancement of learning. "And it is somewhat remarkable" (says Dr. Parr) "that at this time [1603], when the said persons were at London about the laying out this money in books, they then met Sir Thomas Bodley there, buying books for his new erected Library at Oxford, so that there began a correspondence between them upon this occasion, helping each other to procure the choicest and best books on several subjects that could be gotten; so that the famous Bodleian Library at Oxford, and that of Dublin, began together."

[a] Order of the Board, December 14, 1878.
[b] Order of the Board, June 26, 1880.
[c] Decree of the Board and Visitors, February 21, 1856.

The private collection of Ussher himself, consisting of 10,000 volumes, with many MSS. of great value, was the first donation of moment which the Library received; and for this also literature is indebted to the officers and soldiers of the English army. In 1640, Ussher left Ireland, and the insurgents soon after destroyed all his personal property, with the exception of his books, which were fortunately secured, and soon after conveyed to Chester, and from thence to London[a]. In 1642, Ussher was nominated one of the Westminster Assembly of Divines, but refused to attend, and even preached against their proceedings at Oxford[b]. For this crime his library, or a portion of it, which he had left behind him at Chelsea College, was seized and confiscated by order of the House of Commons, as the property of a delinquent; but John Selden, his particular friend, by the interference of Dr. Featly, obtained permission to purchase them as if for his own use, though really for the purpose of restoring them to their original owner. On the Archbishop's death in 1655, although he had destined his books for Trinity College, the misfortunes of the times compelled him to leave them to his only daughter, Lady Tyrrell, then mother of a numerous family[c], and in narrow circumstances. Proposals were soon after made to her for the purchase of the library, by the King of Denmark and Cardinal Mazarin; but Cromwell issued an order prohibiting the Primate's family from selling it without his consent, and he refused to permit it to be brought out of the kingdom. Soon after, the officers and soldiers of the army then in Ireland, wishing to emulate those of Elizabeth, purchased the whole Library for the sum of £2,200 together with all the Archbishop's Manuscripts, and a choice though not numerous collection of ancient coins, with the design of presenting them to the College. But when the books were brought over to Ireland, Cromwell refused to permit the intentions of the donors to be carried into effect, alleging that it was his intention to found a new College or Hall, in which the collection might more conveniently be preserved separate from all other books. The library, therefore, was deposited in the Castle of Dublin, and being there kept with great negligence, an immense number of valuable books and MSS. were stolen or destroyed. At length, on the Restoration, his Majesty King Charles II. ordered that what remained of the Primate's library should be given to the University, according to the generous purpose of the original purchasers.

In 1674, Sir Jerome Alexander, one of the Justices of the Common Pleas in Ireland, left his collection of law books to the College, with £100 for fitting up a place for them; as also the valuable MSS. contained in Class G in the Manuscript Room.

In the year 1726, the Library received an addition of upwards of 4000 volumes, from the books bequeathed to it by Dr. William Palliser, Archbishop of Cashel, who had been a Fellow of the College, and also during his lifetime a munificent benefactor to it. The following extract from his will contains the conditions of this valuable bequest:—

[a] Parr, p. 47. [b] Ibid., p. 50. [c] Ibid., p. 102.

> "Item, I devise unto the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy Trinity near Dublin, and their successors, such of my books of all kinds as they now have not, or at the time of my death shall not be furnished with, to be sorted, and set out by the Rev. Doctor Claudius Gilbert, and my said son, William Palliser. Item, I devise unto the said Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, and successors, such editions of my books as they now have not, or at the time of my death shall not be furnished with, to be in like manner sorted and set out by the said Doctor Gilbert and my said son, William Palliser. Provided always, and my will is, that the editions and books hereby devised shall go by the name, and be always called Bibliotheca Palliseriana, and that the same shall be, and continue placed and kept next to the library devised to the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, by the late Lord Primate Ussher, now called Bibliotheca Usseriana. And my farther will and meaning is, that if the said Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, or their successors, shall at any time fail to call the editions and books hereby devised by the name of Bibliotheca Palliseriana, or shall at any time fail to keep them next to the said library, devised by the late Lord Primate Ussher, the disposition hereby made to the said Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, and their successors, shall, upon such failure, become void and of no effect."

Another most valuable addition to the Library was the collection of Dr. Claudius Gilbert, Vice-Provost and Regius Professor of Divinity, consisting of nearly 13,000 volumes. In the year 1735 he retired on the living of Ardstraw, and soon after presented his Library to the College, having spent his whole life in collecting books for that purpose.[a]

In 1741, Dr. John Stearne, Bishop of Clogher, and Vice-Chancellor of the University, bequeathed to the Library the valuable collection of MSS. preserved in Class F of the Manuscript Room, together with all such books from his private collection as were not already in the Library.

Besides these, the Manuscript Library is indebted to Dr. Miles Sumner, admitted a Fellow during the Commonwealth, and afterwards for many years Donegal Lecturer in Mathematics in the University; to Sir William Gore; Sir Henry Prescot; Dr. Henry Jones, Bishop of Meath and Vice-Chancellor of the University; Dr. John Parker, Archbishop of Dublin; William Barry, M. A.; John Lyon, M. A., and Librarian; Thomas Hey of Chester ("Cestensis Signifer"), A.D. 1646; Gordian Strowbridge; Murtogh Dowling, Esq., A. D. 1693; Charles Willoughby, M. D.; Cornelius

[a] The following passage appears in the "Annual Register" for 1759 :—

[b] Doctor Claudius Gilbert, formerly Vice-Provost of Trinity College, Dublin. This excellent person, besides other valuable donations, bequeathed to that College a collection of books, consisting of 13,000 volumes, chosen with great discernment and care. His bust was this day (Feb. 1, 1758) placed at the head of the books. It is the workmanship of Verproil, and for expression and elegance does great credit to the taste and skill of the Statuary.

Higden; and Edward Worth, M. D. Besides these, Peter Carewe, President of Munster in the reign of Elizabeth, gave to the Library a valuable collection of Irish Manuscripts.

In 1774, the sum of £100 was bequeathed to the Library by Thomas Holles, Esq., to be applied to the purchase of books written by English, Irish, or Scotchmen, upon Politics, Natural and Civil History, and Mathematics.

A very considerable addition was made to the Library in the year 1802, when the Fagel Library, consisting of upwards of 20,000 volumes, was purchased by the Board of Erasmus Smith for £10,000, and presented to the University. This valuable collection was made by M. Greffier Fagel, Pensionary of Holland, and in 1794, when the French invaded that country, was removed to England for sale, and there purchased for the College.

In the year 1805, a small but choice collection of books, including many Editiones Principes of the Classics, was bequeathed to the Library by Henry George Quin, Esq., under the conditions expressed in the following extract from his will, dated September 23, 1794:—

> "I give and bequeath my large mahogany book-case, together with such of my books and manuscripts as are specified in a catalogue bound in red morocco leather, written in my own hand, and marked with the letters L.T. C. D., which book-case, books, and manuscripts, together with the catalogue itself, and the hammer which was presented to me at Amsterdam by Signor Crevanna, I give and bequeath for ever to the Provost and Fellows of Trinity College, Dublin, in order that they may be placed in the Library of the College. And as most of the books hereby bequeathed are of considerable value, and on that account the more liable to be stolen if placed in a situation easy of access, it is my will and desire that they be deposited, not in the great public room of the Library, but in that part of it called the Manuscript Room. And it is my will that the book-case hereby bequeathed which is to contain them, may be placed exactly in the centre of the side of the room, opposite to the door of entrance, and I desire that the words Bibliotheca Quiniana, in capital letters, two inches in height, and gilt on a dark-coloured ground, be put on the top of the two central doors of the aforesaid book-case, one word on each door. And it is my will and desire, that the said book-case be generally kept locked, and that it be never opened, or the books handled by any person, but in presence of the librarian or his assistant, one of whom shall always keep the key thereof. And it is my desire that none of the books hereby bequeathed shall ever be taken out of the Manuscript Room. I desire likewise that none of them shall ever be rebound, or any new or additional covering or lettering of any kind be put upon them, but that they shall always remain precisely in the same state wherein they shall be found at the time of my decease. And I desire that a copy of the part of my will which relates to the disposal of my books be sent by my executors to the Provost and Senior Fellows, within one month after my decease, in order that my bequest may, in every particular, be fully carried into effect."

The Library is continually increased by copies of every book published in England. This privilege it enjoys by Act of Parliament[a], 54 Geo. III. cap. 156.

LENDING LIBRARY.

As the Royal Statutes by which the General Library is regulated forbid the removal of any book from its precincts, except for binding or other special cause,[a] the Provost and Senior Fellows, many years since, established a Lending Library, consisting of books on the general subjects of collegiate study, which it was desirable that Students should be able to read in their own chambers, but which might prove too costly for ordinary purchase. The Lending Library receives constant augmentations of books, either from special donations, or from the proceeds of a grant made from time to time, out of the College funds.

The Lending Library contains an extensive collection of mathematical, classical, and theological books, as well as works connected with civil engineering. Medical Students are privileged to borrow books from the Medical Library of the College of Physicians.

The Lending Library is usually open for the lending and receipt of books, on three days in each week from 1.30 to 2.30 o'clock, P.M., during Term. A large room in the Museum Building is fitted up to receive the books of the Lending Library. Students can be furnished with Catalogues on application to the Clerk in charge of the Library.

Astronomical Observatory of Trinity College.

THE Observatory is at Dunsink, five miles from the College. It is the official residence of the Royal Astronomer for Ireland. The principal instruments are a Meridian Circle by Pistor and Martins; a Chronograph by Grubb; a 12-inch refractor by Canchoix, presented by Sir James South, and a 15-inch silvered glass reflector by With, presented by Isaac Roberts, Esq., both of which are mounted equatorially. The Observatory is open on the first Saturday of each month from 7 to 9 p.m. during the winter half of the year, from October to March inclusive, and from 8 to 11 p.m., during the other months. Special arrangements are made in Hilary Term to enable Students to see the instruments, and have their use explained, and in Michaelmas Term Weekly Demonstrations are held to which Students are invited.

Museums of Trinity College.

THE principal Museums which are used for the purposes of practical instruction in Trinity College are the following:—

1. Museum of Natural Philosophy.
2. Museum of Anatomy and Zoology.
3. Museum of Anthropology.
4. Museum of Geology and Mineralogy.
5. Museum of Engineering Models.
6. Museum of Surgical and Medical Pathology.
7. Museum of Botany.
8. Museum of Materia Medica.

I.—MUSEUM OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.

Curator.—GEORGE FRANCIS FITZGERALD, M. A., Professor of Experimental Philosophy.

This Museum was founded about the year 1730, when Dr. Richard Helsham was Professor of Natural Philosophy. It contains a collection of various Philosophical Instruments, chiefly in connexion with the sciences of Optics and Practical Mechanics, Theory of Heat, Electricity, and Magnetism. Steps have lately been taken by the Board of Trinity College to place this Museum in a condition more suited to the purposes of modern scientific research, as well as more adapted to illustrate the Lectures given in Natural and Experimental Philosophy.

I.—MUSEUM OF ANATOMY AND ZOOLOGY.

Curators—HENRY W. MACKINTOSH, M. A., Professor of Zoology and of Comparative Anatomy;
DANIEL JOHN CUNNINGHAM, M.D., Professor of Anatomy and Chirurgery.

The Anatomical Museum, formerly combined with that of Pathology, has been removed, and placed in the Anatomical Museum Building in the College Park. The Zoological Collection has also been transferred to the same place.

The Zoological Museum was founded in 1777, and contains a large series of typical specimens. The Mammals and Birds are arranged on the ground floor, in the pier-cases between the windows, and in the centre floor-cases. The Reptiles, Amphibians, and Fishes are in the gallery. The Invertebrates are arranged in the table cases, with the exception of the Insects, which are in cabinets in the Curator's room. The centre of the hall is occupied by the skeletons and stuffed skins of large Mammals and Birds. The Galleries contain the Anatomical collection.

There is a Zoological Laboratory and Reading-room in connexion with the Zoological Department, to which Students are admitted during Terms on payment of a Fee of Five Shillings per Term. The Laboratory is provided with Microscopes and Appliances, and Students are supplied with specimens. The Reading-room contains preparations illustrating the principal animal types, and a small number of standard text-books.

The Museum is open to Students daily from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M.

III.—ANTHROPOMETRIC MUSEUM AND LABORATORY.

Curator—CHARLES R. BROWNE, M.D.

A portion of the Zoological Museum has been fitted up for an anthropometric Laboratory. It is open on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays during the Medical year, from 2 P.M. to 4 P.M., free of charge.

IV.—MUSEUM OF GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.

Curator.—JOHN JOLY, SC.D., Professor of Geology and Mineralogy.

This Museum is intended principally for the use of Students in Engineering. It contains typical collections of Minerals and Fossils, arranged for the use of Students, and also some rare specimens of Fossil Reptiles and Deer.

V.—MUSEUM OF ENGINEERING MODELS.

Curator.—THOMAS ALEXANDER, M.A.I., Professor of Engineering.

This Museum was founded in 1846. It contains a variety of Engineering Models, amongst which will be found a series of models illustrating the progress of invention in the Steam Engine; a model of a Locomotive Engine (scale one-fourth); a model of a Cornish Pumping Engine (scale one-twelfth); a large collection of timber bridges; a model of the lifting apparatus of the Conway Tube; a model of the Boyne Viaduct, and other lattice structures. It contains likewise a complete collection of the weights and measures of the Metric System.

VI.—MUSEUM OF SURGICAL AND MEDICAL PATHOLOGY.

Director—EDWARD H. BENNETT, M.D., Professor of Surgery.

This Museum is intended for the use of the Students in Medicine, and to illustrate the Professors' Lectures. It has been lately rearranged, and removed to a more spacious building, where it will be more useful to Students, to whom it is open daily from 11 A.M. to 4 P.M.

VII.—HERBARIUM AND BOTANICAL LABORATORY AND BOTANIC GARDENS.

Keeper of Museum.—E. PERCEVAL WRIGHT, M.D., Professor of Botany.

Assistant to Professor.—HENRY H. DIXON, SCH., B.A.

The Herbarium is open for reference during Term, from 11 till 3; and at other times on special application to the Professor.

It contains—

1. A Herbarium, containing the Plants indigenous to Great Britain and Ireland.

2. A General Herbarium, open to receive the Plants of all countries. This latter is particularly rich in the Plants of North America (including Mexico and California), British India, South Africa, and Australia; and less so in those of South America, North Asia, and parts of Europe.

Donations of specimens from all countries are solicited from Students of the University.

Attached to the Herbarium is a Botanical Laboratory, furnished with the necessary means for research. Students reading for the Moderatorship in Natural Science, or for Honors in Botany, have the preference in entering their names for practical work. A fee of 10*s*. is payable each Term to cover cost of reagents, &c. During the lecture periods of each Term the Assistant to the Professor of Botany attends and gives demonstrations as needed. Fresh material is received, as required, from the Botanical Gardens. Prizes to the extent of £5 are given by the Professor for competition among the members of the Senior Sophister class.

The Board allows an annual sum for the support of the Herbarium.

VIII.—MUSEUM OF MATERIA MEDICA.

Curator—Walter G. Smith, M. D., King's Professor of Materia Medica and Pharmacy.

A Course of Demonstrations on Practical Pharmacy will be given in the Museum of Materia Medica. Each Student will be provided with apparatus and tests.

The Museum is open to Students from 11 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Botanic Gardens.

Curator of Gardens.—F. W. Burbidge, M.A.

The Gardens are situated about one mile from the College, near Ball's Bridge, and now contain about eight acres of ground.

Since their inception in 1806, the Gardens have been added to in 1832 and in 1848.

The inner, or original Garden, contains a well arranged collection of the principal Natural Orders of hardy plants for teaching purposes, and there are also heated plant-houses in which choice and tender exotics are grown.

A small pond is utilised for the growth of aquatic and marsh plants, and there are borders of rock edging of considerable extent, on which herbaceous, alpine, and bulbous plants are grown.

The Gardens are open to Students on week-days—in summer, from 6 A. M. to 6 P. M.; and in winter, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. Strangers to Dublin are also admitted on presenting their cards; and all other visitors, by orders from the Provost, any of the Fellows, or the Professor of Botany.

Buildings of Trinity College.[a]

Of the buildings of the original College of Queen Elizabeth no portion now remains.

A grant was made by the Corporation of Dublin, July 20, 1592, in which the bounds of Trinity College are recited as follows (Thomas Smith, Mayor, George Kennedy and John Myles, Sheriffs):

> " Sicut se extendunt in longitudinem a campo vocato Anglice Hoggin Greene ex parte occidentali usque ad terram nuper Monasterii Beatæ Mariæ Virginis juxta Dublin nunc in tennure Johannis Dongan generosi; ex parte orientali et sicut jacet in latitudine a venella quæ ducit ad fontem St. Patricii ex parte australi usque ad terram prædictam nuper Monasterii Beatæ Mariæ Virginis et flumen Anliffey ex boreali parte."

In 1695-6 there were 144 hearths in Trinity College.

LIBRARY.

The foundation of the Library was laid May 12, 1712, the Provost and Fellows having obtained a grant of £5000 from Queen Anne, on the address of the Irish House of Commons, for the purpose of building a Library. The building itself was finished in 1724, but some years elapsed before it was prepared for the reception of books. The total cost was about £17,000, of which £15,000 in all was provided by the Parliament. The architect was Thomas Burgh.

The Long Room is 209 feet in length and 40 feet in breadth, 8 feet 4 inches being occupied on either side by the Stalls.

In 1743 Dr. Gilbert bequeathed a sum of £500 to purchase busts for the Long Room. Among the busts first placed in the Library, which were executed by Roubillac, is one of Dean Swift, which was presented to the College, in 1745, by the Senior Sophister Class. The busts of Lord Plunket and Mac Cullagh are by Christopher Moore; that of Sir William Hamilton by the late J. H. Foley; that of Provost Humphrey Lloyd is by A. Bruce Joy.

In 1890 it was decided to enlarge the Library by enclosing the colonnades.

PRINTING HOUSE.

The Printing House was built between 1758 and 1761, by Dr. Stearne, Bishop of Clogher and Vice-Chancellor of the University.

---

[a] For most of the statements contained under this head, the Editor is indebted to the kindness of Dr. Stubbs.

DINING HALL.

The Dining Hall was erected between 1740 and 1745. It contains a number of portraits, chiefly of Chancellors of the University.

The portrait of Frederick Prince of Wales, over the entrance, was painted by Hudson, master of Sir Joshua Reynolds, and was presented to Trinity College by George III. Its frame was carved by G. Gibbons, and was originally in Windsor Castle.

FRONT OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

The West Front of Trinity College was erected in 1759, the architect being Sir William Chambers, who constructed Somerset House in London. The College received £40,000 from George II. upon the address of the Irish House of Commons, for the purpose of building this Front and the adjoining Parliament Square.

The statues of Goldsmith and of Burke, standing in front of the College, executed by J. H. Foley, were erected by public subscription in 1864 and 1868.

PROVOST'S HOUSE.

The Provost's House was erected in 1760, at a cost of £13,000, by Provost Andrews. It is a fac-simile of a house designed by the Earl of Burlington, and erected for General Wade, in Piccadilly, London.

The Provost's House contains original portraits of Queen Elizabeth and Archbishop Ussher, painted by Zuccheri, and a fine portrait of the Duke of Bedford, by Gainsborough.

PUBLIC THEATRE.

The Public Theatre, usually called the Examination Hall, was opened in 1787. It contains a Monument to Provost Baldwin, who died in 1758), and a number of portraits. Those of Queen Elizabeth and Archbishop Ussher are copies of the original portraits in the Provost's House. That of Bishop Berkeley is copied from a picture in Lambeth Palace. The portrait of Edmund Burke was painted by Hopner.

In the gallery is the case belonging to the organ of the old chapel. This organ was built in Holland for a church in Spain, but was taken from the Spaniards in Vigo Bay, 1762, and repaired and enlarged in 1765. It was presented to the College by the Second Duke of Ormonde.

CHAPEL OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

The present Chapel is the third which has existed in Trinity College. It was opened in 1798, and cost £22,000. It contains three painted glass windows:—

One, representing the Recapitulation of the Law by Moses and the Restoration of the Jews, was erected in memory of Richard Graves, D.D., author of "Lectures on the Pentateuch," by his son and other relatives, in 1865.

The corresponding window on the other side of the Communion Table was erected in 1867, in memory of Bishop Berkeley by the Right Honourable Robert Richard Warren, Judge of the Court of Probate.

The central window, directly over the Communion Table, was painted in Munich, and was erected in memory of Archbishop Ussher, by Dr. Butcher, late Bishop of Meath, in 1867.

The Chapel which preceded the present was consecrated in 1686. Its dimensions were the same as those of the present structure.

CAMPANILE.

The Campanile was erected in 1853, by Lord John George Beresford, Archbishop of Armagh and Chancellor of the University. The Bell which was cast at Gloucester in 1744, weighs 36 cwt. 12 lbs.; and its clapper 2 cwt. 13 lbs.

MUSEUM BUILDING.

This Building was erected by the Provost and Senior Fellows in 1857.

It contains the Museums of Natural Philosophy, Geology, and Mineralogy, and of Engineering Models, the Drawing Room of the Engineering School, the Room of the Lending Library, a Physical Lecture Room and Laboratory, the Lecture Room of the Schools of Divinity and Law, and a number of other Lecture Rooms. It contains also a Clock in electric connexion with the Observatory clock at Dunsink.

NEW ZOOLOGICAL MUSEUM.

This Museum was erected in 1876 by the Provost and Senior Fellows.

HISTOLOGICAL LABORATORY.

This building was completed in 1878.

MEDICAL SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

The present Medical School Buildings were completed in 1887. They contain four Lecture Theatres, the Professors' Private Rooms, and the following departments:—

I. Anatomy, including a large Dissecting Room with electric light; a Bone Room, in which are Sections of the Frozen Body, and various Preparations and Models illustrating Development and the Topography of the Brain.

II. Chemistry, including four general Laboratories, as well as special Laboratories for Quantitative and Gas Analysis; a Balance Room, and a Chemical Museum, in which are a number of the rarer Chemical substances.

III. Surgery, including a spacious Pathological Museum.

IV. Materia Medica, including a Museum and Laboratory.

The entire Buildings are heated throughout by hot water, and the seats in each Theatre are numbered consecutively, a seat being assigned to each Student on entering for each Course of Lectures.

There are also in the Buildings, the Office of the Registrar of the School, and two rooms, one of which is used for the Tutorial Classes, and the other as a Luncheon Room for the Students.

SQUARES.

The Front Square, also known as Parliament Square, was erected along with the West Front.

The Library Square contains the oldest buildings in College, some of which were standing in the latter part of the seventeenth century.

The greater part of Botany Bay Square was built about the year 1816.

The New Square was begun in 1838, and finished in 1844.

GRADUATES' MEMORIAL.

In 1899 the north wing of the Library Square was demolished. The new building which is being erected in its place will show a free treatment in modern classic of the Anne and Georgian periods. The material will be granite and Portland stone.

The Graduates' Memorial will occupy the centre, and will show a roof of some seventy feet in elevation, surmounted by a pedimented gable. The entrance will be by a low flight of steps on the right hand side. The ground floor will contain a common room or library, and behind a capacious theatre. A flight of steps leads to a committee room, with cloak room underneath. On the first floor will be located a reading room, with a second committee room on the same level. The second floor will contain two large apartments allocated for the use of the College Societies. On the attic floor will be constructed two large rooms to serve as recreation rooms. The entrances to the students' chambers in the new wing will be at the east and west ends. Provision will be made for forty sets of rooms. The frontage will extend two hundred feet, with a general height of forty feet, and a depth of sixty-five feet. It is expected that the building will be completed before the commencement of Michaelmas Term 1900.

Graduates in Honors at the B. A. Degree Examination.

MEDALS GIVEN AT COMMENCEMENTS.

BY a Decree of the Board, dated 30th November, 1793, it was resolved, That a Gold Medal be given to every Student who shall have answered every Examination from his entrance to the taking of his Bachelor's Degree, and at each Examination shall have got judgments not inferior to one Bene with Valde Bene[a].

In April, 1815, this mode of giving Medals was abolished, and Gold Medals given, one to the best answerer in Science, and another to the best answerer in Classics, at an Examination held in distinct Courses prescribed for that purpose.

The regulations which passed the Board in June, 1833, substituted for the Classical and Science Medals, Moderatorships, with Gold and Silver Medals, in Mathematics and Physics; in Classics; in Logics, Ethics, and Political Economy. In 1850, Moderatorships in Experimental Physics were instituted; and in 1856, Moderatorships in History, Political Science, and English Literature.

In 1857, the title of the Moderatorship in Experimental Physics was altered into "Moderatorship in Experimental and Natural Science."

In 1871, two Moderatorships, one in Experimental Science, the other in Natural Science, were substituted for the single Moderatorship in Experimental and Natural Science.

In 1873, Moderatorships in Modern Literature were instituted, and the Moderatorship in History, Political Science, and English Literature, was changed into a Moderatorship in History and Political Science.

The following list contains the names of all Students who have obtained Medals at Commencements, under the Regulations formerly established in the University. Those whose names are marked thus [*] have since been Fellows:—

MODERATORS AND RESPONDENTS AT THE B.A. DEGREE EXAMINATION.

At the B.A. Degree Examination the First Class consists of three Grades, viz., Senior Moderators, Junior Moderators, and Respondents.

The Rules respecting the Examination for Moderatorships were passed by the Board in the year 1834, and have since been modified from time to time, as occasion required. The Respondents were added to the First Class in the year 1846.

Any Student who is qualified by having kept the requisite number of Terms may offer himself as a Candidate at the Examination for Moderatorships, without appearing at the general Degree Examination.

Moderatorships may be obtained in each of the following departments, viz.: I. Mathematics and Mathematical Physics; II. Classics; III. Ethics and Logics; IV. Experimental Science; V. Natural Science; VI. History and Political Science; VII. Modern Literature; the rank of each department being in the order in which they are here enumerated.

The Moderators in each department are placed in the order of relative merit[a]; and all who obtain the rank of Moderator or Respondent are placed at the head of their class, and presented to the Vice-Chancellor by the Senior Lecturer, at the Commencements, in the order of their places, and of their respective departments.

The Senior Moderators in each department receive Gold Medals, and the Junior Moderators Silver Medals. A large Gold Medal is given to the first Senior Moderator in each department, if he be specially recommended by the Examiners.

Prizes are also awarded to the Moderators in order of merit.

Medallists at the Degree Examination who have dropped a Class or Classes are termed Supplemental Medallists.

The Respondents are entitled to receive Honorary Testimoniums, which are publicly presented to them by the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor at the Commencements, when they are admitted to their Degrees.

---

[a] The Junior Moderators, since the year 1846, are placed in order of merit: previous to this date they are placed in their order on the College books.

According to the Charter of Queen Elizabeth, the right of electing the Chancellor was vested in the Provost and Fellows of Trinity College. This right was continued to the Provost and Senior Fellows by the Charter of Charles I.; but the Royal Statute of 1857 provides that in future the Chancellor shall be elected by the Senate of the University from a list of three persons nominated by the Provost and Senior Fellows, within one month after a vacancy shall have occurred. If the Senate decline or omit to elect, the nomination, for that time only, devolves on the Crown. The Chancellor must make the Declaration of office generally in the presence of two of the Senior Fellows deputed for that purpose, before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, or before the Lord Chancellor of Ireland. The first Chancellor was nominated in the Charter of Queen Elizabeth.[a]

Chancellors since the Foundation.

Elected.

1592. Sir William Cecil, Baron Burghley, Lord High Treasurer of England. Born Sept. 13, 1520. Educated at Cambridge, and of Gray's Inn. Secretary of State in the reigns of Edward VI. and Elizabeth. Created Baron Burghley, 1571; Lord High Treasurer, 1572. Died Aug. 4, 1598, leaving two sons, Thomas, second Baron, ancestor of the present Marquis of Exeter, and Robert, created Earl of Salisbury, ancestor of the Marquis of Salisbury.[b]

1598. Robert Devereux, Earl of Essex, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Educated at Cambridge, where he commenced M.A. in 1583. On the death of Lord Burghley, who had been his guardian and great patron in life, he was elected Chancellor of the Universities of Cambridge and Dublin. His patent, as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, was dated Westminster, March 12, $159\frac{8}{9}$[c]. He arrived in Ireland and was sworn Lord Lieutenant, April 15 of the same year. His career in Ireland, and subsequent loss of the Queen's favour, are well known. He was beheaded at the Tower of London, on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 25, $160\frac{0}{1}$[d].

Elected.

1601. Sir Robert Cecil, Secretary of State, afterwards Earl of Salisbury. Second son of William, Lord Burghley, above mentioned. He was made Secretary of State in 1596; Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, 1597; Master of the Court of Wards, and principal Minister of State on the death of his father, 1598; Lord High Treasurer, 1608. Died May 24, 1612.

1613. George Abbot, D.D., Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. Educated at Oxford, where he was Master of University College, 1597; Dean of Winchester, 1599; Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, 1609; translated to London, 1610, and to Canterbury, 1611; elected Chancellor, Aug. 27, 1612. He was one of the translators of the present Authorized Version of the Bible. Died at Croydon, Aug. 5, 1633.

1633. William Laud, D.D., Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. Educated at St. John's College, Oxford, of which he was elected a Fellow in 1593, and President, 1611; Archdeacon of Huntingdon, 1615; Dean of Gloucester, 1616; Prebendary of Westminster, 1620; Bishop of St. David's, 1621; translated to Bath and Wells, 1626; London, 1628; Canterbury, 1633. Elected Chancellor Sept. 14, 1633. The Code of Statutes of Charles I., at present (for the most part) in force in the University, was drawn up, under the King's order, by his direction, and each page of the parchment volume is signed by him[a]. He was beheaded by order of the Long Parliament, Jan. 10, 164⅘, in the 72nd year of his age[b].

1645. James Butler, Marquis (and afterwards Duke) of Ormonde, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Born in 1610. Succeeded his grandfather as Earl of Ormonde in 1619; created Marquess, 1642: Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, 1643. In 1647 he was compelled to surrender the garrisons of Ireland to the Parliamentary Commissioners, and retired to England, and afterwards to France. He returned to Ireland in 1648; but failing to restore the King's authority, he again retired to Paris. In 1660 he was created Baron Butler of Lanthony, county of Monmouth, and Earl of Brecknock, in the Peerage of England; and in 1661 Duke of Ormonde in Ireland. Re-appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and restored[c] to his office of Chancellor of the University, to which in 1653 Henry Cromwell, Commander-in-chief of the Parliametary Forces, had been appointed by the usurping Provost and Fellows. Resigned the office of Lord Lieutenant in 1684, when he was created Duke of Ormonde in the Peerage of England. Died July 21, 1688[a].

1688. James, second Duke of Ormonde, grandson of the former, son of Thomas, Earl of Ossory, who died in 1680. Born April 29, 1665, and educated at Christ Church, Oxford. Elected Chancellor of the Universities of Oxford and Dublin in the same year, 1688, in the room of his grandfather. He was present with King William III. at the battle of the Boyne; and in 1702 was appointed by Queen Anne Commander-in-Chief of her land forces; Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Feb. 19, $170\frac{2}{3}$; and again in 1710. He was re-appointed Commander-in-Chief towards the close of Queen Anne's reign, and took the command of the army in Flanders. There, in obedience to the command of the Queen, he remained in a state of inactivity, notwithstanding the remonstrances of Prince Eugene and the allies. For this, on the accession of George I., he was impeached by the Commons of high treason. Perceiving, from the height to which party spirit was now carried, that he had no chance of an impartial trial, he abandoned his defence and withdrew from the kingdom. An Act for his attainder passed both Houses in 1775; and another Act, in 1721, enabled his brother, the Earl of Arran, to purchase his estates. The close of his life was spent in retirement at Avignon, in France, where he died, Nov. 16, 1745, leaving no issue.

1715. His Royal Highness, George, Prince of Wales, afterwards King George II. Born Nov. 10, 1683. In 1708 he made a campaign as a volunteer in the Netherlands under John, Duke of Marlborough, and had his horse killed under him at the battle of Oudenard. On the accession of George I. in 1714, he was created Prince of Wales. Elected Chancellor of the University Feb. 27, 1715[b]. On the death of his father he was proclaimed

Vice-Chancellors of the University.

In the Charter of Queen Elizabeth the right of electing the Vice-Chancellor was vested in the Provost and Fellows; but it was usual that the person so chosen should be "confirmed and approved" by the University Senate. In the Charter of Charles I. this regulation was altered: and the Vice-Chancellor is now nominated by the Chancellor of the University. On the death or resignation of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor is empowered by the Royal Statute of 1857 to convene the Senate of the University for the election of his successor. The Vice-Chancellor makes a delaration before the Chancellor of the University, or before the Lord Chancellor of Ireland. He may appoint a Pro-Vice-Chancellor to exercise his power, in case of illness or absence.

N.B.—The names of the Scholars elected in any one year (before 1855) are not placed in the order of their answering at the Examination, but in the order of their standing on the College Books (Stat. cap. 7). This rule was altered by the Statute of 18 Victoria. The names are now arranged in order of merit.

ELECTORS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN,
1900.

UNIVERSITY ELECTORS.

Extract from 5 and 6, Cap. 74, Sect. 6, re-enacted in 31 and 32 Victoria, Cap. 112, Sect. 34.

And be it enacted, That in the Month of December in every Year after the passing of this Act the Registrar of the said College shall make out an alphabetical List of the Names of the Electors entitled to vote at any such Election; and the said Registrar shall cause Copies of such List to be printed in the Month of January in each Year, and shall give a Copy of such List to any Elector applying for the same, upon being paid Two Shillings and Sixpence for each copy; and the said Registrar shall each Year publish a Copy of such List in the University Calendar, when such Calendar shall be published, or in some One or more of the Public Journals having general Circulation in Ireland.

ELECTORS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN,

1900.

The following List contains the names of the Electors of the University of Dublin. Members of the Senate, and Electors on the books of Trinity College, are distinguished by †.

By the 31 and 32 Vict. c. 112, s. 33, Electors should be registered two months before claiming to vote.

Those Electors whose names are printed in italics are not known at the residences given.

The Registrar of Electors will feel obliged for any corrections as to names, Degrees, residences, or deaths.
